LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 57. Opening this morning at 57c.

Miss Effa Walters is considered by her physicians to be out of danger again.

Messrs. Tom. Machesney and Amos Clinger, of Neilltown, gave the town a call last Saturday.

The cornfields hereabouts look richer and more thrifty now than they have for many years previous.

You haven't heard that Kepler has got his coffee matters mixed up any in the past week or so, have you?

We are pleased to report Wm. Felton and family, at Ross Run, improving from their siege of typhoid fever.

Senator Allen and George Hand Esq., of Warren, spent a few hours of Monday afternoon with Tionesta friends.

J. H. Foreman, who has been stopping in the Washington oil field for some time, is with Tionesta relatives on a visit.

Mrs. Col. Thomas has added to the value of her elegant property, by the erection of a substantial new sidewalk on the May St. front.

A party of gentlemen from Tarentum, have pitched their tents in a pleasant grove opposite West Hickory, and are having a "royal time."

The river is getting so low in some places that snufish are obliged to flop over on their sides to keep the sun from scorching their backs.

Messrs. Doult and Shoup are "painting the town red," and have commenced on Robinson's store. It will look very handsome when finished.

The many friends of Mrs. H. O. Davis, who has been very poorly for some months past, will be pained to learn of her continued and dangerous illness.

The "harvest moon" shone brightly all last night. Farmers often take advantage of these bright nights to cut their oats, but that crop is about all harvested now.

Jos A. Scott Esq., of Jenks township, paid Tionesta a short visit last week, on business. He reports quite a number of new buildings under construction in his section.

Simon Whitmore and son Jacob will commence the erection of two dwelling houses near the Reese place, this week. They have taken the contract of stocking the Brace Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hall, of Steubenville, O., spent a few hours in the city Saturday on their way home from Tionesta, where they had been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Siggins.

The Tionesta Gas Co. is making arrangements to extend its line to Tidoute this summer. The people up there are ripe for it, and say the company cannot get its gas up too quick to suit them.

There will be a Sunday School meeting at the M. E. Church Friday evening, Aug. 5th, at 8 p. m., which the scholars, teachers, and all interested are expected to attend. Subject: the lesson of July 31st.

A fair sized crowd boarded the excursion train to Niagara at this station last Thursday morning, and all say they had a good time. Excursion Agent Newton always makes his patrons comfortable and happy.

We neglected to notice last week the enlargement of the Tionesta Republican from 24 to 28 columns, with an improvement all around. We are glad to note that brother Wank is evidently prospering.—Warren Mail.

Alfred Ellsworth, son of Henry and Letty Patterson, of Whig Hill, died quite suddenly on Friday last, and was buried Sunday. The child was aged two years, eight months and nine days. The most interesting age.

Barnett correspondent: James Brannon died on the 26th ult., near Clarington, at the residence of Mrs. James Ward, and was buried at the Clarington Cemetery the following day.—Mrs. John White and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Coon, are attending campmeeting at Whig Hill.

Ben. W. May of Chicago, spent a few days of the latter part of last week in town, having come out to see his mother who was quite poorly, but is now much improved. Ben. was looking remarkably robust as usual.

Mr. Fulton has got comfortably domiciled in his new house, having moved in on Monday. Now if that pesky well, which is already about 45 feet deep, would show up a little water, our friend's happiness would be complete.

One of Lake Powell's fine team horses staggered and fell in front of the postoffice last Friday, and before the harness could be taken off he was dead. Lake had refused $200 for the animal only a short time previous, but took his loss very coolly.

Mr. H. W. Ledebur of East Hickory, shook hands with many Tionesta friends yesterday. Notwithstanding the low stage of water in the creeks, Mr. L. says they still have sufficient to keep their extensive flouring mill at that place going.

By a private letter from Dr. Coburn we learn that he has again changed his location, his new home being Washburn, in the northwestern portion of Wisconsin. The doctor thinks he will like it there first rate, it being a young city of about 3,000 population, and growing rapidly.

The Forest Republican, J. E. Wenk, editor and proprietor, has been enlarged to the tune of four columns more. The REPUBLICAN is the largest paper printed in Forest county. We congratulate Mr. Wenk on the improvement made and wish him success with the REPUBLICAN.—St. Marys Herald.

