late bereavement in the death his wife.

-District Attorney VanGiesen and Deputy Prothonotary Ellis Shawkey slid for Kansas expecting to be gone three weeks or more. Mr. VanGiesen, will pay his parents a visit.

-Wednesday and Thursday nights of last week were quite cool. In some localities there was frost those nights. The only place where damage was done of which we have heard was in the vicinity of Beaver Valley. We are told the cold was so severe as to injure the corn somewhat.

-Such a harvest of apples as one sees everywhere to be gathered this fall is not often seen; it makes our heart glad and grateful to behold it. It is said that in the vicinity of Fryburg apples are selling at 10 cents per bushel in the field; not picked fruit but that fallen from the trees.

-We learn that business is quite lively at Redclyffe in Barnett. The mill there is running. The hemlock cut is used in the vicinity; it being small lots cut for residents near by. The hardwood cut is being stocked for the present. The diphtheria still lingers there; there being one or two cases there yet.

-It was our pleasure to meet Mr. J. C. Havemyer, of New York, last week. Mr. H. is interested in some lands in Forest county, and was out here last season. He is a pleasant and affable gentleman with a large acquaintance among the celebrities of his city. His father, Hon. Wm. F. Havemyer, was once Mayor of New York and filled various offices in the city, and known over the commercial world as the leading American sugar refiner. His grandfather, Wm. Havemyer, was the first sugar refiner of the country and is spoken of in Chambers Cyclopedia as such. So he is of an historical Knickerbocker family.

-The roof of the old Hunter mill has been renewed in appearance; it is ance of being bran new; the material to severe tests, such as pouring oil on ingredients in the paint snuffed the blaze out. The board was put into a wood stove for about two minutes and exposed to a great heat but came out unmarked. It seems to be composed of a rare collection of chemicals, and seems to stand the racket, From our investigations we have no doubt of its success.

-Mis. Jared P. Hulings died at her residence in this place on Friday forenoon last, August 28th. For a number of years she had been a great sufferer from diabetis, causing for the past three years almost total blindness. Several mouths ago Dr. Proper of Titusville performed an operation on her eyes which quite restored the sight of one, while the other was partially restored, and for a time her health seemed to improve. About two weeks previous to her death, however, she was again quite poorly, and she gradually became weaker until death relieved her of further suffering on the day mentioned. She passed away without a struggle, and her death seemed a very easy one. On Sunday the funeral took place, conducted by Rev. Small, and her remains were followed to Riverside Cemetery by a very large concourse of sympathetic friends. Mrs. Hulings was aged about 33 years, and leaves a husband and daughter, besides many friends to mourn her loss.
