LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 60c. Opening this morning at 60c. Equire James Cole, of Marionville, was in town yesterday. Mr. Homer Hall, of Pittsburgh, is paying a visit to his brother-in-law, Dr. Siggins. Dr. and Mrs. Sinning of Clarington, spent a day or two of last week with Tionesta friends. Miss May Armstrong departed yesterday for her home in Hendersonville, Mercer county. Governor Beaver appointed James T. Brennan Esq., a Notary Public for Tionesta. A good choice. Miss Clara Young, one of Edinboro's Normal School students, is at home spending her vacation. Mrs. Clara Hayden and Miss Myra Brigham of Franklin were with Tionesta friends over the Fourth. Our popular young friend J. W. Pettigrew and father, of President, took in part of the Fourth in Tionesta. The weather from Saturday to yesterday was simply gorgeous, but Old Sol is getting in his work again now. The band boys will give another of their rich entertainments in the Court House, on Thursday evening of next week. Miss Vinnie, second daughter of Representative Randall, is in quite delicate health and has been for past two or three months. Charles Hunter will commence the erection of a new house for himself on the vacant lot to the rear of the depot, in a few days. Miss Effie Walters, who has lain quite seriously ill for several weeks past, is improving, her many friends will learn with pleasure. Mr. John Zents and grand-son, Johnnie Conroe, departed for Michigan, Monday morning, where they expect to take charge of a farm belonging to Mr. Z.'s son-in-law. Scowden & Clark have just turned out one of the handsomest phaetons this section has ever seen. It goes to T. D. Collins. Such work is a credit to any firm. Bert, the 5 year old son of H. W. Roberts, who is living with his grandparents, let a heavy iron mortar fall on and crush one of his toes, which makes a very painful wound for the little fellow. Dr. Siggins' little girl baby managed in some way to get hold of the concentrated lye box yesterday, and the result is a very badly burned mouth, but it is hoped nothing serious will result from it. Hon. J. B. and Sheriff Agnew with their wives and children, enjoyed themselves a few days of the past week, at Canadota Lake, which is the new name for Oil Creek Lake, and which is becoming quite popular as a summer resort. Mr. Peter Plumers, one of Meadville's prominent citizens paid his old friend John Muenzenberger, of this place, a visit last week. He had with him one of his own and one of John's nephews, who seemed to enjoy their visit very much. Mrs. Weingard of German Hill, mother of the Weingard boys, sustained a fracture of the right arm below the elbow, on the 28th ult., by the falling of a barn door. Being a lady of advanced years her recovery will naturally be slow. Carnahan Bros. well on the Calvin G. Hinckley lands, in Harmony township, is variously estimated at from 25 to 75 barrels. It has been pretty closely guarded since it was struck, so that no outsider seems to know just what it is good for. The family of Wm. Felton, of Ross Run, is passing through a serious affliction. His son, Samuel, is just recovering from a two-month's sickness with typhoid fever; two weeks ago his wife was taken down, and now Mr. Felton himself is in a critical condition.

Mr. and Mrs. George Craig came over from Fero City, Clarion county, on Saturday evening and remained the guests of Mr. Craig's brother J. L. and sister Mrs. D. W. Agnew, until yesterday. Special attention is directed to the new advertisement of the Ridgway Publishing Co., Limited, in this issue. County officers and lawyers would do well to write for a catalogue of their law blanks. Old residents say they never saw the beechnuts and acorns so abundant as they are this year. And this will likely insure a big crop of pigeons this fall. Chestnuts also promise a big crop. The REPUBLICAN extends congratulations to Mr. J. P. Huling and wife, notice of whose wedding appears in its proper corner to day. Although a trifle late, it's the first opportunity we've had to say "best wishes," and then its "better late than never."

