Committee Proceedings.

A meeting of the Republican County Committee was held at the Court House last Tuesday evening. There was a full attendance of committeemen and candidates. The date for the primaries was fixed for Saturday, June 25th, 1887. Full proceedings will be published next week.

THE Czar of Russia is the only man in the world, who regularly looks under his bed before retiring.

PRETTY much everybody in London has gone to see Buffalo Bill but Minister Phelps, and he will never do so. He can not endure the odor of horse about William's clothes.

RANDALL says: "If the democrats can't elect Cleveland they can't elect anybody." There is a growing opinion among his party that when they elected him first they didn't elect anybody to speak of.—Meadville Gazette.

COLONEL QUAY returned the draft for his first month's salary as United States Senator. He declines to draw two salaries, and as he is still serving as State Treasurer he will take only the salary of that position until he resigns it.

THE first official report of Cousin Ben Folsom as American consul at Sheffield has been duly submitted to the State Department at Washington, and will shortly be issued in book form. Thus it will be seen that the boom in cheap literature is still on.

CANDIDATES in this county, who think their chances weakened by too many in the field can take heart from Butler county, where there are for sheriff 9, prothonotary 4, treasurer 9, register and recorder 7, clerk of the courts 2, and for county commissioners, the balance of the population.

THE Ex-Confederate General Rosser continues vehemently to oppose General Phil. Sheridan's proposed horseback excursion through the Shenandoah Valley—but his opposition won't amount to much. In fact, it is likely to be infinitely less formidable than his objection to the same officer's horseback excursion through the same valley in 1864—and everybody, even Rosser himself, knows how dismally futile that was.

THE high license bill finally passed the assembly on the 11th—in the senate by a vote of 36 to 11 and in the house 122 to 57. The fees for license in cities of the first, second and third classes are $500; other cities $300; boroughs $150, and townships $75. The bill has been signed by the governor and will go into effect July 1.

JUSTICE is expeditious in Kentucky when she is strongly backed by public opinion. At Louisville, on Friday last, the murderers of Jennie Bowman, the young servant, were indicted at 10 o'clock; at 1 o'clock Turner, who confessed the crime, was arraigned, pleaded guilty, and in a few minutes was convicted and sentenced to be hanged on July 1st. Patterson, the other prisoner, pleaded not guilty, and will be tried to-day.

ON Tuesday of last week the Senate passed finally the holiday bill, with amendments in which the House will probably concur. January 1st, February 22d, May 30th, Thanksgiving day, December 25th, and every Saturday afternoon between July 15th and September 15th, after 1 o'clock, shall constitute legal holidays. One of the amendments is that notes coming due on a legal holiday Monday shall be payable on the following Tuesday instead of the preceding Saturday.

THE Macon Telegraph, having been scolded by one of its contemporaries for declaring a liking for Hon. Wm. D. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, pleads guilty and admits that it "has sinned farther, in that it confesses to an admiration for Abraham Lincoln"—and then proceeds to say: "We must be read out of the Democratic party again." The Telegraph is the brainiest and bravest paper in Georgia, but we doubt whether even it can indulge in talk like that and continue to exist in that state.

WHILE the Republican party has never had a chance of winning in a Kentucky State campaign, it is creditable to them that they have maintained a healthful, vigorous organization, and always make a strong canvass on a good platform and with unexceptional candidates. They held their State Convention on Wednesday last and nominated Hon. William O. Bradley for Governor. It is a long lane that has no turning, and we hope yet to live to see Kentucky a Republican State.

IT seems to be the fashion to shoot burglars nowadays and it is wholesome for society at large. One killed at Jamestown, one killed and another wounded near Tionesta and two wounded at Bradford, all within a short time, is the proper kind of a reign of terror to inaugurate. We trust burglars read the papers. They will find a few points that may persuade them to forsake the error of their ways. As they are beyond the reach of missionaries cold lead is not a bad substitute.—Blizzard.

ON June 21st, Queen Victoria will have drawn her salary for fifty years. That salary is £386,000 a year, and for fifty years it foots up the neat little sum of £19,250,000, or about $96,250,000. During the same period of time the salaries of the Presidents of the United States have aggregated only $1,625,000. From these figures it would appear that it pays better to be a Queen than President. It should be remembered, however, that Queen Victoria has had a larger family to support than any of the President.

