

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY BENTON, removed by the President for making speeches during the campaign, has been reinstated. Mr. Benton is a Democrat. Mr. Stone, removed at the same time for the same cause, has not been reinstated. He is a Republican. Will he now file his application?

CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS, grandson of John Adams and third son of John Quincy Adams, died at his residence in Boston, on Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. Adams held many very responsible political positions, and was a candidate for Vice President in 1848 on the Free-soil ticket with Van Buren.

THE weakness of Secretary Bayard in quietly submitting to the depredations of the Canadian pirates has cost American fishermen just 240,000 barrels of fish this season. It would take Grover Cleveland, Daniel Lamont and half a dozen others of our most expert anglers a year to catch enough fish to make up this deficiency.

MISSOURI is having pretty dull times of it nowadays. Aside from the fact that Frank James peddled Democratic tickets on election day, the thrashing of a Democratic congressman by a one armed man and the surrender of President Cleveland to District Attorney Benton, nothing of note has occurred in the politics of the state for a month.

COL. QUAY will be the next United States Senator from this State, if he lives till the fourth of March. The Republican members-elect of the legislature are almost a unit in his favor, and he will probably have no opposition. Notwithstanding this singular unanimity, there is a considerable portion of very respectable citizens who are opposed to Mr. Quay's election, but unfortunately they are all Democrats, and would oppose 'most any first class Republican, especially one that has knocked them out to the tune of nearly 44,000 majority in an "off year." We think the Democrats better chip in and make Col. Quay's election unanimous.

THE official returns of the last election have been received at Harrisburg, from every county in the State. Beaver leads Black 42,851 and has a clear majority of 5,595 over all the other candidates. He is the lowest man on the Republican ticket and Osborne the highest. Ricketts leads the Democratic vote, with Black second. The total vote for Governor is:—Beaver, 412,485; Black, 369,634; Wolfe, 32,422; Houston, 4,834. Lieutenant-Governor—Davies, 413,345; Ricketts, 370,123. Auditor-General—Norris, 413,776; Brecken, 367,333. Secretary of Internal Affairs—Stewart, 413,795; Africa, 367,853. Congressman at Large—Osborne, 415,166; Stevenson, 367,549.

A CONVENTION of the Republican members of the Pennsylvania Legislature from the northwest corner of this State was held in Erie on the 19th inst., and was composed of the following gentlemen: The Venango representatives were Geo. S. Criswell, O. P. Morrow; Forest county, C. A. Randall, of Tionesta; Crawford county, Senator G. W. Delamater and Representatives C. N. Smith, of Riceville, A. G. Apple, of Meadville, A. S. Beatty, of Shaw's Landing and F. R. Nichols, Conestoguille; Warren county, Senator O. C. Allen and Representative Brace; Erie county, Senator Walling and Representatives Osborne, Chaffee and Nason. The convention was called for the purpose of arranging concerted action in the organization of the House and upon the Senatorial question. After some discussion resolutions were passed indorsing M. S. Quay for U. S. Senator. The representation to the House passed a resolution indorsing E. K. Boyer, of Philadelphia, for Speaker, and George A. Pearson, of Mercer, for Chief Clerk. During the evening a delegation of prominent politicians, including several Grand Army men, asked the members of the convention to ask Gen. Beaver to appoint John A. Wiley, of the Sixteenth Regiment, Adjutant-General. The convention, while not taking action in the matter, agreed to use their influence in Col. Wiley's behalf.

EX-PRESIDENT ARTHUR DEAD.

Ex-President Chester A. Arthur died at 5 o'clock Thursday morning Nov. 18, 1886, at his residence, No. 123 Lexington avenue, N. Y. City. He had been ailing for some time from a complication of diseases, principally kidney affection. He had spent the summer at a watering place, and it was supposed that this had strengthened somewhat his enfeebled constitution. His death was unexpected, it not being supposed outside of his house that he was in any immediate danger.

As soon as the news of the death was announced, many flags were placed at half mast on public and private buildings. A stroke of cerebral apoplexy, sudden but not wholly unexpected by his physicians, terminated Mr. Arthur's life. The stroke came on in his sleep during Tuesday night, and he did not rally thereafter. For hours before the end came he was unconscious to his surroundings. His son and daughter, his sisters, his former law partner, Sherman W. Knevals, and his closest friend, Surrogate Rollins, were at his bedside.