This week we publish an act passed by the recent assembly which is of interest to every land-owner in the county. It relates to the matter of tree or forest culture, and by taking advantage of its provisions every farmer may save considerable on his taxes. Read it. At a recent meeting held for that purpose the borough school board elected the following corps of teachers for the ensuing year: Principal, C. H. Donnell; Intermediate Room, W. J. Blomfield; Primary Room, Miss Aggie Kerr. Good selections. The fall term will begin on September 5th. The contractor of the Shankon, Kelly & Co. well, one-half mile southeast of Nebraska, Green township, has a fishing job on hand, having lost a bit in the hole. The well is down over 1,000 feet, and will be completed in about ten days after they get the drill started again. Should these parties make a strike, it will open up an immense new field. The band boys have inaugurated a series of ice cream festivals which take place every Friday evening in the band room. Woodington's delicious Oil City cream will be kept on tap, and considering that the boys are struggling hard to keep up expenses, we hope they will be liberally patronized. Who would want to be without the band again since we've had a taste of it? Mr. Lewis J. Kirk, accompanied by his son, A. C. Kirk, of Kirk's Mills, Lancaster county, Pa., were in town a few hours on Tuesday of last week, and gave us a pleasant call. Mr. K. is still largely interested in Forest county lands and looks longingly forward to the time when they shall blossom forth as oil territory. As one of our most valued friends we wish his fondest hopes may be speedily realized. On July 9th, the B. & N. Y. & P. R. R., commenced the sale of 1000 mile books, good on any portion of Broad Gauge Divisions, and limited to one year from date of sale, at the rate of $20 each. These books are now issued to the head of a family, and can be used by any member thereof traveling separately or together, or to a business house or firms, and can be used by any member or representative thereof, but by only one person at a time. The following matter of fact, every-day sort-of-way of putting up items of importance comes from West Virginia. It will be observed that no words are wasted, like they generally are in the case of a foot-race or dog-fight: "Editor Lee Vance, of the Clarksburg News sent Editor Richards, of the Telegram, last week. His first shot passed through Richards' arm and the second hit him in the mouth, the ball being deflected by his teeth, lodged in his shoulder." Miles W. Tate Esq., for nineteen years a practicing attorney at the Forest County Bar, removed with his family to Meadville, on Tuesday of last week. Mr. Tate was one of the first lawyers to locate in Tionesta upon the re-organization of the county, and at once dropped into a successful and lucrative practice. His reasons for leaving at this time are mainly to secure the advantage of Meadville's splendid schools and colleges for his children. We wish Mr. Tate and family abundant happiness in their new home. Mr. Isaac Long departed for Phillipsburg, Kansas, the town near which Mr. J. Shawkey now resides, last week, intending to embark in the mercantile business there. Although for the past two or three years Mr. L. has lived just over the line in Clarion county, we nevertheless claimed him as a Forest county citizen, and as such very much regret his departure from our midst. We need not wish him success, for a man of his sterling integrity and never-failing judgment is bound to be successful wherever he goes. They don't make any squarer man than Isaac Long, and the REPUBLICAN wishes him happiness in his new abode.

On Sunday afternoon last Richard, the 15-year-old son of Samuel Winger, was drowned while bathing in the Allegheny river, about three miles above Oil City, in company with his brother-in-law, James Kennedy. The latter made a heroic attempt to save the boy, but was unable to do so, nearly losing his own life in the struggle. The body of the unfortunate lad was shortly after recovered. John Ryan, an employe on the mill of James Cole, just over the line in Elk county, east of Marienville, was killed on the 2d inst., by being caught in a belt and thrown over the line shaft with such force as to crush his skull. Although he had worked in that section for several years, his most intimate acquaintances knew nothing of his connections or antecedents. He was given a good burial by his comrades. The stove, shook and shingle mill of E. Terrell & Son, located at Ty-lersburg, together with a barn and some fruit trees belonging to David Stakely, were burned to the ground on the first inst. The fire originated from a spark dropping into some shavings. Mr. Stakely's house and considerable material about the mill were saved only by the greatest efforts on the part of the citizens. Terrell & Son's loss will be about $4,000, and Stakely's $250; no insurance. Rev. Small informs us that a story has been circulated to the effect that an admission fee of 25 cents to the Whig Hill camping ground would be charged; also that the managers expected to make $500 out of the meeting. This Mr. Small wishes emphatically denied, and states that no charges whatever will be made for admission, but on the contrary everything will be free, excepting, of course, the rent for tents and boarding, which will be furnished at cost.

