—Mr. Zentz, of Hunter, has canned already 96 quarts of Juneberries.

—The band boys are casting about for a good tutor. N. B.—No pun intended.

—The Starr school thinks of giving an exhibition at the close of the present term.

—Rev. W. O. Allen, formerly of this place, has lately removed to Shepandoah, Iowa.

—Frank Hunter had his left hand quite severely mangled while unloading stone from a wagon last week.

—Mrs. Landers is having her residence at the lower end of town finished, adding much to its beauty and comfort.

—Mr. Joseph Ramaley, a former clerk in Robinson & Bonner's store paid Mr. R.'s family a visit during the week.

—A boy arrival at Billy Klinefelter's yesterday morning is "making Rome howl," while Billy is setting up the cigars.

—An uptown philosopher remarks that it is just as well to keep what you don't know to yourself as well as what you do know.

—Carl Coburn has his candy and cigar stand fixed up quite tastily. He sells a nice summer drink which you should try when thirsty.

—What's the use of wearing yourself out with the old fashioned scythe when you can get a braan new mowing machine for $50. Call on Chas. Raisig.

—The Erie Conference of the M. E. Church will meet in Sharon this week, commencing on the 10th of September and continuing about five days.

—Our old friend, Jas. W. Ward of Jenks township, was in town last Friday and Saturday and made us a pleasant call. He reports business flourishing in his township.

—The Teachers' State Association while in session at Harrisburg week before last passed a resolution condemning the using of tobacco by teachers. "The world do move."

—Mrs. Young of Neiltown, a widow of 69, and Mr. John McCaslin of Titusville, a widower of 72, were married in the early part of the Summer, and now reside at Neiltown. The god of the silver arrow spares not old age even.

—Mrs. J. F. Watts and family, of Jamaica, L. I., are the guests of Mr. John A. Dawson and family, Stewart Run, Pa. Mr. Dawson's eldest son, George, who has been attending school at Jamaica for some months past is home on vacation.

—Curt Shawkey had a letter from his parents in Kansas informing him that since the 12th inst., he had another sister. We are pleased to learn that our ex-Prothonotary is prospering in his new home; "growing up with the country," as it were.

—Mr. J. T. Brennan issues a circular to his many coal customers reminding them that now is the best time to lay in their stock for the winter. Mr. B. handles the best coal in the market and delivers it in your coal bin at the very lowest figure.

—Deputy Secretary of Internal Affairs J. W. Greenland has our thanks for a very handsome copy of the annual report of the Internal Department. It is embellished with many fine photographic illustrations, and altogether is a welcome book.

—Lovers of the beautiful in nature who have the time and the means would be well repaid for it by taking a drive over the plank road between Nebraska and Lacy's. The thickets of laurel (the species known as "big laurel") covering the hillsides and filling the valley along both sides of the road are one mass of beautiful flower clusters.

—The new bonny bill passed by the last legislature, sets the following prices: wild cat $2; fox $1; mink, weasel and hawk each 50 cents; owl, except the Arcadian screech or barn owl, 50 cents. We will publish the full text of the bill next week.

—The "Personal Memoirs of U. S. Grant," of which Mr. Chadwick has the agency, is the only genuine work on the market. There are many other books purporting to be genuine, but are only gotten up to deceive. If you want to be right give your order to Mr. Chadwick.

—The small boy who has nothing to do but his him away to some secluded shady spot down by the river, and there sport himself amidst the lily pads, &c., with no superfluous covering to mar the full enjoyment of his disporting, is the envy of his bigger brethren these days.

—Peterson's Magazine for August is on hand with its usual promptness and freighted with its customary elegance. No lady can well afford to be without it when its nominal price is considered, only $2.00 a year. Subscribe for it now. Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.

—H. H. Shoemaker has put on his war paint and hid him to the scenes of conflict on the banks of Conneaut Lake, where the N. G. P., of which he is one, will be encamped during the week. We hope Henry will return to his family and friends sound in limb and body, from the campaign.

—Rev. J. F. Wiant of Monroe, Clarion county, held services for the Reformed congregation on Dutch Hill last Sabbath morning. In the evening he occupied Rev. Hickling's pulpit in the Presbyterian church here, the latter gentleman being somewhat exhausted on account of an attack of illness.

—The hay crop is about all harvested, the past week having been a most favorable one for that business; the yield is just average, and with an average winter will about supply the demand, commanding a decent figure for those who want to sell. The next strike will be for the wheat harvest, which is by no means good in this section.

—Marienville Lodge, I. O. O. F., will dedicate their new hall on Friday evening next. Quite a number of the brethren from this and surrounding towns will be present and participate in the exercises, which promise to be very interesting. T. F. Ritchey Esq., is down for the dedication address. We have been promised a full report of all that goes on.

—Thos. J. Hollis, one of Chief Crowley's old officers dropped dead yesterday afternoon a few minutes after drinking two cups of ice water while he was in a very heated state. He was seen to drink the water with great avidity, then place his hands to his forehead, stagger and fall dead. The coroner viewed the remains and took the evidence.—Erie Dispatch, July 9.

