Church and Sabbath School.

Sabbatarian Sabbath School at 9:45 a. m. E. Sabbath School at 10:00 a. m. Preaching in M. E. Church every Sabbath evening by Rev. Small. Preaching in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning and evening, by Rev. Hickling.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Oil market closed yesterday 72. —Mr. Ed. Heibel of Warren, paid Tionesta a visit Monday.

—Mrs. Hickling returned home yesterday from Waynesburg, Greene County, where she has been nursing her invalid mother.

—Frank Law has set up housekeeping in the rooms lately vacated by Ed. Heibel, and has become one of the "old men" of the town.

—One pound, full weight, Bright Plug tobacco at H. J. Hopkins & Co.'s for 27 cents. This is the greatest bargain of the 19th century.

—Hon. C. W. Stone of Warren, will likely enter Gov. Beaver's cabinet as Secretary of State. His selection would give universal satisfaction.

—D. S. Drury, an old resident of this city, but now of Byram, Forest county was calling on some of his old friends on Wednesday last.—Corry Venture.

—All the borough schools opened on Monday morning after a two weeks holiday, out of which the pupils no doubt extracted all the pleasure there was in it.

—Sixteen degrees below zero last Saturday morning. But that was nothing compared with the little snip in St. Cloud, Minn., where it got down to 60° below.

—Mr. Jas. R. Clark is in Pittsburgh this week attending the annual session of the Grand Lodge, A. O. U. W., as the Representative of Forest Lodge, No. 184, of this place.

—The teachers' institute held here last week, is unanimously voted a complete success. We believe it was the most largely attended institute ever held in the county.

—Mr. J. D. W. Reck and daughter, Minnie, of Dallas, McKean county, are paying the Judge a visit this week. Mr. R.'s many old friends here are pleased to see him looking so hearty.

—Mr. H. M. Thomson, who is now located at Fern, Clarion county, spent the holidays with friends and relatives hereabouts. "Cully" always meets with a warm greeting at his old home.

—The next important event is the February election, which happens on the third Tuesday of the month. The hottest fight in this place, generally, at such elections, is to keep from getting an office.

—We are in receipt of an interesting letter from Dr. Coburn, of Minneapolis, Minn., which we will publish next week.—a part of it at least— which will be read with pleasure by the Doctor's old Forest county friends.

—Thus far this has been one of the finest winters for all kinds of business especially lumbering, that we have had for years. The sleighing was never better, and it is being thoroughly utilized for all kinds of team work.

—When a lecturer has worked the ladies of his audience so near to the weeping point that they have gotten out their handkerchiefs, and then suddenly changes his tone and speaks of the merits of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup he is bound to rouse a feeling of indignation.

—Jas. Connelly, section boss on the railroad, yesterday met with a very painful accident, while attempting to "chip" a rail, a small sharp piece of the same striking him in the right eye, injuring it in such a manner as to destroy the sight. Dr. Morrow was called and dressed the wound leaving the patient feeling quite comfortably after such a sad misfortune.

—The young boys and girls of Tionesta, had a sleighing party to the White Church to Free-Methodist meeting, on Monday evening.

—Treasurer Fitzgerald moved his family and household goods to town yesterday and occupies W. A. Grove's house, on the corner opposite Mr. Craig's residence. The location is a good one for Mr. F.'s business, being only a step over to the court house.

—The "Battle Fields Folder," is a very artistic, as well as valuable pamphlet issued by the Western & Atlantic R. R., and sent to all who will send their address and enclose a one-cent stamp. Send for it to Joseph M. Brown, Gen'l Pass'r Agt., Atlanta, Ga.

—Harrison Seigworth, son of Samuel Seigworth of Lickingville, while crastling at Mayburg, this county, ran into some obstacle which so injured him as to make his recovery very doubtful. We are without particulars. Mr. Seigworth is about 23 years of age.

