Republican Primaries.

The primary election of the Repubplace next Saturday afternoon, June Beach. 25th, and we hope to see a full vote of the party out. There should be no lagging in this matter. A big vote at the primaries always gives better satsmoothly running campaign in the Every Republican who has the good of the party at heart should exert tains. himself in bringing out the full vote in his precinct. Several new voting places have been arranged for this year, which will afford every voter a will be the means of bringing out all the Republicans. Let us, then, have a rousing turnout all along the line. Don't neglect it, Republicans.

An Ignominious Back-Down.

In a room fifteen feet squre, on the seventh floor of the war department, at Washington, are stored the flags captured from the rebels during the war, several hundred in number. Formerly they were arranged in a room where they could be seen by visitors; but the administration thought that the feelings of its southern supporters would be burt by such an exposition of them, and they were withdrawn from public gaze. For months these flags were kept in a basement store-room, but they have been in this attic-room for some time. Recently President Cleveland ordered these trophies to be returned to the governors of the southern states, which caused a great sensation all over the land, and such a storm of indignation was raised in every corner of the United States as has not been known since the war. Grand Army Posts in every section sent up such thundering protests, that the President, on Thursday last, issued an order taking it all back, giving as his reasons the tame excuse that he did not know that such a proceeding belonged entirely to Congress, and that he had no authority to make the infamous order. In other words "he didn't know it was loaded." Cleveland seems bent on doing something to make himself solid with the south, and has been stabbing at the war veterans ever since he was elected. His veto of the dependent pension bill would seem to have been enough, but he seems anxious to add insult to direction.

The meaning of Mr. Cleveland's back-down is simply that, if he was sure the power rested in him, the flags would be returned, for he says, "I am of the opinion that the return of these flags in the manner thus contemplated is not authorized by existing law nor justified as an executive act." Now, were entirely in the hands of the Democrats, does any sane man doubt that these trophies, bought with the nation's bravest and best blood, would not be returned to their old places in rebel hands? We hope that Grover will get his spite against the soldiers eked out before his term is finished, since he seems so anxious. He'll never get another chance.

MR. BLAINE has arrived safely in England after a very pleasant voyage.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND got hold of the red-hot end of the poker when he ordered the rebel flags to be returned. How quick he dropped it.

THE Republicans of Warren county nominated the following ticket last Saturday: County Commissioners, M. Crocker, of Brokenstraw, P. N. Robinson, of Southwest; Register and Recorder, S. H.