The borough dads held a meeting one evening last week, and resolved their biggest resolve,—first, that the most dilapidated side-walks that Tionesta ever had, must be mended and fixed up instanter, and no more quibbling or promising. Second, that the ordinance against fire-cracker shooting and ball throwing on the streets will henceforth be enforced, with the accent on the "forced." The fines for violations of these provisions are five dollars. Fair warning, ye ball tossers. The celebrated humorist known as Josiah Allen's Wife, since completing her new book "Samantha at Saratoga," has gone on a "Pleasure Excursion," where she had very pleasant interviews with Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Lamont and others. She declares Mrs. Cleveland "the sweetest being that ever was"—From Washington she has "proceeded on" to Old Point Comfort, where she will no doubt make it a "point" to enjoy the "comfort" that "old" historic spot affords free from the trials and annoyances of any "Josiah."

Mr. Henry Lamb, brother of Alfred Lamb and a former resident of this place, is now at a hospital in Pittsburgh, where he is being treated for paralysis of the lower limbs. He is entirely helpless from the hips down; and the doctors consider his case hopeless. This is a sad blow to one so young. Mr. Lamb has been located in Washington Co., this state, where he is known as one of the most active operators in that field. He will have the sympathy of his many acquaintances, in his sad affliction.—Pleasantville Record. Mr. Lamb is quite well and favorably known to many of our readers, who will be sorry to learn of his unfortunate condition. One of the most savage little run-aways that we ever witnessed took place last Thursday evening. A son of Thomas Brace had hitched Henry Brace's horse to the lamp post in front of the REPUBLICAN office, and when he was about to unhitch the animal it took fright, broke the halter, ran down the lane, cut across and thundered against Brockway's ice house, rushed down toward the barn, smashing an old buggy that stood in the way, flew around the corner of the barn to the southwest corner of Jim Carson's lot, smashed down about two rods of his fence, broke loose from the buggy to which he was hitched, tore through Carson's garden, around the house, ripped a bran new hammock into shreds, and landed head foremost into a cave. This last act seemed to bring the horse to his senses and he was easily caught, but was entirely bare when he was stopped. The buggy, strange to say, was not badly injured and neither was the harness, yet both Saddle-fulton, and Carriage-maker Clark were on the spot with commendable promptness; and we are not sure but Druggist Fones was there also to see if the horse hadn't sustained some bruises that needed the arnica. Luckily no one was injured, yet one of Mr. Carson's children had been playing in the hammock only a moment before.

Although the 111th anniversary of American Independence is a thing of the past, and quite aged already, it won't hurt to state that Tionesta's celebration of the event was quite a success. The town was full of people, so crowded in fact that the hotels were hardly able to furnish the required accommodations. The program laid out was gone through with about as advertised, commencing with the fantastic parade in the morning and ending with the pulling match in the evening, and Joe Landers' ball at the rink the next morning. The streets were orderly and disorderly at times, but aside from one little knock-down, there was no particular trouble, and the crowd mostly dispersed when the sun went down, pretty well satisfied with their day's frolic. The races, which were among the interesting features, were decided as follows: Boys 6 to 8 years old, prizes, 75, 50 and 25 cents. John Wolf 1st prize, William Fitzgerald 2d prize, and James Fitzgerald 3d prize. Boys 10 to 14 years, at 1:30 a. m.; prizes, 75, 50 and 25 cents. Jacob Korb 1st prize, Will Hood 2d prize, and John Wolf 3d prize. Free for all race at 1:45 a. m.; prizes, $1.50, $1.00, and 75 cents. Burt Carbaugh 1st prize, Herman Blum 2d prize, and Elmer Mealy 3d prize. Hurdle race, four hurdles, drop and return with eggs, 2:00 p. m.; prizes $1.50, $1.00, and 75 cents. Elmer Mealy 1st prize, Herman Blum 2d prize, and Jake Hood 3d prize. Horse race, from Haslet's to Herman's, at 2:30 p. m.; prize, $5.00. Won by Mack Vanderlin's horse of Stewart's Run. Potato race, at 3:15 p. m.; prizes, $1.00, 75 and 50 cents. Elmer Mealy 1st prize, Herman Blum 2d prize, and Will Fitzgerald 3d prize. Pulling match at Blam's blacksmith shop, at 4:00 p. m.; two prizes, $5 each. 1st money divided between Geo. Duack and George Mealy. 2nd prize, $5.00, won by Samuel Ruth.

