—Preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening by F. M. Small.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 9:45 a. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

—The first Quarterly Meeting of the Free Methodist Church for this conference year will be held in Tionesta, Dec. 4th, 5th, and 6th. The first service will be Friday evening.

—Foreign hunters are stringing in by the score.

—Glance at Smearbaugh & Co's holiday announcement this week.

—The Catholic church will be ready for occupancy in about two weeks.

—Douglas Moore of Barnett is reported as lying dangerously ill with typhoid fever.

—Comb Honey, Cranberries, Lemons, Citron, Extracts, &c., fresh at Wm. Smearbaugh & Co.

—To-morrow will be Thanksgiving. Remember the poor, not merely in your prayers, but with your pocket-books.

—Agents for the Hunter Sifter Mfg. Co., Cincinnati, can clear from $3 to $5 per day easily. Write for terms &c. free.

—Dr. Morrow is daily growing better from his sickness, and with proper care will soon be able to attend to his practice again.

—The publication of the court proclamation, trial and jury list, reminds us that the December term of court is approaching.

—Dr. Morrow wishes us to state that any one wishing to see him professionally or otherwise can do so by calling at his residence.

—Ed. Heibel has still a fine line of stoves— heating and cooking— on hand, which he is ready to set up at rock bottom figures. Try him.

—Harvey Foreman has taken the contract to build a house for Wm. Hieenthal, located opposite J. S. Hood's house in the north ward.

—A drop of 15 or 20 cents in oil during the past week has drawn out the faces of the dear lambs, and set them back into the "two-for" box.

—Hon. W. S. Stenger, Secretary of the Commonwealth, has our thanks for a nicely bound copy of the pamphlet laws passed by the last legislature.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davis have invited their friends to assist them in celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary, on Wednesday evening next, 2d ult.

—The borough council has taken some steps toward improving the town's drainage, but the season is too far gone to make much headway in that direction.

—Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the M. E. Church to-morrow evening, beginning at seven o'clock. A general and cordial invitation is extended.

—Geo. Carr, at his meat market, has a good supply of fat turkeys, and wants the people to know it so they will understand where to go for their Thanksgiving stock.

—The County Commissioners, at their meeting last week, appointed Mr. Jas. G. Carson of this borough, Mercantile Appraiser for the ensuing year. A very good selection.

—Mrs. H. E. Smith and daughter whom we noted as being sick with malarial fever last week are growing better slowly, but another daughter was taken down on Monday and is quite ill at this writing.

—The deer season expires on the 15th of December, and not on the 31st as is supposed by some. It was thought the last legislature added the latter half of December, but we fail to find any such amendment in the new pamphlet laws.

—Mrs. G. W. Bovard received the sad intelligence on Monday that her father, living near Montague, Butler county, Pa., had died very suddenly. She had not been aware that he was sick, the shock being therefore much more sudden. Mr. Bovard went on to attend the funeral. Mr. Stewart was aged about 75 years.

—Another of Dan Agnew's team horses "turned up his toes" yesterday morning, without giving the least warning that he had any such intentions. This is rather tough on Dan, it being the second within about two months.

—The hunters have been favored with a splendid tracking snow since Monday, and we may look out for a new invoice of big lies about the slaughter of the innocents during the next few days. It will take a "hind quarter" to convince us on all such matters.

—Assessor Reck is banding the rose tinted blanks around to "the boys," and no small wall is going up from every corner. People who never squirmed before at the sight of the assessor, are making their heaviest squirm now. It is also wonderful to find how watches, cows, horses, etc., have depreciated in value in the past few days.

—Nicholas Gilfert's store at Lickingville, Clarion county, received another call from burglars on Tuesday night of last week, who relieved it of a large amount of goods. This makes the third haul since last spring, and the eighth robbery within five years.

—Thieves seem to have a special pick at the old gentleman, making their raids with clock-work regularity.

—We have just received the Premium List of THE PHILADELPHIA WEEKLY PRESS, and it is certainly the finest piece of work it has ever been our good fortune to see. How THE PRESS can offer such inducements is a mystery. We advise all our readers to send for a copy and examine it. Among their premiums they offer The World's Cyclopaedia and THE WEEKLY PRESS one year for $1.75.

—The Gusher City correspondent of the Warren Mirror says: "The folks in this vicinity have been worrying over the disappearance of T. C. McBride, teacher of the Coopers Mill school. He went to vote on the 3rd of the month and has not been heard from since." In connection with this Supt. Hillard received a telegram from the above place on Saturday last asking if Mr. McBride had been here to get examined.

—The editor of the Monongahela Republican says a man came into that office recently and complained of the dullness of the paper, and wanted to know why it was not edited in a more sensational style. He was given a pencil and told to go through the town and bring in a few "sensations." An hour afterwards he returned with the following: "our Distinguished townsman Tom Jones has run for constable last year and didn't get it. Was plowing his potato patch last Tuesday when he turned up the durned biggest house snake that was ever cene around heer mister jones will run for constable again next year."