—"He jests at scars, who never felt a wound," and a man may stand with his hands in his pockets and laugh at a poor, worn rheumatic, but if he is a gentleman, he'll step into the nearest apothecary shop and buy him a bottle of Salvation Oil at the small expense of only twenty five cents.

—The Meadville Gazette, Col. Reisinger's new paper, has reached us, and we are not surprised to find it one of the handsomest and brightest journals on our table. Its success is assured already, not so much on account of the necessity for more papers in that city, but the fact that it has one of the ablest writers and best managers in the State at its head. Our very best wishes Colonel.

—Some of our Greenville exchanges are complaining of a scarcity of coal there. Let's see—coal? coal?—what's coal? Oh, now we remember. It's a substance that some folks burn. Yes, yes; it's a black stuff that they dig somewhere, and it makes a warm fire, but it makes a flaky, splotchy, black, sooty deposit that is very nasty. We are informed that in former years some of the people of Franklin were addicted to the use of stone-coal.—Franklin News.

—The following from an exchange is true as gospel: A kindness shown to a boy is a bank account upon which you can check at pleasure, and the principal even increases; but a slight, an insult, or a neglect, of his "Kiship," is a debt that will never be paid, and one which grows with years and at compound interest, too. Men may quarrel with men in the morning and dine together at noon, fast friends; women have their differences, and make up; boys fight among themselves like dogs and cats, and forget the cause of their anger ere the combat is finished; but no man ever treated ill a boy, without, in the boy's own expressive but inelegant language, "bein' remembered."

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE—FULL PROCEEDINGS.

Monday, January 3rd., 2 P. M. The Institute was called to order by Supt. Hillard. After opening exercises of a devotional character an election of officers was held resulting as follows:

President, J. E. Hillard, County Superintendent; Vice Presidents, S. F. Rohrer, and C. H. Donnell; Secretaries, Vilette Sedden, Maude Fox, Ella Leech, Lizzie Guenther; Executive Committee, G. W. Kerr, M. B. Lewis, R. J. Christie; Committee on Exhibits, J. W. Grove, Kate Guenther; Enrollment Officer, E. E. Zuendell; Treasurer, Mary Kubus; President of Informal Meetings, A. J. Sallade; Secretary of Informal Meeting, Jennie Hague. The enrollment fee was made one dollar and teachers to be admitted free to evening entertainments. Each teacher enrolled was presented with a pencil and note book. The work of the afternoon was plentifully interspersed with music led by Professor E. O. Excell of Chicago.

MONDAY EVENING.

The Court House was comfortably filled with teachers and people. P. M. Clerk, Esq., read a fine paper on "Trifles" as preliminary to the Address of Welcome, which was appended in a few, hearty words pungent with good nature. R. J. Christie was called on for the Response, but he was unfortunately absent at the time. D. W. Law son of Dayton, Pa., was then introduced to the audience and made a very fine address on "Jewel Hunting." During the evening Prof. E. O. Excell sang, and led the audience in singing. The Professor's singing and leading makes things move right along wherever he goes. He was suffering from a severe cold on the lungs and throat and much to his own regret and the disappointment of many expectant ones he was unable after Tuesday to do much singing or even leading. It was too bad. And no one felt worse over it than did the Prof. himself. It was the intention to have Miss Narcissa White lecture on Monday night, but that lady telegraphed Monday afternoon about 3 o'clock that she had missed her train and could not get here. Then Professor Cooper of Edinboro was announced. But he failed to get to Oil City soon enough to get the train for this place.

TUESDAY MORNING.

Professor Cooper who had come on the morning train occupied a half hour in a talk with the teachers, he asking a list of questions to which he instructed them to write answers. He then called for the reading of these answers, noting them for the purpose of finding by what kind of work he could most benefit them during Institute as well as for the purpose of proving thought.

