LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS' CONVENTION.

To the School Directors of Forest County: GENTLEMEN:—

In pursuance of the Act of 8th May, 1854, you are hereby notified to meet in Convention, at the Court House, in Tionesta borough, on the FIRST TUESDAY IN MAY, A. D., 1887, being the third day of the month at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and select, rien voce, by a majority of the whole number of Directors present, one person of literary and scientific acquirements, and of skill and experience in the act of teaching, as County Superintendent for the three succeeding years; and certify the result to the State Superintendent, at Harrisburg, as required by the Thirty-Ninth and Fortieth Section of said Act. J. E. HILLARD, County Superintendent of Forest Co., Tionesta April, 13, 1887.

—Go to Smearhaugh & Co.'s for Paots, Overalls, Jackets, Shirts, &c. —Any one wanting skiffs built, should call at the Rink, and examine James Landers' models. —Governor Hill of New York has vetoed the High License Bill passed recently by the state legislature. —April 22nd is Arbor Day. Have you made up your mind what you will plant? —J. R. Landis, of Barnett, W. S. Davis, of Jenks, and John Osgood, of Kingsley were in town Saturday. All are candidates for Sheriff. —Saturday and Sunday "slashes" were cut at Buck Mills, Newtown, and Nebraska, and quite a number of rafts came out on the pond freshets. —A text of the lumberman's lien law, which passed the house, and which will be brought before the Senate soon, will be found in another column. —Mrs. Little of Rew city, McKean Co., daughter of Wm. Young, is visiting her brother and sister John and Mary, who are still living on the Old Towu farm. —The post office at Panther Rock has been discontinued. Mr. Tobey having resigned the P. M. ship. The inhabitants thereabouts will hereafter get their mail at Newtown. —If you want at once the best and cheapest Life Insurance, insure in the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association. P. M. Clark, Agent, Tionesta, Pa. —Herman & Siggins have just set up the finest soda fountain this neck of woods has yet possessed. It hasn't got to "fizzing" yet, but look out for it when warm weather sets in again. —Geo. Raab, our enterprising barber, made an excellent deal recently in the purchase of Chas. Bonner's neat little cottage on Vine st., at present occupied by Mr. Charlston. —James Cosgrove was in town Sunday. He brought Mrs. Anderson, his aunt from Barnett where she had been visiting with friends. She is now visiting at Hon. Jos. Dale's. —Miss Cora Wallace, of East Brady, accompanied by Miss Hanes, of Boston, arrived at Mrs. J. H. Derrickson on Wednesday last, returning accompanied by Mrs. Derrickson on Friday afternoon. —Judge Recks, new meat market eclipses anything in its appearance anywhere around here; you can't find its superior in a days journey. It is a combination of the aesthetic, the practical, and the convenient.

