—Preaching in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning and evening, by Rev. Hickling.

—Preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening by F. M. Small. —Presbyterian Sabbath School at 9:45 a. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

—Are you registered? —Miss Effie Clark is attending school at Jamestown, N. Y.

—Let all Republicans get registered at once. No time to lose.

—If you want teeth extracted without pain call on Dr. Morrow.

—Did you pay your school tax and save the ten per cent? Yesterday was the last day.

—We learn that District Attorney Van Giesen has disposed of his house and lot to Mr. L. J. Hopkins.

—The squirrel season opens next Tuesday, but there aren't any squirrels to speak of in this locality, from all reports.

—The display of several new cider presses suggests the thought that fresh apple juice will soon be on tap in this market.

—Ex-County Treasurer Setley of Kingsley township, is lying quite ill with sciatic rheumatism, we are sorry to learn.

—Ex-Governor Fenton of Jamestown, N. Y., dropped dead in his bank from heart disease yesterday afternoon.

—Miss Birdie Bromley of Stewarts Run, is attending school at Warren, Pa., where she expects to remain for three months.

—The "oldest inhabitant" who has ever seen the Allegheny on a worse "tear" in August than just now will please stand up.

—Rev. Small now ministers regularly to the people of Kellettsville and Balltown, in addition to the work on his regular charge.

—Tionesta now boasts two 'busses which run to the depot meeting all trains. What more do we need to give us a metropolitan air?

—Potatoes are rotting badly in this immediate vicinity. If the complaint proves to be general, we may look for high priced "murrhies" in the fall.

—Republicans see to it that your names are on the registry list. It is very important. September 3d is the last day, which is very close at hand.

—The grape crop, which has promised so well all along in this section, is said to be affected with a peculiar decay that will likely reduce the yield considerably.

—The trial list for September term, published this week is quite an extensive one, and would indicate that a busy week is in store for the court, jury, lawyers and clients.

—One week from next Tuesday the schools open in this borough. Some very necessary improvements have been making about the school grounds, such as grading, new walks, &c.

—Mr. Kelly and family and the Misses Legnard returned from Cape May Point last Wednesday evening. Mrs. May and Mrs. Sharpe will remain at that pleasant resort for another fortnight.

—Judge and Mrs. J. A. Proper and Forest returned yesterday from a three week's visit with their daughter's family, Mrs. S. A. Varner, in Litchfield, Ill. The Judge says he saw some very fine country, but thinks there ain't enough hills to suit him.

—Hou Henry Brace of Warren, and Mr. J. M. Smyth, general agent for the New York Life Insurance Co., paid us a very pleasant visit last evening. Mr. Brace will shortly interview the citizens of this section on all kinds of fire and life insurance, and, having a fine line of companies, will undoubtedly succeed well.

—We hear a good many of the old soldiers and citizens of this section talking of taking in the soldiers reunion at Erie on the 9th and 10th of September next. Extensive preparations are making and it will doubtless be an immense gathering of war veterans. Excursion rates can be had on all railroads leading into the city.

—Mill Village, Erie county, Herald: Miss Julia Abbott of Forest Co., is visiting the family of her brother Wallis S. Abbott in this place. Mr. W. E. Downing, of East Hickory, Forest Co., is having a vacation from business at Jas. R. Hunter's in town.

—A silver dollar weighs very nearly an ounce. Hence any letter not heavier than a dollar can go for a single two cent stamp. A silver five-cent piece added will give the ounce. If you have not the silver dollar, five nickles and a copper cent will give an ounce.

—For the benefit of all interested we re-publish this week the program of the Sabbath School Convention commencing on Thursday next, Sept. 3d. As will be observed the place of meeting has been changed from the Court House to the Presbyterian Church.

—The carpenter's have finished their work on Wilbur Grove's new house and as soon as Douth finishes painting it will be ready to occupy. Messrs. Adams, Carson and Hart had the contract of the work, and have put Mr. Grove up a mansion of which he may be proud.

—The river is on a fearful rampage. Perhaps no man now living in this section has ever seen such a flood in the river and creek in August. Heavy rains in the northern section on Sunday night started the rise, while the almost continuous pouring since has swelled the banks full to overflowing. No damage to speak of has been reported hereabouts as yet, although some of our citizens may have trouble with their cows which have been caught on the lower islands and cannot now escape.

—Hood Siggins Dead. The large circle of friends in this section of Hood Siggins will be indeed pained to read the above caption. Word was received by his relatives last Thursday that his death had occurred from typhoid fever in Kansas City, Mo. They had been aware of his illness but supposed he was in no danger. Mr. Siggins was aged about twenty-six years and was married in September, '84, thus leaving a young wife. He was admitted to the practice of law in Venango county about four years ago, passing a splendid examination, and shortly after embarked for the west, finally locating in Kansas City, where he was rapidly climbing upward in his chosen profession when overtaken by Death. Hood's popularity extended as far as his acquaintance, his gentlemanly address and jovial disposition making him friends wherever he went. He possessed, along with superior intellect and culture, a fund of wit and humor, which made him attractive both to friends and society. He was born and reared to young manhood on the old homestead at West Hickory, this county, being one of a large family of children, mostly boys, several of whom survive to mourn his loss, in which they have the heartfelt sympathy of every one of Hood's acquaintances. That one so full of promise and whose future seemed so bright should be thus suddenly cut down is indeed sad to contemplate.

—J. T. Brennan has now for sale 136 acres of warrant 5213 and 5214, Kingsley Twp., probably on the new oil belt. Also 108 acres of warrant 5186, and 79 acres of warrant 5187, in same twp. 1000 acres, warrant No. 2836, Tionesta township, 390 acres, warrant No. 5186, Kingsley township, 143 acres, known as "Lillic Farm," Allegheny township, Venango Co. 70 acres near Enterprise, Warren county. 6m.

—Nearly every family in this place is plagued with the whooping cough.

—Mr. Welsh reports the well at Minister a duster.

—There is an ice cream supper nearly every evening in this place. Pretty good for so small a town.
