LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 78c. Opening this morning at 76c.

Next Sunday will be Easter Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Hood is, and has been for a month past, quite sick.

Dr. Siggins has been handing out cigars to his friends since Friday last.

The latest reports from Mr. John Cubb are more favorable to his recovery, we are pleased to state.

Hos. Peter Berry, of Balltown, is this week announced as a candidate for Assembly, subject to Republican usages.

Eddie, Mr. Lawrence's youngest son, is lying at the point of death at this writing, having been sick nearly two weeks.

Mr. Chadwick's books have arrived and subscribers may expect him around any time to deliver the work, Blaine's "Twenty Years of Congress."

Much soil has been turned up during the past week of unusually fine weather and the oats crop ought to be large if there is any virtue in an early start.

Little Ruth Clark entertained about forty of her young companions at her home on Thursday evening last. The little folks enjoyed themselves immensely.

The "Champion City Times," a new paper published at Springfield, Ohio, is very neat, and contains a fund of spicy reading matter. W. T. Stillwell is the manager.

Mr. J. V. Wackerman of Buffalo, is spending a few days in the county. He has some landed interests in Jenks township, which may before long develop into oil territory.

Information has been requested of S. D. Irwin, Adj't of Stow Post G. A. R., as to the whereabouts of Peter G. Sweet, Serg't Major of 109, Pa. Vols., in 1864. He is supposed to be in Forest County.

Dr. Cohurn has determined to leave us as soon as he can get his business affairs settled. We believe the doctor has not yet fully decided where he will locate, but talks some of going East. Wherever he may locate we wish him success.

Frank Law of Oil City has purchased the tanning outfit of Ed. Heibel and set up shop in the Robinson & Bonner building, over the engine house. Mr. Law is a first class workman, deserving of success, and we hope our citizens will patronize him liberally.

The M. E. Sabbath School is engaged in the rehearsal of an Easter service entitled "Chimes of the Resurrection," which they purpose rendering at the church next Sunday evening. It will make a very attractive entertainment, representing the anniversary of a Risen Saviour.

The latest rumor connected with the Everhart murder is to the effect that a coat and pair of overalls marked with blood were lately found by Dr. Beatty near Scotch Hill which are supposed to belong to a miser who worked for Porter at the Everhart mine previous to the murder. It is believed by many to be an important clue. One of Pinkerton's Detectives is now engaged on the case.—Clarion Democrat.

Last Saturday evening, while Mr. Alex. Smith, brother-in-law of Hon. N. P. Wheeler, was returning from the latter's mill at Stowtown, Hickory twp., he was stricken with an alarming attack of hemorrhage of the lungs. At last accounts he was still in a critical condition.

Dr. Ritchey and McCullough, and Fred. Morgan came up from Oil City last Friday morning to overstock the market with trout. The two medical gentlemen weathered the hot wave in fine style and returned with a nice lot of trout. But, poor Fred; the sport was too much for him, and he started for town about noon, literally loaded down with trout and gum boots, where he arrived just before he expired. Rallying after sundown, however, he was able to return home with the party in the evening, and no doubt made his friends believe he had caught all the trout.

Maj. Hilton, of Washington, D. C., is expected to arrive here on Saturday, May 1st. Maj. H. is a noted temperance apostle who has a national reputation as a lecturer and moral reformer. He comes under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. of Tionesta, and it is to be hoped the people of our county will give a cordial welcome to this eminent speaker. After his arrival the following program has been arranged: Sabbath, May 2, services at Presbyterian Church at 11 a. m. Evening, at M. E. Church at 8. There will be a joint Sabbath School meeting at 3 p. m., at the Methodist Church. There will be lectures during the week following to be announced in the future. The choir will furnish appropriate music on each occasion.

We have received the May number of Ballou's well known magazine. It gives the opening chapters of what promises to be an exceedingly interesting serial story by Theodore Arnold, entitled "After the Wedding," handsomely illustrated; together with a choice and varied selection of complete stories, sketches and poetry, by the best authors. Clean, bright and sparkling in every respect. Subscription $1.50 per year, post-paid. For sale by newsdealers, price fifteen cents. G. W. Studley, Publisher, 23 Hawley St., Boston, Mass.