—The St. Marys Gazette has issued in book form the testimony in the murder trial of Wm. C. Bush. No doubt this work will be a choice addition to the libraries of our Elk county neighbors.—McKean Co., Miner. —As water is worse than useless in case of an oil fire, it is a good thing to know and remember that flour is the best extinguisher. If your lamp explodes or falls and breaks, fly to the flour barrel for a double handful. —Monday morning at daylight the ground was white with snow. Against night there was at least six inches of solid snow all over the country. It rained at intervals during the day, and it is probable that a foot of snow fell during the day. —Monday night our citizens were aroused, just about midnight, by a tremendous thumping on their front doors. It was Hoyt come to warn that the gas was going down and they'd better turn off their jets. Tuesday morning it was all right again. —From St. Clairsville, Ohio to Wheeling, W. Va., on Friday afternoon last, a cyclone made a most disastrous record. Trees, fences, houses, chimneys, lumber, in fact everything portable was tossed around in a most destructive way. No persons were injured. —Mr. Fulton has the excavation completed and is now having the foundation put up for a new dwelling, on the corner of Vine and Walnut Sts., above the Central House. We are glad to see Mr. F. making himself solid in a Tionesta homestead, and must congratulate him on his choice of location. —On Thursday last at about one o'clock the warehouse of the hub factory of Martin & Homer at Tidoune was destroyed by fire. At the time the building contained about 45,000 seasoned hubs. The loss is $10,000 insured for only $5,200. The owners and proprietors had got nicely established in their business, and the loss is a severe one to them. The origin of the fire is a mystery. —Alvin Culver of Tylersburg, whom many of our readers will remember to have seen, committed suicide by hanging himself. He disappeared on Tuesday last, and was found on Thursday, hanging by the neck to a tree back of the M. E. church. Physically he had always been unfortunate, as well as mentally. Lately he had been blind. He was 45 years of age. —Sizerville, Cameron county, has a medicinal spring which, it is said, cures rheumatism. In relation to this we clip the following from an exchange: From the Wellsboro Advertiser we learn that J. E. Westcott, of Westfield, Tioga county, will soon erect at Sizerville, Cameron county, a large hotel for the accommodation of guests who seek that place for water from the great mineral spring there. —Peterson's Magazine for May is on hand with its usual promptitude. Decidedly, so far, "Peterson" for 1887 has surprised itself. If it goes on as it has begun, this will be its jubilee year, in point of merit. This month's double-size colored fashion-plate will be greeted by extra eagerness by the ladies, as it contains several Parisian costumes wholly novel in design, and as graceful as they are original. The steel-engraving is a beauty, and the crochet and embroidery patters are very fresh and taking. The stories, too, are exceptionally good. Terms, two dollars a year. Address PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa. —In reply to the question, "Why did you marry?" a number of married ladies of Michigan replied as follows: "Because all the fools weren't dead yet." "Because I had a chance." "Because I didn't want to be a hired girl." I soon found out though, that I was working for my board and clothes." "I threatened him with a breach of promise case if he wouldn't." "Because I wore so much store hair and bought my complexion he thought I was 24 instead of 42." "Because I never wanted to go into any business where I couldn't be boss." "Because he always said I was an angel. Now he always says he wishes I was one." "To see who was the best man, I've found out I am." "Because I was as big a fool as most other girls are." "Out of pride for my sex. He had already outlived three women. I have brought back the palm to my sex. He was my first husband; now I am looking for my sixth."

NOTES.

We've been abroad again, but only long enough in one place to gather a few general ideas. Marienville seemed quiet. Major Watson went out for a string of trout on Friday: we don't know how he came back. The Maple Creek Lumber Co., is pushing things right along at Radclyffe. William Maze is building a house on his little farm. The Coleman Mill is running with lots of logs in the pond. There were ten applicants for teachers license at the examination at Clarion on Tuesday. Jack Maze has finished his new house, moved in, and torn down the old one. It has improved the looks of his place very much. McClintock's stove mill in Pine Hollow is busy carving oak, and there are piles and piles of staves in the yard ready to be hauled after awhile. At Marienville on Friday afternoon there was a severe hail storm. The schools in Jenks open on Monday, the 18th, inst. The teachers are: Nellie Davis, Gilfoyle; S. F. Rohrer, Rose; Ella Leech, Marienville; A. J. Salade, Gaul; J. W. Black, Byrom. Isaac Long has sold out his store and property at Black's Corners to William Patterson, who will take possession in the early part of June. Mr. Patterson is assured of a good business there. Oliver Clark, the big, good natured and reliable blacksmith at the Corners is a candidate for commissioner at the Clarion county Republican primaries. We heartily wish our old friend success.

The Interstate law will prevent the P. & W. R. R. from issuing the special rate ticket to raftmen, and no doubt many of the boys will come home from down the river by way of Brookville. The P. & W. R. R. has "lifted" the station at Vowinkel. This will be a great inconvenience to all the parties getting freight there, and will no doubt cause many parties shipping there to go to Brookville instead. We understand that an effort is being made to have the station brought back again. We met many friends on the way and had a very pleasant tramp.

Nebraska Items.