R. R. McGregor, Esq., wrote to Clarington concerning the body found in the river below this place a few weeks since and he received an answer on Tuesday stating that he had the description given there was little, if any, doubt that the body found was that of Mr. Julius Cooley, who was drowned at Miller's Eddy last November.—East Brady Review.

The Franklin News locates a heinous outrage, which was committed on the 16th ult., at Balltown, Forest county, when it should be Balltown, near Pitohole, Venango county. Our neighbor, we doubt not, is innocent of any wrong intention, but all the same, we must protest against the saddling of such offenses on our county when they happen over the border.

Work on the new mills of Brace Bros., at the mouth of Little Tionesta, has so far progressed that stave sawing will commence in a day or two. It is expected lumber making will begin before the middle of the month, and things will be humming down at New Braceville before long. A tram road leading from the mill to their timber tract is now under construction.

Correspondence has been opened with a Boston gentleman, which revives the shoe factory talk in our midst. The gentleman talks more business like than any that have yet broached the subject, and it will not be surprising if Tionesta gets its coveted shoe factory after all, and that before long, too. We will endeavor to give further particulars next week.

Kepler's interest in the Carnahan Bros. well has been summed up. He owns an eighth of the property, so said. The property gets an eighth royalty. Good judges put the production at about 30 barrels; one eighth of which is about 4 barrels, and an eighth of that, one-half barrel, which represents Kepler's interest. At the present price of crude that would be about twenty-five cents! This only serves to show what a fuss a blow-hard can make over a quarter.

The campmeeting at Whig Hill drew about all of Tionesta's population last Sabbath. Conveyances of any description commanded a premium. The meeting has been a success in all particulars. The large crowds in attendance found ample accommodations, and were well cared for by the good people of the Hill. Gillespie and Sons were indefatigable in their attention to guests, and allowed none to go away hungry or dissatisfied. Quite a number of converts were added to the church.

Bradford special to the Blizzard, August 1st: A meeting of the heavy producers and presidents of the larger oil companies, is now in session at the parlors of the St. James hotel. The doors were closed at 3 o'clock and none admitted who could not count their production in four or more figures which, of course, bars out the newspaper people. The object of the meeting is to ascertain the feeling of the producers towards the shut-down or, as Mr. H. L. Taylor expressed it, to discuss the best interests of the producer and act accordingly. Among those present are George H. VanVleck and H. L. Taylor, Buffalo; J. L. and J. C. McKinney, Titusville; M. Lowentritt, N. G. Clark, W. J. Young and T. B. Simpson, Oil City; Fred. Aiker, Jamestown, and J. J. Carter, Titusville.

A quiet wedding took place in our town yesterday afternoon, which was quite a pleasant surprise to most of Tionesta's people. The high contracting parties were Mr. George W. Smith, a former resident of this place, and Miss Eva Brownell, the accomplished daughter of landlord Brownell of the Central House. The REPUBLICAN joins heartily in the general congratulations and best wishes of their friends, and hopes that their future may be a happy and prosperous one.

Editorial talent of Tionesta is now sending articles to Oil City papers and then reproducing them in their own.—Kepler's National.

Who can this be? Certainly not Kepler or any of his scabs, for the Oil City papers are too high up in the scale of respectability to admit any thing coming from so disreputable a source as that. By the way, that sort of thing would be something after Kepler's plan of sitting in his office and writing letters from the country puffing himself and his paper.

Pleasantville Record: "The Tionesta Gas Co. has concluded arrangements for laying their lines into Tidoute and that town will assume a comfortable appearance when the days grow chilly. This same blessing might be secured for our village, should our citizens exercise a liberal amount of enthusiasm.—Charles Davis, of Tionesta, is spending a few days visiting friends in Pleasantville.—Mrs. Jas. Fosha, of Third street, who has been a sufferer for many months, from Brights disease, is now reported very low, with little hope of recovery." Mr. Fosha and family were former residents of Forest county.

The Forest Republican, J. E. Wenk, editor, published at Tionesta, Pa., came to us last week enlarged and otherwise improved. It is a journal that Forest county can feel proud of. The enterprising editor was one of the efficient clerks of the late Legislature, and this improvement evidences where a part of the boostle which killed the Revenue bill went. Murder will out!—Keystone (Franklin Co.) Gazette.

