THAT SAME OLD COON! 18,000 TO 20,000 MAJORITY FOR FORAKER.

The latest and most reliable news this morning from the Ohio election says that Judge Foraker and the whole Republican State ticket are elected by majorities ranging from 15,000 to 20,000. The Democratic State Committee concede their defeat by from 8,000 to 10,000 majority. The Republicans claim both branches of the legislature and on joint ballot will elect a U. S. Senator. This is the first big gun since the election of Cleveland, and puts a very bad damp er on Democratic future hope. Now for Pennsylvania.

MR. HENSEL, we are told, has aunounced a short, sharp and decisive campaign to begin immediately after the 10th of October, and "make Rome howl," presumably up to the time of the election. Now, if Mr. Hensel would just throw out a point or two as to what he and his lieutenants are going to howl about it might be of use. It was very significant that when he was in Altoona the other day he was not heard to say "anti-discrimination" once; and that was to be the war cry, will come and hear him make his antidiscrimination speeches in all the towns along the line of the Pennsylhave with him, to help him, one or two of the fifty or sixty Democrats of the last Legislature who voted against the anti-discrimination bill, for such speeches are bound to be interesting. Al. Crawford, Hughby Mackin, Rev. Horne, of Cambria, and North, of Juniata, and the brilliant Faunce, of Philadelphia, should not be missed, but should figure at all the meetings, Come, trot them out, Brother Hensel, and let us have a real good time!-Harrisburg Telegraph.

A MAJORITY of the Judges of Philadelphia have decided that the names of the applicants for marriage licenses should not be given for publication by the Register. They bold that such publicity would be injudicious and unjust to the parties interested. The grave and reverend seignors of the Philadelphia bench may be correct in these conclusions. If they would study the new law, however, they would see that it contemplates and provides for the fullest publicity. The record is open to the public, and of course is the property of the newspapers, provided they see fit to appropriate it. The list of marriage licenses, so far as our observation goes, is regularly published by the papers in every State where a marriage li

A good deal of surprise is professed at the attempt made by the Democra- phia who have been impatiently waitcy in New York to prove the President a partisan of Hill's election by forging and publishing a letter in his name heartily endorsing his nomination. Is there anything to be surprised at in that? What day will you crats of the city see no reason for gopick up a thick-and-thin Democratic paper that is not filled with political falsehood and misrepresentations as that forgery?

THE Henrel-Day combination seems to have abandoned the palace car raid through the State, No use, Put Day on the shelf.

THE Pennsylvania Club, of Philadelphia, has endorsed Col. Quay. One by one the Mugwomps are crawling in out of the cold.

ATTORNEY GENERAL GARLAND is so anxious to get rid of his telephone stock that he may give it away unless a huyer appears pretty soon, He ought to put it up for a raffle.

GENERAL ROSECRANS, the new register of the Trensury, is greatly displeased with Secretary Manning. It is not yet clear whether he will dismiss Manning or reduce him to a clerkship.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made by telegraph that the President's annual message is being prepared-by whom it is not stated, but by Colonel Daniel Lamont, of course-so it promises to be a good one.

THE Louisville Courier - Journal calls Colonel Quay's remarks on the tariff "stuff and balderdash." Al! the same, it is the sort of stuff and balderdash that makes the Free-trade goat wish he were dead.

In off years, when there are no elections, St. John hibernates on a cattle ranch in Kansas. With the sound of approaching political conflict in any doubtful state he bids the herd goodbye, and cashes his influence at Demcratic headquarters.

DALLAS SANDER'S nomination for sheriff in Philadelphia bas not added much to the strength of Mr. Day. The boom that was to be sounded has not been heard. It is like the Inde-pendent revolt, small, and growing beautifully less every day.

WHERE has the great Day Hensel combination, recently traveling through this state, pitched its tents? Perhaps it has gone into Winter quarters in anticipation of cold weather early in November. It is a pity so good a show should exibit for one sea-

A PAPER published in New York, according to the convention. We called The Climax, announces that "We are on the ragged edge of ruin; the brink of Hell." As the balance of the paper is devoted to abuse of vania railroad if he will promise to General Grant, we hope somehody will push the editor over "the brink." -Harrisburg Telegraph.

Well, the Philadelphia Mugwumps who propose to defeat Quay stood up and were counted last evening-and there were less than 100 of them. The boom is not as high as a church nor as wide as a barn door, but it has great tone and is beautiful. It ought to be photographed .- Phila. Press.

THE Republicanism of men like John Sherman and George F. Hoar may be autediluvian in its way, but we observe, not without surprise, that it is the species of Republicanism which has the most terror for the Bourbons of to day. It may be old, but it is not older than the wrongs which it seeks to redress.

THE Free-trade League, over which David A. Wells presides, has called a national conference or convention of Free-traders to meet in Chicago on November 11 next. This, we precume, is to be the opening of the raid upon the tariff and the principle of Protection to home industry to be carried on in and out of Congress all next Winter and Spring.

THE appointment by the President of Mr. H. B. Plumer of Venango county to the important position of cense law is in force. - Franklin News. Naval Officer for Philadelphia causes the Press to observe that "the hungry and thirsty Democrats of Philadeling for the distribution of the spoils were in no good humor yesterday over the sudden and unannounced importation from the extreme West for the Naval office. Mr. Plumer may be a very good Democrat, but the Demoing so far to fill a place which they were ready to supply. The selection does nothing to appeare the tide of angry feeling which has been rising
