LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS' CONVENTION.

To the School Directors of Forest County: GENTLEMEN:— In pursuance of the Forty-Third Section of the Act of 8th May, 1854, you are hereby notified to meet in Convention, at the Court House, in Tionesta borough, on the FIRST TUESDAY IN MAY, A. D. 1887, being the third day of the month at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and select, via voce, by a majority of the whole number of Directors present, one person of literary and scientific acquirements, and of skill and experience in the act of teaching, as County Superintendent for the three succeeding years; and certify the result to the State Superintendent, at Harrisburg, as required by the Thirty-Ninth and Fortieth Section of said Act. J. E. HILLARD, County Superintendent of Forest Co., Tionesta April, 13, 1887.

—The Arbutus is in bud. —John G. Saxe, the poet is dead. —F. C. Lacy was in town Tuesday. —Have you sowed some lettuce, and planted some onions? —The boys are bringing in some nice strings of suckers these days. —Miss Martha Morrow will teach the Hunter Run school this Summer. —There are about 40 cases of measles in town. —Transcribing clerk Wenk, was home over Saturday and Sunday. —Wm. Tobey, and daughter Hattie, were in town Monday. —Miss Ida Paup is visiting with her mother at Neiltown. —Go to Smearbaugh & Co.'s for Pants, Overalls, Jackets, Shirts, &c. —D. W. Clark is improving in health rapidly these fine days. —The river rose some Monday and Tuesday. And the creek, a little, too. —John Normie of Mayburg was in town Monday. —James Blackford of Tylersburg, and G. W. Kerr, were in town Monday night. —Miss Myrtle Copeland of West Hickory, will teach the Smokey Hill school this summer. —The drouth in Texas still continues. The damage already done is immense. —An exchange says: "Man's average life is 31 years. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will always live. —J. H. Derrickson is putting in new walks in front of his house, and making some other repairs. —John Wiles has taken a job of stocking for Lawrence and Smearbaugh. —M. W. Tate went to Pittsburg on business, Monday, and returned Wednesday morning. —P. M. Clark, has hitched on an insurance clause to his law practice. See his "add" in the locals. —Miss Effie Clark entertained a number of her young lady friends on Friday evening last with a social tea. —Any one wanting skills built, should call at the Rink, and examine James Landers' models. —Thomas Carley, a prisoner in the Warren county jail, committed suicide by hanging. —R. W. Pimm of Harmony township, is announced this week as a candidate for sheriff. —T. P. Flynn of Nebraska, was in town Monday. Also Uncle Billy Puffenberger of Kellietville.

—Billy Wanzer has started a rustic chair industry. He reports business booming. —The first game of ball was played on the island, on Friday of last week. Score not reported. —Mr. S. J. Wolcott is about to erect a new rig, on Peter's Run. Success to you S. J. —"In Russia they count that day lost whose low descending sun beholds no nihilist Czar-hunting with a gun. —Fine new stock of calling cards just received at this office. Orders filled promptly, and work and prices satisfactory. —Judge Reck is having his store room, recently occupied by John Carson, remodeled, and will move his butcher shop a little nearer the street. —John T. Raymond, the famous comedian, died at Evansville, Ind. on the morning of April 10th., after a short illness. —James Davis, book-keeper in the Warren Savings Bank, accompanied by Dale Greaves, eldest son of W. A. Greaves, spent Sunday with his parents in this place. —Kaiser the tailor has moved into the Photo Gallery. The location is central, and no stairs to climb. New goods just received, and custom work solicited. —The hills are ablaze these nights, being set on fire by passing engines. It might be remarked right here that there is a severe penalty attached to setting fire in the woods. —If you want at once the best and cheapest Life Insurance, insure in the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association. P. M. Clark, Agent, Tionesta, Pa. —The Billingsly Bill passed the House yesterday by a vote of 132 yeas, 39 nays. It now goes to the Senate but will not come up for final passage for two weeks. —The Evangelical church at West Hickory will be dedicated Sunday, April 17. Services will begin Saturday evening previous. Prominent ministers will be present. All are invited. —Rev. John Rhodes came up from Oil City where he is stationed, on Friday last, to see his parents and family. We are sorry to see him in poor health. —Supt. Hillard wishes us to say that as the certificates issued by him last year do not expire until April 30th, those issued this spring will not be sent out for a few days yet. —The Prohibitory amendment was defeated in Michigan by about 3000. The amendment to increase the salaries of State officials was carried by a good majority. —Mr. Chas. Buck, who accompanied Mr. Miller, (the supposed to be trunk robber) to Hickory on April 5th, was arrested and brought to Tionesta on Saturday last, as being connected with the same charge. —The committee appointed to investigate the charge of mismanagement of the Edinboro Normal School will soon report to the Legislature that Prof. Cooper is not guilty of the offenses charged against him. —Salvation Oil is what you want. It kills pain and cures the worst cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, hoarseness, and headache. Take no "just as good." Price twenty-five cents a bottle. —The Interstate Commerce bill seems to be unsettling things in a way not looked for before it went into effect. While in some places it meets with approval yet, the feeling generally is against it. At least it so seems now, but it may come all right after a little. —The Brooks high license bill also passed the House by a vote of 123 yeas, 61 nays. It provides that licenses in cities of the first, second, and third class shall be $500, in all other cities $300, in boroughs $150, in townships $75. —G. J. Lacy will rebuild his house lately destroyed by fire. Bids are being received this week for the work. The insurance on the house and furniture when burned did not cover half the loss, we are informed. —On Saturday last a great prairie fire swept over the eastern portions of Norton and Graham counties, Kansas. The wind was blowing at the rate of 40 miles an hour. Twenty-two persons lost their lives in the flames. Houses, haystacks, stable, grain cribs, cattle, hogs, chickens and horses were also destroyed.