Mrs. Gertrude Andrews of Meadville, began her work on Reading. She is master of her subject, and insists that there is a difference between reading and mere word-pronouncing. Her first lesson was on Primary Reading. The lessons given afterwards were directed toward helping teachers who had difficulty with pupils from 10 to 15, and even older. She had the teachers read, and read herself, throwing in pertinent comments and criticisms, but always good naturedly and sensibly. Professor Cooper gave another talk, a short one.

AFTERNOON.

The Query Box was opened and a number of questions were discussed, and some answered. Mr. Lawson talked to the teachers on School Room Attractions. Professor Lawson's talk was a deal in plain truths forcibly presented. And we believe the teachers liked it all the better because of it. Professor Cooper talked to the teachers on How to Interest Pupils in School Work. He was very straight forward in insisting that to a great degree the interest the pupil feels and shows is a reflection of the interest the teacher feels and shows in the same kind of work from the teacher's standpoint. Music, led by Professor Excell, was thrown in very frequently both forenoon and afternoon, besides that, a half hour of each session was devoted to a drill in music. It was Superintendent Hillard's intention to have regular instruction given in music both forenoon and afternoon of every day as well as to control and carry the Institute by means of the music. And it would have done it, in fact was working right up all day Tuesday.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Miss Emma Colby, Miss Eva Brownell and C. H. Donnell were appointed ed as a special committee to draft suitable resolutions respecting the death of Supt. Arild of Warren county. A talk by Professor Cooper. Reading and Gymnastics, by Mrs. Andrews. A paper by Miss Hannah Christie. A talk by Professor Cooper. The Query box.

AFTERNOON.

Report of special committee on resolutions. Mrs. Anna Pride gave a lesson on Civil Government, accompanied with an outline for teaching the subject, on the board. Reading by Mrs. Andrews. S. D. Irwin Esq., gave a very fine talk on Mineralogy and Geology, and exhibited specimens of ores and rocks.

Wednesday evening was occupied principally by Professor Cooper who lectured on Undeveloped Power.

THURSDAY MORNING.

Continuation of Mrs. Pride's work on Civil Government. A talk by Professor Cooper. Mrs. Andrews continued her work on Reading. School Discipline, by Professor Cooper. R. Z. Gillespie of Whig Hill being present was called on and responded in a very pleasant and sensible talk to the Institute. Queries.

AFTERNOON.

A talk by Professor Cooper. Queries. Election of Committee on Permanent Certificates. A talk to the Directors, by Professor Cooper. The time was then given to the directors. And it was used with a vim. The questions discussed were handled with energy. At the close of the discussion a series of resolutions was presented by Dr. Morrow, and disposed of.

EVENING.

A grand musical entertainment was billed for the evening and successfully carried out. In addition Miles W. Tate Esq., read a very fine address on the subject of "Light."

FRIDAY MORNING.

Queries. S. D. Owen, an old friend of the Forest County Institutes being present was called on, and responded in a short emphatic speech. A talk by Professor Cooper. T. F. Ritchey Esq., gave the Institute a very fine interesting description of Washington Territory. Mrs. Andrews gave a last short talk on Reading. Report of Committee on Resolutions. The resolutions reported by the committee were considered singly and disposed of. Adjournment, final.

The Minutes will be published in pamphlet form as they were last year.

While many circumstances and disappointments happened and of an adverse character, yet we feel that out of simple justice to the Institute we can congratulate ourselves on a very successful Institute.

We return our most sincere thanks for the interest manifested in our meetings, and for the large patronage given us on the pay evenings, as well as for good houses at all other times.

Very Respectfully,

J. E. HILLARD, Co. Supt.

After installation the objects of, and advantages derived by the G. A. R. were set forth in a dialogue prepared by Commander Knox. The comrades then engaged in a camp-fire talk, which was participated in by the following comrades: — Clerk of Edenburg, H. E. Stanley of Cuba, N. Y., and S. D. Irwin Esq., Rev. Henry Rhodes, Dr. J. The following resolutions in memory of Gen. Jno. A. Logan were passed by a unanimous vote:
