LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 72 1/2. Opening this morning at 72 1/2.

The Blue Jay saw mill which was burned not long ago is being rebuilt.

Skating on the river shore ice has been quite brisk for a few days back.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bonner are in Stoneboro this week, visiting Mr. Bonner's relatives.

A wagon load of deer passed our office yesterday morning, having just arrived from the big woods.

Both Sabbath Schools of this place are preparing to properly celebrate the coming Christmas.

Panther Rock enjoys the comfort and distinction of warming itself with natural gas. It is brought from Garfield.

Mr. W. H. Stright, one of Hickory townships' successful lumber manufacturers, gave us a pleasant call during the week.

The school grounds at Mayburg and Kellettville have been cleared up somewhat and enclosed each by a substantial board fence.

Tionesta Creek closed at Panther Rock on Thursday last. On that day the thermometer stood at 7° below zero at 11 o'clock, A. M.

The bell for the Whig Hill Church was hung in the belfry there last Friday. It is the largest bell in Forest County. Its cost is about $300.

The weather of the past week has been the coldest of the season, the thermometer ranging all the way from the freezing point to 6 and 8 degrees below zero.

Wm. C. Bush, convicted of the murder of his brother in Elk county recently, will hang on January 25, 1887, Gov. Pattison having signed his death warrant.

Lost—Somewhere between Mr. Davis' law office and the school house, a lady's gold breast pin, with small pearl set in center. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at this office.

"Ah! down she goes, kerchuck!" that is, "the market." From 80 1/2 on Monday to 72 1/2 on Tuesday, is a pretty big tumble, and makes big holes in big pocket-books. And the lams, oh! where were they?

A New Year's ball will be given at the Lawrence House hall on Friday evening, Dec. 31st, New Year's Eve. Good music will be secured, an excellent supper served, and all who attend may depend on a jolly, good time.

A handsome, double-barrel Remington shot gun is to be raffled for next Saturday evening in Tionesta. All wishing a chance should call at Raab's barber shop and pick their number, where, also, they can see the gun.

C. F. Fox of Foxburg, this county, who was injured in the latter part of the Summer in a runaway with a team, is quite well again. Mr. Fox has the reputation of being one of the ablest saw mill men of the county and country.

An attempt was made at an early hour Thursday morning to burglarize the Pleasantville Bank. The private watchman, Mark Henderson, heard a noise and went to the door. The burglars heard him and decamped, leaving behind them a bit, gouge, chisel, and lever for prying doors open.

Henderson sent some shots after the men from his revolver. This is the second attempt to rob that bank.—Franklin News.

We find the following important item in yesterday's Oil City Blizzard: "MARRIED—At Mayville, N. Y., Nov. 26, 1886, by Rev. E. M. Kernick, Mr. Frank W. Law and Miss Ida L. Trax, both of Silverleyville." Our hat is off to you and yours, Frank, and here's our best.

Thomas Corah, mine host of the Balltown House, tells us that at least 50 or 60 deer have been killed this season in the vicinity of Balltown. Deer are becoming very scarce in the big woods. A large majority of those killed tickle the palate of someone else than that of a native of the heath.

Collector Canfield states that the time for the payment of cash tax in order to save five per cent. has expired and the five per cent. will now be added to all delinquents. In a few days the time for paying Borough School and Bond taxes will expire, so that all who wish to save the extra five per cent. will have to pay up very soon.

Supt. Hillard has set Monday, Jan. 3d, as the day for the beginning of the teachers' annual institute. Good instructors have secured from abroad, besides a fine array of local talent will assist in making it one of the most profitable and interesting institutes. Every teacher in the county is expected to be present, and certainly none should think of absenting themselves.

Monday afternoon Mr. John Noble came down from Panther Rock, called on Recorder Shawkey, procured a set of "hitchment papers" for himself and lady, departed on the 4 o'clock train, and we understand had the wedding knot tied that same evening, at East Hickory. The happy young lady is Miss Lizzie J. Lusher, and we join their many friends in wishing them a long life of joy and prosperity.

