WEDNESDAY MOKNING, FEB. 3, 1886.

MRS, BAYARD, wife of the Secretary of State, died at her residence in the Potter committee that investigated Washington at 8:30 Sunday morning the Louisiana election, is too utterly last. Her illness had lasted since the bad, you know. Gad, the thing must sudden death of her daughter on the be stopped or the mob will believe 16th ult, the shock from which was that the new committee is too English, the indirect cause of her death. The sympathy of the country will go out to the bereaved husband, and it will not be surprising to hear of his withdrawal from public life.

the State of Ohio may be part of the other three shall sit and vote, one of motive for the desperate effort to clog them being tried at a time, the one the Legislature with obstacles in the under trial not to vote on questions way of investigation, if they spend the affecting his right, but the other two whole session in quarreling over the voting. Bear in mind that this is not organization. When the Democrats the act alone of the caudidates for the came into power two years ago there penitentiary who perpetrated the was a surplus in the Treasury of $618, frauds, but of the solid Democratic 000. When Hoadly went out the Treasury was empty, they left a large Democratic party papers the country floating debt, and the estimated re ceipts for the current year are only Kennedy a usurper for ruling that the about two million dollars, while the frauds should not vote on their own yearly expenditures are four millions. cases. In other words, the D mocrats No wonder the Democrats make such having four thieves to try, insist that a fight for their thieves. It postpones the thieves shall sit on the jury that investigation of the finances.

THE President refuses to give the Senate his reasons for removing Dis trict-attorney Dustin during his term, or to send the papers and documents Forest County, Pa., for the year 1886: bearing on the case, on the ground that the public interest will not be promoted by such a course. The President may have good reason to be lieve that his own interests will not be advanced by a free exhibit of the mo tives and reasons which prompt his action, but if the Senate is at all con cerned with the character of appoint ments, and does not exercise a merely formal and perfunctory office in advising and consenting to nominations, the removal of the officers it has ap proved is certainly some of its busi ness. We hope the Senate has back. bone enough to make the President Walter Crouch, general merchanrealize this fact. - Phila Press.

The New Tax Law Asgain.

The Board of Rev nue Commissioners, which is composed of Secretary of State Stenger, Treasurer Liv-inquiries concerning certain points in the new tax law:

The board of Revenue Commissioners, at a meeting held on January 21, 1885, considered the many questions submitted to them growing out of the enforcement of the revenue act of January 30, 1884, and call attention to their answers to the following questions as their interpretation of the law :

Are bank deposits not bearing in-terest but subject to check on sight and money not invested, included in the item 'all other moneyed capital?' No. 'Is a dower on real estate taxable?'

"Are deposits bearing interest in national banks, saving banks and private banks taxable?" Yes. "Are musical instruments, pictures, books, &c., to be regarded as house-hold furniture?" No.

'Are mortgages owned by beneficfal associations taxable?" Yes.

"Are mortgages, judgments, bonds, notes, etc., not bearing interest taxa-ble?" Yes. Yes.

"Are bonds issued by school dis-tricts taxable in the hands of the Yes. "Is the stock of corporations, paying tax on capital stock to the State through the companies, taxable in the hands of the owners?" Yes, "Is stock of the New York Central Railroad and other foreign corporations owned in this State taxable in the hands of the owners ?" Yes, "Can a taxable person deduct debts from the amount of his moneyed investments and only pay tax on the net sum thus shown?" No.

"If A borrows money from B on a note and lends it to C on a note are both taxable?" Yes.

A Circular to Soldiers.

Hon. Thomas J. Stewart, Secretary of the Pennsylvania S Idiers and Sailors' Home at Erie, has issued a circular to the G. A. R. Posts, restween the hours of 10 and 11 o clock, a. m. pecting the admission of indigent soldiers to the State Home, which will be formerly opened on February 22, 1886. The circular states that the soldlers elegible to admission must have been citizens of Pennsylvania or enlisted in Pennsylvania regiments, whoare in indigent circumstances and who cannot gain admission at the National Homes supported by the general Government. The accommodations are limited to 200, and as this number tallies with the number of members of the House of Representatives of this State, it has been decided that entitled to admissions equal to the number of its members in the House.

the son of the agent of the Rothschilds, Foreign Relations Committee, but that he should appoint an unnaturalized Englishman as the confidential clerk of the committee, and he, too, one who was condemned for forgery by and not "early English" at that.

THE compromise talk in the Ohio State Senate amounts to nothing, but that the Democrats shall agree that one fraudulent Senator shall retire. PERHAPS the financial condition of and his contestant be seated, but the party in the Legislature, while the over, are calling Lieutenant Governor tries their companions in crime.

CULVER-WELL, M. D.

The world renowned author, in this admirable lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without dangerous surgical operations, bangles, instruments, rings or cordials, pointing out a model of dials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain, and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