Mr. E. S. Collins has returned from a prolonged stay in the west. He is looking quite well. We think the west agrees with him. Frank Walker has been on the sick list for a few days. W. L. Thompson has recovered from the measles. He stopped a raft in the creek the other day to wait for more water or get a lighter crew, we may not be certain which. Mrs. George Klinestiver is visiting friends at Hickory. The debate held at the school house last Saturday evening is said to have been very interesting. There was a large attendance, and a spirited debate and the paper, edited by J. P. McCain and Miss Emma Allison, and called the Nebraska Astorisher, was very interesting. The writer of this having a sore toe, was unable to be present. Call at W. B. McCain's new store. He has a full line of dry goods and groceries, and a dashing clerk. Give him a call, even if you do not care for the store. The Forest Hotel had a narrow escape from burning Sabbath morning. It took fire from a defective flue in the second story. Not much damage was done to the hotel. Some of the boarders lost some clothes. Prayer meeting every Thursday and Sabbath evenings in the Coliseum Hall. NAOMI.

BARNETT.

J. B. Maze shot his finger with a revolver, and carries his hand in a sling. The revolver he shot himself with is the one Sam. Ward wounded himself with last fall. Judge Cook has sent some boats to market on the last flood. Some timber, also went out from Clarion. Mrs. J. B. Pearsall's mother is lying very sick at Mrs. Pearsall's at Clarion. S. M. Ward's team is good for farming, as well as for buggy riding. Bert. Kerr is working at Coleman. Miss Silla Mays is at Loren Magee's near Scotch Hill. COLEMAN CRITIC.

West Hickory Notes.

The dedication of the church, built by the Evangelical Association, took place last Sunday. Rev. Saylor, of Franklin, Rev. Sanford of Cleveland, Rev. Boyer, of Warren, and Rev. DeVaux were present. The services commenced Saturday evening, being conducted by Rev. Boyer, who preached a beautiful and eloquent sermon. Rev. Sanford, the dedicator, preached two excellent sermons on Sunday and was successful in raising $300 towards paying off the church debt, there being $175 still unpaid. The dedicatory services in the evening were very impressive. Rev. Saylor, Rev. DeVaux and Mr. Jonathan Albaugh were appointed as trustees. Rev. Saylor the popular Presiding Elder, won many friends, and we are happy to say that he has promised if possible, to preach here next Friday evening on his way to hold Quarterly Meeting at the Albaugh church. Rev. DeVaux, the minister in charge, deserves great praise for his unflinching energy in erecting the church, although the citizens were ever ready to respond to his call for assistance. The church was very artistically decorated by some of the ladies. The Rev. gentlemen expressed themselves as being very much pleased with the cordial reception they received by the people of West Hickory. They have organized a Sabbath School which meets every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Wm. Kemble as superintendent. Mr. A. J. Siggins is putting down another oil well on his farm. The school is open for the Summer term. We are sorry to say that Edward Beaver, one of West Hickory's most popular boys is soon to leave us. He takes with him the best wishes of his many friends. C. W. Smith of Warren spent Sunday here with friends. Mrs. M. J. Delano left last week for Titusville, where she will make her future home. She will be missed by her many friends here. Perry Shaw came down from Tidoune, and spent Sunday with his parents. It is rumored that there will be extensive additions made to the tannery during the coming Summer. If this be true it will greatly increase business. Quite a colony from East Hickory will emigrate west this spring. Some of the best citizens of the place make up the number. We wish them success, and if energy and push assure success they'll win it. Y.

DIED.

MEALY.—At Grand Valley, Warren Co., Pa., on Thursday, Apr. 14th 1887, Charles D. Mealy, only son of Elijah, and Martha Mealy, of diphtheria, aged 5 years, 3 months 17 days. Little Charlesy that has left us. Here thy loss we deeply feel. But 'tis God who hath bereft us. All our sorrow he can heal.

HOOD.—On Monday evening, April 18, 1887, at 6 o'clock, Eveline, daughter of John and Presilla Hood, of measles complicated with other diseases, aged 2 years, and 23 days. The little one will be laid to rest in the Riverside Cemetery at 2 o'clock this (Wednesday) afternoon. "But little children who are good, Whose little feet have never stood In pathways by the sinful trod, They are the beautiful with God."

The Population of Tionesta, is about 750, and we would say at least one half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all not to neglect the opportunity to call on us and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial size free. Respectfully, G. W. Bovard.
