Call for the Republican State Convention.

HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE.

PHILADELPHIA, June 9, 1887. The Republican State Convention will be held in the Opera House, at Harrisburg, on the 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, at 10 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for State Treasurer and Judge of the Supreme Court, and for the transaction of other business.

The attention of Republicans throughout the State is respectfully directed to the following Permanent Rules for the holding of State Conventions and the conduct of the party.

FIRST. That Delegates to the State Convention shall be chosen in the manner in which candidates for the General Assembly are nominated.

SECOND. Hereafter the State Conventions of the Republican Party shall be held not earlier than the third Wednesday of August, except in the year of the Presidential election, when it shall be held not more than thirty days previous to the day fixed for the National Convention, and except in gubernatorial years. At least sixty days' notice shall be given of the date of the State Convention.

THIRD. That we recommend to the county organizations, that in their rules they allow the largest freedom in the general participation in the primaries consistent with the preservation of the party organization.

The State Convention of June 30th, 1886, having abolished Senatorial representation, Delegates to the approaching State Convention will be selected according to the number of Representatives in the Legislature to which each county or city is entitled under the Representative Apportionment law passed at the recent session of the Legislature.

THOS. V. COOPER, Chairman.

GOVERNOR HILL did not give the President pie for breakfast. They must really be friends.

The Pan Electric suits pan out well for the lawyers. They have already cost the Government $50,000, and the prosecution has scarcely more than begun.

That morning call of Mr. Cleveland on Mr. Hill had no political significance. They merely wanted to talk on the advantage of various kinds of bait.

The meeting between President Cleveland and Governor Hill on Friday last, can only be compared to the first interview of Damon and Pythias after the latter had been on militia duty away from home for six months. Every one knows how self-sacrificing their friendship is, and it therefore gives no shock to learn that "their meeting was of a cordial character and some time was spent in animated conversation."

PEOPLE are wondering what attention Minister Phelps will show to Mr. Blaine upon the latter's arrival in London, but for our own part we doubt whether he will show him any—not if Mr. Blaine sees him first.

In William E. Chandler, who was last week nominated by the Republicans, New Hampshire will have a thoroughly wide-awake, able and efficient senator. The old Granite State could not, all things considered, make a better selection.

GOVERNOR BEAVER'S refusal to saddle the State with the expense of an extra session of the Legislature is the cause of great grief to our Democratic contemporaries. The extra session would have given them something to howl and scold about all Summer.

Now that Colonel Dan Lamont has returned to Washington, public interest is centered in his official report of the fishing trip. The document is to be profusely illustrated, and will include a diagram of the patch of sunburn which Mr. Cleveland caught the first day.

HON. HENRY K. BOYER, Speaker of the late House of Representatives, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Controller of Philadelphia. If the Republicans want a strong and popular candidate, they will not fail to nominate Mr. Boyer. And if the people want an efficient and honest man to fill the office they will not fail to elect him after he is nominated.

AS WAS to have been expected, the recent undue inflation of the price of coffee has resulted in a collapse and a panic on the New York Coffee Exchange. The price dropped nearly one and a half cents a pound during one day, entailing immense losses on the speculators. There was ground for a reasonable advance, in the partial failure of the crop of the berry in Brazil and Java, but the gambling spirit became rampant and with the usual result. It is probable a repetition of last Friday's scenes will be witnessed for some days to come, until the market reaches hard pan. The retail price of coffee has been almost or quite doubled of late, and consumers will be benefitted directly by the decline, however much the speculators may suffer.

THE State Senate will be happy to learn that Mr. Rutan "stands by it," so far as the omission to have the General Revenue bill constitutionally signed is concerned. The Upper House has been on the ragged edge of despair ever since the absence of its President's signature to that measure was discovered, lest Senator Rutan should refuse to stand by it, but now that this is happily decided, it will feel better. The Senator also wants it understood that "all the talk about the whole matter was by men who oppose the Republican party and are trying to bring it into discredit." Senator Rutan's unselfish solicitude for the credit of the Republican party is very touching.—Pittsburgh Chronicle.

THE National Convention of colored men which met in Indianapolis last week was a signal failure. So slim was the attendance and so tame the proceedings that the press has hardly known of its assembling. The convention was called ostensibly for the purpose of organizing the colored vote for next year's campaign, but all the prominent leaders of the race refused to have anything to do with it and not more than a score of delegates appeared to participate. The movement was discontinued by the Southern Democratic papers and ignored by the Northern Republican papers. The only support the project had, in fact, came from the Mugwumps, who thought they saw in it another "sign of the relaxation of old political and party ties," and a proof that everybody was going to become a "kicker." In the elections of twenty years the colored voter has proved that he cannot be duped by the Democratic party, which tried to keep his race in slavery, and he has become too old a voter to be bamboozled now by the Mugwumps.—Phila. Press.

HEARTLESS CRUELTY

It is to delude a poor sufferer into the belief that some worthless liniment will cure rheumatism and neuralgia. Honesty is the best policy in all other matters, and the fact that the proprietors of Athlaphors have never claimed for it even all its merit would warrant has not a little to do with its wonderful popularity, and the thousands of grateful testimonials received by them show that their policy has been wise as well as right. Experience has amply demonstrated that mere outward applications are worthless. The disease has its seat in the blood, and any remedy to be successful must deal with the obstructive acid which poisons and inflames it.

Athlaphors acts on the blood, muscles and joints directly. It takes the poison out of the blood and carries it out of the system; it invigorates the action of the muscles and limbers the stiffness of the joints. It reaches the liver and kidneys, cleansing them from irritating substances, and if followed up after the rheumatic conditions cease, it will restore these organs to regularity and health.

West Chazy, N. Y., Aug. 19, 1886. Yours of August 14th, is at hand, and in reply would say that Athlaphors proved the most effective remedy for neuralgia in the case of my son that I ever tried. After using half a bottle he was not troubled any more for six months.

HENRY HARRIS. Mt. Pleasant, Pa., Aug. 10, 1886. I am thankful that I tried Athlaphors. I had rheumatism seven years, part of the time could not move; but to-day I am well and hearty. I write this hoping some other sufferer may try it.

W. S. FLEMING. Every druggist should keep Athlaphors and Athlaphors Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlaphors Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlaphors and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, &c., Athlaphors Pills are unequalled.