Mr. Lusher has moved his family to Hickory.

Butler Rice of Newtown strolled up to the village Sunday.

Robert Gillespie was around among his friends last Friday; his brother Ed. is here clearing the stumps from the tannery site.

Mrs. E. H. Chase and her two daughters, of Girard, Erie Co., are here visiting relatives. Mr. Chase having sold his house and lot in Girard for a snug sum, has located for the present in Springfield, Mo., where his family will join him later in the season.

Elmer Stitzinger has taken his departure for the West, no doubt Kansas or Missouri. His brother George who is at present here expects to follow soon.

Charley Bowers owns a brass horn—in fact he is the only one in town who can blow his own horn—which sends forth strains of heavenly music every evening.

Grant, the Newfoundland dog owned by Andy Small, is very sagacious. During the high water here one of the men fell from the skiff in landing, and was going from shore when the dog thrust out his paw, and the man grasping it, he pulled like a tiger until his man was landed high, if not dry, much to the admiration of the lookers on.

'Squire Dean of Crawford Co., has succeeded our native dealers in selling meat, etc., along the line.

Sweet Heliotrope of Hickory town, Post, of great and wide renown. Pray tell me, are you lass or lad? That gives the boys away so bad? And while you tell what others do, Is there no one to equal on you? Say, can you live on sweetened treacle? Don't be angry at, yours in fun, EZEKIEL.

Notice. The firm of Robinson & Bonner, so far as relates to their mercantile and lumbering interests, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business will be conducted by G. W. Robinson at the old stand, where all persons knowing themselves indebted to the firm can settle the same.

CORRESPONDENCE.

FAGUNDUS.

W. P. Wagner of Fagundus seems to be doing a good business by the looks of things. He is putting up addition room to his store. He has moved the post office into his store room. Another move in the same direction and the post office would be in Forest Co.

Miss Cox still presides over the select school at Fagundus.

Mr. Patterson of Triumph has been chosen teacher for the summer term at Fagundus school house.

BRIEFS FROM NEILLTOWN.

P. C. Black is still at it. His last venture on the Ensign Place off toward Neilltown off to the right from the Landers Farm was a duster. The rig has been taken down and is being put up some distance to the East of the said duster and nearer Neilltown. The well put down on the Landers Farm was a success. Better sand was found than at any time or in any well heretofore drilled in that locality.

Another well is going down North of this one and in the direction of Pineville. If it should be a good one the effect on land owners in that direction would be exhilarating, to say the least. As it is, leases are being taken in that direction now, or rather, have been taken, and it is not a very easy matter to get a lease, either.

The sugar-making season is over. But having tasted maple syrup at Neilltown we are prepared to detect the spurious anywhere, for we had the genuine there, you know, and the memory of the peculiar flavor of the real decoction, if you have any foundation for such a memory, cannot grow musty or ambiguous in a day or two.

Mr. Clinger had a mishap with his new horse and old harness not long since. He was going up the hill on the eastern side of Hickory creek in his buggy, the county superintendent being with him, when a tug broke. It was hard just then to tell what happened next, or how, but soon—very soon—after the sun looked down on a buggy with two shafts broken standing against a stump on the roadside with some harness hanging to the shafts, a satchel, a whip, and two surprised individuals standing in the road gazing after a pretty harnessed horse making a record that was more fast than pleasant to contemplate under the circumstances.

W. J. Bloomfield will teach the summer term of school at Neilltown.

A. A. Hopkins made a short visit home, coming on Friday.

W. J. Gorman's new horse had a little fun to himself the other day, it didn't hurt the horse any but it was hard on the overland pipe line.

R. O. Carson met with a little accident at Tidouste some time since that might have been worse. He was coming out of town driving his big horse when he met a freight train. The horse scared and in no time, so to speak, the buggy was without shafts and Mr. Carson and the other contents of the buggy were lying in the road, the horse trying to climb the bank above the road so steep as to threaten to topple him back into the road over the buggy and driver. Mr. Carson held to the lines and managed to control the horse, but it was a risky business.