Bro. Fisher, too, was a clerk in the transcribing room, and without doubt the best that has occupied the place for many years. However, it is very naughty in him to seek to divert attention in the wrong direction on the "stop thief" plan. Yes, very naughty in you, James.

The report of oil operations for July imparts a sanguine hue to the situation and is good fodder for the bulls. Compared with the June report, there is a decrease of 2,620 bbls. new production, 10 more dry holes, 7 less drilling wells. During July 159 wells were completed, with 2,068 bbls. new production. There are 135 drilling wells. With Lima oil no longer in the market as a competitor, with the prolific pools all defined and the gushers ceasing to gush, the field is pronounced by the Derrick to be "without a formidable bear feature."—Franklin News. That reads all nice enough, but still she don't seem to boom. However, thank heaven for the way it looks, anyway.

The annual campmeeting of the Free Methodist Church for the Oil City district, will commence at Titusville, Pa., August 17th and continue to the 24th. Rev. J. T. Michael, Chairman, has made arrangements so that all persons who pay full fare over the Buffalo, New York & Philadelphia Railroad in going to the meeting will be entitled to return at one-third regular fare on August 26th. The reduction is for the one day only. If you expect to return on August 26, buy single trip, full fare tickets, to Titusville, and get a certificate from him on the camp ground, securing to you the one-third return rates. If you do not expect to return on that day, buy a round trip ticket.

A correspondent of the Blizzard at Warren has the following: The Cattaraugus and Complanter Indians are having a great time at Big Bend, on the Allegheny river, above Warren, it being their annual fishing. This is done in a curious way. A seine made of brush woven together is stretched across the river, a rope attached to either end, and about twenty braves start pulling the seine down stream, wading up to their waists. The squaws follow in canoes splashing the water to assist in scaring the fish. At the lower end of the bend is a riffle and here they have a pocket-shaped net into which the fish are driven and then speared. There were at least on hundred Indians engaged in the sport Monday and it was a novel sight.

Sam Schell, who broke jail some time ago, was retaken in New Castle, and brought to this place yesterday and again lodged in jail by deputy Sheriff, Bob Piper. Schell and the McCleary's, have been expensive to Sheriff Wheelock. After the people of Turkey City had put up money for the Pittsburgh officers, in vain, Wheelock made several trips, and sent others at his own expense to make the arrests, but failing to find them. Schell's recapture has cost him $25 reward to the New Castle people, as well as the expenses of Sheriff Piper.—Clarion Democrat. Schell was held here for some time, supposed to have been implicated in the Wagner tragedy, but was afterward released and taken in charge by the Clarion authorities.

Neilltown Notes. Hearts are trump. Mrs. J. B. Machesney is visiting her parents in Lima, Ohio. Mrs. J. Ross, nee Anna Machesney, has departed for Peru, Ind., where she expects to make her future home. Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Pastorous visited friends in town last Friday. Mrs. Mattie Lewis, who has been visiting at the residence of R. O. Carson, returned to her home in Titusville last Friday.

We're pleased to learn that Prof. Bowman, has secured the position as instructor of the Clark orchestra. Mrs. S. N. Burchfield of Titusville, is visiting relatives in town. Miss E. Black is spending a few days in Titusville. Girls, take your fellows out riding. Miss Flora Kelly closed a very successful term of school last Wednesday, and the picnic in the afternoon was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Feidney departed for Sugar Grove, Saturday, where she expects to spend a few weeks, and Mr. Feidney is keeping bachelor's hall. How do you like it James? Belle's hair is beginning to germinate. MINNICOTTA.

Fagundus Fancies. Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Smith are visiting friends in town. Mr. Jones, from Grand Valley, Pa., is visiting his parents this week. Mr. Richards and Miss Louie Hunter spent Thursday evening at Mr. Cleland's. A very pleasant evening was spent at Mr. Cleland's on the 28th, in honor of their daughter's birthday. The presents were numerous and costly. All wish her many more as pleasant birthdays. Mr. Mooney's son is very sick. S. B.

HERE AND THERE.

