—Mrs. J. N. Tietzworth and daughter, Mrs. W. C. Mervin, of Dallas, McKean county, were visiting friends here during the past week.
—All intending to take in the excursion to Niagara should be on hand promptly at 6:00 o'clock to-morrow morning. Quite a number are talking of going from this section.
—Mr. David F. Robinson, of Water Cure, Beaver county, Pa., paid his brother here a visit last week. His many old friends were pleased to meet him and learn of his continued prosperity.
—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hall of Steubenville, O., are paying a visit to the family of their son-in-law, Dr. J. B. Siggins, Mr. Homer Hall of Pittsburgh, their son, is also a guest of the Doctor's.
—The Free Methodist camp-meeting commences here next Wednesday. Preparations for a large meeting and an interesting time are being made, and undoubtedly the meeting will be a complete success.
—Rev. Hickling will preach at Summerville, Jefferson county, next Sabbath, according to appointment by Presbytery, and there will, in consequence be no preaching in the Presbyterian church here next Sabbath.
—Clarion county holds its fair on Sept. 28, 29, 30, and Oct. 1. The premium list is issued, and is a very neat production from the Republican office. Joseph H. Patrick, Secretary, will furnish the list to any who may apply.
—The Clarion Democrat of last week copies an item from us of the week previous and credits it to the Forest National. This is not a serious matter at all, but for goodness sake never copy from the National and credit to us.
—Postmaster General Vilas has approved a new design for postal cards. They are to be printed in black, on white paper, with head of Jefferson on the upper corner. It is considered a great improvement over the old style of postal cards.
—The Chautauqua Assembly Herald, speaking of a recent concert given at that place, has the following choice compliment for Miss Maude Davis: "The solo, with its repeated high C's, was brilliantly sung and well accompanied by softly singing chorus. The brilliant accompaniment was furnished by Prof. Flagler, and Miss Maud Davis of Tionesta, Pa.; and right here we must pay our tribute of regard and appreciation for Miss Davis. We welcome to the Chautauqua care this delightful musician. Her accompaniments are simply refreshing by reason of their artistic worth."

—The twenty fifth anniversary of the marriage of Dr. John Thompson and wife, of Corsica, was celebrated on Friday of last week. Friends and relatives were present from Clarion, Jefferson, Forest and Elk counties. The Dr. and his estimable wife received many valuable presents as tokens of the esteem in which they are held.—Clarion Jacksonian.

—Cooper Bros., of Balltown, publish a notice in this issue which is of interest to owners of dams in Tionesta creek. These gentlemen inform us they have had able legal opinions on the subject, and are convinced that damages can be collected from owners of dams not properly constructed, and therefore publish this cautioning notice.

—Marienville news: John Hoover, of the firm of Hoover & Green, is the happy dad of a 9½-pound boy, which came last Saturday.—A very enjoyable hop was given at the new building of Amsler, Bro. & Co., on Friday night last. The building is a fine one and is now ready for the plasterers.—Mr. James W. Ward of Gilfoyle, is quite sick at present, but his speedy recovery is earnestly hoped for.

—Levi Pierson of Kingsley township, was arrested on Friday last, charged with the outrage committed on Katie Miller, an account of which appeared in these columns recently. He was brought to town by Constable Canfield and gave bail before Judge Arner in the sum of $1000 for his appearance at September court. The arrest was made on the recommendation of Richard Kelly, a detective from Pittsburgh, who had been at work on the case for several days past.

—On Tuesday last, Lorenzo Haight, of Millcreek township, was conveyed to the Warren Insane Hospital by Sheriff Wheelock and Johnson Wilson, Esq. Haight has been a bill of expense to Clarion county for some time at Warren. He has already served three terms in the penitentiary and some time at Warren. His insanity was not of the violent type but being naturally a depraved and vicious man it made him doubly dangerous, and the public safety demanded that he be kept under surveillance of some kind.—Jacksonian.

—Last week Mr. Lawrence received from Will Hulings, of St. George, W. Va., a block of wood about two and a half inches square, which was cut from the scaffold on which John Brown was executed. The block, which is of Virginia pine, contains the following inscriptions, which might correctly be called its pedigree: "A piece of the scaffold on which John Brown was executed. From Dr. Shepard to Dr. Bright; from Dr. Bright to A. W. Frederick, and from him with compliments to W. W. Hulings Esq." In the block is a bullet-hole which was shot in by the mob at the time of the execution. It is quite a relic.

Burglary Last Night.

Last night the store of Smearbaugh & Co. and the Post Office were entered by burglars. An entrance to the store was effected by taking out a piece of broken glass in one of the front windows. The thieves made a raid on the jewelry case, and took every ring but one, besides a lot of neck chains. The money drawer was relieved of its contents, about $5 in small change and $10 in dollars. This is all that Mr. Butterfield has missed at this writing, and counts his loss about $200. At the Postoffice an entrance was made by lowering one of the windows from the top. They got nothing but about two dollars in pennies and nickels. No stamps were left in the office over night, and none of the mail matter was disturbed. A clue to the perpetrators has been found, which if closely followed up will undoubtedly result in the capture of the parties.

Kellettville Items.

