United Presbyterian services will be held in the Presbyterian Church next Sabbath evening at 8 o'clock, by Rev. J. M. Imbrie.

The rain of last Saturday came none too soon, as the surrounding forests were "dying to burn," and fires were visible on all sides.

A heap of new fence has been built in the borough this spring, much of which was made necessary by the damaging floods of this spring.

Ernest Sibble, on his new farm on German Hill, has several acres of as nice looking wheat as is generally seen at this time of the season.

The whippoorwill has come and for the past week has been making music in the suburbs. This is the old woman's sign for turning the cows out for the summer to pick for themselves.

Judge Reck is treating his mansion to a new coat of paint which shows it off to better advantage than it has ever appeared before, and makes it very attractive. A. M. Doust is the artist.

Our veteran friend Capt. Jas. Zahraiser paid us a pleasant call on Saturday, being on his way to Crawford county to accompany his aged helpmate home, who has been visiting for some weeks.

The well on the Bautzer farm, in Tionesta twp., is reported by some as a good one, and by others a duster. The latter opinion appears to predominate with the majority of those who have an opinion.

James T. Maffett Esq., is announced in the Clarion Republican as a candidate for Congress in this district. Col. S. M. Jackson of Armstrong is also announced as a candidate in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence wish to return many thanks to those friends and neighbors who so kindly extended them aid and sympathy in their recent affliction, the sickness and death of their child.

Since the Clarion grand jury ignored the bill against VanCamp, for the Lickingville murder, nothing later has come to light, and so far as the public is concerned the tragedy is still clothed in utter darkness.

Prof. H. A. McChuteck will lecture on Anthropology, Physiology, Mental Electricity, Hygiene and Mesmerism, in the assembly room of the school house on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. The admissions will be quite low, only 15 and 10 cents, which should induce all to go.

Stow Post will hold an important meeting on next Wednesday evening, May 5, at which all comrades should be present. Final arrangements for the proper observance of Memorial Day will be made at that meeting.

Prof. A. L. E. Crouter, Principal, has our thanks for a copy of the annual report of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, Philadelphia. We observe the institution has one pupil from Brookston, this county.

The residence of Hon. Geo. A. Jenks, at Brookville, was entered recently by burglars during the temporary absence of the parties who were left in charge of the house. About $200 worth was stolen and the house badly ransacked.

The Oriental Lectures of Rev. Dr. Dobbs at the M. E. Church on Monday and last evenings were fairly attended. The Dr. is an interesting speaker and handles his subject in a very entertaining manner. To night finishes the course.

The Easter exercises by the M. E. Sabbath School on Sunday evening last were well rendered and quite interesting to the large audience present. Rev. Hickling delivered two very able sermons appropriate to the occasion at the Presbyterian Church.

J. H. Wilson, W. W. Barr and Geo. F. Kribbs will compete for Clarion county's instructions for Senator of this district. There being little chance for a Republican in the district, and Mr. Kribbs being a newspaper man, and a good one, our sympathies naturally incline toward him.

The trees have leaved out so fast during the past week as to almost obstruct the view on all sides. Juneberries, peach and apple trees are blooming, and the season is fully a month ahead of last year so far as vegetation goes. Only one thing is lacking to make spring complete, and that is the swallow, the dead sure sign.

After a very brief illness, lasting but two days, Rosinna May, infant daughter of Dr. Morrow, died on Friday evening last, at about half past six o'clock. The child was aged 11 months and 23 days. Its death was caused by congestion of the lungs. Dr. Morrow and family have the sympathy of all our people in their bereavement.

The following tough story is going the rounds of the press in this neighborhood: "How do you account for the singular name of your town?" asked a stranger of a resident of Tidout. "Well, it's a very short story. The first white man who had a cabin here in the year 1743, had a daughter. She had a pet owl. One evening the old man shot the owl by accident and when the girl heard of it she fainted and the old man thought she was dead. At last she opened her eyes and whispered: 'Oh pa, did he hoot?' He was so delighted with the girl's recovery that he named his place after the first words she spoke and that gradually was corrupted into its present form."

