LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 66 1/2. Opening this morning at 66 1/2. Mr. D. W. Clark of Tidoucte, paid us a pleasant call yesterday.

MARRIED.

At the wedding of Miss Emma Dawson of Dawson Station, and Mr. S. J. Grove of Tidoucte, which occurred at the residence of the bride on the 27th ult., the following list of presents were left as souvenirs of the happy event:

James York, wife, and family, decorated China tea set and fruit basket; Geo. Hood and wife, pickle easter; Mrs. Geo. Anderson, pair linen towels; Mrs. S. Grubbs, fancy cream pitcher; Miss Rena Campbell, silver cup; Miss Teena Simpson, pair linen towels; Wm. Hiebelant and wife, coffee pot; Mrs. Sarah Lytle, bouquet holder, card receiver and fancy horse shoe; W. L. Courson and wife, crazy work sofa pillow and point lace collar; Mrs. E. A. Allender, damask linen table cloth; W. R. Dawson, elastic rocker; Mrs. F. A. Wheeler, fancy salt set; Mrs. Rachel Siggins, half dozen linen towels; Rev. F. M. Small and wife, wash bowl and pitcher; P. M. Clark and H. J. Hopkins & Co., one-half doz. silver knives and forks; Joseph Grove and wife, pair Russian towels; W. W. Grove and wife, Joseph Grove and wife, F. M. Small and wife, lemonade set; Mrs. Emma Edgerton, pin cushion, key board, dust pan and point lace; Mr. Lytle, silk handkerchief.

Marienville.

Burt Taylor lost a cow on the railroad one day last week. We are sorry to say Grandmother Mercilliot is lying very sick, with little hopes of her recovery.

The Presbyterians have now a nice new Estey organ in their church. Guess Wm. Green's bird must have flown.

Milt. Graybill is building a new barn for J. B. Watson. Miss Alma Hyde is home on a short visit.

Miss Clista Campbell is stopping at hotel de Watson with a fine assortment of millinery goods. Miss Ida Mays is paying her parents a short visit.

Allen Himes has treated his house to new coat of paint. It is a wonder M. C. Caringer don't set a fox trap.

The party at Rev. Weldon's was well attended and very much enjoyed; and we must say Mr. Weldon looked very nice in Mrs. Weldon's new bonnet that the ladies presented to her.

Mrs. Weldon wishes to thank the people of Marienville for the many nice presents she received. Among the ladies present were, Mrs. H. H. McClellan, Mrs. C. W. Amster, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. O. C. Christy, Mrs. Chas. Leech, Mrs. Gene Yetter, Mrs. Z. S. Himes, Mrs. Loman, Miss Ella Leech, Mrs. R. Hummel, Mrs. Allen Himes, Mrs. C. Hunt, Mrs. Col. Hunt, Misses Lizzie and Florence Mercilliot, and Mrs. F. M. Reek. Mr. Himes was to make a speech but he had the headache so bad he had to go home.

—We learn that Mr. T. D. Collins has sold the pine timber on his Nebraska property to Jefferson county parties for a consideration of $300,000, the transaction, which is one of the largest that has taken place in this section for many years, having been closed last week.

These are the same parties who have been negotiating for this timber for some time. Mr. Collins, we believe, retains a one-fourth interest in the property.

—We publish this week the law applicable to primary elections, which every voter should scan closely.

—The late G. S. Crosby's will is what might be termed of the "close corporation" kind. He appoints his brother Samuel executor with the power to administer as he sees fit, and although he divides his estate equally between his six brothers and sisters, yet they are precluded from enquiring into the method or manner of administering upon the pain of forfeiture of all their interest.

No appraisal is to be had, no account filed by the executor. He simply, after paying debts, makes out a "statement" of what is left after deducting a "reasonable sum" for his trouble and pays out for the other devices upon that statement.

—Mrs. Wm. Hood, whose dangerous illness we noticed in our last issue, died very peacefully on Thursday morning, June 3d, at 7 o'clock. She had been sick for several months, but until within a few weeks of her death was not considered in a dangerous condition.

Mrs. Hood's maiden name was Martha Walter; she was born in the vicinity of Newmannville, Clarion county, and was the daughter of the late Anthony Walter. She leaves a husband, seven children, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn her taking away.

Mrs. Hood was one of the kindest of women, and always made her friends feel at home when they came to her house, where all met with a most hearty welcome. Her funeral took place on Friday last, and was one of the most largely attended that has ever occurred here; it was in charge of Tionesta Lodge, I. O. O. F., of which the deceased was a Rebecca degree member.

To the husband, children and mourning friends the sympathy of the community goes out.

—Hurburt & Hunting's circus exhibited in this place on Monday to very fair audiences, and gave good satisfaction. The trained dogs were extra good.

—Republicans, don't forget the primary elections one week from next Saturday. It is a matter of importance, and every Republican in the county should be out.

