--The Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, have sent us, with their compliments, "A Pocket Gazetteer of Pennsylvania." We acknowledge the receipt of the same with thanks. It is a neat little book of 180 pages, put up in an attractive paper cover, and published by L. R. Hamersly & Co., of Phila., compiled by Rev. S. F. Hutchkiss, M. A. It is sold at 25 cents. It contains a brief but nicely written history of every county in the state, arranged in alphabetical order. It is worth twice the money. A fine thing for every citizen in the state. Just what a school teacher would want.

--It is no sign of a duck's nest to see a drake sitting on a stump, neither is it a sign of a peach crop to see trees covered with blossoms. From all that can be learned the peaches are killed, especially the early ones. Those who have examined the blossoms say that in the center of each one, where you would expect to see a little green peach, there is to be seen a black, dried substance which should have been a peach but never will be one. It is the same way with the cherries, in many places throughout the county. The apples, however, are all safe so far as the present is concerned. So are the pears.--Kittanning Free Press.

--The reported drowning in the Cheat river, of Mr. John Hulings and narrow escape of his companion, Sim Cogan, two former residents of this place, by a special from Parkersburg, West Va., Pittsburg Com. Gazette, on Wednesday last, is without foundation, as the following from the Tucker county Democrat published at St. George will explain: "Word reached here last Saturday evening, that Julius Huling had been drowned in Cheat river, at the Narrows below Albrightsville. He was passing through the Narrows in a skiff when it capsized throwing him into the river where he was unable to save himself from a watery grave. He leaves a wife and seven children. He resided in Pennsylvania but was well known here as has been and had a contract lumbering here on Hadix, at the time of his death." Mr. Hulings was a brother of Mr. T. C. Hulings of Elk City, Clarion county.

DEATH OF HON. JOHN RECK.

Died at his home in Tionesta, Pa., on Monday morning, May 16th, 1887, John Reck, aged 70 years, 7 months, and 24 days.

Deceased was born in Columbiana county, Ohio. He learned the carpenter trade while a young man, and was an expert at the business. While still a young man he moved to Stark county, Ohio, where relatives now reside. About the year 1848 he met Hon. John A. Proper at Pittsburgh. He went with Mr. Proper from Pittsburgh to Little Coon creek, a tributary of Tionesta creek, where Mr. Proper had valuable timber lands, and built there one of the best saw mills of that day. Judge Reck had great mechanical ingenuity. He remained at Coon Creek manufacturing lumber until 1855. He then moved to Rockland township, Venango county, Pa., near Gates' Corners on the old Stroup place. He lived there four years. Not finding farming congenial to his taste he moved from there to Beaver Valley, this county, and built mills there and manufactured lumber for S. S. Holbrook. In 1864 he went to Alliance, Ohio, where he remained four years. He came from there to Tionesta with his family in 1866, and engaged in the mercantile business here with his old friend Mr. Proper. Sold out his store business in 1873 to Morris Einstein. Since that time he has resided in Tionesta.

He served as County Commissioner for one term; was twice elected Burgess of Tionesta, and once elected Associate Judge of the County.

He was married on the 29th of March, 1840 to Sabilla Auer, of Stark county, Ohio, who survives him. Of children he leaves three sons, and one daughter: Wm. K., of Strattonville, Clarion county; J. D. W., of Bradford; Frank M., of Marienville, this county, and Mrs. Mary A. Gaskill, of Alliance, Ohio.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. Hickling, were held at his late home at one o'clock to day, and the remains were laid to rest in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery, followed by a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives.

He was honest and upright in all his business transactions; plain and outspoken in his sentiments; he held his own views on all questions independently and firmly; he was well and widely known. We all liked our old friend, and in his death mourn the taking away of a valued acquaintance and a worthy citizen. Peace to his ashes.

Sad if True.

The many friends of J. B. Pearsall of Clarington, this county, who went west some time ago for his health, were very much alarmed upon the receipt of a letter by the postmaster at Clarington, from Samuel White, of Jackson, Pueblo county, Colorado, dated May 4th, saying "that a man by the name of Pearsall claiming to be from your county, had come to their ranch on May 2d and the next day left for the mountains intending to return same day, but had not yet done so, also, that word had just been received saying a man had been found dead on the prairie about 35 miles from there."

The letter was received at Clarington May 8th. Mrs. Pearsall, wife of J. B. Pearsall, the person supposed to be referred to in the letter, while very anxious, does not think the man found dead is her husband. We sincerely trust and hope that all fears for Mr. Pearsall's safety are groundless, and that he will soon be heard from safe and sound.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, gems and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up, dishonored, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Constipation, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10 cents. Try it.