—Dr. Morrow, our coroner received a telegram this morning from Porky station that Adam Wright, aged 26, dropped dead there yesterday. He was not sick. There was no apparent cause of death. No inquest will be held. —M. E. Hess who formerly taught school in this county, and successfully, is connected with the Summer Normal which opens April 25th., at Sandy Lake, Pa. Mr. Hess is at home to all parties desiring information as to the school. —Mack Agnew wishes to notify the public that he is about to open the spring campaign against dogs and chickens, found transgressing their lawful boundaries of habitude. All persons possessed of fowls and canines, of a wandering disposition, will please take notice. —All the indications seem to agree that spring has come. The house-fly sits on the window ledge rubbing the dust out of his eyes, the festive frog has crawled out of the mud and is sounding his advent in much noise and music, the air is heavy with the thud of carpet-beating, the dinner is seasoned with carpet tacks,—and there are some other signs besides these that seem to fasten the belief beyond dispute. —As early as last September the Pennsylvania R. R. Co. became aware that their freight cars were being robbed. And it is estimated that up to the present time not less than $200,000 worth of goods have been stolen. Detectives were set to work, and the result was the arrest of 48 employees, freight crews, of the Panhandle road, in the words of detective Roe, "they stole everything except coffins." —Mr. Andrews, whose daughter was lately married to John A. Logan, Jr., has taken his son-in-law into partnership with him. Mr. Andrews has recently bought out all the interests of his partners in the Carbon Limestone Company, and will present young Logan with a half interest in the business, and make him general manager of the property. —The following is the report of the Wolf school for the first five months ending April 4, 1887, Jennie Hogue, teacher: No. enrolled 18; percent of attendance, 94. The figures show how many days each pupil has attended: Joseph Wolf 96, Frank Wolf 96, Howard Blocher 96, John Wolf 100, Willie Weant 91, Harry Wolf 98, David Fenstermaker 80, Tracy Wolf 98, Fred Weant, Ralph Blocher 98, Charles Ruth 77, Clarence Mealy 100, Willie Blocher 76, Ella Blocher 88, Bertha Blocher 98, Blanch Fenstermaker 81, Della Ruth 79. —The dedicatory services of the Evangelical Church at West Hickory will be attended by the following noted ministers of Franklin district: Rev. F. P. Saylor, P. E., Franklin district; Rev. B. F. Feitt, Dempseytown; Rev. J. Esch, Lickingville; Rev. W. M. Stanford, Cleveland Ohio. Other neighboring ministers are invited, and are expected to be present. Services will begin on Saturday evening, the 16th. The dedicatory services will be at 10 A. M., 17th., at which time the Rev. W. M. Stanford will preach. There will be services also in the afternoon and evening of the Sabbath. Everybody is invited to attend these services.

—Miss Gallaher, daughter of Mr. H. Gallaher, of Cooper's, is at Edinboro attending the Spring term of school there. —Mr. Oron Butterfield of Clarington accompanied his brother-in-law, A. J. Wallace, home to Balltown last Saturday. —When the flood comes Tionesta creek will have quite a run of lumber, and timber and logs. The roads are drying up rapidly, and will soon be in good condition. The road along the narrows below Mayburg is doing quite well. It isn't or hasn't been so far, sliding in near as much as anticipated. The Mayburg school closed with a very creditable exhibition given by the scholars. Miss Christie who taught the winter term will teach the spring term. John Robertson of Tylersburg has become a resident of Nebraska. He moved down last week. The measles are having a sort of a walk over, so to speak. There are probably 50 cases at Whig Hill. Nebraska has 'em too. They are unusually severe. Dr. Smith of Whig Hill is very sick. The M. E. Sunday School at Whig Hill was organized last Sunday. We had the pleasure to be shown through the flowering and feed mill of Ledebur and Bowman, or Bowman and Ledebur, (we forget how it reads,) at East Hickory the other day, by Mr. Ledebur. Everything is neat, clean, handy and complete. The mill at present is grinding feed principally. It uses about 1000 bushels of grain per week. No troubles has been had so far in finding a home market for all the feed put out. It is called for about as fast as made. The flowering business has so far been confined to custom work. A complete flowering plant will be put in after a while and a business of that kind started. This mill can't be beat in the quality of buck-wheat flour it puts out. The R. R. across the river from West Hickory to Stowtown is being pushed vigorously. Thomas Corah has moved down to Kellietville and now occupies the house built by Darius Toby. Mr. Fair succeeds Mr. Corah as landlord of the Balltown house. We wish our genial friend Corah success in his new location. And the same to Mr. Fair. Squire Hawks is up to the shoulders in business these days. The square all ways deals on the square. R. J. Christie, one of our pedagogues, who taught at West Hickory last winter will go to Dakota this month. He has a school engaged and will commence teaching as soon as he reaches there. Green Farm presents a veritable oil field appearance. BY-THE-WAY. Wanamakers Solution of the Labor Problem.