After more than two weeks of ceaseless suffering, Eddie, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lawrence passed peacefully away on Monday morning, April 26, 1886. For sixteen weary days and nights the parents and friends watched over the patient little sufferer, hoping that a change might come that would relieve him of his pains, but that relief only came when, a few moments before the final separation, he fell into a peaceful sleep to waken in eternity. Eddie was aged two years and eight days, and was a bright and interesting child, in whose loss the sympathy of friends and neighbors goes out to the bereaved parents. The funeral services took place yesterday forenoon and were conducted by Rev. Hickling. His trouble was lung fever.

The borough council, at its last meeting, appointed S. S. Canfield street commissioner, levied a five-mill work tax, and a five-mill cash tax, appointed A. B. The St. Com'r was instructed to have road tax work out by Sept. 1st, and that after said date all wages be reduced one-half. J. H. Fones' resignation was handed in and accepted and G. W. Sawyer appointed in his place. All of which will meet with approval by the people.

Mr. R. R. Andrews of Kellettsville was in town last Saturday. He informs us that work on the new tannery is going bravely on, although progress is somewhat impeded by not being able to get such quality of lumber as they wish for the business. Nevertheless the men at the head of the enterprise are energetic and wide-awake, and expect to have the institution in running order before the summer is far advanced.

Geo. Seth Clover, who was at one time Sheriff of Clarion County, and afterwards Canal Commissioner of this State, has been appointed additional farmer in the Indian Territory, to the Cheyenne and Arapahoe tribes. He assumed his duties the 1st of this month, with headquarters at Darlington in that territory.—Clarion Rep-Gazette.

Harry Smith is trying housekeeping in a snug little house at the mill, and Humph. Downey will soon occupy one of the now vacant houses here.

Miss Gerty Thompson has returned to her home in Nebraska; this accounts for so many sad looking faces among the gentlemen. The Anchor Oil Co., are giving employment to some of our citizens. They have one well now down between 300 and 400 feet and rig building for another. Should either of these be successful they will put down several more, directly; their lease is located near Buck Mills, which is now the centre of attraction. By right of succession it should be Kellettsville's turn next.

Judge Arner and Andy Small had the misfortune to lose their best milk cows last week. The cows helped themselves to freely to chop and died from the effects in a short time. The Salmon Creek Mills are shut down for a few days. EZEKIEL. April 27, 1886.

Marienville Murmurs. I thought a few words from Marienville would interest some of your readers: Mrs. Charles Burton died last Tuesday after a lingering illness. She left a husband and two small children to mourn her loss. Dr. Towler had the misfortune to dislocate his knee the other day. Miss Laura Caup paid her aunt, Mrs. C. W. Amsler a visit last week. Miss Ella Cunningham, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John Smith, has gone to spend a few weeks at Byroms.

A little child of Jack Caldwell's broke its arm by falling off a chair the other day. The new church, when finished, will be one of the finest in Forest county. Our public school opened last Monday with a good attendance. If you want a good bargain go to L. L. West, the first class boot and shoe man.

F. M. Reck commenced to remodel his building to-day; when finished it will be a first class hotel. Our town is improving very fast. James Morrison and Wm. Green have both put a neat paling fence in front of their residences. Col. Amsler has lumber on the ground for a new store building. April 26, 1886. K.

Stewarts Run Riplets. Good morning! Mr. Editor. It is such pleasant weather thought we would tell ye what the good people, and those not so good, were doing. Some are farming, some are gardening; most of the house-wives are house cleaning, that's what our 'tother half don't like, moving stoves and so on,—all are busy anyhow.

Mr. James McIntyre is moving into a part of the Joselyn house, now occupied by Mr. Matthewson. Drilling was recently commenced on a well near here. Candidates are scarce this spring, but we expect a full supply before long. SPRIGHTLY. April 26, 1886.

For Plows and Plow Points, go to Robinson's.

Fagundus Fancies.

Crawford Reed is on the sick list. J. R. Calkins was in town last week. The old Post Office, building has been converted into a bedding factory. Messrs. Clary & Jones are the leading stockholders.

We all mourn the loss of one of our most accomplished young ladies, Miss Stella Snyder. She is known as Mrs. Cubbon now.

The Academy has been altered into a sort of an asylum for the benefit of the poor people of the vicinity who cannot afford to give their children other than a common school education. This is a grand undertaking and the people all appreciate it.

