LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 61 1/2. Opening this morning at 61 1/2.

Get registered before you forget it. Now's the time.

Mr. C. Cleland of Fagundas called on the REPUBLICAN this morning.

D. W. Clark has surrounded his house and lot with a neat board fence.

Jas. H. Kelly left on Monday for a two or three weeks' rustication at the seashore.

Miss Birdie Chadwick is visiting friends and relatives in Tryonville, Crawford Co.

Mr. J. K. Crawford of Franklin, Pa., has been in town for the past few days, on business.

Elk county is to have a Sunday School convention at Wilcox, August 31, and September 1.

Mr. E. J. Russell of Guiltonville, was in town on Monday, and called at the REPUBLICAN office.

Miss Nellie Brownell accompanied her guest, Miss Edith Colgrove, to Corry, where she will visit a week or two.

Charles Morgan of Oil City, well fed and handsome, spent the bulk of the past week with his young Tionesta friends.

The band boys have received their new suits; they are daisies and will show off the band to excellent advantage.

Charlie Wright, who has been in the Washington county oil field for some time past, is paying Tionesta friends a visit.

H. J. Hopkins & Co., are treating their mammoth store building to a coat of paint, which gives it a very fresh and attractive appearance.

It is claimed that Brookville has found gas, and the town will soon be lighted and heated by it. The citizens are to be congratulated on their good luck.

The following puzzle may be of interest: Two trains, each consisting of a locomotive (A and B) and four cars and traveling in opposite directions on same track meet each other at a turn table large enough to hold either an engine and a car, two cars or both locomotives. They must pass each other, and it can be done.—N. Y. Sun.

The name of P. C. Boyle, manager, appears at the head of the Bradford Era editorial column, vice W. F. Jordan & Co. A reduction of price is also noticed, though there is no announcement of any other change.

John Douglas, formerly of the Derrick, has gone to take the position of foreman of the Era composing room.—Blizzard.

On Friday night last, Pittsburgh had a $300,000 fire. The fire originated in the upholstery store of Henry Holtzman, occupying the basement and first floor of Masonic Hall, on Fifth Avenue. It is said to have originated by some person's throwing a lighted match into a waste basket containing refuse paper. The loss is probably fully covered by insurance.

We have just received one of the prettiest songs ever written, called "There's no one like Mother to me," by Charles A. Davies. For a nice home song, in which both the words and music are so very pretty, it is hard to equal. It can be played on the piano or organ, and will be sent to any address for only 22 1-cent stamps. Address the publisher, J. C. Groves & Co., 30 and 42 Arcade, Cincinnati, O.

The following Grand Lodge officers, I. O. of O. F., of Pennsylvania, visited Tionesta Lodge, No. 369, on Monday evening: G. M., John W. Hann, Pittsburgh; P. G. M., John A. Myler, Allegheny; G. C., Rev. J. J. McIllyar, Allegheny; J. H. Fulmer, of Oil City Lodge, was also present. There was a large attendance, almost every part of the county being represented, and a general good time was had.

The Franklin Evening News has absorbed the evening Penny Press. The absorption was so quietly and unostentatiously accomplished that the public was hardly aware of the change. There wasn't room in Franklin for two evening papers and one had to succumb to the inevitable; the result was the survival of the fittest. The News will continue in its present prosperity, and will remain a most welcome visitor to its many daily readers. Our best wishes go with it.

John M. Stewart, of Irwin, Westmoreland county, was decoyed away from home recently, and during his absence some person entered his house and took from a trunk $600. A neighbor disappeared after the robbery and officers are hunting for him. Mr. Stewart owns considerable land in Forest county, and is known to quite a number of our citizens.

Barnum's advertising car went over the railroad on Saturday evening attached to the 3:52 passenger train. There is steam piano in the car which discoursed music and flung spray to the great delight of the small youth who were near enough to hear and see.

It is being quietly circulated that in spite of the fact that the Standard has knocked the price of Lima oil down to 15 cents on account of its alleged worthlessness, the Solar refinery (Standard) is using 7,000 barrels of the article daily.

Silverly correspondence to Oil City Blizzard: Mr. Hood, of Tionesta, Pa., is erecting a two-story building on Imperial avenue. The first floor he will occupy with a meat market and the upstairs will be used as a dwelling for his family, whom he will remove to this place.

Mr. Ritter of Mayburg, went over to Titusville, Monday morning. He is one of the committee on arrangements for the F. M. Campmeeting to be held there commencing to-day. The meeting will continue one week. Quite a number of persons from this place and this county will attend.