On good Friday of last week, the twenty-sixth anniversary of his business career in Philadelphia, John Wanamaker, the merchant king, called a meeting of his employees, numbering probably 3500 persons, and announced a new departure in reference to the salaries and pay of his employees. All persons in the employ of the house for seven years and all others whose terms of service shall hereafter reach seven years are to share in a certain portion of the profits of the firm to be set aside for that purpose at the next annual settlement of the business of the firm. This is to be divided among this class of employees according to the value of their services to the firm. All the salespersons in the house are to have added to their salaries after Monday, April 11, 1887, a sum each week graded by their sales. In the packing, clerical, invoice, and various of fices, a civil service system will be strictly followed in promotions, and advancements. These extra payments apply only to those who have been in the employ of the firm six months and over. These extras all round are addition to the regular salaries of the employees, which, Mr. Wanamaker says, average as high, if not higher than in any large store in any city in the world.

NOTES.

Thomas Jefferson Allen, Josiah Allen's children have been brought up to think that sin of any kind is just as bad in a man as it is in a woman; and any place of amusement that was bad for a woman to go to was bad for a man. Now when Thomas Jefferson was a little feller, he was bewitched to go to circuses, and Josiah said: Better let him go, Samantha; it haint no place for wimmin or girls, but it wont hurt a boy. Says I: Josiah Allen, the Lord made Thomas Jefferson with just as pure a hart as Tirzah Ann, and ne bigger eyes and ears, and if Thomas J. goes to the circus, Tirzah Ann goes too. That stopped that. And then he was bewitched to get with other boys that smoked and chewed tobacco, and Josiah was jest that easy tern that he would have let him go with 'em. Bu says I: "Josiah Allen, if Thomas Jefferson goes with those boys, and gets to chewin' and smokin' tobacco, I shal buy Tirzah Ann a pipe." And that stopped that. "And about driinkin'," say I, "Thomas Jefferson, if it should ever be the will of Providence to change you into a wild bear, I will chain you up and do the best I can by you. But if you ever do it yourself, turn yourself into a wild beast by driinkin', I will run away, for I never could stand it, never! And," I continued, "if I ever see you hangin' round bar-rooms and tavern doors, Tirzah Ann shal hang too." Josiah argued with me; says he, "It dont look so bad for a boy as it does for a girl." Says I, "Custom makes the difference; we are more used to seein, men. But," says I, "when liquor goes to work to make a fool and a brute of anybody, it dont stop to ask about sect, it makes a wild beast and an idiot of a man or woman, and to look down from heaven, I guess a man looks as bad layin' dead drunk in a gutter as a woman does," says I; "things look differently from up there than what they do to us—it is a more sightly place. And you talk about looks, Josiah Allen. I dont go on clear looks, I go on principle. Will the lord say to me in the last day, 'Josiah Allen's wife, how is it with the sole of Tirzah Ann—as for Thomas Jefferson's sole he bein' a boy it haint of no account?' No! I shal have to give an account to Him for my dealin's with both of these soles, male and female. And I should feel guilty if I brought him up to think that what was impure for a woman was pure for a man. If a man has a greater desire to do wrong—which I wont dispute," says I, lookin' keenly onto Josiah, "he has greater strength to resist temptation. And so, says I in mild accents, but firm as old Plymouth Rock, "if Thomas Jefferson hangs, Tirzah Ann shal hang too. I have brought Thomas Jefferson up to think that it was just as bad for him to listen to a bad story or song as for a girl, or worse, for he had more strength to run away, and that it was a disgrace for him to talk or listen to any stuff that he would be ashamed to have Tirzah Ann or me hear. I have brought him up to think that manliness dont consist in having a cigar in his mouth, and his hat on one side, and swarin' and slang phrases, and a knowledge of questionable amusements, but in layin' hold of every duty that comes to him, with a brave hart and cheerful face; in helpin' to right the wrong, and protect the weak, and makin the most and best of the mind and sole God had given him. In short, I have brought him up to think that purity and virtue are both feminine and masculine gender, and that God's angels are not necessarily all she ones. Be a glow-worm if you cant be a star; be a pulley if you cant be a crane; drive a wheelbarrow if you cant drive a train; do something to help forward the grand temperance reformation.
