

The Forest Republican.
 J. E. WENK, EDITOR.
 WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 23, 1885.
Republican State Ticket.
 FOR STATE TREASURER,
 MATTHEW S. QUAY,
 of Beaver County.
Republican County Ticket.
 FOR Associate Judge,
 Hon. JOHN A. PROPER.
 FOR District Attorney,
 P. M. CLARK, Esq.
 Pay Your Taxes.

Every person who fails to pay a state or county tax within two years previous to November 3, 1885, and at least thirty days prior to that date, will be unable to vote at the coming election. Don't forget it. Young men who voted on age last year should give this matter special attention. Members of the Republican Committee in each district should see that all Republicans are qualified to vote by the payment of taxes.

The Democrats are carrying Ohio now. The Republicans will carry it on the 13th of October.

AND now they have printed in a journal in the south called Dixie, a paper purporting to have been written expressly for it by Uncle Randall, on the subject of the tariff, which Mr. Rannall says he did not write, but which must have been made up of extracts from his speeches. The managers of Dixie come back on the distinguished Congressman asserting that he not only wrote it for them but that the copy has his signature attached to it. Can such things be &c.?

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has done a very decent thing by refusing to appoint as postmaster at Mr. Blaine's home, Morton, the Democratic editor, who was virulently active in publishing particularly unclean falsehoods concerning the republican candidate last year. As Mr. Blaine objected, as he had a perfect right to do, to the appointment of Morton, some of the organs urged him upon Mr. Cleveland with a vehemence that could only be accounted for by their disregard of the commonest proprieties; and one of them desired to know if Mr. Blaine was to be allowed to "boss a Democratic Administration?" Perhaps they are not satisfied with the answer, but it commends itself to the right-thinking men of all parties.—Phila. Press.

It looks as if the Massachusetts Democrats would have to order a draft to get a candidate for governor. There is no danger of a riot in case this course is adopted.

Down in Virginia two-and-twenty years ago, Fitz Lee's cavalry rode rough shod, and to-day the same horsemen are hurrahing for their precious "Prince Rupert of the Lost Cause." Those men may have their say, and their shout and their camp fire yell, yet, if John Sherman utters a hearty Union hurrah, the Mugwump critics affect to burn with indignation against him.—Phila. Press.

SOUTHERN pressure is being brought to bear upon the administration for a change in the Civil Service rules so as to cancel the distinction now made between those who served in the Union and those who served in the Confederate armies during the late war. Congressmen and others from the South appear to think that such a discrimination at this late day is inconsistent with the professions of either party. They say that it "keeps alive the animosities of the war" without material benefit to the ex-Union soldiers. The next move will be to pension the Confederate soldiers, on the ground that the payment of pensions to maimed Union soldiers only "keeps alive the animosities of the war." Nothing will prevent the Confederates from keeping alive the animosities of the war except control of the government, the army and navy, all the officers and the legislative department. Then if any ex-Union soldier dares "keep alive the animosities of the war," by even insinuating that the boys in blue deserve consideration at the hands of the government, he shall be charged with "waving the bloody shirt" and imprisoned. It is getting that way very rapidly. The rebels are on top.—Venango Citizen.

GOVERNOR HOADLY says that the "colored man's right to vote in the South is as free as the air." Ananias' reputation is in danger.

If Mr. Cleveland were an Indian chief the chances are that he would be known on the reservation as Young-Man-Afraid-of-his-Party.

JUMBO, Barnum's big elephant, was killed by a train of cars last Wednesday, while his keeper was out walking with him at St. Thomas, Ontario.

ENGLAND was downed in a cricket match by a Philadelphia team last Saturday. The Yankees will soon demonstrate to Johnny Bull that he's n. g.

GENERAL M'CLELLAN has entered the campaign for the United States Senatorship from New Jersey. If "Little Mac" does not move faster than he did on the peninsula the new Senator will be sworn in before he gets his men into line.

THE GERMANS FOR COL. QUAY.—The Scranton Wochenblatt, which has been the German organ of Democracy in the Wyoming region for twenty years, has endorsed the Republican ticket and renounced all allegiance to the Democratic party.

WHETHER or not Mr. Cleveland's Administration is to be endorsed at the polls in New York this year, the renomination of Governor Hill would mean that the Democrats want to offer it a previous rebuke, and the finger of fate seems to be pointing straight in that direction just now.

HON. GALUSHA A. GROW called at Republican Headquarters last week and offered to make several speeches for the cause of Colonel Quay. U. S. Senator John I. Mitchell has written and volunteered to speak in the same way. Both will be favorably heard from when the contest is fully in.

THE international yacht contest last week between the English yacht Genesta, and the American yacht Puritan, was finally won by the latter, and the Queen's cup, won by the America 30 years ago, remains on this side of the pond until England learns enough about yacht building to get up one that can out-sail Yankee ingenuity.

THE Pittsburgh Times says the cloud in the sky preventing the resumption of prosperity and business in this country, appears in the threat that the administration of Cleveland will join the Free Traders in attacking the Protective Tariff, the effect of which would be to depress all manufacturing interests. That's about the size of it.

THE Philadelphia News, recognizing Chairman Hensel's distinguishing characteristic, says: The frankness, not to say freshness, with which Mr. Hensel jumps into the ring, makes his little bow and says for the forty-second time that he is going to make an "aggressive campaign" and "fight to win," is as amusing as Mr. Merryman's "Here we are again," when he jumps into the circus ring.

"THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY," says one of its organs, the New York Graphic, "does not believe in the Civil Service law." Good heavens, man, who ever said you did? The Mugwumps fondly thought you did, but the Mugwumps are political sleepwalkers, and not accountable for their freaks. Go on with the funeral. This Administration came to bury civil service reform, not to praise it.

WHILE the great "reform" newspapers of New York are in hysterics over the appointment of a posthous politician as weigher in the New York Custom-house, the telegraph brings us word that "Tom" Lawler, ex-saloon keeper, ex-alderman and congressman-elect, and Colonel Horizontal Morrison are eagerly dividing the spoils in Illinois. It is said that the Administration have decided to "recognize" the "working section" of the local Democracy, now serving the state in an official capacity, would be grateful for another sort of recognition, namely, for pardon from the penitentiary. Turu the rascals out.

It is not news in any sense that a regular assault upon the President's ideas of faithfulness to the pledges of administrative reform he has given, was in preparation during his absence on his vacation; and the removal of Weighmaster Bacon from the New York custom house, and the appointment in his place of the proprietor of a disreputable flash Brooklyn doggerly, seems to have intensified the issue. If Bacon is not restored, and Stierling sent to the right about face and with quick step to the rear, it will be generally accepted as proof conclusive that the Democrats pure and simple have triumphed over the President, and conquered his purpose. All further talk about civil service reform will be regarded as Democratic fan-faronade.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

In the opinion of Senator Everts history is repeating itself. In other days the Southern minority controlled the Northern majority, and now, without regard to suffrage rights, the South is again taking on itself the control of affairs. Lickspittle doughface Northerners cry "bloody shirt" with the monotonous croak and scant intelligence of a poll parrot whenever a Republican statesman or newspaper expresses dissatisfaction with this state of affairs. We are glad of the assurance that the strongest Republicans in the Senate are disposed to dispute and resist this revival of the supremacy of a Southern minority.—Phila. Press.

 A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spermatorrhoea, induced by self-abuse, Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and Impediments to Marriage, generally; Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D.
 The world-renowned author, in this admirable lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain, and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
 This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.
