

BOROUGH OFFICERS.

Burgess—ELI HOLEMAN. Councilmen—North ward, H. M. Foreman, J. R. Clark, W. L. Klinsstiver, South ward, J. H. Fones, W. A. Eagles, Chas. Bonner. Justices of the Peace—J. T. Brennan, D. S. Knox. Constable—Pritner Agnew. School Directors—G. W. Robinson, A. B. Kelly, J. H. Dingman, D. S. Knox, J. W. Morrow, E. L. Davis.

FOREST COUNTY OFFICERS.

Member of Congress—ALEXANDER C. WHITE. Member of Senate—J. G. HALL. Assembly—PETER BERRY. President Judge—W. D. BROWN. Associate Judges—LEWIS ARNER, JNO. A. PROPER. Treasurer—W. W. SHERRARD. Prothonotary, Register & Recorder, &c.—CURTIS M. SHAWKEY. Sheriff—LEONARD AGNEW. Commissioners—OLIVER BYERLY, WM. SAILEDY, J. R. CHADWICK. County Superintendent—J. E. HILL. District Attorney—P. M. CLARK. Jury Commissioners—H. O. DAVIS, DAVID WALTERS. County Surveyor—H. C. WHITTEKIN. Coroners—Dr. J. W. MORROW. County Auditors—J. A. SCOTT, THOS. CORAH, GEO. ZURBERG.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

TIONESTA LODGE No. 369, I. O. O. F. MEETS every Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Lodge Room in Partridge's Hall. G. W. KERR, N. G. J. W. SAWYER, Sec'y.

FOREST LODGE, No. 184, A. O. U. W. Meets every Friday Evening in Odd Fellows' Hall, Tionesta, Pa. S. S. CANFIELD, M. W. J. L. WENK, Recorder.

CAPT. GEORGE STOW POST, No. 274, G. A. R. Meets on the first Wednesday in each month, in Odd Fellows' Hall, Tionesta, Pa. D. S. KNOX, Commander.

AGNEW & CLARK, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Office in Court House, Tionesta, Penna.

T. J. VAN GIESEN, ATTORNEY AT LAW, and District Attorney of Forest County, Office in Court House, Tionesta, Pa.

E. L. DAVIS, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Tionesta, Pa. Collections made in this and adjoining counties.

MILES W. TATE, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Elm Street, Tionesta, Pa.

T. F. RITCHEY, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Tionesta, Forest County, Pa.

LAWRENCE HOUSE, Tionesta, Pa. T. C. Jackson, Proprietor. This house is centrally located. Everything new and well furnished. Superior Accommodations and strict attention given to guests. Vegetables and Fruits of all kinds served in their season. Sample room for Commercial Agents.

CENTRAL HOUSE, Tionesta, Pa. O. C. Brownell, Proprietor. This is a new house, and has just been fitted up for the accommodation of the public. A portion of the patronage of the public is solicited. 46-ly.

CENTRAL HOUSE, OIL CITY, PA. W. H. ROTH, Proprietor. The largest, Best Located and Furnished House in the City. Near Union Depot.

J. W. MORROW, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Late of Armstrong county, having located in Tionesta is prepared to attend all professional calls promptly and at all hours. Office and Residence two doors north of Lawrence House. Office hours 7 to 8 A. M., and 11 to 12 M.; 2 to 3 and 6 to 7 P. M. Sundays, 9 to 10 A. M.; 2 to 3 and 6 to 7 P. M. Aug. 25-1885.

W. C. COBURN, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Has had over fifteen years experience in the practice of his profession, having graduated in 1870 and honorably May 16, 1865. Office and Residence in Judge Rock's house, opposite the M. E. Church, Tionesta, Pa. Aug. 25-1885.

DENTISTRY. DR. J. W. MORROW. Having purchased the materials, &c., of Dr. Steadman, would respectfully announce that he will carry on the Dental business in Tionesta, and having had over six years successful experience, considers himself fully competent to give entire satisfaction. I shall always give my medical practice the preference. mar22-85.

MAY, PARK & CO., BANKERS! Corner of Elm & Walnut Sts. Tionesta.

Bank of Discount and Deposit. Interest allowed on Time Deposits. Collections made on all the Principal points of the U. S.

LORENZO FULTON, Manufacturer of and Dealer in

HARNESS, COLLARS, BRIDLES, And all kinds of HORSE FURNISHING GOODS. may18 TIONESTA, PA.

H. C. WHITTEKIN, Civil Engineer and Surveyor, TIONESTA, PA.

Land and Railway Surveying a Specialty. Magnetic, Solar or Triangulation Surveying. Best of Instruments and work. Terms on application.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with columns for NORTH and SOUTH, listing train numbers and times.

—Preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening by F. M. Small. —Presbyterian Sabbath School at 9:45 a. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

—United Presbyterian services will be held in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath, morning and evening. All are cordially invited to attend. Rev. W. H. McMurray will officiate.

—How's your "new leaf" panning out by this time? —Mrs. Geo. Morgan, now of Oil City, is paying her son William a visit.

—Auditors Scott, Corah and Zuen-del are at work on the annual report this week. —Alex Dale is home for a visit of a couple of weeks. He is accompanied by Mr. Cooper, a friend.

—A. J. Greenfield has received the appointment of Postmaster at Oil City, and W. R. Dawson at Tidioute. —Those wanting teeth extracted without pain should call on Dr. Morrow. His apparatus for administering gas works as nicely as could be.

—The teachers' institute is in session this week and is quite well attended considering the inclement weather and fearful condition of the roads.

—Hon. W. S. Stenger, Sec'y of the Commonwealth has our thanks for a pamphlet embracing the vetoes by Governor Pattison, of bills passed by the last legislature.

—A twenty barrel well was struck on the farm of John McIntyre, in Harmony township, on Saturday last. Mr. McIntyre's son, James, is one of the principal owners.

—The rig for the well on 5503, Green township, near the western end of the tract, will be completed to day, and the tools will be on the ground the first of next week.

—Go to the Court House to night and enjoy an elocutionary treat by Miss Laura Keller, and some elegant music by Tionesta's accomplished pianist, Miss Maude Davis. Go early and get a good seat.

—Dr. Morrow is again thoroughly on his traps and able to make long trips. The members of his family who have been sick are gaining nicely, and the indications are they will soon have quite recovered.

—Mr. Theo. L. Riddle was in town to attend the funeral of his aged grandmother, Mrs. Shriver, to-day. He is now located in Cherry Grove, Warren county, where he has a lucrative position with a good firm.

—The tabular statement showing the county's assessment as returned by the township assessors will be found in this issue. It is full and complete and will be studied with interest by the taxable inhabitants of the county.

—Mr. Arthur Kelly who has been with his parents for the past three weeks, departed again for his new home in Nebraska on Monday. He will make a trip through Kansas and the Indian Territory before settling down to business on the rancho.

—Miss Belle McClintock, whose fame as a singer has become national, has been engaged to sing at the Institute to-morrow evening. No one should allow this opportunity to pass without hearing the voice that has charmed metropolitan audiences. A rare treat, surely.

—On Christmas Eve several of the older citizens of the town called on Judge J. G. Dale and lady and proceeded to celebrate the 45th anniversary of their marriage. The guests left several handsome reminders of their visit, among which was an elegant silver service.

—On Tuesday evening of last week Wm. Huddleson, who resides about five miles north of this place, in Hickory township, had the misfortune to break his leg between the knee and ankle. He was on his way to church, and in stepping on an icy place slipped and fell. Dr. Coburn attended him.

—The well on the Gilmore tract, 2824, mention of which we made a few weeks ago, is about ready to tap the sand. In fact it is reported as having been finished and oil in the hole, but the story lacks confirmation. A well is expected, however, and is liable to commence spouting shortly.

—"Golden Days" for January has arrived and delighted its many interested readers. This elegant publication grows better with age, and should be in all families where there are young readers, James Elverson, Publisher, Philadelphia, Pa.

—The 3:52 train north, (formerly 4:01) now connects at Irvineton with the P. & E. train going east, so that one leaving here on that train can go through to Harrisburg, Philadelphia and other points without any delay. This is a convenience that was not heretofore to be had, and will be much appreciated by the traveling public.

—Dr. Siggins was called to Nebraska on Wednesday evening of last week to perform the delicate operation of amputating the right fore finger of Henry Klinsstiver, father of Geo. Klinsstiver. The old gent, who is 82 years of age, had gone to the mill for some kindling, and did not notice that the saw of the planing mill was in motion, and therefore got his hand a trifle too close.

—The new county officials took the oath of office on Monday of this week. Judge Proper will look quite natural and very little older on the bench which he vacated ten years ago. P. M. Clark Esq., has planted himself snugly into the District Attorney's office, where he will meet his old clients, and as many new ones as choose to come, with his usual urbanity and easy grace. We wish both new officers success.