QUITE too much controversy has been raised over the statement of Governor Beaver that in response to inquiries from the War Department he had reported that the whole National Guard of Pennsylvania could be concentrated at any point within the State at twenty-four hours' notice. Whatever may be the other facts, or what the reason for the War Department inquiry—and we are not at all disposed to doubt Governor Beaver's statement—the answer given is a splendid compliment to the efficiency and discipline of the National Guard, which has not its equal in any state in the Union. It is something for Pennsylvania to be proud of that 8000 men who are engaged to-day in various peaceful pursuits can be to-morrow concentrated at a point hundreds of miles from their homes, armed and equipped for any duty pertaining to war. The Governor evidently felt proud of the fact, and no one will deny that he had a right to feel so.

WHAT A PASS BOOK SHOWED.

In a Western city recently there was picked up in the street a pass book in which a laborer kept his account of current expenses. For two weeks the items amounted to $10.69, of which $4.35 was for whisky, beer and "drinks." Out of fifty-nine entries, thirty-two were for liquor. He had spent for his family $3.26 for flour, 37 cents for herring and nothing whatever for meat of any kind. That pass book furnishes an epitome of the wretchedness of the poor in thousands upon thousands of cases.

THE LADIES' TIPPLE.

That popular abomination known as "Beef, Wine, and Iron," which is now sold so extensively, not only by druggists but by tradesmen of various kinds, deserves a little special attention from the medical profession. It is an agreeable mixture to the sight and taste; its name is a triple combination of seductive mononyms; while taken into the stomach it acts as a gentle "pick up" to the worn-out and oversensitive nerves of the ladies. It has, in consequence, become a popular, if not a fashionable tipple, and is indiscriminately used to an extent that is, we believe not entirely free from danger. Every medical man knows that the amount of actual beef or food in these various preparations is insignificant, and that it is the wine, after all, which makes them take it, and that leads so many persons to purchase their second bottle. There is no good reason why this mixture is allowed to be sold by those unlicensed to sell wines, and if the law supports the practice, it is the duty of physicians, at least, to try and lessen it. Inebriety can result from these tipples.—Medical Record.

THE relations between France and England are becoming strained, it is said, over the settlement of their claims to the New Hebrides Islands. There is no prospect of a conflict, however. Both Powers are sufficiently employed elsewhere — England in watching Ireland and Russia, and France in keeping an eye on Germany —so that neither can afford to become involved in trouble now. It is likely that after an exhibition of British stubbornness and French garrulity the matter will be amicably adjusted.

GERMANY ran behind $12,500,000 last year, Austria-Hungary has a standing deficit of $19,250,000, Russia is trying to fund a balance to the bad of about $50,000,000, France fails to make both ends meet by about $20,000,000 each year and Great Britain manages by stopping payment on its national debt, to keep outgo and income on an even keel. The United States has a surplus of upwards of $100,000,000 each year and lays lighter taxes than any of them. It is a fine thing to live in a great country like ours and see the rest of the world sweat.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.

Hardly a week passes without the mention by the newspapers of sudden deaths, and of late the alarming frequency of the statement that death was caused by rheumatism or neuralgia of the heart cannot fail to have been noticed. In all probability many deaths attributed to heart disease are caused by these terrible diseases, which are far more dangerous than is generally considered. Is there any positive cure? The best answer to such a question is given by those who have been cured by the use of Athlophoros.

Greenfield, Mass., May 19, 1886.

I have been troubled with rheumatism in one of my knees for years, being at times laid up for several days. Athlophoros has entirely cured me. It has also cured two friends of mine who were the worst cases I ever saw, one of them a young man only 16 years old, who was so bad the doctors gave him up. Two bottles of your remedy entirely cured him.

GEO. W. SPURR, Mg'r Diamond Soap Co.

October 14, 1885.

Two bottles of Athlophoros cured me of inflammatory rheumatism. My family physician advised me to take it, saying he had done all he could, but could not give me any relief; but Athlophoros drove it away, and I am happy to say it has never come back. My daughter was also cured by half a bottle after suffering the pangs of rheumatism. MRS. JANE DOWNEY,
24 Pleasant St., Waterbury, Conn.

Northampton, Mass., May 21, 1886.

For many years I have been subject to rheumatism in its worst forms. During my last siege of sickness I was induced to try Athlophoros, and found it to be all it claimed to be, a cure for rheumatism.

LEVI I. CLARK.

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, &c., Athlophoros Pills are unequaled.

SAVED HIS LIFE.

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., says he was, for many years, badly afflicted with Phthisic, also Diabetes: the pains were almost unendurable and would sometimes almost throw him into convulsions. He tried Electric Bitters and got relief from the first bottle and after taking six bottles, was entirely cured, and had gained in flesh eighteen pounds. Says he positively believes he would have died, had it not been for the relief afforded by Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by G. W. Bovard
