McBride near Mr. Corrigan's, was badly damaged by fire and water.

-The Constitutional Amendment which has been running in our paper for the past two months is no go, it seems. There was a mistake in presuming that the amendment had passed the legislature; it did not receive the necessary 101 votes, but was sent to the Governor who signed the bill. There is a grave blunder somewhere, but who is responsible for it will perhaps appear later.

-John Polen, Esq., of Hickory, has purchased a new locomotive for his logging road. The engine is built by Shay Bros. of Akron, O., and will Anderson of Brockston, R. J.