—The next session of the Grand Lodge of the A. O. U. W. will be held in Pittsburgh, beginning January 12. A great deal of important business will be transacted. Among other things that will come up will be the recent decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania to the effect that the State Grand Lodge could not be controlled by the laws and rulings of the Supreme Lodge operating under a charter granted by the State of Kentucky. This decision has had the effect of preventing members from having any connection with the order in other States. This question will be settled by a vote of the subordinate lodges. There are 186 lodges in the State, with a membership of about 15,000. It is stated that fully 140 of the lodges will vote in favor of maintaining allegiance to the Supreme Lodge—Venango Citizen. The Citizen's figures are somewhat erroneous. The number of lodges is 208, and the membership nearly 30,000. It is believed that three-fourths of the lodges will vote as above indicated.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The Teachers' Institute now in session at the Court House is passing off lively and pleasantly. Thus far it has been a success. Owing to the very bad weather and bad roads the enrollment at the time of organization was small. But up to the present time the enrollment is growing rapidly. Those enrolled up to Tuesday evening are as follows: Gentlemen:—W. J. Shaffer, G. W. Lachner, J. D. Rhodes, W. J. Bloomfield, J. W. Black, W. H. McClain, C. J. Gibson, F. B. Winans, G. W. Kerr, R. Z. Gillespie, L. E. Beck, E. E. Zuen-dell, A. W. Albaugh. Ladies:—Kate Murphy, Vilette Sedden, Nina Sallado, Mamie Porter, Lillian Miles, Margaret Pastorius, Mary Lee, Lizzie Jones, Mrs. Nellie Crane, Ida Black, Laura Reaser, Emma Kiester, Maggie Williams, Kate Guenther, Nettie Hill, Ernestine Catlin, Lucia Moore, Mrs. W. H. McClain, Tillie M. Sterritt, Leola Fox, Maude Fox, Mrs. DeLacy, Lottie Shearing, Ida Weikel, Belle M. Lewis, Lizzie Guenther, Mary Sloan, Agnes Kerr, Laura Keller, Nora Hillard, Clara Young, Emma Johnson, Olive Murray, Sarah Corl, Nellie Brownell, Rilda Berlin, Birda Bromley, Flora Kelly, Achash Baldwin. There may be a few not yet enrolled.

Every teacher from Howe township is present. The same may be said of Green, Harmony, Tionesta and Tionesta Borough. So far not a teacher from Jenks has been present. Of those actually engaged in teaching there are absent; four from Barnett, two from Hickory, five from Jenks, one from Kingsley.

Monday afternoon, organization. Tuesday, the day was occupied in instruction in Drawing by Prof Hoge, and instruction in History by Supt. Lord. The Query Box was opened and questions discussed in the morning, and again in the afternoon. The Teachers Conference from 9:00 to 9:45 a. m., is a valuable part of the Institute. A half hour on Tuesday evening was occupied by Prof. Hoge on the subject of Physiology and Hygiene. The discussions on questions brought up at the Query Hour have been spirited.

Monday evening:—T. F. Ritchey, Esq., welcomed the teachers in an excellent address of about 25 minutes. C. J. Gibson, of Brookston, responded in a short but earnest and well chosen reply.

Tuesday evening:—M. L. Chadman delivered a lecture of one-half hour on Chemistry. It was good and well appreciated by the large audience present. It reflected credit on Mr. Chadman. S. D. Irwin, Esq., delivered an address abounding in good common sense thoughts and observations, well seasoned with humor. His hits brought down the house again and again.

Miss Maud Davis' music has been excellent. Miss Laura Keller has appeared before the Institute twice in her character as an elocutionist. Her work in this line is fine. She gives an entertainment to-night. A few of the teachers are a little tardy in getting to the opening of the sessions. But on the whole the teachers are as good looking and as earnest as they have ever been. They pay good attention. They take full notes. They are full of sensible questions. They have good ideas. They use good language. They are very loyal to "the cause." None chew gum in Institute. The court-room was well filled with spectators Tuesday afternoon. The day sessions are full of interest. Miss Belle McClintock will sing on Thursday evening. Supt. Lord will occupy 30 minutes that evening on the subject of History.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having an original speech to deliver to the youngsters, who propounded some knotty questions to Santa. Not a child nor member of the school was overlooked when the presents were distributed, and a very happy evening was spent. The decorations on both these occasions were profuse and really elegant, displaying fine taste upon the part of those who had charge of the same. Prof. Brady's corset accompaniments were a wonderful help in the musical line. We judge the Christmaside of '85 will live long in the memories of both young and old of this place.

—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly in this place. On Tuesday evening, 29th ult., the M. E. Sabbath School cantata was rendered in the court house to a more than crowded house, and the exercises were quite nicely gone through with. W. Y. Siggins personated Santa Claus in a happy manner, and had a nice present for every member of the school. On New Year's Eve the Presbyterian Church was packed to listen to and see the program rendered by the Sabbath School of that denomination. The music was excellent as were all the exercises. Judge Irwin did the St. Nicholas act in fine style, having