Committee Proceedings.

The Republican County Committee of Forest County, held its meeting in Tionesta, on Monday evening, May 17, 1886, pursuant to call of Chairman S. D. Irwin. The meeting was quite well attended, and was a harmonious gathering. The setting of a time for holding the Republican Primaries being in order, it was resolved that Saturday, June 19th should be the day, at the usual hours and places for holding such elections. S. D. IRWIN, Chairman. May 17th, 1886.

EVIDENCE is said to be plentiful that the bloody fight at the Hay Market in Chicago was not an impromptu outbreak of passion, but the result of a cold-blooded conspiracy of Anarchists to slaughter the police, and that at least twenty of the wretches were armed with bombs prepared for the purpose. If the rope is not made to do its work on these men there ought never to be another legal execution.

HERR MOST has been captured, and oh vale, vale, caught in a trap that was even, if possible, more humiliating than the story of Jeff Davis' failure to escape. There was nothing in the Davis surroundings when caught that necessarily derogated from his personal character as a gentleman. But the blatant roarer for the rights of man to live on other men's earnings without contributing anything to their production, was found in the care of a Delilah not much cleaner than himself. That is all that need be said of Most. All that need be added to the story is how the loafer and bum is dealt with by the law, and imprisoned like any other worthless tramp; or hung, if he proves to have had courage enough to earn such a distinction. There is no doubt of his having plenty of the will and the depravity, but of the manliness there is great doubt.

GEORGE A. JENKS, assistant secretary of the interior, has resigned. Mr. Jenks has been the counsel and confidential adviser of the late John Dubois, the great Pennsylvania lumberman, for twenty years, and when he accepted his position at Washington, it was under a promise to Mr. Dubois that if he (Dubois) fell sick, so that he could not go there for counsel, or if he died, Mr. Jenks would resign and assume the same confidential relations to the young heir, John E. Dubois. The elder Dubois fell sick and felt that he was dying, and two weeks ago, a few days before his death, he summoned Mr. Jenks to his bedside, and claimed that he should keep his word. Mr. Jenks immediately tendered his resignation, and, under the circumstances, it had to be accepted. His relations with Secretary Lamar have been very intimate for a number of years, and his appointment in the first instance was purely a personal one, none of the Pennsylvania delegation being consulted in the matter. Mr. Jenks' chief official business, in which he has been most useful, has been in sitting down on the exuberant Land Commissioner Sparks. In this respect his retirement will be a relief to himself and perhaps to the reversed Sparks.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15, '86.

In the Senate Wednesday, Mr. Mitchell submitted a concurrent resolution expressing it to be the sense of Congress that negotiations should be entered into between the United States and Chinese Governments with a view to securing such modification of the present treaty with China as may result in stopping the coming of Chinese to this country except in the case of diplomats and their servants, and except also in the case of persons at sea driven to seek a place of shelter. The concurrent resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations.

Representative Reagan, of Texas, will introduce a bill in the House and attempt to secure its passage this session providing that railroads shall not be operated by receivers for a period exceeding one year, and defining more minutely what acts shall be construed as contempt of court. The purpose of the bill is to prevent repetition of the acts of the judge of the court in the case of the Texas Pacific, where it was held that all employees of the railroad became officers of the court, and could not stop work or exercise any other privilege of an American citizen without being subject to imprisonment for contempt of court.

Gen. Rosecrans has sent to the Senate committee on finance a written statement in answer to the charge that he was connected with certain alleged land frauds in California. He does not deny the transaction, but says he did nothing which was not, according to the advice of his lawyers, perfectly legal, and that his action has since been sustained by the courts. The transaction covered about 800 acres of land in the vicinity of Los Angeles.

The inter-state commerce bill occupied the attention of the Senate all of Tuesday without a final vote being reached. Several amendments were adopted. A reprint of the bill containing them was ordered. One amendment provides that the restrictions of the bill as to reduced fares shall not apply to ministers of the gospel, members of agricultural conventions and army and society meetings. Another provides that the word unlawful be applied to discriminations condemned by the bill so as to bring breaches of its provisions within the technical meaning of the penal clause. The amendment to punish strikers for obstructing trains carrying U. S. mails, and that prohibiting the use of free passes by members of Congress and public officials were rejected.

Secretary Manning has received no set back in his convalescence, and his friends consider his recovery a certainty. He has not yet decided when he will leave Washington. He drives out daily when the weather permits, and is generally accompanied by Mrs. Manning. Yesterday morning the President sent him his Victoria drawn by the seal browns, and Mr. Manning took a long and pleasant drive. Today he was out driving in his private carriage. He rode down to the Treasury department and sent for Treasurer Jordan to come out and see him.

Carroll D. Wright, the commissioner of the bureau of labor, has sent a letter to the Secretary of the Interior, recommending a line of investigation for the second annual report of the bureau. He advises, first, an investigation into the number, causes, duration and results of all strikes in this country since and including the year 1881. Also into the hours of labor, wages paid and condition of railway employes; upon the industries of the country; also into the distribution of products, the cost of production, etc., and of the women workers of the great cities. The Secretary has approved these recommendations.

The President sent to Congress a message calling attention to the condition of affairs existing in Utah, owing to the governor of that territory vetoing the last appropriation bill, which appropriated money for the support of schools, courts, charitable institutions, etc., referring to the fact that under existing law the legislature cannot convene for nearly two years, and recommending the speedy enactment of such legislation as will give the assembling of the legislature an early day.

D. LANCELL'S ASTHMA AND CATARRH REMEDY.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Having struggled 20 years between life and death with ASTHMA or BRONCHITIS, treated by eminent physicians, and receiving no benefit, I was compelled during the last five years of my illness to sit on my chair day and night gasping for breath, my sufferings were beyond description. In despair I experimented on myself by compounding roots and herbs and inhaling the medicine thus obtained. I fortunately discovered this Wonderful Cure for Asthma and Catarrh, warranted to relieve the most stubborn cases of Asthma in five minutes, so that the patient lies down to rest and sleep comfortably. Please read the following condensed extracts from unsolicited testimonials, all of recent date: Oliver V. R. Holmes, San Jose, Cal., writes: "I find the Remedy all and even more than represented. I receive instantaneous relief."

E. M. Carson, A. M., Warren, Kan., writes: "Was treated by eminent physicians of this country and Germany; tried the 'limbo of different states'—nothing afforded relief like your preparation."

T. E. Gates, County Treasurer, Philadelphia, Miss., writes: "Have used the Remedy. Would not live without it. Every one that uses it recommends it."

We have many other hearty testimonials of cure or relief, and in order that all sufferers from Asthma, Catarrh, Hay Fever, and kindred diseases may have an opportunity of testing the value of the Remedy we will send to any address trial packages free of charge. Address, J. ZIMMERMAN & CO., Proprietors, Wholesale Druggists, Wooster, Wayne Co., O. Full size Box by mail $1.00.