This is the time of year when the farmer who does not take a newspaper because he cannot afford it meets with two or three traveling confidence men, and gets cheated out of enough money in one day to pay for a subscription to half a dozen daily papers from every State in the Union.—Ex.

Business men should look out for a new counterfeit one dollar piece. The piece is of excellent workmanship and when new is exceedingly hard to detect except by its weight. It is made of glass and composition, and after a short time it will tarnish. It is thought to be the work of western counterfeiters.

A bush meeting will be held at Nebraska commencing on Friday evening of this week and continuing Saturday evening, Sunday morning, afternoon and evening. Rev. Small will conduct the meeting and will be assisted by Rev. J. Z. Armstrong of Franklin, Pa. The attendance promises to be good. All are invited.

Robert Young, of Newmarket, has taken the agency of the Washington Street Nurseries, of Geneva, N. Y., a very reliable firm, and has begun his canvass for the fall delivery. Mr. Young's word may be relied on, and being a citizen of the community, should receive the patronage of those in want of nursery stock hereabouts.

The third annual reunion of the Northwestern Association, G. A. R., will be held in Oil City, one week from to-morrow, August 25th. It will no doubt be the largest gathering of veterans ever witnessed in this vicinity. Capt. Geo. Stow Post, will attend in a body and will be accompanied by the Tionesta Cornet Band. For the benefit of the posts and all others along the river who may wish to attend, the B. N. Y. & P. Railroad will run a special train which will leave Warren at 8:30 a. m., and returning will leave Oil City at 9:30 p. m., at one fare for the round trip.

Mr. E. A. Yetter of Marienville, called on the REPUBLICAN Monday afternoon. He reports Jenks as being quiet but very active this summer. He informs us that Mr. Cyrus Hunt is putting up a large building, store-room and dwelling combined, on the corner near Ex-Supt. Rohrer's dwelling across from Major Watson's hotel. This year, so far, he tells us, is the best business year Jenks has had yet. Lumber and shingles have been in good demand and at a fair price. The shingle mills are pushed to fill orders. We are glad to note the activity of Old Forest, and congratulate her on her boom.

And now Cochranton is having a streak of luck. New Jersey glass men have completed negotiations with P. C. Heydrick, of Erie, for a site for glass works on land owned by him at Cochranton, where, the Herald says, they intend building the largest plate glass factory in the United States, extending on the plant alone $300,000. The sand stone found on the summit between French Creek and Deer Creek is said to be remarkably fine and pure. We have the same fine sandstone here, and the same natural gas, but somehow we're not pulling in any glass works.—Franklin News. Ditto, Tionesta.

The property of Marcus Hulings, of Emlenton, is in the hands of the sheriff. Mr. Hulings was one of the earliest oil operators in the Bradford field, having purchased 600 acres for $20,000, upon which he realized a handsome fortune. His wealth was at one time estimated at $2,000,000, but unfortunate investments in silver mines in Arizona, Nevada and New Mexico swept away his fortune, and in the evening of an unusually active and successful life he finds himself financially stranded.—Ex. It is thought matters can be so adjusted as to allow Mr. H. time to turn himself, in which case he will yet come out all right, as he has property considerably in excess of the judgments against him, but it is hard to realize on it at present.

The Clarion county grand jury having found a true bill against Mrs. Dinsmore, charged with complicity in the murder of James C. Davis, for which David L. King was found guilty in the first degree, her trial will take place this week. The case excites considerable interest in the Clarion courts.

A disease, which has thus far proved fatal in every instance, has attacked the cattle in the neighborhood of Newmarket. It commences with a sort of drowsiness and almost entire loss of appetite, and the animal becomes reduced to mere skin and bones, living only a few days after being attacked. The greatest trouble seems to lie in the throat and stomach. Ben. Mealy has lost two cows and a heifer, and P. C. Blocher a heifer, and other cattle are threatened.

A new rig is going up about twenty five rods from the Carnahan well, Harmony township, on the McNew tract, Messrs. Bovee & Duck having the lease. The Carnahan well is pumping steadily, but the production is not given, although it is said the well is holding up first rate. Stewart & Co. have located a well near the old Henry Setley place on Jamieson run, about one southeast of the Carnahan, in the direction of the river. Drilling will commence as soon as possible.

Harvey Foreman has discovered a novel, effectual, reliable method of checking the ravages of the potato bug. It is simple, and should be known to every farmer and gardener in the county. It costs nothing, and saves a vast amount of labor. He feels it his duty to impart the secret to his suffering friends. He is not the seventh son of a seventh son, but his method works for all that. He just lets the weeds grow up and hide the potatoes so the bugs can't find them.

