Church and Sabbath School.

Preaching in M. E. Church every Sabbath evening by Rev. Small.
Presbyterian Sabbath School at 9:45 a. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10:00 a. m.

—Court next week.

—Next Monday will be Washington's birthday, and a legal holiday.

—The ice still remains in Tionesta creek above Newtown.

—The elections in this borough and township passed off quietly yesterday.

—One little touch of groundhog weather makes a whole community shiver.

—The sleighing is pretty badly damaged hereabouts, but back on the hills it is said to be still fair to middlin'.

—W. H. Roth of Oil City was in town last Friday, and visited the Morck & Beatty well on 5503, Green township.

—Mrs. T. J. VanGieson, of Edenburg, accompanied by her two youngest children, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Sloan.

—Mr. B. F. Morris has sold the Warren Ledger to Messrs. D. D. and F. E. Reed. Mr. Morris is still editor of the paper.

—The revival meetings are still in progress at the M. E. Church and are well attended. Prayer meeting every afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

—Last Saturday was generally utilized as Valentine day, and the P. O. D. was somewhat enriched by the cancellation of numerous one-cent stamps.

—The remains of James A. Mealy, who was killed at Marienville, were buried at his former home near Newmarville, on Friday of last week. Rev. Small conducting the services.

—Chas. Lawson, the gentlemen who was so frightfully injured at Eagle Rock on 5th inst., is getting along quite well considering the nature and severity of his hurts, so his physicians report.

—The cold turn in the weather Monday night has made things "all solid" along the river flats, and the huge piles of ice are to be housed-over and kept for use in the harvest field next summer.

—The editor of the Brookville Democrat speaks of having received "a note from Paradise after he had gone to press." We hope the brother won't be obliged to make such an announcement "after he has gone hence."

—Hab. W. Roberts, who has charge of a large gang of men and oversees the carpenter work on the Buffalo Division of the B. N. Y. & P. R. R., stopped a few hours in town Monday. He had a force of men at work on the trestle at West Hickory.

—We learn from the Raton, New Mexico, Comet, that "B. F. Caldwell, who resigned his position recently in the Santa Fe shops, has been appointed general foreman of the Atlantic & Pacific shops at Albuquerque, and will enter upon his duties at once." We understand our old friend Benjamin has dropped into a position which brings him $200 a month.

—Under the head of "Missing Links," the Harrisburg Telegraph informs us that the marriage of a girl of ten years and eight months to a man of thirty years is reported by good authority from Suwanee County, Pennsylvania. The girl's father is a minister, and the ceremony was performed by his consent. The "Missing Link," in this case is a map of Pennsylvania, showing thereon the location of Suwanee County.—Elk Advocate.

—Mr. W. Byrom, of Byrom's Mill's, Forest county, was in town yesterday for the first time for over three months. On the 2d, of last November his right leg was crushed between the knee and ankle, and he is just getting able to be around.—Clarion Rep. Gazette.

—Dr. Shamburg of West Hickory, Pa., lost his lemon and white setter dog, a pup of six months, answering to the name of "Fritz." The Dr. values the dog particularly on account of having been a present to him, and will give a suitable reward to the one returning him.

—Mr. Geo. F. Watson, of Hickory township, is likely to become a citizen of our town in the near future. He has been negotiating with Mr. A. B. Kelly for the purchase of his fine residence, and if successful will move here in the spring. All our people would welcome Mr. Watson and family to our borough. In the event of a sale Mr. Kelly would build a new mansion the coming summer.

—Peterson's Magazine for March is a beauty. The articles are all of the usual high character which distinguishes "Peterson." There is a charming steel engraving, "Dear Mamma"; a mammoth colored fashion plate; a colored pattern for Java canvas; and not less than fifty wood-cuts, illustrating fashions, embroidery-patterns, etc. The price is but two dollars a year, which places it within the reach of all. Now is a good time to get up clubs. Address Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Borough and Township Elections.