Often look back to those old Allegheny river hills with a good deal of pleasure, and do hope that in God's good providence I may have the pleasure of seeing them again. I have not, by any means, forgotten the good people of Tionesta, but we are in one of the most delightful countries in the Union. Kansas is a wonderful State. Improvements simply know no bounds. Over the entire State everything is booming. Immigration to our State is wonderful. The entire State was never known to be so generally prosperous; every department of business is running at full tide. Agriculture is constantly improving. We had a late Spring for Kansas, but the crops are good; yes, grand. Corn will be the largest ever known in the State, and is as high as the back of the team that cultivates it. The amount planted is tremendous. The crop of wheat will not be so large, because there was not a large crop put out, but what we have is headed very fine indeed. Harvest has already commenced. Oats could not be better. Potatoes are abundant; we have had new potatoes in market for six or seven weeks past. We will have at the end of the year an increase of Rail Roads of at least 4000 miles in the State. The Rock Island is just coming into the city of McPherson with its track. I saw the process of laying the track this morning as I came to my home; 250 hands are employed in laying this track; they lay at the rate of 60 feet of track every three minutes; frequently they have laid two miles per day. Of course the bed of the road is ready to put the track down. The Rock Island will be the fourth road coming through our city; three in operation now. We have in the city of McPherson the best central city in the State. There are in course of construction now, nine business houses, and over two hundred dwellings, besides many that have been built since Spring, and over two hundred other dwelling houses under contract. Three or four more Rail Roads will doubtless pass through our city inside of eighteen months. McPherson is destined to be a first class commercial center. Her business men are endeavoring to make it the finest business city in the State. City property can be bought at reasonable rates, but in a little while business lots will command a premium. Mr. Editor when I tell you that we have in the city and county of McPherson some thirteen newspapers, and all of them have a reasonable subscription list, and are living, I think you will say that we are well supplied with newspapers, we are.

We are having very warm weather now, the mercury running as high as 101°. I still receive your excellent paper and read it with a great deal of pleasure; I am certainly very thankful to you for your kindness, and hope that the FOREST REPUBLICAN may live long to do mighty work for the Republican party. Please remember us kindly to all our friends and neighbors. Yours Truly, J. F. HILL, McPherson, Kansas, July 1, 1887.

AN ACT For the encouragement of forest culture and providing penalties for the injury and destruction of forests. SECTION 1. Be it enacted, etc., That, in consideration of the public benefit to be derived from the planting and cultivation of forest or timber trees, the owner or owners of any land in this Commonwealth planted with forest or timber trees in number not less than five hundred to the acre, shall, on making due provision of, be entitled to receive, annually, from the commissioners of their respective counties, during the period that the said trees are maintained on the said land, upon the said land, the following sums of money: For a period of ten years after the land has been planted, a sum equal to ten per centum of all taxes annually assessed and paid upon the said land, or so much of the said ninety per centum as shall not exceed the sum of forty-five cents per acre. For a second period of ten years, a sum equal to eighty per centum of the said taxes, or so much of the said eighty per centum as shall not exceed the sum of forty cents per acre. For a third and final period of ten years, a sum equal to fifty per centum of the said taxes, or so much of the said fifty per centum as shall not exceed the sum of twenty-five cents per acre. Provided, That it shall be lawful for the owner of the said land, at any time after the same has been so planted for the last ten years, to thin out and reduce the number of trees growing thereon to not less than one acre in the said acre, so long as no portion of the said land shall be absolutely cleared of the said trees: And provided also, That the benefits of this act shall not be extended to nurserymen or other growing trees for sale for future planting. SECTION 2. That any person or persons who shall wilfully or negligently cut, bark from, or otherwise cut, burn, or injure any tree, plant, shrub or sprout, planted, growing, or being on any land in this Commonwealth, shall, on conviction thereof, first had and obtained, or who, without such consent, shall kindle, or cause to be kindled, a fire on any forest or timber land, or who shall maintain upon the said land any forest or timber land in any lighted candle, lamp, torch, or other fire, without having the same carefully burned or fire extinguished, shall, on conviction thereof, be liable to a fine of not less than five dollars, or to imprisonment for not less than one month, or to both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court. SECTION 3. Any person or persons who shall be convicted of the offense herein provided, shall be liable to a fine of not less than one dollar for each tree so cut, barked from, or otherwise injured, or to imprisonment for not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not enter sufficient bail for the payment of the same within ten days, he or they shall be committed to the common jail of said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of the penalty imposed: And provided, That if the defendant or defendants, in any such case, shall not
