INNOCUOUS DESUETUDE!

A WASHINGTON correspondent is ventilating the top-lofty notions of the President. Generally people think him a plain man of the people. But this writer says; The President at his own request had separate entrances constructed for his special use at Albaugh's Opera House. No President before him considered the entrances used by other people as not good enough. Mr. Cleveland is the first to require it. He intimated that the people "annoyed" him by their staring, and he disliked being pushed and hustled about. What I wrote seems to have put certain people in Washington into a white heat of indignation. Ever since they have discussed the matter with more or less venom.

THE Louisville Courier Journal says: "Never was the like seen before. The door is open nowhere. Every avenue to power is guarded by some surly watch-dog. It is impossible for a plain citizen, baving business to transact with the department, to obtain access to them if he be not accompanied by some well-known official. A self-respecting man would not think of entering one of these sacred places without a permit, or a shotgup. And now we have the Boss Primogenius himself setting the awful example of exclusiveness even in the lighter pleasure of life, and leading the van of an ostentatious display of reyalty, which afflicts the small fry that into life." have nothing but pretensious to distinguish them. Ten years ago a good father laid him down to rest, with the hymn "Nearer My God to Thee" still on his lips. To morrow we shall follow to the tomb a mother whose last audible expression was, as she clung to the hand of her youngest son, "Oh, Tom. there is a better place than this." We are thus admonished not to weep, but rather to sing as they pass through the valley to catch up an angelic strain on the other shore. "They that go forth have not gone out of life, but'

Free Trade.

The reduction of internal revenue and the taking off of revenue stamps from Proprietary Medicines, no doubt has largely benefitted the consumers, as well as relieving the burden of home manufacturers. Especially is this the case with Green's August Flower and Boschee's German Syrup, as the reduction of thirtysix cents per dozen, has been added to in-crease the size of the bottles containing these remedies, thereby giving one-fifth more medicine in the 75 cent size. The more medicine in the 75 cent size. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain." A NEW LEASE OF LIFE.

When one has been suffering the agonies a severe attack of rheumatism, neuralgia or sciatica, and relief comes, it seems us if a new lease of life had been granted. Such have been the feelings of thousands who, after trying physicians and number-less remedies, have used Athlophoros and found to their great joy that this medicine really did cure these diseases.

367 Fulton St., Brooklyn, N. Y. After suffering for nearly two years with a continuous attack of rheumatism; after trying almost every specific, domestic and foreign, which the credulity of a wise man, or a fool, might lead one to trust in, it was a double pleasure to me to find a remedy which, originating in the famous "City of Elms"—the home of my ancestors and its first founders—has proved so invalua-ble a blessing. It is nearly six months since I was led to trace out the significance of that word Athlophoros. It has proved to me, in a good degree, a renewer of my former vigor and strength, so that I have been enabled to move about with almost youthful activity, and to feel, while approaching my "three score years and ten," that I have a new hold on life. I believe your philosophy of the disease to be correct that it has its origin in the blood, and that your remedy touches those joints and muscles, loosening the nodes, which have been brought into subjection to this dreadful disease, and sets them free as no other remedy that I have tried. I have been cantious for so long a time in recommend-ing it to others till I had tried its efficacy in my own case; and I am now free to state the estimate I put upon it, as the safest and most efficient cure I have any knowledge of.

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will phores Co., 112 Wall St., New York, and send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per footles for Athlophores and 50c, for Pills.