A citizens caucus for the borough was held in the Universalist Church on Monday evening, which was largely attended, more votes being cast in fact, than at the regular election yesterday. The interest was principally centered in the nomination of candidates for school director. The ticket as nominated was elected, and is as follows:

- Burgess, John Reck.
Councilmen, I. J. Hopkins, North Ward; C. A. Randall, South Ward.
High Constable, S. S. Canfield.
Constable, S. S. Canfield.
Tax Collector, C. M. Arner.
Assessor, C. M. Arner.
School Directors, D. W. Clark, C. M. Shawkey.
Overseers of the Poor, A. B. Kelly—2 years; Patrick Joyce—1 year.
Auditors, J. E. Proper, T. F. Ritchey.
Judge of Elections, G. W. Sawyer.
Inspector of Elections, W. Y. Siggins.
R. B. Crawford.

IN TIONESTA TOWNSHIP.

The election was quite spirited, the offices of road commissioner and two school directors being the principle bone of contention. A rather singular coincidence occurred in connection with the office of road commissioner: At a caucus of the citizens on Saturday the names of Wm. Hood and P. C. Blocher were presented; three ballots were taken and each resulted in a tie between the gentlemen. It was then agreed that both candidates be placed in the field and voted for at the election. This was done, and, strange to say, another tie resulted. Following is the township ticket as elected:

- Constable, Philip Emert.
Road Commissioner, P. C. Blocher.
Tax Collector, G. W. Zents.
Overseers of the Poor, Henry Rhodes.
Auditor, George Weant.
Township Clerk, Charles Weingard.
School Directors, Q. Jamieson, Henry Wolf.
Inspectors of Election, Joseph Mong, George B. Armstrong.
Judge of Election, J. H. Wentworth.
Assessor, Philip Emert.
Treasurer, William Lawrence.

JAMES WALTON, Marienville, Forest Co., Pa., Feb. 1st, 1886.

FLOOD OF 1886.

The break-up of February 13th, 1886, will long be remembered by the inhabitants of Tionesta and vicinity as the severest since 1861. The natural flood of 1865 was much more severe generally, but not in this place, and the water at that time was no higher at this point, nor was it accompanied by ice; it came on more gradually, thus giving the people time to prepare for it.

The ice commenced to move in the river here on Saturday forenoon about eleven o'clock, and had been running fully 20 minutes before any danger was apprehended, and the people along the river front had come to the conclusion that the worst was over, when the ice gorged in the main channel at the head of Dustin island, half a mile below town, thus forcing the entire body of floating ice through the channel between the head of Dustin and foot of Hunter islands. Then the water came rushing back, and before people had time to realize what was going on the whole flat or lower part of the town was inundated, so that boats were easily floated over five-foot fences. Ice was piled from 10 to 15 feet high along Front St. Every cellar in that part of the town was flooded, and in many instances furniture floated around in the house in water two and three feet deep. As a consequence all sustained more or less loss, among whom are Jas. G. Carson, S. S. Canfield, Mrs. Saul, Isaac Shimp, Wm. Guiton, Ed. Sanner, J. R. Chadwick, Andrew Carr, J. H. Dingman, Mrs. Dr. Hunter and family, W. Y. Siggins, John Hart, Moses Hepler, E. L. Davis, and others. Most of these had potatoes, fruit and other eatables in their cellars that were either badly damaged or ruined entirely.

AT EAST HICKORY
We learn a great deal of damage was done, the town being nearly all submerged. Several roads of the approach to the east end of the bridge were swept away. The railroad track over West Hickory flats was covered with ice several feet high, stopping travel completely during the day. The trains were running regularly on Monday, however.

FOUND AFLOAT.
The river bridge at this place stood the test like a major, although the ice-breakers were badly chewed up. One of the piers of the creek bridge was damaged somewhat, the ice having crowded it from below. It might be a good idea, if this performance is going to occur often, to put ice breakers on the lower side of the piers.

Lawrence, across the creek lost nearly all his fence, and many of his young fruit trees were ruined.

It was quite common to see a chicken coop floating around with the poultry perched on top and old chauticleer crowing lustily.

Many lost chickens, and some lost many. Charlie Hinton lost his entire flock of 28.

