—Mr. Tate is treating his dwelling to a new coat of paint.

—New potatoes sell for one hundred cents a bushel in this market.

—What's the matter with getting out the brass band and having a serenade some fine evening.

—Pearsall & Shields Bros. of Clarion have bought the mercantile interests of A. J. Wallace.

—Mr. A. B. Kelly returned from the sea shore last evening to look after business for a few days.

—Mr. P. C. Blocher, of Tionesta twp., rejoices in the arrival of a nice little girl at his home on Friday evening last.

—D. W. Clark's mansion is looming up in great shape, ten carpenters being employed in the erection of the frame work.

—Mr. Chas. Bonner entertained his mother and two sisters, Mrs. Hines and Miss Bertha Bonner, of Stoneboro, during the past week.

—Dr. J. W. Morrow is getting a gas apparatus for the painless extraction of teeth. Now for those wanting their teeth out without pain.

—Elmer Stutzinger has sold the stock of goods in his store at Kellettville to Mr. Ellsworth, who will remove the same to Bobbs Creek.

—We present our readers this week with a good report of the dedication of Jenks Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Marienville, by one who was there.

—A five-year-old daughter of Mr. E. S. Hoyt, while running across the floor the other day, fell and broke her right arm between the wrist and elbow.

—Wm. Hays, an old resident of Tylersburg, aged about 56 years, died on Friday last and was buried Sunday. He was quite well known to many of our readers.

—Besides the State and County tickets to be voted this fall there will be an amendment to the Constitution to vote on, as will be seen by reference to our advertising columns.

—The wet weather of late has interfered considerably with harvesting. There is a good bit of hay out yet, and the harvesting of wheat had fairly begun the middle of last week.

—Huckleberries sell for 10 cents a quart hereabouts. Raspberries are said to be abundant, while the blackberry crop is promising. On the whole we think it will be a berry good year to sell fruit cans.

—Some one "Arabed" Carl Coburn's watch while he was taking a swim one day last week. If the party who took it,—"yust for fun," perhaps,—will return it to the owner no questions will be asked, otherwise there may be trouble in the camp.

—Raspberries are an abundant crop. Wherever there are bushes "there ye berries hang in rich profusion." A visitor at the Queen Mills on Wednesday of last week says that he thinks not less than 30 or 40 bushels of this fruit was picked there on that day.

—J. W. Polen's mill at Stowtown, Hickory twp., is shut down for the present, while Mr. Polen is away looking into the workings of band saws, with a view to putting one into his mill at the above place. He has a contract for sawing 10,000,000 feet of pine for Messrs. Wheeler & Dusebury, we understand.

—Miss Lillian Miles, teacher of Stewart's Run school, makes the following report for month ending July 17th: No. of pupils enrolled males 9, females 5. Those who were present every day in the month are Charley, Ralph, Josie, Harry, and Archie Zahaiser, and Bertie Thomson. Those present every day but one are Jimmie Cummins, Ralph Dawson. Average attendance males 8, females 4. Percent of attendance, males 95, females 88.

—A game of ball—or part of one—was played at East Hickory between the club of that place and a nine from here last Saturday. An immense amount of jangling was indulged in all through the game, and at the beginning it looked as though the fan would break up in a general row. It was occasioned by the Tionesta boys kicking on some decisions of the umpire, but after a third man was called into the umpire's box the game progressed until the seventh inning was begun with Tionesta at the bats, when Hickory's catcher, Tom Fulton received a disabler over the left eye by the ball, and the game stopped. After some more lofty squabbling the umpire decided that Tionesta had won the game by a score of 6 to 5. We understand that a return game will be played here one week from next Saturday, when we hope to see a peaceable and pleasant game. After the game was closed the boys were taken to Mr. Perry's house, where the ladies of the house had prepared an elegant supper, which was highly complimented and partaken of with a relish by all.

—Rev. Hickling met with rather a painful accident near Tylersburg on last Sabbath. He was riding his young horse along the track of the narrow gauge road when a train came up behind him, at which the animal became fractious, and after several attempts succeeded in throwing Mr. Hickling off, his back striking the corner of a rock, bruising him badly and for a time nearly taking his breath. After being conveyed to a house in the vicinity of the accident and receiving some treatment he recovered sufficiently to ride home Monday in a buggy, but is still quite lame from the effects.

—Harvey Foreman finished his contract on "our new house" on Saturday last, and as soon as Artist Douth finishes painting the same it will be ready for occupancy. We consider that Mr. Foreman has done a faithful and honest job, with which we cannot find the least fault, but on the contrary can recommend him as one of the best and squarest workmen.

—And now if we were to say to our patrons that there is yet something due on the building no doubt they would chip right in and—well, boys call and see us when in town, or send your "regards" by registered letter at our risk.

