LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

No Paper Next Week.

"According to custom" the REPUBLICAN will take its usual Fourth of July lay-off next week. We expect, maybe, if everything goes right, it will make its appearance on the 13th of July considerably remodeled, but we don't propose to make any great fuss or brag about it now or hereafter.

Next Monday the Fourth.

Come to town on the Fourth.

Jas. D. Davis is home from Warren on a week's vacation.

Oil market closed yesterday 62. Opening this morning at 62c.

Mr. John Green of Tylersburg, paid our town a visit Thursday.

Alex. Dale is down from Dallas, McKean county, to spend the Fourth with his parents.

The report of a man having been killed at Lickingville last week by a stallion, proves to be unfounded.

The Fourth will be more generally celebrated throughout the country this year than any year since the centennial.

The water is beginning to hug the bed of the river pretty closely, and is now lower than is generally seen at this time of year.

Quite a number took the train at this station last Sunday and visited the great Kinzua bridge. They report it the most orderly excursion they ever went on.

Messrs. G. T. and Alex. Hopkins, the former of Missouri Valley, Iowa, and the latter of Pleasantville, were the guests of their brother L. J. Hopkins last week.

By a private letter from Dr. Coburn we learn that he has moved to Hayward, Sawyer county, Wisconsin, where he takes charge of a flourishing hospital, as chief physician.

Miss Maud Davis returned from Boston on Saturday last. She will remain at home until the Assembly at Chautauqua opens, when she will resume her situation as pianist.

No paper from this office next week. The Fourth must be celebrated, and the average printer generally but-tons up about as much patriotism under his coat as the next fellow.

Charles H., youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hoovler, died on Wednesday of last week of dropsy of the heart, and was buried on the following Friday. The child was one year and seven months old.

Robert Huddleson, formerly one of our well known citizens, has taken a wife in the person of Miss Olive Knapp, of Pleasant Run, Tucker county, W. Va. Bob's many old Forest county friends will be only too glad to extend congratulations on the happy event.

Mr. B. J. Haywood, late message clerk of the State Senate, has been nominated for Prothonotary by the Republicans of Mercer county. They might have raked the county over with a fine tooth comb and not found a more efficient gentleman than Ben., and we predict his election by a rousing majority.

This morning Mr. Charles H. Hunter departed with his intended young bride, Miss Emma Sawyer, for Jamestown, N. Y., where the wedding knot will be tied, after which the happy young couple will take an extended tour through Ohio, visiting relatives of the bride and groom. We join their many friends in extending the usual congratulations and best wishes.

Among the aids on the staff of Col. Dick, for the reunion of veterans at Oil City on the 25th of August, we notice the names of Comrades H. J. Hopkins and Samuel D. Irwin.

Henry Winker, of German Hill, raised a large barn on his farm yesterday. Improvements of this kind are quite noticeable out over the Hill, which speaks well for the prosperity of the farmers.

Mr. P. C. Blocher is putting up a substantial dwelling house on his farm out along the Tylersburg road. That neighborhood is being rapidly cleared up and worked into a fine farming community.

George Matson, son of R. M. Matson, met with an accident last week at his home in Forest county, by which one of his limbs was broken. Dr. C. M. Matson was summoned and reduced the fracture, and he went out to-day to see his patient.—Brookville Republican.

A gentleman named John Billedieu, a bark contractor, engaged at the tannery at Brookston, this county, died suddenly at that place on Friday last, and was buried at Warren on Sunday. He was aged about 30 years. The cause of his death is not definitely known.

Everything will be in readiness for the blowout in Tionesta when the Fourth comes along. The band boys are preparing for a concert at the Court House in the evening, which should and doubtless will be well attended. Come to Tionesta and have a nice time. Come early and hear the cannons roar.

The Kittanning Free Press, one of the solid old papers of Western Pennsylvania, has enlarged by adding four columns to its former size, has a new head, and otherwise very materially improved in appearance. It is pleasant to note this mark of prosperity in one of the best papers that comes to our sanctum.

In order to enable every one to take a trip for pleasure or recreation during the Fourth of July holidays, the B. N. Y. & P. R. R., and the Allegheny Valley R. R. will sell excursion tickets on July 2d, 3d and 4th, good to return until and including the 5th, between all stations on the main line and branches.

Don't forget the dance to take place at the Rink on the Fourth. Joe Landers, who is managing the affair, has engaged Wilson's orchestra of Tidouite, which is a guarantee that the music will be extra fine. Dancing will commence after dinner and continue as late in the evening as the party cares to stay.

Mr. Forrest F. Shoup and Miss Eda Knox yesterday morning took the train at this place for Clean, N. Y., where they were joined in wedlock. We have not the official notice as yet, but presume congratulations are in order. The REPUBLICAN joins their friends in wishing them along, prosperous and happy future.