—Next Friday and Saturday, June 11 and 12, a local institute will be held at Whig Hill, in which local talent and teachers will engage to make the occasion both profitable and pleasant.

—Prothonotary Shawkey, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. J. E. Hillard and her little boy, departed for Phillipsburg, Kansas, last evening to visit their parents. Mrs. Hillard will remain several months.

—Chas. Raisig sold three new wagons last week, but has still several others in stock with lots more on the way. If Charley's reputation and business keeps on increasing at the present rate he'll soon have to enlarge his capacity.

—While using an ax last Sabbath, Elsworth Spencer, living at Hunter's Station, cut a bad gash across his left foot and severing one of the bones. About a year ago the same young man lost a part of his right foot in a log jam, and is still lame from the effects of that injury.

—It is pleasing to note how every movement of the president is reported. The Associated Press brings the startling intelligence that he attended church on Sunday, and when the collection was taken up he chipped in "a crisp new five-dollar note." Men are usually a little reckless with their wealth when first married.—Blizard.

—Miss May Sloan, teacher of Minister School, makes the following report for month ending June 4: No. enrolled 45, average attendance 32, per cent. of attendance 89, number of visitors 13; those present every day, Richard and James Sutton, Walter Miller, James Harkison, Byron Russell, Kate Toby, Jennie and Sadie Willson, Maud Harkison.

—We learn that Mr. T. D. Collins has sold the pine timber on his Nebraska property to Jefferson county parties for a consideration of $300,000, the transaction, which is one of the largest that has taken place in this section for many years, having been closed last week.

These are the same parties who have been negotiating for this timber for some time. Mr. Collins, we believe, retains a one-fourth interest in the property.

M. E. MINISTERS IN SESSION.

We are handed by Rev. W. P. Graham, the genial and accomplished Secretary, the following abstract of the minutes of the very interesting Ministerial Association now in session at the M. E. Church in this place:

The Franklin District Ministerial Association met for its Fourth Annual Session, in the M. E. Church, Tionesta, Forest Co., Monday evening, June 7, 1886, at 8 P. M., Presiding Elder J. M. Bray in the Chair. An anthem was rendered by the Tionesta M. E. Church Choir. The Scriptures were read, and prayer was offered by J. M. Bray. The roll was called; thirteen regular and three local preachers responded to their names as follows: Armstrong, Bray, Bunce, Canfield, Fidler, Graham, Ryan, Shaddock, Small, Steadman, Warner, Warren, Wick, Gordon, Groves and Rhodes.

By request of the regular appointee, F. M. Small, Hon. Miles W. Tate delivered an admirable address of welcome, to which a happy response was made by J. M. Bray. The Vesper Praise Service of the Epworth Hymnal was then rendered, consisting of alternate Scripture readings by the Presiding Elder and congregation; singing and prayer. C. E. Hall, who had been appointed to preach, being necessarily detained, R. M. Warren was substituted to speak in his stead, which he did, ably, on the theme, "The Liquor Traffic and How to Deal with it." Announcements were made, and the Association adjourned, until Tuesday morning, at eight o'clock. The Benediction was pronounced by Lewis Wick.

TUESDAY MORNING.

The Association met at 8 a. m., and was opened with singing hymn 208; prayer by Henry Rhodes; singing hymn 491 and an impressive sermon by S. E. Ryan from St. John xiv-8. A testimony meeting under the leadership of T. P. Warner was held. Many precious testimonies of the power of Jesus to save were given by Ministers and others. The minutes of Monday evening's session were read and approved. W. P. Graham was elected Secretary for the session. On motion Dr. A. S. Dobbs was invited to accept our courtesies and participate in our discussions. Rev. Hickling pastor of the Presbyterian Church was introduced. W. P. Graham gave a brief exposition of paragraph 57-62 M. E. Discipline—"Class Meetings and Class Leaders." He was followed by several of the brethren who gave valuable suggestions as to how class meetings might be made more profitable and class leaders more efficient. D. S. Steadman very thoughtfully presented the topic "Spiritual Biogenesis." Lewis Wick read a good essay on the "Plenary Inspiration of the Bible." William Canfield presented the topic "Our Young People and how to Reach them." His remarks were timely and practical. Announcements were made, the Doxology was sung and the Benediction pronounced by William Groves.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

A Committee on Resolutions consisting of S. H. Prather, W. H. Bunce and C. E. Hall was appointed. Hymn 277 was sung; W. H. Bunce led in prayer; hymn 270 was sung; S. M. Gordon preached a very instructive sermon from 2nd Cor. iii-17. The second order of the programme was then taken up, "Colloquy of Local Preachers;" themes: our work, how to do it, and the eyes with which we see the regular ministry. Wm. Groves and Henry Rhodes made appropriate speeches under this order. Bros. Holeman and Tate made suggestions with reference to church work. Mrs. Tarbell, District Secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and Mrs. C. E. Hall, were introduced. Mrs. Tarbell made an address in the interest of the cause she represents. W. H. Bunce read a conspicuously excellent and able essay on the "Methodist Discipline as a Study." On motion of R. M. Warren, Bro Bunce was requested to furnish the Christian Advocate, at Pittsburgh, a copy of his essay for publication.

