GENERAL GRANT'S FUNERAL.

Nearly all the preliminaries for the funeral of General Grant are now arranged. The War Department will have charge of the affair as per the request of the family, and the remains of the honored chieftain will be laid to rest in Riverside Park, New York City, on the banks of the Hudson. The site is a beautiful one, commanding a view of the river for miles. The pall-bearers have been selected and consist of the following distinguished soldiers and statesmen: Gen. W. T. Sherman, Lieut. Gen. Phil. Sheridan, Admiral David D. Porter, Vice Admiral S. C. Rowan, Gen. Joseph E. Johnston of Virginia, Gen. Simon B. Buckner of Kentucky, Hon. Hamilton Fish of New York, Hon. Geo. S. Boutwell of Massachusetts, Senator John A. Logan of Illinois, Geo. W. Childs of Pennsylvania, Geo. Jones and Oliver Hoyt of New York.

The selection of the pall-bearers is a very happy one. The army is represented by Generals Sherman and Sheridan, the two officers who were most intimately associated with General Grant during the war and in whom he had the greatest confidence. The navy is represented by Admirals Porter and Rowan, both of whom rendered distinguished services during the war. Of the Ex-confederate of ficers, General Johnston was held in high esteem by the Union commander, who regarded his military abilities as equal, if not superior, to those of Lee. General Buckner was General Grant's classmate at West Point, and the first Confederate officer who surrendered to him during the war. It was he to whom General Grant sent the famous "unconditional surrender" dispatch at Fort Donelson. Hon. Hamilton Fish and Ex-senator Boutwell were both members of General Grant's Cabinet when he was president, and Senator John A. Logan was one of the Generwar and one of his most valued personal friends. Besides, he is a senator from General Grant's state, Illinois. Mr. George W. Childs was one of General Grant's nearest and dearest

Gov. Pattison's Proclamation.

Governor Pattison has issued the following preclamation:

Pennsylvania ss. In the name and by of Pennsylvania, Robert E. Patti-son, Governor of said Commonwealth. A proclamation: WHEREAS, On Saturday, the 8th day of August, A. D. 1885, the great soldier and distinguished citizen whose death the nation mourns will be laid to rest, it is fitting that the people of this commonwealth, in his further honor, should pause from their accustomed labors when the sad and final rites of his burial take place.

The loss in the death of General Grant will long be fresh in the public mind; his countrymen, to whom his life service was productive of great benefits, will long feel the weight of the general sorrow. In bonoring the great and good, in testifying sorrow that so at the loss of the faithful and heroic, place. the people show their appreciation of public worth and teach the lesson of public duty and patriotism.

As a tribute of respect to his memory, and in testimony of the sorrow of the citizens of this commonwealth at the death of General Ulysses S. Grant, August, A. D. 1885, the day of his No. 2836, Tionesta township. 390 burial, to be a legal holiday, and do acres, warrant No. 5186, Kingsley

A STANDING complaint of the Democrat Free Traders is, the decline of American shipping; which they propose to remedy by destroying all our other industries and admitting foreign products to competition with them under the appearant impression that if we do not produce our own textile fabrics, machinery, engines, pots and pans, our mercantile marine will grow rich in carrying them to us, of foreign manufacture. They cannot or will not see that our foreign competitors have not won their advantages over us by such policies, but by protection, until they were advanced enough to drive us out of our own markets without protection, and even now, when Free Trade is the policy of our principal competitor, she encourages her shipping interest by subsidies. In the judgment of Congress this is sound policy, and it set aside at the last session $400,000 to be used in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy to pay American ships for carrying the mails. Great Britian is free trade, but the sums she pays to her vessels for carrying the mails amount to forty per cent. more than our Government pays to our vessels for the same purpose, although our al's most trusted officers during the policy is called protective. Even this small encouragement, it appears, is to be withdrawn if the Free Traders can wield enough influence with the Administration to have the same withheld. They would rather that our mails should be carried to us in foreign bottoms, than that our own enterprises should be encouraged even to the extent of sixty per cent. of the help given to foreign vessels. We regret that there is too much reason to believe their evil influence will be the authority of the Commonwealth strong enough to secure this very thing, and that the stars and stripes will soon float over no vessel that car-

A MENDMENT TO THE CONSTITU-TION proposed to the citizens of this Commonwealth for their approval or re-jection by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Pub-lished by order of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, in pursuasce of the 1st section of Article XVIII of the Constitu-

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, that the following is proposed as an amendment of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof.

AMENDMENT. That section five of article five of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows: "Whenever a county shall contain forty thousand inhabitants it shall constitue a separate Judicial district, and shall elect one judge learned in the law; and the General Assembly shall provide for addi-tional judges, as the business of the said districts may require. Counties containing a population less than is sufficient to constitute separate districts shall be formed into convenient single districts, or, if necessary, may be attached to contiguous districts as the General Assembly may provide. The office of the control of the may provide. The office of associate judge, not learned in the law, is abolished in counties forming separate districts; but the several associate judges in office when this Constitution shall be adopted shall serve for their unexpired terms," be and the same is hereby amended, so as to read as follows: Whenever a county shall contain sixty thousand inhabitants it may constitute a separate judicial district, and may elect one judge learned in the law; and the General Assembly shall provide for additional judges, as the business of said districts may require. Counties not forming separate districts, shall be formed forming separate districts, shall be formed into convenient single districts, as the General Assembly may provide. The office of associate judge, not learned in the law, is abolished in counties forming seplaw, is abolished in counties forming separate districts and having more than one law judge; every other county shall elect two associate judges, who shall not be required to be learned in the law; but the several associate judges in office, when this amendment shall be adopted, shall
