

McQUADE, another of New York's hoodle aldermen has been found guilty and sentenced to seven years at Sing Sing.

The late Horizontal Bill Morrison ought to conduct himself like a decent corpse. That spasm on Saturday in Congress was positively indecent—for a dead man.

The Queen won't permit her son-in-law, Prince Henry Battenberg, to spend the night in London unless she is in that city. From this we may infer that Heu carries his pot of red paint with him when he goes to London.

HORIZONTAL MORRISON'S free-trade bill is again receding in a horizontal attitude. It lacked six votes of enough to bring it before the House for consideration last Saturday. A pretty close shave for a bill which contemplated the destruction of American industries.

The invitation to Mr. Randall to walk over to the Republican camp will not be accepted. The freetraders not having the right of making it. But if Randall should come into the Republican camp the host that would follow him would shake the Democratic party from power.

THERE must be a special Providence that directs a Democrat to take a bath. By thus running counter to the traditions of his party, Congressman Reagan lost his chance to vote to take up the Morrison free trade bill. It is such things as this that make us believe the Lord is with his own.

The people of Dakota are moving again to have the Territory admitted as a State. It is of no use. The Democratic party will never consent, and it has the power to prevent. Dakota is Republican, and though it has twice the population of some States it will remain a Territory because it is Republican. Political dishonesty is a part of the creed of Democracy and Dakota is feeling the effects. If it would send two Democratic Senators it would be admitted, as it wont, it will not be.

A BILL introduced by Mr. White of this district, for the free coinage of silver provides that the holders of silver bullion may have the same coined into standard dollars (412 2/3 grains) on the same terms as applied to the coinage of gold; that the silver dollar shall be a unit of account and standard of value in like manner as now provided for the gold dollar, and shall be a full legal tender. It also provides that the Secretary of the Treasury, instead of coining all the silver bullion presented, shall exchange therefor silver dollars or certificates, coining only so much of the bullion as the needs of the country may require.

THE Bulgarian puzzle is causing trouble in the English royal family, according to latest cablegrams. The Queen is strongly in favor of one of the Battenbergs, from which family the husband of the Princess Beatrice, the Queen's baby, comes, for the Bulgarian throne. The Prince of Wales and his brother, the Duke of Edinburgh, the Czar's son-in-law, as strongly advocate the claims of Prince Ferdinand, of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, whose candidacy it is said the Czar will certainly approve. The Prince of Wales and the Duke of Edinburgh cannot tolerate the Battenbergs; and as the Guelphs, as the royal family of England are mistakenly called, are nothing if not stubborn and arbitrary, the statement that the family feud is growing more bitter can easily be believed.

THE dead letter sale, which takes place in Washington just before Christmas each year, is now in progress. Inside the auction room two long platforms composed of plain boards thrown lengthwise over some "carpenters' horses" constituted the funeral bier of the dead letter packages which are arranged in various-sized white bundles of mysterious appearance. With the caution, "Remember, we don't guarantee the contents of any of these packages," the auctioneer mounts his stand and, calling for the first-numbered article, proceeds to excite the capidity of his audience with the familiar cry, "Here, y're, thirty bid; See 'll you make it; five 'll you make it." The fact that the packages are not open and the only idea of their contents to be had is the brief and matter-of-fact description in the catalogue, such as "toothbrush and box of hairpins," adds an interest to the sale, a bit is something of a lottery. Few purchasers have the courage or grace to open their packages to the inquisitive gaze of the people, but content their curiosity by furtively feeling the package they find a favorable opportunity to retire to a distant corner and there discover what Dame Fortune has brought them.

THE Campbell divorce suit, which has occupied so much space of late in English and American papers, is at last ended, with a verdict which denies Lady Campbell the divorce she asked for, on the ground that the allegations were not proven. The case has had, however, the effect of exposing the rottenness of certain circles of the nobility, and the utter lack of morality among the bearers of some of the most renowned names in England. The Duke of Marlborough on the witness stand acknowledged the commission of crimes which should send him, even now, on his own confession, to the State's prison, with as much apparent carelessness as he would acknowledge attending the opera. As far as the principals in the case are concerned, the less said about them the better, and especially about Lord Colin. It is difficult to believe, but that the evidence which the jury found insufficient where the Duke of Argyll's son was concerned, would have been deemed amply complete had the defendant not belonged to the nobility. Lady Campbell seems to have been a much-abused wife, but that she was at least very indiscreet cannot be denied.