The funeral took place on Monday last at 9 a. m. from the Church of Heavenly Rest, on Fifth avenue, the Rev. Dr. Parker Morgan officiating. Mr. Arthur was not a member of any church, but his wife formerly attended that church. The remains were interred in Albany rural cemetery in the family plot, by the side of his wife.

In the removal of Ex-President Arthur, the angel of death has robbed our land of one of its best citizens. The shock experienced by President Cleveland on hearing the sad news, and the regret and grief expressed by him, were shared by the thousands of Americans who respect and esteem true manliness. The death of Mr. Arthur was not unexpected in the sense that disease had given no signs of approaching dissolution. Despite the cheering reports of friends, born of their hopes, the inroads of disease were steady and uninterrupted, and each month saw him weaker than its predecessor. Yet, notwithstanding, the destroying angel eluded the vigilance of watchful friends, the shaft fell suddenly, and the suffering one sank into eternal sleep as though he had but laid down to pleasant dreams.

Chester Allan Arthur was a splendid specimen of the American citizen. Although he sprang from the loins of the people, and began the battle with "chill penury" when but half through his teens, he won a creditable victory over adverse surroundings, took high rank in his profession, filled with marked ability the positions of honor and responsibility with which his fellow citizens entrusted him, and when called suddenly and through circumstances attended with heinous crime and the grief of the people to assume the duties of the highest office in their gift, he speedily proved his title to their utmost confidence and love. Rising high above the common level, he never in the hour of his greatest elevation forgot the source whence he sprang, and when free to relinquish his official trust, he gladly returned to his former place to enjoy the ease he had earned, but which the assaults of disease denied to him.

It has been said of Mr. Arthur that he was as good a President as the United States ever had. He was by no means an ordinary man, though when a candidate for Vice President he was easily underestimated by those who knew him not. He was a man of education and mental power. In the trying days in the sixties, when the nation was engaged in a desperate struggle for existence, his was the brain which controlled the vast military resources of the Empire State, and sent them to Washington to be launched against organized treason. In this emergency his patriotism, ability and integrity were severely tested, but he emerged from the trial triumphant. No breath of suspicion touched him, though he dealt with momentous interests and handled vast sums of money. In his country's hour of need, he placed himself at her service, and permitted nothing to come between him and his duty. As President, he was a figure all could admire. Of splendid physique, handsome countenance, graceful carriage and courtly address, he looked, as he indeed was, a man among men.

Ex-President Arthur is dead; the nation mourns, and drops a tear to his memory. No country has too many such men. Would we had many more like him.

DON'T EXPERIMENT.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Croup, Coughs and Colds. But be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at G. W. Boyard's Drug Store.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, The Hon. W. D. Brown, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas and Quarter Sessions in and for the county of Forest, has issued his precept for holding a Court of Common Pleas Quarter Sessions, &c., at Tionesta, for the County of Forest, to commence on the Third Monday of Dec., being the 20th day of Dec., 1886. Notice is therefore given to the Jurors of Peace and Constables of said county, that they be, and there in their proper persons at ten o'clock, A. M., of said day, with their records, inquisitions examinations and other remembrances, to do those things which to their offices appertain to be done, and to those who are bound in recognizance to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the jail of Forest County, that they be then and there present to prosecute against them as shall be just. Given under my hand and seal this 23d day of November, A. D. 1886.

L. AGNEW, [L.S.] Sheriff.

THE KLINE PATENT GAS BURNER.

IS DRIVING ALL OTHERS FROM THE FIELD.

BECAUSE—Its construction is such that it secures PERFECT COMBUSTION, and avoids all Soot and Lampblack. It will pay for itself in a short time as it will SAVE HALF THE LIFE OF THE STOVE by applying the heat low down and directly against the fire-box.

The Electrician of the Penn. R. R. Co., says of it— "I have been using the Kline Gas Burner in my cooking-stove for the last six months, and during that time there has not been a particle of soot or lamp-black formed in the stove or on the bottom of the cooking utensils, brought directly in contact with the flame. I can conscientiously recommend it as being the best in the market. I would use no other as long as I could procure the Kline Gas Burner."