The Democrats of this county held their primaries on Saturday, and convention yesterday, which resulted in the following ticket being nominated: For Prothonotary, D. W. Clark; Sheriff, H. H. McClelland; County Commissioners, W. D. Shields, and Marcus Copeland; County Auditors, Wm. Blum and F. C. Lacy. Jury Commissioner, Amos L. Cooper. Orion Siggins of Hickory, was elected Chairman of the County Committee, and Col. John Peterson of Trunkeville, delegate to the State Convention.

Seldom does duty place the responsibility upon us of writing the obituary of one whose whole moral nature is one of virtue. We can hardly make ourselves believe that the spirit has vacated its home in the form of her we gazed upon so calm in death. How applicable to us are the words of the Master—"Be ye also ready."

CORA SIGGINS, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. D. S. Knox of this place, was born in Tionesta, February 25, 1862. On Sept. 29, 1885, she was married to Jacob Siggins son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Siggins, by whom she has had one child, which with her husband outlive her. For nearly eleven years she has had occasional attacks of spinal disease which developed in severe pain in the head. For over six months the attacks have become more frequent and the accompanying pain much more serious, and at times alarming. Thursday evening Aug. 4th, she was again taken down and during the acute stages her life was despaired of. She kept her bed until Saturday morning, the 13th, when she arose, as she said, to put things in order, as she felt that death was near. Sunday afternoon she again became worse, and at 8 o'clock relatives were hurriedly called in. In this critical condition she lay in a semi-comatose state until the next evening at 10 o'clock, when all that was of earth became lifeless and cold.

Her christian life was an example of integrity and enjoyment in the service of the Nazarene. She had been a loyal member of the M. E. Church for many years and until domestic duties and sickness kept her away, a faithful scholar and attractive teacher in the Sabbath School. She was ready to separate from a loved husband and idolized parents and even longed to meet sister and brother where sickness and pain never come. The sympathy of friends and acquaintances is tendered the bereaved.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. F. M. Small at the M. E. Church to-day, at 1 P. M., after which the remains were interred in Riverside Cemetery.

Call For County Convention. All persons interested in the Prohibition cause, will please meet at Court House, Tionesta, Pa., Saturday afternoon, August 20th, at 1:30 p. m., to elect delegates to state convention; arrange ticket for fall election; choose county committeemen for ensuing year and such other business as may come before them. Let everyone interested in the cause come.

E. S. HOYT, Chairman.

Byrom Station.

The new M. E. Church is completed and services were held in it last Sunday. We are glad to say that the people of Byrom's have one of the finest little churches in Forest county.

While attending the donation last Friday evening, the store of W. H. Frost was broken into. There was about twenty dollars in the drawer which the burglars carried away; also three or four pairs of shoes and several pairs of woolen blankets, and many other things. No trace of the burglars has yet been found.

There was a large attendance at the donation last Friday evening, for the benefit of the Pastor of the M. E. Church. The people gave bountifully; they received about forty dollars worth of goods and about ten or twelve dollars in currency. Mr. Stakely was appointed President, John Frost, Secretary and Treasurer, and W. H., and W. K. Frost, receiving committee. After the parcels were all received, the young ladies passed around the refreshments. O. W. K. Aug. 15.

Duty of Voters.

There are several requirements of the voters of Pennsylvania in order that they may be qualified to exercise the rights of citizens at the municipal and general elections held under the laws of this State, any omission to perform these duties resulting in the disfranchisement of the delinquent. The first duty is that of registering, which is required to be done sixty days subsequent to the election at which the voter offers his ballot; accompanying registry is the assessment of a poll tax, which must be paid at least thirty days previous to the election. The omission to register may be corrected by proving residence, but the failure to be assessed and pay a State or County tax within the prescribed time is fatal to the voter's case, and will work his disfranchisement. This year the 8th day of September is the last day upon which voters may be registered, and every voter should see to it that his name appears properly on the lists, which may now be seen at the usual voting places in each district.

At Rest.

It is a fact that the gauge of the Pittsburgh & Western Railroad, between Butler and Foxburg, is to be widened within a year. In order to avoid heavy grades, a greater portion of the old line of the road between Butler and Karns City will be abandoned, thus leaving Millertown without railway facilities. Six or seven miles of the Shenango & Allegheny track from Butler will form part of the new road, the remainder of the route leading from a point on that road through Greece City and Troutman to Karns City, where the old road will be widened through Petrolia and Bruin to Foxburg with but few changes in the route.—Petrolia Record.

