

BOROUGH OFFICERS.

Burgess—ELI HOLEMAN. Councilmen—North ward, H. M. Foreman, J. R. Clark, W. L. Klinefelter. South ward, J. H. Pones, W. A. Eagles, Chas. Bonner.

FOREST COUNTY OFFICERS.

Member of Congress—ALEXANDER C. WHITE. Member of Senate—J. G. HALL. Assembly—PETER BERRY. President Judge—W. D. BROWN. Associate Judges—C. A. HILL, LEWIS ARNOLD.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

TIONESTA LODGE No. 369, I. O. of O. F. Meets every Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Lodge Room in Partridge's Hall.

FOREST LODGE, No. 184, A. O. U. W. Meets every Friday Evening in Odd Fellows' Hall, Tionesta, Pa.

CAPT. GEORGE STOW POST, No. 274, G. A. R. Meets on the first Wednesday in each month, in Odd Fellows' Hall, Tionesta, Pa.

AGNEW & CLARK, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Elm St., Tionesta, Penna.

T. J. VAN GIESEN, ATTORNEY AT-LAW, And District Attorney of Forest County, Office in Court House, Tionesta, Pa.

E. L. DAVIS, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Tionesta, Pa. Collections made in this and adjoining counties.

MILES W. TATE, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Elm Street, Tionesta, Pa.

T. F. RITCHEY, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Tionesta, Forest County Pa.

LAWRENCE HOUSE, Tionesta, Pa., T. C. Jackson, Proprietor. This house is centrally located. Everything new and well furnished.

CENTRAL HOUSE, Tionesta, Pa., O. C. Brownell, Proprietor. This is a new house, and has just been fitted up for the accommodation of the public.

EAST HICKORY HOTEL, EAST HICKORY, Pa., J. W. Ball, Proprietor. This house is new and has been furnished with new furniture throughout.

CENTRAL HOUSE, OIL CITY, PA., W. H. ROTH, Proprietor. The largest, Best Located and Furnished House in the City. Near Union Depot.

J. W. MORROW, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. Late of Armstrong county, having located in Tionesta is prepared to attend all professional calls promptly and at all hours.

W. C. COBURN, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. Has had over fifteen years experience in the practice of his profession, having graduated legally and honorably May 10, 1865.

DENTISTRY. DR. J. W. MORROW. Having purchased the materials, etc., of Dr. Steadman, would respectfully announce that he will carry on the Dental business in Tionesta, and having had over six years successful experience, considers himself fully competent to give entire satisfaction.

MAY, PARK & CO., BANKERS! Corner of Elm & Walnut Sts. Tionesta. Bank of Discount and Deposit. Interest allowed on Time Deposits.

Lorenzo Fulton, Manufacturer of and Dealer in HARNESS, COLLARS, BRIDLES, And all kinds of HORSE FURNISHING GOODS.

Subscription for the Republican, only $1.50 per annum.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with columns for NORTH and SOUTH, listing train numbers and times.

—Preaching in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning and evening, by Rev. Hickling.

—Preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening by F. M. Small.

—Messrs. C. F. Fox and D. P. Miller of Howe were on our streets yesterday.

—Miss S. F. Browne, of Steubenville, O., is in town, the guest of Mrs. Samuel Clark.

—Carl Coburn is fitting up the old barber shop next our office for a peanut and candy stand.

—Mr. Craig has beautified his north ward premises by enclosing the lot in a neat paling fence.

—Forest Proper and Miss Effie Walters are home on a vacation from their school at Fredonia.

—Messrs. Charles M. Cox and Wm. C. Morey of Boston, spent a few days of the past week in town.

—D. W. Clark's foundation wall is completed and the woodworkers will commence operations forthwith.

—Mrs. Adam Emert of Dutch Hill suffered a severe attack of heart trouble last Sabbath, but is now much better.

—Harvey Foreman hasn't been at all close with his cigars since the arrival of that boy at his house last Sabbath evening.

—Miss Mary Armstrong, for the past two years a resident of this place, has returned to her home in Hendersonville, Mercer county.

—The annual encampment of the N. G. P. will take place at Conneaut Lake again this year, commencing July 24th and continuing one week.

—Commissioner Hood has done some excellent work on Vine Street, and is now turning his attention to the new street leading to the river bridge.

—A veranda is being built on the Lawrence House front which will greatly enhance the appearance and comfort of the place.

—Supt. Hillard attended the meeting of the State Teachers' Association at Harrisburg last week.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Mead of Youngsville, Vorice Clark of Curwensville, Pa., and Martin Clark of Wichita, Kan., paid a short visit to their brother, S. H. Clark, during the holidays.

—Mr. T. J. Payne, formerly of Tytersburg, expects to make Tionesta his future home after the first of September.

—Messrs. Alex Dale and Charles Tietworth, of Dallas, McKean county, spent the Fourth in town.

—Several wagon loads of Tionesta people took advantage of the pleasant weather last Sabbath to attend religious exercises at Nebraska, where some new converts to the M. E. Church were immersed.

—Mr. J. R. Chadwick has secured the agency for Gen. Grant's book, and will shortly make a tour of this territory.

—The trial of Rev. J. M. Dewoody of Franklin for improper conduct, before the M. E. Quarterly Conference of this circuit ended on July 4.

—Last week we received several communications, but as our paper was not issued they were obliged to lay over and have therefore become "old news."

—The trial of Mrs. Nettie, wife of A. Horn of Russell's Mills, died on the 27th ult., of typhoid fever.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

Nebraska Nuggets.

Nebraska has settled down to business again since the 4th. Every one seems to have enjoyed themselves in their own peculiar way.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

Don't Forget

The bargains we are giving in Lisle Hose, Parasols, Suspenders, &c. See our complete stock of Shoes.

—J. T. Brennan has now for sale 136 acres of warrant 5213 and 5214, Kingsley Twp., probably on the new oil belt.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—The town having purchased of Mr. Williams three chemical fire extinguishers—one large one on wheels, and two of the smaller ones—the town council appointed Geo. W. Sawyer chief engineer.

—Our farmers are getting into the midst of the harvesting season as fast as possible. The hay crop, which it was thought would be large, will only be fair, while many of the wheat fields are nearly ruined by worms.

—The friends of Mr. M. Ittel and family of Aiken, McKean county, hereabouts will be sorry to learn that he met with a severe loss in the burning of his dwelling house with nearly all its contents a few days before the Fourth.

—The band instruments have arrived and soon, no doubt, our people will be treated with some soul-stirring music from Tionesta's brass band.

—W. E. Spencer sustained the loss of part of his right foot one day last week. He was at work on the Newmaker mill, on Holeman Flats, and while assisting in getting logs down a "chute" one fell a distance of 20 feet, the end striking him on the foot and crushing it terribly.

—The following particulars of the shooting on the 2d inst., of Wash. Dunkle, well known to many of our readers, we get from the Clarion Democrat of last week.