Canfield's pig struggled nobly for an hour among the floating ice cakes, when Shell and J. B. Muse came to the rescue. Jim was the hero of the hour and received the plaudits of the anxious crowd.

This flood furnishes another event to date from.

Panther Rock Points.

The Sikes Brothers, of Balltown, are occupying the sawmill at this place as a tank shop.

Mrs. George Whitten is visiting friends at Minister this week.

Miss S. J. Keister of East Hickory, and Miss Belle Lewis of Reidsburg, Clarion county, are the guests of Miss Hattie Tobey this week.

Mr. Robert Harkisen has the job of cutting and delivering cordwood for the drilling wells on the Cook tract.

Pat. Normile is all smiles on account of the arrival of a brand new 9 lb. girl baby at his house.

Miss Mame Murphy and Miss Minnie Whitten are both on the sick list. We hear there is to be a wedding in the near future; for further information ask Jerry.

Curly Bangs of Kellettville takes a long walk for his health once a week, so he says; but we guess it is to see his girl; if the ice was out of the creek he could come home on a float.

Feb. 13. STRANGER.

—All kinds Rubber Boots and Shoes at Wm. Smearbaugh & Co. 2t.

—For rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, cramp and colic there is no remedy superior to the genuine Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.

A New Enterprise for Tionesta.

Tionesta is soon to have a new enterprise that will prove a benefit in more ways than one. Messrs. John Cobb & Co., have arrangements completed for the erection of a mill on the ground below the depot, where Derickson & Co's mill formerly stood. It is the intention of the new firm to manufacture all kinds of lumber, staves, &c., from the timber of our surrounding country. They will make staves all the way from 14 to 30 inches in length which they propose to manufacture into kegs, firkins, barrels, etc., for use in various branches of trade. A patent dry kiln will be erected with a capacity of several thousand staves, and which will season lumber in 36 hours, so that orders can be filled on the shortest notice. The new deal will furnish employment to at least a score of men, besides giving those in this vicinity who have small lots of white oak and other timber a market for their wares, at good prices and spot cash. In connection with this plan the firm has given Mr. E. S. Hoyt a contract for manufacturing shingles on Hunter Run and he will move his mill forthwith to that location.

Altogether this enterprise will be quite a boom for our town, as, instead of shipping the timber to other places to be manufactured into the different articles above referred to, it will all be done here and the profits reaped by home talent, as it were, much of which will be spent and circulated among our citizens. We wish the new deal abundant success, and hope it will receive the encouragement of all.

Nebraska Notes.

The ice left the creek here yesterday without inflicting damage to property. Rafting will not begin for a week or ten days. If there is any substance in a groundhog shadow, we are likely to have another freeze-over, therefore rafting would incur some risk.

St. Valentine's day was commemorated here by its usual influx of caricatures. "Some, with sentimental thought, invoked the muses; while others, with vicious rhyme intent, abuses." Such is life.

Mr. Everel Collins and Jake Klinefister are home for a short visit to their parents, from Meadville, where they are attending college.

We congratulate the young folks on the pleasing addition to their society in the person of Albie Gillilan, who will spend several months in the place. A few years ago when Albie left us, he was a mere boy; now he is a young man who has no thought of letting the grass grow under his feet. And he wears—oh, my!—a mustache!

Mr. Abe Clark has just returned from a weeks visit in Clarion Co.

Mrs. Frank Guiton of Fox Creek is quite ill.

We were deprived of the usual services last Sunday, on account of the break-up, the road being rendered impassable by ice.

Feb. 15, '86. JOHN.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS!

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS That Ache in Small of Back.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS Weary, Aching Bones.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS Dyspepsia.

Genrs.—I feel it my duty to say respecting Burdock Blood Bitters, that it is the best medicine I ever took. I suffered two or three years from stomach troubles and dyspepsia, as well as from liver and kidney complaint. I was not able to attend to my business. My wife was afflicted in much the same way. We read of your Bitters in the papers and made up our minds that we would try them. The result is, my wife and I began to improve at once, and I am now able to do more hard work than before in ten years. It relieved my kidney troubles as well. We both wish you, the makers of it, Godspeed.

JOSEPH LANDON, Cheiess, W.