A Way Open to Them.

Mr. Morrison should now be satisfied. It will do him no good, and, on the contrary, is certain to do the country much harm, if he persists in keeping up the fruitless agitation about his dangerous tariff reduction bill. The advice which he received on Saturday from his home in Illinois, to call it up again, is not good advice, in spite of the fact that it comes from a source in which Mr. Morrison naturally might feel a good deal of confidence. We regret to say that it is not patriotic advice nor meant for the best interests of the country.

That the surplus revenue should be reduced at this session is universally conceded. The certain extinction at an early date of that portion of the public debt available for payment makes a reduction in the Government's income absolutely necessary. All sides conceding this, and the vote of Saturday having made clear that the friends of home industry will not allow it to be sacrificed by tariff reduction, the only patriotic and sensible course open to the defeated minority is to consent to a reduction in internal taxes, as has been proposed and will be supported by Republicans.

The extinction of the tobacco tax means less money taken out of the hands of workingmen. The abolition of the tax on alcohol used in the arts and manufactures means a reduction in the cost to the consumer of many necessities of life. We do not expect the rabid and uncompromising freetraders to support any such reduction. They would rather invite a financial panic than stop the Treasury glut by any other process than the destruction of the Protective tariff. But we are unwilling to believe that all of the 149 gentlemen who voted to take up Morrison's bill are of this intractable disposition. If they want to reduce the revenue, as they say they do, there is one way open to them which will wipe out the surplus without affecting injuriously a single American industry, but be wholly beneficial in its results.—Phila. Press.

A GREAT MISTAKE has heretofore been made in the treatment of rheumatism, neuralgia, and nervous or sick headaches. This is evidenced by the failure on the part of thousands of sufferers to find relief, even though they have exhausted the skill of various physicians and tried numerous so-called remedies. To such Athliphora is offered as a safe, sure, and quick cure. Its success has been phenomenal, and yet it is not surprising because it will do all that is claimed for it. The Athliphora Co. will gladly refer any who desire to make an investigation to reliable parties who have been cured by it.

Warrensburg, N. Y. Enclosed find postal note for one-half dozen bottles of your Athliphora. It is wonderful how it cures every case where I can persuade them to try. The sales are increasing. My sister-in-law was given up to die by the doctors; they sent for me; I took a bottle of Athliphora and persuaded her to try it, the second dose gave relief. She had not lain in bed for two weeks; the next night she went to bed and slept all night; in one week she was up and at work around the house. Many thanks. Mrs. J. D. NUTTINO.

It is owing to Athliphora that I am alive. I have suffered with inflammatory rheumatism for years, most of the time perfectly helpless. But one bottle of Athliphora has cured me. There is nothing like it for the speedy relief and permanent cure of rheumatism, so I recommend it to all, knowing it will accomplish what it claims to do. Mrs. E. VICKERS, 46 Pleasant St., Waterbury, Conn.

F. C. HAZARD, Upper Lisle, N. Y., says: "I had neuralgia in the head and neck, and Athliphora cured them." Every druggist should keep Athliphora and Athliphora Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athliphora Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (express paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athliphora and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, &c., Athliphora Pills are indicated.

BECAUSE—Its construction is such that it secures PERFECT COMBUSTION, and avoids all soot and lampblack. It will pay for itself in a short time and will SAVE HALF THE LIFE OF THE STOVE by applying the heat low and directly against the fire-box.

The Electrician of the Penn. R. R. Co., says of it—"I have been using the Kline Gas Burner in my cooking-stove for six months, and during that time there has not been a particle of soot or lamp formed in the stove or on the bottom of the cooking utensils, brought direct contact with the flame. I can conscientiously recommend it as being the best burner. I would use no other as long as I could procure the Kline Gas Burner."