—C. W. Dean and William Woods, the two young men confined in jail, charged with the robbery at Leeper, Arnold & Co's store on the night of Nov. 1st, were given a hearing before Esq. Thompson on Friday afternoon. A number of articles found in the possession of the young men at the time of their arrest were identified by witnesses as those stolen from Leeper, Arnold & Co., and the prisoners were committed to jail for trial at the January term of court. In the case of Charles Kauffman, who charges the same parties with the robbery of his store on the night of August 31st, they were held for a hearing on next Saturday.—Clarion Democrat.

Outlandish Outrage.

A most horrible outrage was committed in the vicinity of Newmanville, Clarion county, on the 14th inst. In the evening of the above date two masked villains entered the house occupied by a Miss Barnett and her brother, and committed a heinous assault upon the lady, who is a maiden upward of 50 years of age. The brother attempted to stay the hellish designs of the outlaws but was overcome by them, being himself quite up in years. The lady has been in a most critical condition, but is now improving and will doubtless recover. This is the second outrage of a similar character perpetrated in that locality within two years. The lady thinks she recognized one of the parties and it may be the means of bringing to justice. Judge Lynch might be a good party to sit on this case if the guilty ones are detected. The good citizens of that community should exert every effort to ferret out the villains.

—A letter is before us from Mrs. Margaret Moyer (born Rice), of No. 5, Bedford Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., asking information relative to the whereabouts of her father Jacob Rice. She says that she has not seen him for about 35 years; that about that long ago he went with his son to Adams county to get some money that had been left him by his parents; that he was a miller by trade, and if living now is a very old man. Mrs. Moyer adds: "When I last saw my father he was living about ten miles out from Franklin, at some furnace, but I cannot remember the name." She is very anxious to hear concerning him or his sons, her half-brothers. Persons knowing anything about either will please address her as above.—Franklin News.

Shocking Accident.

On Wednesday of last week a shocking accident occurred near Elder's Saw Mill, in Barnett Township, one mile North of Clarington, by which James Boyd, residing at Maple Creek, lost his life. Together with Philo Williams and son Curtis, Mr. Boyd was engaged in taking out timber in Snipe Hollow. At the time of the accident he was rassing a timberstick. A green maple tree of considerable size that stood near where he was at work, without any apparent cause for so doing, suddenly turned out of root and fell toward Mr. Boyd, who, as soon as he saw his danger, at tempted to get out of the way. One of those ugly knots so frequently found growing on maples caught his leg between the thigh and knee, crushing it completely against the timber underneath. Mr. Williams and his son lifted the tree from off him as soon as possible, when it was found that the artery of the leg had been completely severed. Nothing could be done, and in twenty minutes death ensued.

Mr. Boyd leaves a wife and five children, all dependent upon him for support. Among all our citizens none was more respected than James Boyd. His family have the sympathy of all in their great affliction. As a tribute to his upright Christian character it has been remarked by one familiar with him, that, if any man in Forest County was ready to be called so suddenly, it was Jim. Boyd. J. E. H.

Death of Mrs. F. E. Allison.

The Hickory correspondent of the Warren Mirror has the following on the death of Mrs. F. E. Allison: Again has the angel of death visited us and taken a loved one from our midst. For a long time she has patiently borne great suffering but was resigned believing it for her highest good. On Tuesday Nov. 17th, Mrs. F. E. Allison passed from time to eternity. Standing before such an event of providence, her church as well as our town can most fittingly afford to praise her and express their sympathy to the bereaved, while they most sorrowfully erase the wife and mother's name from the family roll. Kind and affectionate to a remarkable degree some knew Mrs. Allison but to love her. Truly "her feet were shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace." Her life will still live the memory of her many friends and serve to make us more spiritually minded and mete for the life of Heaven. May God's richest benediction rest on the husband and His comforting grace come as a refreshing shower to our sorely stricken friends Emma and Sue, and to Irvie, may Christ appear as a gentle Saviour who awaits to bear this and all other burdens of his life.

A BOOK OF GREAT INTEREST. WAYSIDE GLEANINGS IN EUROPE. By Rev. B. BAUSMAN, D. D.

The subject of this work is Europe. It contains graphic descriptions of many of the most interesting places and countries. The author has freely mingled with the people, and describes their condition, habits and national peculiarities in a striking manner. His good judgment and rare descriptive powers exhibit him as well present to the reader just those things that are worth knowing and remembering. Of the many works that have been written on Europe, we venture to say that "Wayside Gleanings" is excelled by none in point of interest and instructiveness. 464 pages, printed on fine paper. Price, $1.50.

SPECIAL OFFER.—We will send the book between now and January 1, 1886, upon receipt of $1.25. Send one dollar bill and 25 cents in stamps. DANIEL MILLER, Publisher. Reading, Pa.
