THE WAGNER ROBBERY.

During the week passed the attempted robbery of Jacob Wagner, has been the all-absorbing topic among our citizens, and has created more excitement in this and adjoining counties than has ever occurred for a long number of years.

On last Wednesday morning after the REPUBLICAN went to press Coroner Morrow impaneled a Jury and held an inquest on the body of the dead burglar. The following is the verdict of the Coroner's inquest :

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, 1 NA An inquisition indented and taken at the An inquisition indented and taken at the house of Jacob Wagner, Tionesta Township, in the County of Forest, the 4th day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, before me, J. W. Morrow, Coroner of the county aforesaid, upon the view of the body of William J. McCleary then and there lying dead upon the owner of P. there lying dead, upon the oaths of J. R. Chadwick, J. B. Muse, G. W. Sawyer, W. F. Blum, S. S. Canfield, and H. S. Brockway, good and lawful men of the county aforesaid, who being sworn, to inquire on the part of the Commonwealth the when, where and how, and after what manner the said William J. McCleary came to his death, do say upon their oath that one Adam Wagner, in defense of his father's family and property, on the third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, between the hours of eight and nine, in the night of same day, did then and there make an assault upon William J. McCleary (who with others were engaged in attempted murder and robbery,) with a Winchester rifle, and a discharge therefrom, did hit him in the centre of his breast, passing through his body, of which mortal wound, the afore-said William J. McCleary then and there instantly died. We deem the aforesaid Adam Wagner was not guilty of any criminal offense, he being justified in the act. In witness, whereof as well the aforesaid Coroner, as the Jurors aforesaid, have to this inquisition put their hands and seals this tenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, at the office of the Coroner.

H. S. BROCKWAY, [L.S.] On Wednesday evening the body was brought to Haslet's undertaking rooms at this place.

On Thursday telegrams were received from Edenburg, that two suspicious characters had been arrested that morning. Sheriff Agnew, accompanied by his deputies, T. F. Ritchey, J. F. Proper, H. H. Shoemaker and All are invited. A full attendance of Thursday evening and took the prisence is requested. Elder Bray will be don Wilson, Thomas Haggerty and them safely lodged behind the bars at this place.

The following account of the capture for the trunk robbery at East Hick- of the prisoners, was written by one ory on March 30th, and now confined of the sheriff's deputies: "Haggerty in jail, received through the mails a arrived in Edenburg about 3 o'clock book securely enclosed in a wrapper, Thursday morning, May 5, and got postmarked New York City. Sheriff breakfast at Showalter's about 4 Agnew being suspicious examined the o'clock, also a lunch put up. He same, and found secreted in the cover bired a black horse and coverd carof the book a neat steel saw, size about riage from a liveryman named Floyd, one inch in width and six inches in and started towards Lineville, stoplength. Nothing further than the ping at a farm house near there getting postmark was found, to denote who a couple of quarts of milk, which he the prisoner's accomplice was in this took with him. At Lineville he inquired the way. This was about 8 o'clock in the morning. Dr. J. W. Carey, who thought he was a suspicious character from his black eye, was the first to follow him, tying his horse at the roadside, about 21 miles from Lineville, and about four mile from Wagner's the place where the robbery was committed. Carey drove by and soon saw Haggerty get another man in the buggy, and start back the same way he came. Carey kept in sight of the parties, and was soon joined by J. H. McPherson and Orah Smith, who kept close by them. The suspicious parties drove slow, and appeared to not notice any one. They drove to Elk City, where one of the parties got out at the depot, who afterwards proved to be Wilson. Haggerty drove on to Edenburg and returned horse, and shortly afterward was surrounded and captured in an out-house. Wilson boarded the train at Elk City, paying his fare to Foxburg, Mc-Pherson and officer getting on the train with him. When the train arrived at Edenburg he was arrested and placed in the cooler with Haggerty. On their persons were found revolvers, handybillies, steel knuckles, about 100 pieces of coin, complete set of burglar tools, watches, knives, rings, cord, beeswax, poison, powder and &c., and each having in their possession a map of this section of the country, with places designated with 'rich farmers,' 'safe' and the like. Shell, the supposed accomplice of Haggerty and by use of a few bottles. Since which time | Wilson, was captured Friday May 6, about daylight in an engine house, near where the dead burglar's parents lived, which is a short distance from

Turkey City, by Tionesta officers."