The stockholders of the West Hickory Oil and Mining company, which was organized twenty-five years ago, during the oil craze, will meet shortly to authorize the sale of the company's property and to divide the assets among the members, according to the Pittsburgh Dispatch. "The company was never a financial success," said Mr. J. J. Brooke, the counsel for the Pennsylvania railroad. "They kept a very elaborate set of books, but an examination of them reveals nothing but disbursements on one side and no receipts on the other. It is the old, old story. Twenty-five years ago the company was organized during the oil excitement and expected, with many others, to reap a rich harvest. A great deal of money has been made in oil, but this company never got any of it. Somebody had to lose in order that others might make. They bought considerable property in Venango county which they still hold. Well, it never turned out anything. A number of wells were dug, but the yield was small and the profits were in proportion. No gushers were found, and the land which was supposed to be very valuable was not worth much and will be sold for what it will bring. Many of the stockholders have probably forgotten that there ever was such a company formed. There are at present not more than three stockholders. The company will be disbanded and will live only in the memory of those who invested heavily in the venture and lost."

HERE AND THERE.

The annual Convention of the Pennsylvania Miller's State Association will be held this year in Williamsport on Sept. 6. After the business session of the Convention there will be an excursion to Niagara Falls and Watkins' Glen.

The reunion of the 145th Regiment, P. V., will be held in Greenville, on the 9th of September. A full attendance of all the survivors of the regiment is desired, in order that they may decide on a design for the monument that is to mark the position of the command at Gettysburg.

The saw mill of Arthur McKenney, Jr., half a mile west of Irvinton, was entirely destroyed by fire Sunday morning, together with over 100,000 feet of sawed pine lumber owned by Robert Kinnear, of Youngville, Pa. Cause of fire, supposed incendiary. No insurance on the mill or lumber.

The latest craze among ladies is said to be the "hair album"—that is, they ask their gentlemen friends for a lock of their hair, around which they tie a blue ribbon and paste it in an album and above it write the gentleman's name, age, height, and remarks on his general appearance, disposition, etc.

Two Sharpville boys loaded a pipe with powder and gave it to a third to smoke. An explosion occurred and he was badly burned. The boys were arrested, their fathers settled and then went to look for the fellow who sold them the powder. They got him in the shape of J. J. Mehl, who pleaded guilty and paid five dollars and costs.—Mercer Dispatch.

Col. Dan Rice, the veteran showman, was in Erie on Friday night, on his most recent homecoming trip. The Herald says: "The burden of matrimony sits as lightly on his 72-year-old shoulders as a thistle down on the flanks of a 2-year-old steer. He explained that recent preparations to shoot him full of holes in Texas had had no effect in accelerating his return, but expressed his gratification at being once more in the land of Christian privileges and small-bored revolvers."

Not to be outdone by a medical writer a southern exchange comes out with the following health hints for hot weather: Don't drink too much ice water; drink champagne. Don't work too hard; go off on a four months' vacation. Don't eat too much meat; confine yourself to salads and pate de foie gras. Don't walk too much; ride in a cab. Don't lose your temper; if you do, advertise for it. Don't fret; don't talk politics; don't ask if it is warm enough; if you have an inclination to these vices commit suicide.

A cat in Cochranton seems to have monopolized about all the fun that was going last week, according to this report in the Times: A citizen took home a large sheet of fly paper the other day and placed it in the pantry. The house cat saw the paper, and jumping upon it her four feet were stuck fast. Puss set up a terrible yelling, and in the trying to get herself extricated from the sticky stuff she rolled over and the paper rolled around her. Releasing the cat was a tedious task, and about half her fur came off with the paper.

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION.

SECTION I. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article of the Constitution be adopted: SECTION I. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article of the Constitution be adopted:

AMENDMENT.

There shall be an additional article to said Constitution to be designated as Article XIX, as follows: ARTICLE XIX. The manufacture, sale, or keeping for sale of intoxicating liquors to be used as a beverage, is hereby prohibited, and any violation of this prohibition shall be a misdemeanor, punishable as shall be provided by law. The manufacture, sale, or keeping for sale of intoxicating liquor for other purposes than as a beverage may be allowed in such instances as may be prescribed by law. The General Assembly shall, at the first session succeeding the adoption of this article of the Constitution, enact laws with adequate penalties for its enforcement. A true copy of the foregoing. CHARLES W. STONE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.
