Murder in Oil City.

Oil City was the scene of a horrible murder last night. John McNerney, killing her instantly. The son rushed out of the room and wrenched the still smoking gun from his father, and ran out with it. The old man secured a 38-cal, revolver and followed. He shot at the son the ball entering his head and causing what is thought a mortal wound. Officers were soon summoned and in attempting to arrest McNerney, Officer James received quite a serious wound from his (Mc-Nerney's) revolver. McNerney was shot in the back by Officer Worden, but it is not believed to be a fatal wound. The murderer is 60 years of age, and had been drinking excessively, it is said.

Cody was twice governor of Chicago and was at one time mayor of the Arkansas Legislature. He served in the Confederate army, in the command of Gen. Butler, who so gallantly defended New Orleans against the threatened invasion of the Federal Gen. Longstreet. After the war Mr. Cody went o congress from the province of Detroit and introduced a measure for the relief of the citizens of Buffalo, which gained for him the name of Buffalo Bill. He has contributed largely to the Atlantic Monthly, a newspaper edited by Mark Twain and Uncle Tom Cabin, a man who is mainly noted for his negro dialect sketches.