C. E. Hall offered the following with reference to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society: "Resolved, That we, the pastors of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Franklin District, Erie Conference, will give to the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Church our cordial approval and hearty co-operation. That we will by our prayers and influence help our sisters in their work for the Master." Signed—D. S. Steadman, C. E. Hall. This resolution was unanimously adopted.

J. N. Fradenburgh very interestingly, by use of the black-board, gave an illustration of Bible teaching, taking as his subject, John vii-37-52, the lesson for the coming Sabbath. The Children's assembly was then held. S. H. Prather, in a very profitable way catechised the few who were present. Bro. Wm. Branfield delivered then an attractive and highly amusing sermon to the children. Announcements were made. The Doxology was sung and the benediction pronounced by Dr. C. E. Hall.

W. P. GRAHAM, Secretary.

Kelleitville Items.

Another good well at Buck Mills. The supply of oil up there must be pretty large considering the drain that has been made upon it.

Miss Kate Knox returned home yesterday. She has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. Klump, at the mill. Mr. R. R. Andrews has lately purchased a well matched span of ponies.

Robert Fryar, our enterprising shoemaker, is doing quite a rushing trade; he has already finished several pairs of shoes, and has orders for 8 pairs to make. Patronize home industry, and give Robert a call.

Mr. Caldwell, ex-Mayor of Titusville, has been here several times of late; in partnership with another gentleman he has purchased the oil right of some land near here, and there is talk of its being tested.

J. C. Welch of Balltown had a narrow escape last week. While returning from his wells late at night the horse stepped over the bank along the narrows throwing itself, buggy, and Mr. Welch, a distance of 20 feet. A smashed buggy, and bruised horse and driver were the results of what might have been much worse.

One of Jacob Wolfe's cows was badly hurt last Saturday, by a dog belonging on Whig Hill; she lost one horn, and was about ruined. Such dogs should be kept at home.

The tannery is up and partly roofed; it is a building 240x40 feet, and a credit to the place. Several smaller buildings are being built in connection with it, and when all completed, will present quite a fine appearance.

EZEKIEL. Resolutions of Respect.

At a regular meeting of Tionesta Lodge, No. 369, I. O. O. F., the following resolutions were passed:

Whereas, It hath pleased Divine Providence to remove from our midst Sister Martha Hood, wife of Brother William Hood of our lodge, and out of respect to her memory, be it

Resolved, That we recognize in our deceased sister a worthy daughter of Rebecca, one who loved our order, and whatever was good and true of the world. It is a consolation to us as brethren, and to her relatives to know that she was faithful and cheerful until her dying hour, that she was a good wife and mother, comforting her husband in all his sorrows, and encouraging him in his labors and trials during her life, and bringing joy to her family.

Amiable and pleasant in her manner she was naturally beloved by her husband, children and friends, and her good life is her best praise.

In her home life she was kind and self-denying. In her religious life was sincere, consistent and exemplary, and amidst all her household duties and family cares she yet found time to worship her Creator, and at last peacefully fell asleep, therefore

Resolved, That this resolution of respect and condolence, passed in open Lodge, be ordered to be published in the County papers as a tribute to the memory of our worthy sister, and that our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days.

Geo. W. Sawyer, J. D. Swales, G. B. Armstrong, Tionesta, Pa., June 8, 1886.

THANKS.

To those many friends who gave us their aid and sympathy during the great affliction through which we have just passed, we wish to extend our heartfelt thanks. Our friends shall ever be held in grateful remembrance.

Wm. Hood and Family.

Forest County's Insane.

WARREN, PA., May 27, 1886.

County Commissioners of Forest County, Gentlemen:—

The condition of the several patients under your charge in this Hospital is as follows:

John Clary is very much disordered in mind and sometimes much excited. Sarah Shoupe is generally quiet but now and then excited and her mind is much disturbed.

Wm. Baruhart is more quiet than he was but now and then is excited for a few hours at a time.

Isaac Reed is just coming out of a long period of excitement and is rather dull.

Samuel Hawthorne is very quiet but at times fretful and troubled.

Andrew D. Saltgiver is restless, constantly teasing the others and putting mischief into their heads.

Oliver Noble's mind is weaker from the effects of the epileptic fits which are not so bad as they were.

Peter Gunther is very sullen and surly, full of queer notions and actions. Yours Respectfully, JOHN CURWEN.

—Adolf Lalloz, carriage manufacturer, 119 Carrell Street, Buffalo, N. Y., states: "I was troubled with nausea of the stomach, sick headache and general debility. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me."

—Use Electric Light Flour, the best in the world for the money. Ask your grocer for it. my5.

—For Cultivators, Shovel Plows, Hoes, &c., go to Robinson's. 2t.
