LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Dog days end to-day. —Clarion is organizing another gas company. —The chirp of the katydid would indicate that Autumn's come.

—Oil market closed yesterday 61 1/2. Opening this morning at 61 1/2. —Mr. J. L. Hanna of Franklin gave us a pleasant call yesterday. —To-day the squirrel season opens. Pheasant season one month later.

—The M. E. bush meeting now in progress at Whig Hill, was quite largely attended by citizens of this place last Sabbath. —Every Republican who moves from one township to another previous to Sept. 24 must be registered anew or he may lose his vote.

—John W. Stroup and son William, former residents here, were in town Monday and Tuesday of this week, renewing acquaintances. —The County Commissioners met yesterday and squared up with Mason Joyce for the excellent job he did in repairing the creek bridge.

—Tidioute Lodge, A. O. U. W., will have an anniversary reunion on the 23d inst., that date closing the second year of its existence. —Miss Mary Sloan is visiting friends in Edeburg. Miss Maud Van Giesen, who has been visiting here for several weeks accompanied her.

—The river is about as low as it can well get. Last Summer we had a rafting flood every month from July to November, and some times two. —Last Sunday the thermometer registered 94 in the shade, and this morning fall overcoats were by no means an uncomfortable thing to have on.

—Sufficient funds have been raised to guarantee to Clarion a $40,000 State Normal School, and doubtless before another year the school will be in successful operation. —The earnings of the Buffalo, New York & Philadelphia railroad for the second week in August were $59,700, an increase of $8,600 over the same period of last year.

—The first match hunt of this season will come off next Saturday, and all who have a notion to take it in will please meet at this office to-morrow (Thursday) evening, or leave word to that effect. —The next thing in order is to pay your State and County tax in order to secure your vote. This is imperative, 'cause no man can vote who has not paid said tax at least 30 days before election.

—Assessor Canfield will be at the Court House to-day and to-morrow for the purpose of placing on the registry list all names of those who expect to be voters here at the coming election. The assessors in the several townships will also be at the polling places in their respective precincts for the same purpose and we hope Republicans will see to the matter, as to-morrow is the last day.

—Republicans should not neglect the important matter of getting registered. Every voter must be registered at least 60 days before the election, and Sept. 2d is the last day. Don't neglect.

—Mr. A. Bignon, the clothes cleaner, is back for a season. We hope our citizens will give him sufficient patronage to keep him here, as he is an artist at the business and a useful adjunct to the town.

—All policy holders in A. Y. Findlay's Insurance Agency who expect to take on gas can have that permission endorsed on their policies by forwarding same to the Agency or to John H. McPherson, Franklin, Pa., free of charge.

—Franklin is considerably agitated over the trial of Gilbert C. Ray for the murder of his wife in April last. An immense array of medical skill is employed on the case. Tom Marshall of Pittsburgh is one of the counsel for the defense.

—The Warren county fair commences next Tuesday and closes on Friday. The management feel assured that they will be able to give the people a much better show than last year, and they'll "get up and dust" if they do.

—The friends of Mr. T. J. Payne of Tylersburg, Pa., will be pleased to extend congratulation upon the happy event of his marriage with Miss Mollie Hicks on the 10th ult. May peace and joy abide with friend Payne and bride while life shall last.

—Golden Days for September has already arrived, full of choice fresh and high-toned reading matter for the young. No publication in this country contains a nicer or purer class of selections than this one. James Elverson, Publisher, Philadelphia, Pa.

—Harvey J. Hopkins and lady, of Pleasantville, Pa., are expected to arrive here to-morrow morning for a few day's visit with the editor and family. Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins are on their way home from the G. A. R. re-union at San Francisco.—Wadena Minn., Tribune.

—Charlie Hunter lost his famous old bob-tail horse by supposed heart disease last week. "Old Jim" was supposed to be between 25 and 30 years of age, and could knock out anything in the horse flesh line of his weight. Charlie gave the faithful old fellow a decent burial.

—The farmers in adjoining counties who purchased Bohemian oats, giving their notes for sums which the swindlers raised in amount and then had cashed at the nearest banks, are trying to evade payment before the courts. They bought in haste and can repent at leisure.—Oil City Blizzard. Beware of swindlers in any form.

—Frank Reck started for Erie yesterday for the purpose of purchasing a new saw mill, which he intends setting up on a tract of land near Marienville, in Jenks township, and will manufacture pine lumber for Messrs. Horton, Creary & Co. The mill will have a capacity of about 30,000 feet daily.

—Capt. W. C. Kress, of Lock Haven, Pa., attorney for A. Pardee & Son, the purchasers of T. D. Collins' extensive lumbering plant in Green township, has been here off and on for the past two weeks assisting in the execution of the title papers. The Captain is one of those whole-hearted, jovial gentlemen whom it is a real pleasure to meet.

—The borough schools open for the eight months' term on Monday next. Mr. C. H. Dannel of Cooperstown, Venango county, the principal, is here already and will acquaint himself with the people somewhat before opening school. THE 25th CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

55 Ballots, But No Choice Yet. The Conferees of this, 25th, Congressional District, convened in Foxburg, Pa., on Monday afternoon, but up to this, Wednesday, morning had not succeeded in nominating a candidate. Yesterday evening fifty-five ballots had been taken, and we suppose they will resume work to-day, and doubtless succeed in making a choice. The district is composed of five counties, each presenting a candidate as follows: Armstrong, Col. S. M. Jackson; Clarion, Hon. Jas. T. Maffett; Forest, Hon. J. B. Agnew; Jefferson, Hon. A. C. White, present incumbent; Indiana, M. V. Watson, Esq. The Conferees from Forest county are, Hon. A. Cook of Barrett township, and Messrs. C. M. Shawkey and Wm. Smearbaugh of Tionesta. Quite a number of others went down from here to see the fun.