The Landers Bro's are famous for their skill in rearing colts into well broken horses. They have never yet sent from their stables a vicious horse of their own rearing.

David Landers has a pet, and as a result carries his hand in a sling.

C. E. Landers owns the boss pig of the county. It is a cheshire.

John Wiles a week ago last Saturday, at the mouth of West Hickory, broke the record. He caught 12 suckers and 8 perch. He used part of the day only, and it was just a moderate day for piscatorial sports either.

Notice of Dissolution.

The firm of Robinson & Bonner, so far as relates to their mercantile and lumbering interests, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business will be conducted by G. W. Robinson at the old stand, where all persons knowing themselves indebted to the firm can settle the same.

Brookston Items.

Farmers here have commenced in good earnest. The Forest Tanning Co. has sowed about ten acres of oats; P. A. Black scattered the seed, while the "Squire" stuck the stakes for him.

The Forest Tanning Co. are placing a new board fence around their premises, which will add greatly to the appearance of our town.

We have had only one new case of the measles yet.

The wife and children of B. P. Anderson are much better.

The Township Auditors meet on the 19th to adjust the accounts of the township.

We hear from reliable sources that the pigeons are nesting between Blue Jay and the Tionesta creek.

What we want to know: What makes Matthew smile so when a pretty girl comes into the store?

RESOLUTIONS.

The following resolutions were adopted by Irwin Council, R. T. T., of this place, at its meeting on Wednesday last:

WHEREAS, God in His All-wise Providence, has taken from us in the full vigor of his life Brother H. A. Adams, an efficient and faithful member of the Royal Templers of Temperance, and a useful and esteemed citizen; and whereas, the workings of God's Providence to us are mysterious, yet we know that to be with Christ is far better;

Resolved, That we humbly bow before Him who hath thus bereaved us and say, "Thy will be done;" That while deeply sympathizing with the bereaved family, we encourage them not to mourn as those that have no hope; That we can and do bear witness to the faithfulness of our brother in the temperance work; That the charter of our Council be draped in mourning for thirty days; That these resolutions be placed on the minute book in memoriam of our departed Brother;

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family.

WISCONSIN SOLDIER.

The sun was setting in the west And filled with lingering ray, Neath the branches of a forest tree A wounded soldier lay.

Neath the shades of a palmetto And a sultry southern sky, Far from his loved Wisconsin home We laid him down to die.

A group had gathered round him, His comrades in the fight, A tear rolled down his manly cheek As he bade them all good night.

But one loved and dear companion Was kneeling by his side, Who tried to stop the life blood flowing, But alas, in vain he tried.

His heart was filled with anguish When he found it was in vain, And on his loved companion's face The tear drops fell like rain.

Up spoke the dying soldier, "Ere I am no more for me For I am crossing that dark river, Beyond where all is free.

"Then comrades gather 'round me And hear these words I say, I'm a going to tell a story Ere my spirit passes away;

Away off in old Wisconsin, In that good old Pine Tree State, There's one that waits my coming With a saddened heart she doth wait.

"She is a fair young girl, my sister, My blessing and my pride; She has been a maid since childhood, I have none else beside.

I loved her as a sister, And with a father's care, I have tried through grief and sorrow Her gentle heart to bear.

"When our country was invaded And the call for volunteers, She threw her arms around my neck And burst into tears.

Saying go my dearest brother, Drive those traitors from your shore Your sister needs your presence, But your country needs you more.

"I dearly loved my country; I gave to her my all, If it was not for my sister I would be content to fall;

But comrades I am dying, I shall never see her more; She will vainly watch my coming In that little cottage door.

"My mother she lies buried Beneath the church yard sod; It's many and many a long year Since her spirit went to God.

My father he lies buried Beneath the dark blue sea; I have no other kindred, There's none but Nell and me.

"Then comrades gather 'round me, And hear my dying prayer; Who'll be to her a brother, Shield her with a father's care."

Up spoke the soldiers proudly, As one they seem to fall, "We'll be to her a brother, Protect her one and all."

Then a glad deep smile of gladness, And the soldier boy was dead, Neath the shades of a palmetto tree We laid him down to rest, His knapsack for a pillow And his musket on his breast.