—It is a pleasure to again receive the Warren Ledger under the management of its original owner, Mr. B. F. Morris. As Mr. Morris intimates, it isn't quite so flowery and awfully too-too, as it used to be, but is much more like a common sense country paper, that records all the incidents and happenings of the town, county and surroundings in the good old fashioned, straight-forward way. We welcome Mr. Morris back into the harness and wish him success.

—Lacy's Mills, on Big Coon, are again running on full time. The creek has been cleared of all logs and roots and they are repairing the dams so as to be able to float their logs from the extreme eastern end of their lands to the mill. The old gang mill will be taken down and a new mill will be built on warrant No. 5505 in the near future. The above lot has not been cut into at all, and contains from 25 to 35 millions of pine, and probably not less than 20 millions of other woods. Their other lands are not so nearly stripped of timber as was supposed, and foremen who think our timber resources are nearly exhausted will get sadly "left," after an examination. Our immense forests of hard woods in the eastern part of the county will build up industries that will be lasting. The Messrs. Lacy will cause things in that locality to assume the old time activity in the future.

—Trunks, Traveling Bags, Satchels, at Wm. Smearbaugh & Co.'s. 24.

—Lorenzo Haight, an inmate of Dixmont Insane Asylum, escaped from the institution last Saturday, but was recaptured at Allegheny. He had been in good frame of mind and was sent to white-wash the Asylum fence when he made off. Haight was transferred to Dixmont from the Penitentiary, where he was serving a term for burglary. He will be remembered as the same fellow who got two terms in the Pen from this county on charges of rape and horse stealing.—Clarion Jacksonian.

—The Mercer Republican speaks of Rev. Merchant, at one time pastor of the M. E. Church of this place, as follows: Rev. A. J. Merchant, Presiding Elder of the Meadville district, M. E. Church, has received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from De Pauw University, Green Castle Ind. Dr. Merchant is a graduate of Allegheny College of some twenty years standing and is well known through all this region as a preacher of learning and ability and his friends will all feel gratified at this new honor conferred upon him.

—Jacob Smearbaugh yesterday disposed of his Dutch Hill farm to Mr. Charles Leeper of Clarion, who purchased it for a home for the aged parents of his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Stroup, who will there spend their remaining days on earth in happiness and peace. The consideration, we understand, was $2000 which Mr. L. paid in cash, and got an unquestionable bargain, besides doing a graceful act in providing for the good old folks. Mr. Smearbaugh will move to his new farm, the Mark Noble place, across the creek, in the fall.

—It has been customary at regular intervals in some of the counties of the State to adopt a text book on Theory of Teaching; the examination on Theory being taken from the book. The idea is certainly a good one. No such thing has yet been done, that is, heretofore, in our county. But now Supt. Hillard tells us that for the next two years Quincy Methods, the newest and best book of that kind published, is adopted, and that all examinations for the next two years, in Theory, will be made from this book.

—The Kellett Extract Co., intend to build a tannery in connection with the Extract Works at Salmon Creek, which will be rebuilt soon. Then a Railroad should be built from Tionesta up the creek to Sheffield, where connection could be had with the P. & E. and T. V. Rys., the latter giving connection with the B. & O. Narrow Gauge Division to Mt. Jewett, where a link is being built to connect that with the B. E. & C. Ry., one of the R. G. Taylor system of Narrow Gauge roads leading to Attica and Buffalo. The distance from Tionesta to Sheffield is only 40 miles, and at the present prices of labor and material a road could be constructed between those points for not more than $6,000 per mile, and equipped and completed for $500,000. Considering our vast resources the investment could not but be a paying one.

—Young people, that is to say the rising generation, seem to think it beneath them to show any respect for age. A venerable gentleman is referred to as "the old party yonder," father is the "governor," and mother the "old woman." The general idea seems to be that it looks smart to speak disrespectful and that it conveys the impression that they are their own master, obliged to look to their parents only for food, clothes and lodging, their company being all the return to be expected. Boys are especially fond of showing their independence of parental authority, and their disregard of it is the ruin of many a life. Girls do not, as a rule, speak so disrespectfully of their parents, but often actions speak louder than words. At times it is amusing to note the wise speeches of these young folk who know so much more than their fathers and mothers, although their lives are so much shorter. It is probably their vast experience which gives them the assurance they are so proud of.—Ex.

—We call attention to the advertisement of "Chamberlain Institute," Randolph, N. Y., in this issue. This is unquestionably a good school for both sexes. It has done excellent work for thirty-five years. We suggest that those inquiring for a safe institution of learning should look into the merits of this school. Send for Catalogue.

MANHOOD

HOW LOST! HOW RESTORED!
Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of Spermatorrhoea or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotence, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence, or sexual extravagance, &c.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of four cents or two postage stamps. Address: THE CULVERWELL MEDICAL CO., 41 Ann St., N. Y., N. Y., P. O. Box 450!