John Taylor, who has been the head of the Mormon Church since the death of Brigham Young in 1877, died on the 25th. Eddie Paddock, aged about twelve, tried to board a moving freight train at Warren Wednesday when the wheels crushed his left leg, requiring amputation. His condition is critical. Other boys had "dared" him to steal a ride.

Lemonade tea says the Kane Leader, is pronounced a very refreshing, satisfying drink in hot weather. The best way to make it is to steep the tea early in the morning, and when thoroughly cold make a lemonade, using the tea instead of water.

A Kansas paper publishes the following unique reminder to delinquent subscribers: "There is a little matter that some of our subscribers have seemingly forgotten entirely. Some of them have made up many promises, but have not kept them. To us it is a very important matter—it is necessary to our business. We are very modest and don't like to speak about it."

John R. Fitzgerald, a prominent citizen of Franklin, Pa., aged 22 years, died very suddenly of cerebral apoplexy, on Wednesday last. He was a member in good standing of the Royal Templars of Temperance; of Franklin Lodge, No. 3, A. O. U. W.; of Franklin Union, No. 51, Equitable Aid Union; and of French Creek Tribe, No. 147, Independent Order of Red Men. In the first named of these orders he carried a beneficiary insurance of $4,000; in the second, $2,000; and in the third a graded policy of $1,750, making a total of $7,750.

The silk manufacturing industry in Pennsylvania has grown to very large proportions. There are now no less than 25 mills in successful operation in different sections of the State, many of them employing 100 hands each. The silk mill at Meadville is one of the finest equipped and arranged mills in this country. The works have a capacity for turning out from $1,200 to $1,500 worth of silk per day, employ about 75 hands and have lately been so pushed with work that it has been found necessary to run until 9 o'clock in the evening.—Franklin News.

Hon. George A. Jenks, Solicitor General, returned home from Washington last week and he is now in Clearfield taking charge of the defense in the suit of the Commonwealth against John E. DuBois to collect the collateral inheritance tax on the estate of the late John DuBois. The questions involved are somewhat complicated, and the amount of tax claimed a neat fortune for an individual, hence the attorneys for Mr. DuBois, who has succeeded to the property of his deceased uncle, will make the very best legal fight possible, and we understand that they have full confidence in their case.—Brookville Republican.

MARRIED.

TAYLOR—STANLEY—At the residence of the bridegroom, in East Hickory, July 29, 1887, by W. J. Foreman, J. P., Mr. William E. Tab, of East Hickory, Forest Co., Pa., and Miss Annie G. Stanley, of Tylersburg, Clarion Co., Pa.

SMITH—BROWNELL—At the residence of the bride's parents, Tuesday, Aug. 2, 1887, by Rev. L. P. Merritt, Mr. George W. Smith of Tylersburg, Clarion county, and Miss Eva G. Brownell, of Tionesta, Pa.

DIED.

HOPKINS—Preston L., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hopkins, of Neilltown, Forest County, died Wednesday, July 29, aged 20 years. Funeral at the house, Friday the 29th. Interment in the German cemetery.

KENNEDY—In Tionesta township, Sunday, July 24, 1887, Mrs. Catherine Elizabeth, wife of Ed. E. Kennedy, aged 57 years.

Mrs. Kennedy's disease was a puzzle to the physicians, but was something similar to neuralgia, commencing only a few days ago with an excruciating pain in the head, which continued until death relieved her. She was a kind and affectionate wife, a loving mother, and a woman highly esteemed by all her neighbors. She leaves a husband and three children, the oldest about six years of age, to mourn her loss. And these, with the other relatives, have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their very sad bereavement. The funeral services took place yesterday afternoon at five o'clock.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

BY VIRTUE of a writ of Fieri Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Forest County, Pennsylvania, and to me directed, there is to be sold to sale by public vendue or outcry, at the Court House, in the borough of Tionesta, on THURSDAY, AUGUST 18th, A. D. 1887, at 2 o'clock, p. m., the following real estate to wit:

N. F. CLARK, Trustee for R. R. Armer and P. F. Knorr, vs. R. R. Armer and Peter Barry, vs. JAMES COOPER and WALTER COOPER, Fieri Facias, No. 22 September Term, 1887.—Brown & Siders, Auctioneers.