Wilson has a pistol ball in his Have known Shell since he was a right leg, and a bollet hole through the back of his coat and vest. Haggerty has a black eye, and other slight injuries. They both bore evidenc of being in a recent fight. This is said to be one of the most important captures in the history of Western Pennsylvania.

On Friday morning J. L. McCleary of Turkey City, arrived here and fully identified the dead burglar as his son Wm. J. McCleary, and conveyed the remains to his home for burial.

PRELIMINARY HEARING.

On Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, a large crowd of men, women and children gathered in the Court Room to hear the preliminary hearing of Wilson, Haggerty, and Shell, charged with making the murderous assault on Jacob Wagner and family, in Tionesta township, on the evening of May 3. The prisoners were brought in from the county jail, and 'Squire Brennan opened his docket. S. S. Canfield, prosecutor, was represented by T. F. Ritchey, J. B. Agnew appeared for District Attorney P. M. Clark, and E. L. Davis appeared for the defense-There were two charges made against each prisoner-one for burglary, and the other for felonious assault. Wilson and Haggerty waived a hearing. Bail in their case was fixed at $1,500 each on the first information against them. and $1,000 each on the second. Prosecutor Canfield was held in $200 on his own recognizance to appear against them. In the case of Shell a hearing was had. The defendant plead "not guilty." The court then proceeded to give him a hearing.

The following witnesses were then

Jacob Wagner-On evening of May 3rd. came in from work between 8 and 9 oclock; walked through the house and set down a bucket he was carrying; went out but soon came in again; heard a noise outside; thought it was the dog; looked up and saw two men standing in the door with clubs and revolvers. They at once began an attack striking him over the head and on the arm with clubs: they also began shooting and kept up a rapid firing and clubbing. Succeeded in driving them out and tried to lock the door. The panel was broken in and the door forced open; they got in again and got into the sitting room adjoining the kitchen where the first he adjoining the kitchen where the fight be gan. Wagner, Sr., went into a bedroom and got a gun but it was not loaded; he yelled at his boys to get revolvers and guns. They finally succeeded in driving them out again; after fight was over picked up clubs and revolvers left by robbers saw bullet holes in walls and floor; Jacob Wagner, Jr., was shot in the fray; found a dead person at bars 50 or 60 feet from house after doctor was sent for; said to let him lie there until doctor came; the dead man was lying on his face. He said the men that attacked him looked like the prisoners, Wilson and Haggerty. He did not recognize Shell as being among the robbers. The robbers were all masked

Cross-examined-They came in through outside door into the kitchen; did know if a third was in the room while the two were first driven out; they struck when they first came in; there was no light in the sitting room; there was a light-ed lamp sitting on the table in the kitchen. The tall man came in first, the short one

Geo. Huddleson-Arrived at Wagner's about 9 o'clock on evening of May 3rd, Saw a boy shot; two revolvers; Wagner's house riddled with bullets; saw lots of Went back next morning and saw a man dead lying on the porch, covered with a blanket; did not recognize the man; after breakfast came back again; got a trail; found blood along the trail; in one place a pool of it, Saw blood on bars next voods; followed trail to road; the trail sometimes cut across corners and over points : lost it finally at White Oak Spring ; it seemed to be leading to the right of Lineville, or nearly toward Pitch Pine. Sheriff Agnew—Had a warrant for ar-rest of Shell. Went to Edenburg. Found that Wilson and Haggerty had been arrest-ed and were in the lock-up there. About 11 o'clock learned that Shell had got on rain at Beaver and was at Turkey City at McCleary's house. Got a rig and went down, and at 5 o'clock found Shell in a oiler house and arrested him. While in poiler house arresting Shell, heard shooting outside. Came out and found that anther man had run from the house, and refusing to stop when called to halt, they (Ritchey and Proper) had started in purmit of him. Cross-examined-It was a warm moonlight night. The house and boiler house seemed to be in a field. Saw some onea woman-Mrs. McCleary, walking around as I approached the house; she said there one in the boiler house. seemed to be asleep, but arose as I en-

Geo, Dunkle-Witness was asked if he could identify Shell. He said he saw 3 men last Tuesday sitting on the steps of Reck's meat market eating a lunch; he thought when he first saw Shell on Saturday last he was one of them, but now he did not think he was.

S. S. Canfield—Went with Sheriff to get Shell. He could not identify Shell. Fred. Brant-Live at Tionesta station run the stave mill there. Thought he had seen Shell in company with two others, week ago last Saturday; identified Hag-gerty as one of the men; the man killed it Wagner's as the other; they were down it the stave mill. He came across to town and met the man killed carrying a sack which he supposed to contain cambles; when he went back they were on the Nowmaker platform eating a lunch.