David Mintz, the popular salesman, is around town this morning. Ed. Goodwin is paying his folks in Warren county a visit. Andy Small has the first roasting ears on the flats; he had better keep a shotgun loaded for coons. Mr. Alba Gilfillan and Miss Maggie Williams of West Hickory spent Sunday in Kellettville. Miss Gerty Thompson is spending a few weeks here. The people of Kellettville were greatly surprised and shocked by the arrest of Mr. Pierson in relation to the Miller case. Mr. Pierson has always been a hard working man, is the father of a large family and has hitherto borne an excellent reputation. We are loth to give credence to the charge made against him. A visit to the tannery building is beginning to be one of interest. The vats are in place, 4 rows of 25 each, besides many more used for cleansing the hides. Much of the machinery is in place and the work is going on finely. Aug. 10. EZEKIEL.

Democratic Solemnity.

The county Democrats met at the Court House yesterday to solemnize their work of last Saturday. The turnout was fair, owing to the breeze kicked up by the appearance on the Forest county track of the Clarion and Elk county candidates, who had entered for the race a short time previous, but still in time to carry off the first and second prizes. Wilson of Clarion proved an easy winner, and it is plain to be seen that Clarion county Democracy can show their Forest county brethren many a trick in political wire-pulling yet. From the votes cast and on the assertion of many of the best men in the county the fact is also patent that, in order to give the Democracy of this county a respectable showing for once, the boys of all political shades and opinions in the several districts helped to swell the vote and have a little fun besides, as we understand the only question asked was, "Is he a Wilson man?" These were the only necessary credentials in most places.

The result of the vote on the Senatorial question was, J. H. Wilson 206, O. B. Grant 143, T. F. Ritchey 90. For the other places on the ticket there was no opposition, and the result as announced is as follows: Congress, D. W. Clark. Senate, J. H. Wilson. Assembly, T. J. Bowman. Treasurer, Orion Siggins. Coroner, Dr. J. B. Siggins. Congressional Conferees, A. J. Siggins, L. Fulton, Wm. Hood. Senatorial Conferees, A. J. Siggins, M. Patterson, B. McCloskey. Delegate to the State Convention, Amos Clinger, of Harmony twp.

The new county committee organized by the re-election of John Peterson, Chairman, and Jas. B. Muse and D. W. Clark Secretaries. And then the convention adjourned to meet defeat in the fall.

Death of Samuel J. Tilden.

Samuel J. Tilden died peacefully at Graystone, Wednesday morning, Aug. 4, at 8:05 o'clock. There were present with him Dr. Charles Simmonds and Samuel Swift, and his niece, Miss Gould. His death was entirely unexpected, and was caused by failure of the heart following an acute attack of diarrhoea and nausea. Paralysis and bodily infirmities incident to old age had reduced Mr. Tilden to a mere skeleton, and his last days were marked by extreme feebleness.

Owing to paralysis Mr. Tilden was unable to close his lips, and his mouth was constantly open. His right hand from the same cause was entirely useless, trembling all the time. He had not even the power to raise it to his mouth. His left hand was but slightly affected by the stroke of paralysis, and he had the partial use of it. In eating he used his left hand to hold up his lower jaw. His faithful companion, Miss Anna Gould, who is the sister of the wife of Mr. Henry Tilden, placed to his mouth every particle of food he ate. She generally put it in his mouth with a spoon and he was enabled to swallow it by raising his lower jaw with his left hand and put his head back. While at breakfast the morning papers were read to him and notes made by his secretaries at his direction of any important point or move in the political world. After breakfast he usually went into his office, on the right side of the hall, where he saw the different employes of the place and heard their respective reports.

Samuel Jones Tilden was born in New Lebanon, Columbia county, N. Y., February 9th, 1814, graduated at New York University in 1838, and was admitted to the bar in 1841. He was chairman of the State Committee in 1870 and took an active part in crushing the frauds of the Tammany ring. He was elected Governor of New York, on the Democratic ticket, in 1874, and was nominated for President in 1876.

Abraham Lincoln.

Among recent facts of literary and popular interest, is the announcement of a new illustrated biography entitled "The Every-day life of Abraham Lincoln," written by "Those who knew him." The plan of the work is that of an exhaustive biography, giving not only the general facts of his life in chronological order, but incidents, anecdotes and every day facts minutely personal, such as could only be given by those in closest intimate and confidential relations, during the various periods of his life. These were, in pursuance of the plan, enlisted for the work, embracing those who knew him as a boy, as a flat-boatman, a rail-splitter, a clerk in a country store, a law student, a lawyer, politician, President—every period of his eventful and most interesting life. Each author writes of the facts of his life during the period in which he knew him—facts and incidents that came under his own observation and within his own knowledge. A book thus written, and so exhaustive in fact concerning one of so enduring a place in the hearts and admiration of his people, is assured of an enthusiastic welcome and a lasting place in popular esteem. We are told that the last literary work performed by the late Judge David Davis, Lincoln's lifetime friend, was one of the many contributions to this volume, in which he took a deep personal interest.

It is a grand career and character that is thus so minutely delineated. What lover of simple worth and homely virtues is not touched by the story of Lincoln's pure and manly life? In what other country could it have been possible to produce a character and career like his? The work is rendered further attractive by nearly 100 superb engravings from original designs made especially for this book, illustrating scenes and incidents in his life. It is sold at popular prices within the reach of all.

The canvassing agent for such a work will find the latch-string out, a welcome and patronage that will make his business both pleasant and profitable. N. D. Thompson Publishing Co., St. Louis, Mo., and New York City, are the enterprising publishers.