Miss Cox is making her home at E. B. Curtis'. Robert Pimm has just finished a fine building on Main Street.

Do not go out of town and be swindled, but call at Wm. P. Wagner's mammoth store. He is now prepared to fill every demand for goods in his line. The White Farm is well represented here every Sunday.

There seems to be an increase of mail since the removal of the Post Office. Milton Carnahan had the misfortune of losing one of his horses.

W. P. Wagner gave a ball in his new building last Friday eve. The attendance was large. TRUMP. April 26, 1886.

KANSAS LETTER.

After a long delay, I seat myself to write a few lines for the REPUBLICAN. Now, after four years experience in Kansas, I wish to give you a few things concerning this great State: Kansas is still on the "boom." Immigration from the east is simply immense, going to the southwest and west of the State, where there is still land to enter, both Homesteads and Timber Claims, also some school land, but the way they have been, and are still coming, there will soon be but little land to take up. Good farms are bought and sold every day; land rates from $10, to $15, per acre. The character and general make up of the people is good. The state is not made up of the ignorant class of people, not by any means, just the opposite; the people are generally of the intelligent class, are wide awake and mean business. Every body works and there are but few idlers.

The past winter has been the most severe of the five that I have passed through here, and it is my observation that the winters here have been increasing in severity ever since I came here; the last past has been one of the most severe known by the oldest inhabitant. There were one hundred thousand head of cattle frozen to death in an area of one hundred miles, and 103 persons that froze to death.

The state is opening more and more to agriculture every year. Grain of all kinds are raised in abundance; corn was simply a tremendous crop; wheat was not so good as the harvest of one year before the last. Fruit has been abundant, and eventually this will be a great country for fruit. The prospect of a large wheat crop is very good, but there is not the amount put out as there was a year ago, but the wheat looks very well, generally speaking, considering the severity of the winter. My opinion is, as the time advances there will not be as much wheat sown as there has been in the past. There will be more stock raised and less wheat, but corn will be always planted. Hoga are a good crop here.

Times are pretty dull for Kansas, but in comparison to the times in the eastern states, we don't know what hard times are. Spring is opening out a little later than usual, but most all the farmers have put in their oats, and getting ready to plant corn. Potatoes are planted and coming up. This is a delightful morning—every thing is smiling; Mother Earth has put on the freshness of youth, her bosom is wearing the beautiful green. Birds are singing; yes, all nature laughs. We are glad Spring has come to stay its time. As to myself and family, we are here in this beautiful city. Mrs. Hill's health has been very poor for many, many months; my own health is also very poor. I feel as if we were ageing very fast. Wilbur is working at his trade, printing. Frank is painting. Nellie is with her husband in Chattanooga, Tennessee. Our eldest son is in Utah yet. I was very much pleased to meet a member of my own Conference (Erie) here in McPherson, during the session of the South Western Kansas Conference, Rev. J. B. Espy. It almost made me homesick. I like old Pennsylvania still. Mr. Editor, I still get your paper, and you don't know how much good it does me; there is no paper that I prize more highly, and I am under a thousand obligations to you for it. Please remember me kindly to all our old friends. I shall never forget Tionesta and her people. God bless you all. Yours truly, J. F. HILL.

McPherson, Kan., April 22, '86.

Last Notice! All persons knowing themselves to be indebted to me on account are hereby notified to call and settle with me before May 15th if they wish to save costs. I am going to move from the County and must close up my business affairs by that time. Wm. C. COBURN M. D. Apr. 26, 1886.

K. Now, if you wish to know my name, Study the flowers, wild and tame, That you'll succeed I really hope. Yours with a vengeance, HELIOTROPE.

WHAT IS DYSPEPSIA?

Among the many symptoms of Dyspepsia or indigestion, the most prominent are: Variable appetite; faint, gnawing feeling at pit of the stomach, with unsatisfied craving for food; heartburn, feeling of weight and wind in the stomach, bad breath, bad taste in the mouth, low spirits, general prostration, headache, and constipation. There is no form of disease more prevalent than Dyspepsia, and none so peculiar to the high-living and rapid-eating American people. Alcohol and tobacco produce Dyspepsia; also, bad air, etc.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS, will cure the worst case, by regulating the bowels and toning up the digestive organs. Sold everywhere.