Cross-examined-Saw them about half east four in afternoon. Attention was called to them by one man's throwing a sinh at something over the bank; think the man who threw the club is Haggerty; at that time think Shell was leaning agains plank pile on platform; think Shell had on brown coat and dasher hat; wouldn't swear he is the man he saw: think he is remembered Haggerty by his hat; he had mustache; no whiskers; think he had on dark clothes; not positive as to Haggerty's identity. Positive that dead man is man met on the bridge; had a square look at him; he identified him by the shape of his chin, his freckles, and his general appear-

S. F. DeTurk, W. S. McCleary, and G. E. Kline were called by the defense to prove an alibi.
S. F. De Turk—Live in Salem township.

Clarion county; born and raised there; live about 22 or 3 miles from McCleary's.

boy; saw Shell on 3rd of May between 7 and 8 o'clock in evening; talked with him; saw again about 11 o'clock same evening.

Cross-examined - Shell's father and mother are dead; has been making his home with his brother-in-law, Scott Mc-Cleary, an uncle of the boy who was shot; Scott McCleary is married to a sister of Shell's. Lane McCleary is father of the boy killed.

W. S. McCleary—Am a brother-in-law to Shell; been acquainted with him from a boy. I was born and raised in Clarien County, Salem township; live there now ; am a farmer; live on a farm. Saw Shell on 3rd of May; worked for me that day; he went away after supper and came back about 11 o'clock; had been asleep; heard clock strike 11 soon after Shell went to bed. Shell has been with me this last time about a month and a haif. Shell and boy killed and Oliver McCleary Curkey City riot, at least I so understood Outside of the church riot the boy killed had a good reputation; he had many friends, and no enemies. Witness after-wards said that the boy killed had been tried, and acquitted of any complicity in the church riot.

G. E. Kline-Forn, raised, and reside in Salem township, Clarion county. Have known Shell since he was a boy; live 1½ miles from W. S. McCleary's. On Tuesday (May 3rd) Shell came to my house between 7 and 8 o'clock; he was there at the house about an hour and a half; he was not in the house; he asked what I had been doing during the day, and told me what he had done

Cross-examined-Know it was Tuesday by what work I had done that day and on the before; to Pitch Pine is about 12 miles from where I live.

The prosecution called R. L. Whitten and Philip Boarts, R. L. Whitten—Resides at E. Hickory; thinks he recognizes Shell as being at E. Hickory one week ago last Saturday. Cross-examined—Saw Shell on the road cross-examined—Saw Shell on the road with Aquila Mong by Henry Church's, at about 11 o'clock; they were coming toward the station; I was going up the road; passed by them; think Shell had on same clothes as he has now; saw him square in the face; he had hat on. (Prisoner was told to put on his hat; he did so.) Mr. Whitten was not rocalities as he had hat. Whitten was not positive as to his identi-, but thinks him the same man.

Philip Boarts—Reside at Hickory—be-ween E. Hickory and the bridge. Think Shell stayed all night at my house on Saturday night a week ago; he left the house sometime Sunday, but came back in the evening for his overcoat; he left then.

Cross-examined-He came with Aquila Mong. He left after breakfast; think he went in direction of Aquila Mong's; he had breakfast and supper; said he had had his dinner. Am not positive, but think he is the same man. Came after 6 o'clock Saturday evening. He stated that he had got into trouble in connection with a church riot down near Salem, and he had come up to get Mong's evidence to help him out; Mong knew he was not drunk at the time of the riot, he said. Shell was held for court in $500 for each of the complaints lodged against him.

The reduction of internal revenue and he taking off of revenue stamps from Proprietary Medicines, no doubt has largely benefitted the consumers, as well as relieving the burden of home manufactorers. Especially is this the case with Green's August Flower and Hoschee's German Syrup, as the reduction of thirty-six cents per dozen, has been added to insix cents per dozen, has been added to increase the size of the bottles containing these remedies, thereby giving one-fifth more medicine in the 75 cent size. The August Flower for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and the German Syrup for Cough and Lung troubles, have perhaps, the largest sale of any medicines in the world. The advantage of increased size of the bottles will be greatly appreciated. of the bottles will be greatly appreciated by the sick and afflicted, in every town and village in civilized countries. Sample bottles for 10 cents remain the same size.