Capt. George Stow Post elected the following officers for the ensuing year, at its regular meeting last Wednesday evening: Commander, D. S. Knox; S. V. Com., Daniel Black; J. V. Com., Peter Blocher; Sergeant, George Huddleson; Chaplain, H. Rhodes; Quartermaster, George Hindman; Officer of the Day, S. S. Canfield; Officer of the Guard, O. C. Brownell; Delegate to State Encampment, L. Agnew.

Lamentations of users of natural gas who are deprived of it by the breaking of pipes by contraction or their stoppage by the freezing of watery vapor, are heard from several towns and cities, and in bitter weather the hardship must be great. Very few will, in consequence of this, cease using the fuel. It is so immensely superior to anything else as a heat-producer that consumers will be taught to look upon these mishaps as inevitable and necessary annoyances, like the failure of a coal dealer to fill an order at the most critical time.—Blissard.

Miss Kate Guenther, teacher of Beaver Valley School, makes the following report for month ending Nov. 30, 1886: Whole number enrolled, males, 17; females, 19. Percentage of attendance, males, 84; females, 92. Those who were present every day during the month: Vernie, Bertie and Maggie Byerly, Frank, Olive and Henrietta Kifer, Charles and Irene Littlefield, Minnie Brecht, Burr Hunter and John McDonald. Those who were absent not more than two days: Florence and Blanche Miller, Cora and May Mealy, Nellie Emmert and George Miller.

Julius Cooley, an old resident of Barnett Township, Jefferson county, was drowned at Monterey, on the Allegheny River, at the time of the first rise in the river, about two or three weeks ago. He had started to go to Pittsburgh as a passenger on a boat or raft with some parties from Clarington, we think on boats belonging to the Shields Bros. They had reached Monterey, and there in the morning he got up and went out of the shanty where they were staying before any one else was astir. He did not come back, and later when the others were up and some one had gone out on the boat it was to find that Cooley's voyage was at an end. Appearances indicated that he had fallen off the boat into the river and drowned. We did not learn if the body had been recovered. From Pittsburgh Mr. Cooley was going to Kansas where a daughter lives with whom he expected to find a home the last days of his life. His wife died two or three years ago. He leaves three daughters, married.

The talk of a railroad up Tionesta creek is not a new theme in these parts, but the latest scheme in that direction seems to be the most worthy of credence of any yet brought out. The matter is now in the right hands to amount to something, and it is more than probable that it will be carried through. Railroad men of note had the scheme under consideration at a recent meeting in Philadelphia. For many years the Allegheny Valley R. R. has felt the need of an outlet, and a road from its terminus at South Oil City up the east bank of the river to this place, thence up Tionesta creek to Sheffield would afford such an outlet by the shortest possible route. The road would pass through the most extensive and valuable timber belts now remaining in this section, and be a paying institution from the start.

There is fairness and good reason in the argument of the Harrisburg Patriot that teachers should receive pay for the time spent in attending county institutes. It is a week of steady, systematic work, and there is no picnic whatever about it. They listen to lectures, study lessons in teaching, and in all available ways endeavor to perfect themselves in their calling. They do this at their own expense, having to pay their own board and the cost of traveling. Moreover, they feel morally and professionally bound to attend the institutes, as non-attendance lowers the grade of their certificates. They should receive full pay, and then, if necessary, let their attendance be compulsory. The Legislature should attend to this defect in the school system.—Franklin News.

The permanency of natural gas cannot be scientifically affirmed. The laws of physics justify the declaration that taking something from something there will be less left of the second something than we commence with. The practical question is: will there always remain enough of the second something—natural gas—to satisfy the demands of the unscientific and un-sentimental manufacturer? In China they have used natural gas for more than two thousand years, in making salt by evaporation. But China is not America. One pin-hole in a boiler would not practically effect the power. A million pin-holes would. With two-thirds of the supply in the region going to waste, there are those who maintain the boiler has been overtopped. On the other hand Prof. Ashburner, of the Pennsylvania survey, with all the facts before him, expresses a conviction that Pittsburgh will be safe from a gas famine for the next ten or twenty years.—Cleveland Press.