—We can unhesitatingly say that the Golden Days, published at Philadelphia by James Elverson, is the finest publication for boys and girls in America. The matter is first-class and of a high standard. If you are not a subscriber, send for a sample copy.

—Mr. Beatty while crossing a slab-pile slipped and severely sprained his ankle. He was taken to Tionesta where Dr. Coburn reduced the fracture.

—Mr. Abe Clark has been on the retired list for several days, from a bruised ankle, caused by a stick of timber falling against it. Nevertheless Abe is thankful for the light embrace.

—Mr. Mitchel moved his family from Pittsburgh recently to this place, where they will make their home for the present.

—Black raspberries are abundant in these parts; they are a luxury the most fastidious can enjoy. J. B. Haggerty thinks he can wear the medal for the most quarts up to date, which averages 78. James was never considered an expert, either, in the berry patch.

Dedication of Jenks Lodge, I. O. O. F.

The dedication of Jenks Lodge, No. 250, I. O. O. F., at Marienville on Friday, 24th inst., is an event that will long be remembered, both by those who participated in the ceremonies as well as by those who were witnesses of the event.

The No. 250 does not at all indicate the regular consecutive number of the Lodge in order of time by any means, as there are over 900 in the State, but the number is to fill that of a defunct lodge and supply its place in the order. The ceremonies were conducted under the management of Bro. T. F. Ritchey of 369, as Deputy Grand Master, assisted by Bros. W. Y. Siggins G. W., Herald of the North, Bro. Hindman of Clarion, Herald of the South, Bro. J. H. Fones, Herald of the West, Bro. H. C. Whittekin, Herald of the East, Bro. S. D. Irwin of Tionesta, and S. H. Haslet as Grand Marshal, K. L. Blood G. Treas., and Rev. Henry Rhodes G. Chaplain. Col. Jno. F. Gaul G. Sec'y., at 1:30 formed the line of march, in good shape, and part of those present at the Hall marched down to the R. R. Depot to meet the brethren coming on the 2 o'clock train, by which a large delegation arrived headed by Bro. Rulofson of Mingo Lodge, Strattonville, when the column consisting of about 80 marched back to the Hall where about 25 members of the order remained, and a large concourse of the people of Marienville and vicinity as well as visitors were in waiting.

The Hall itself deserves a better notice than I can give in the brief limits of this article. It is well arranged and is new, beautiful and well furnished, in short, and its completion reflects great credit to the energy of the fraternity in Eastern Forest, as well as the good people who aided them in its structure. The lower story of the building is occupied by T. J. Reyner, one of the enterprising merchants of the place. The ceremonies at the Hall were impressive and peculiar, and were seen and heard with delight by the large assemblage composed of the brotherhood and the people. The dedication of the Hall closed at about half past three. Among those present and participating on the occasion I would mention Bros. John Everhart and Stanley of Yokohama Lodge, Bros. Hons. K. L. Blood and W. P. Jenks and Snyder, "Ben Butler" of Brookville; C. Kaufman and son, Dist. Dep. J. E. Wood and F. R. Hindman Esq., Sheriff A. H. Beck, and A. A. Carlisle Editor of the Jacksonian Clarion, and Rev. B. F. Delo and others of Clarion Lodge. From Tionesta Lodge other than as mentioned—Geo. W. Sawyer, Wm. Hood and G. B. Armstrong; Jenks Lodge, other than as mentioned—N. G. H. H. McClelland, who delivered a neat address; V. G. Seigworth, Dr. S. S. Towler, Guardians F. M. Reek and James Cole Esq., Bros. Salade, Bulter and others.

After a short recess speeches under "good of the order" were made. Dep. G. M. Ritchey delivered an appropriate dedicatory address; he was followed by R. Rulofson who spoke in his usual interesting style. Bro. Jenks made some eloquent remarks; Bro. Blood made some interesting and pathetic remarks; Bro. Kaufman advanced some practical ideas. Bro. Irwin made some remarks not quite so practical or pathetic. He ground out some fun for the occasion. Bro. Delo made a good address, and Bro. Wood also. In short all the addresses were good and well listened to by an attentive and appreciative audience.

Time and space forbid even a fair synopsis of some of these interesting addresses which continued up till six o'clock, the interest continuing unabated, notwithstanding the heat of the day. At the evening sessions the degree of Rebecca was conferred upon nine of the wives of prominent members of the Lodge, Bro. Wood acting as N. G., Irwin as P. G., and Ritchey as V. G. The visiting brothers will long remember the hospitality and kindness of the good people of Marienville. Truly it was for the fraternity of that section as well as the people a red letter day full of pleasant memories. MILO.