Our esteemed young friend John H. Shunk, of Whig Hill, has taken unto himself a bride in the person of Miss Rilda Berlin of the same place. The happy event occurred at Frewsburg, N. Y., on the 15th inst. You and yours have our heartiest congratulations, John, and may joy and prosperity abide with you through a long and useful wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Percival, with their little daughter, Nina, are paying a visit to their old Forest county home as the guests of Capt. Knox's family. It is nineteen years since they removed from this section to their home in Michigan, yet we apprehend they still meet a good many familiar faces and friends, all of whom are pleased to meet them once more.

The School Board of Tionesta Borough will meet on Friday evening next, July 1st, for the purpose of electing teachers for the ensuing year. We understand there will likely be no change made in the primary or advanced rooms, as Miss Kerr and Mr. Donnell will doubtless be re-elected to fill those places respectively. For the intermediate room there are so far six applicants.

The Republicans of Venango county held their primaries last Saturday, placing the following ticket in the field: Prothonotary, John H. Evans; Register and Recorder, C. J. Crawford; Treasurer, Chas. E. Shoup; Commissioners, Samuel H. McKinney, W. A. Maitland; Auditors, A. S. Mawhinney, L. J. Bowen; Delegates to State Convention, H. C. Graham, R. H. Woodburn.

One-third of the fools in this country think they can beat the lawyers in expounding the law; one-half think they can beat the doctors in healing the sick; two-thirds of them think they can beat the ministers in preaching the gospel; and all of them know they can beat the editor in running the paper.—Ex.

James Solley, Esq., one of Tionesta's old-time residents, was down from Porkey, this county, visiting a few days of the past week. "Squire Solley, as he was familiarly known to the older inhabitants of our town, left this section over 30 years ago, and this is his first visit since. He was highly esteemed by all his neighbors, and those who are still left here were glad to see him once more.

Mr. J. W. Ball has just put in a stock of goods and will carry on the mercantile business in the Cobb building, next to the depot, across the river. He will carry a general line of goods, such as dry goods, groceries, provisions, flour, feed, notions, and in fact about everything usually found in a flourishing country store. Wes, has a good stand, is an affable gentleman, and will no doubt soon work up a good trade.

Crops are not just what they might be in this section. Wheat will scarcely average up, while some oats fields will be far below a half crop. The grass will have some trouble in reaching the average mark, and corn is short and yellow. Potatoes generally look well but have a good deal of hardship to go through yet before reaching maturity. The weed crop, as usual, is flourishing nicely on all sides.

Peterson for July begins a new volume, and we can honestly say that, exceptional in merit as it has proved itself this year, the present number is an advance on its predecessors. The steel-engraving, "The Pet Rabbit," is of rare beauty. Now is a good time to subscribe or to get up clubs. Terms, two dollars per year, or one dollar for six months, with large reductions to clubs. Address, Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Jefferson county Republicans nominated the following ticket at their recent primaries: Prothonotary, Scott McClellan; Sheriff, Wm. B. Sutter; Treasurer, W. A. Neale; Commissioners, Jas. A. Cathers, Edward Barry; Auditors, Jas. W. Mays, Samuel Shilling; Coroner, J. B. Morris; Delegate, Jas. B. Mitchell. The Brookville Republican says of the result, "The candidates who were left take their medicine with few grimaces, philosophically reasoning that it was impossible for all to succeed, and that they are in respectable company, both as to character and numbers." And the same will apply to the feeling among the gentlemen who were left in the primaries in Forest County.

The Bradford Era is publishing the text of the new law governing cities, at the rate of two columns a day. It has been two weeks at the work which must be of absorbing interest, considering that the installments frequently break off in the middle of a word, leaving the reader twenty-four hours to guess out the concluding syllable. About a score of columns have been put in type and there is no assurance that the foot of the procession is in sight. If the Era ever gets through with its awful task we suggest that it publish the Bible in daily installments. It would be far more interesting than this legal rot and possess the fascinating charm of novelty to a large proportion of its readers.—Blizzard.

As the above little epistle covers upward of a hundred and fifty closely written pages of legal cap paper, the Era's readers will have some suffering yet to undergo.

The Public Road Law.

It is a general doctrine of law in the country that the land in the highways belong to the owners of land along each side. The farm generally extends to the middle of the road, and the public has only the right to pass and repass in an orderly manner, and keep the road in repair. The farmer owns the highway, the soil, grass, trees, stones, gravel and everything else upon the surface or under it, and may use them in any way that does not affect the public right of passage and the law will protect his ownership in them just as much as if they were inside his own fence. Notwithstanding the fact the farmer owns the land of the road, he cannot use it himself for any purpose which at all interferes with the public right there. He cannot put his woodpiles, wagons or pig pens thereon, and if he does, and the traveler runs into them at night and is injured, he would not only be liable for the private damage sustained but he may be indicted for obstructing the public highway. No person has a right to pasture on the side of the farmer's highway any more than in the enclosed lands, nor can he hitch a horse to a tree there without being liable for trespass, especially if the horse should know the tree or do other damage. If a person lets his cattle go into the highway he is liable for trespass they commit by being there unlawfully; for the injury they occasion to the sod or by barking of the trees, and for any other damage they may do. If while there they hook or kick, or bite any person, lawfully using the way he would be liable for the injury.—Ex.