In a dense growth of virgin forest on the headwaters of Trout Run in Elk county, some eight miles from St. Mary's is a deer park, just completed by the local lumber kings Hall and Kaul. Some six hundred acres are fenced in. The fence follows the contour of the hills and is made by falling large trees and rolling them one on top of the other on skids to a height on the inside of eight feet; surmounting this and running all around and communicating with the wood-ranger's house is a telephone wire by which the wood-rangers can tell if a tree should fall across the fence. It is the intention to stock the park with twelve or fifteen deer to start with which in time will multiply among themselves and accessions from the outside, as provision is made those outside to get in. A fish-pond and hatching house adjoin the park which are being stocked with trout. As all this is private property none but interested parties will be allowed to avail themselves of the facilities of procuring game within its confines. The numerous friends and customers of the projectors of this enterprise will be frequent guests on the grounds and they can always be assured of bagging some game in season. Delightful rustic cabins are to be built in time and all in all it will be one of the best places in the State for sportsmen to spend a few days, the guest of Messrs. Hall and Kaul.—Renova News.

Stow Post For Colonel Wiley.

At the regular meeting of Stow Post No. 274, G. A. R., on Wednesday evening last, the following preamble and resolutions were passed:

Whereas, It having come to our knowledge that comrade John A. Wiley, is an applicant for the position of adjutant general of this commonwealth; and

Whereas, Many of us having personal knowledge of the fact that comrade Wiley has not only proved his courage and loyalty on different battle fields, but has also shown that he is possessed of rare executive ability as an officer of the national guard, therefore be it

Resolved, That Capt. Geo. Stow Post No. 274, department of Pennsylvania, G. A. R., respectfully but very earnestly request Governor-elect, General James A. Beaver that he appoint comrade Wiley to the position of adjutant general, feeling confident that his appointment will not only be a credit to the appointing power, but will add materially to the efficiency and discipline of the national guard.

Resolved, That the foregoing preamble and resolutions be attested by the officers of this post and be forwarded to General Beaver.

J. W. MORROW, Commander. Attest S. D. IRWIN, Adj't.

Unmarked Graves.

Comrades L. Agnew, Daniel Black and Oliver Byerly are appointed a committee of Capt. George Stow Post, G. A. R., to ascertain and report the number of unmarked soldiers' graves in Forest county. The Government offers to place a headstone over every such grave, and it is earnestly hoped that the inhabitants of the county will assist the committee in its work, and see that there is no patriot's grave unmarked or uncared for in our county. Any person knowing of any such would confer a favor by notifying either of the committee, or some member of the G. A. R., giving name, rank, company and Regiment, when in the army, and the date of his death. It would be well to attend to it at once, for the offer only extends for a few months.

J. W. MORROW, Commander.

Very Respectfully Yours, JOHN CURWEN. Warren, Pa., Dec. 2, 1886.

HEARTLESS CRUELTY

It is to delude a poor sufferer into the belief that some worthless liniment will cure rheumatism and neuralgia. Honesty is the best policy in the manufacture of proprietary articles in all other matters, and the fact that the proprietors of Athlophoros have never claimed for it even all its merit would warrant has not a little to do with its wonderful popularity, and the thousands of grateful testimonials received by them show that their policy has been wise as well as right.

Experience has amply demonstrated that mere outward applications are worthless. The disease has its seat in the blood, and any remedy to be successful must deal with the obstructive acid which poisons and inflames it.

Athlophoros acts on the blood, muscles and joints directly. It takes the poison out of the blood and carries it out of the system; it invigorates the action of the muscles and limbers the stiffness of the joints. It reaches the liver and kidneys, cleansing them from irritating substances, and, if followed up after the rheumatic conditions cease, it will restore these organs to regularity and health.

West Chazy, N. Y., Aug. 19, 1886. Yours of August 14th, is at hand, and in reply would say that Athlophoros proved the most effectual remedy for neuralgia in the case of my son that I ever tried. After using half a bottle he was not troubled any more for six months.

HENRY HARRIS.

Mr. Pleasant, Pa., Aug. 10, 1886.

I had rheumatism seven years, part of the time could not move; but to-day I am well and hearty. I write this hoping some other sufferer may try it.

W. S. FLEMING.

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist an Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, etc., Athlophoros Pills are unequalled.