—The new design for the oleomargarine tax stamps, that of "a bull trampling a serpent under foot in the centre," is hardly true to nature. We suppose the idea of the serpent is to represent the manufacture of oleomargarine being crushed to death by the national bull. But the law makers should be informed that butter is not made from bulls, so the proper thing to have put on the stamp would have been a cow.—Blizzard.

—In its monthly oil report for August the Blizzard has this to say of the situation in Forest County: "The Cooper district remains inactive while Balltown shows but three wells drilling for the last of the month and no new rigs starting. James Welsh's last well, one mile in advance of developments, is shut down while the owner preserves a dignified silence that augurs of dry results. May, Kelly & Grandin are drilling their last well on the Cook lands."

—The United States Letter Sheet Envelope is a unique device for correspondence through the mails. It is a combination in one of a letter sheet, envelope and the new postage stamp of the denomination of two cents, bearing the military portrait of General Grant. They will be sold in pads of 25, 50 and 100 each at the rate of $23.00 per thousand and will no doubt become very popular for use with travelers, especially as they are almost as compact and in many respects greatly to be preferred to the postal card.

—The announcement of the marriage of Miss Mary Kiser of German Hill, to Mr. Ollie Leard, of Tarentum, Pa., will be found among the wedding notices in this issue. The bride is one of the popular young ladies and ex-school teachers of our county, and has the esteem of all who know her, while the groom is quite well and favorably known to many of our citizens as a young man of excellent reputation. Both have the best wishes of their friends hereabouts for long life, happiness and prosperity, in which we heartily join.

—I. A. Whitney, of Pittsfield, the Postmaster at that place, was in town Monday and gave information before U. S. Commissioner, Col. James O. Parmlee, to the effect that he had identified some of the stuff found on the person of Reynolds, now in jail at Tionesta, as having come from his store. This proves that Horrigan, who was the partner of Reynolds, is quite as guilty of robbing the mail, and will be prosecuted by Uncle Sam. It is thought his capture will be too easy now there is some one having authority to act in the matter.—Warren Mail.

—The Erie Annual Conference of the M. E. Church will convene at Brookville on the 9th inst., and will be the third session of that body held in Brookville. It met there in 1869 and was presided over by Bishop Simpson, and in 1873 when Gilbert Haven was the presiding Bishop. This year Bishop Baker will preside. Since the last session held there all that portion of the territory lying in Ohio was stricken off and, with the exception of Chautauqua and Cattaraugus counties in the State of New York, the Conference is composed exclusively of a portion of Western Pennsylvania.—Clarion Democrat.

—Arrived—Boots, Shoes, Rubbers for fall trade. SNEARBAUGH & CO.

—An excursion, the last of the season, under the management of the B. N. Y. & P. R. R., to the great Kinzua bridge, will take place on Sunday, September 12th. The fare has been placed at the nominal sum of $2.50 for the round trip. On the return the train will stop at Bradford three hours, giving excursionists ample time to visit friends or look around the city. The bridge is the highest in the world being 301 feet above the bed of the creek, and is considered by many to be a greater sight than Niagara Falls. Train will leave this station at 8:31 a. m., and will be in charge of Excursion Agent S. B. Newton, which is a guarantee that everybody will be courteously treated and have an excellent time. Remember the date.

Kellettville Items.

Mrs. Elliott Shaw is visiting her friends near Fryburg. Judge and Mrs. Arner have closed their house for a few days and are attending the Whig Hill meeting. Some fine cherry lumber is being hauled past here from Panther Rock to Hickory; the parties who have bought it expect to ship it to Buffalo ere long.

Rev. Wm. Rouse held services at Munster school house Sunday afternoon. Rev. Rouse spent his boyhood days on Tionesta Creek, and always meets with a cordial welcome whenever he comes this way.

Mr. Hague of Tidioute was here on Monday; his company expect to go to work on their oil lease here before long. We are glad of it, for we feared Kellettville's prospects of being an oil town were getting pretty slim. [For the benefit of our foreign subscribers who may be interested in these oil developments, we will state that Kellettville is situated at the mouth of Salmon Creek, Kingsley township.—Ed.]

We also notice that Mr. A. M. Dout of your place was here for a short time Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Delo have suffered the loss of their youngest child, Willie, a bright little boy of 2 years. The child had been ill for a few days of cholera infantum, and died Aug. 22d.

The outdoor meetings now being held by the M. E. Church on Whig Hill, are drawing large crowds. The meetings will last two weeks and the pastor, F. M. Small, will be assisted by Elder Bray and other ministers who will stop on their way to Conference. Mike Criswell, of Bobs Creek, who is well known in the County, had the honor to catch the 2-headed snake mentioned in the Vindicator. Mr. C. says the heads were both provided with eyes, and a fiery tongue darted from each when disturbed. He regrets the escape of his prize as he is now convinced there was millions in it. Aug. 31. EZEKIEL.
