LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Oil market closed yesterday 62. Opening this morning at 62c.

—Get registered.

—To morrow the season for oysters opens.

—G. W. Robinson is enlarging the ware-room in the rear of his store.

—Treasurer Fitzgerald has drilled a water well on the premises he occupies, during the week.

—Ferd Wenk is making some decided improvements on his farm residence on German Hill.

—The squirrel season opens to-morrow, Sept. 1st. It's time to commence talking up a match hunt.

—The Warren fair is in progress this week. Many of our citizens will go up to-morrow, so they say.

—Mrs. John Johnson, of Bradford, accompanied by her two sons, is paying her sister Mrs. J. H. Dingman a visit.

—Mr. Chas. August, of Evansburg, Crawford county, visited over Sunday with his brother-in-law, W. L. Klinestiver.

—The Franklin Fair begins next Tuesday. Elaborate preparations are making to outdo all previous efforts in that line.

—Mrs. Chas. M. Cott, of Meadville, with her children, is paying her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Roberts, a visit this week.

—Mrs. J. Y. Saul is moving her family and household goods to Titusville, where her son Will. is engaged in the Railroad office.

—The borough schools open next Monday for the fall term, with Prof. Donnell, W. J. Bloomfield, and Miss Aggie Kerr as teachers.

—A press of other matter has somewhat curtailed our usual amount of local reading this week, but we'll endeavor to crowd in more next week.

—Mr. Will H. May of Louisville, paid his mother and other relatives here a visit during the week. We were pleased to note he was in good health.

—Prof. C. H. Donnell, Principal of the borough schools, has arrived with his household goods and will occupy Jared Huling's pleasant little cottage on Vine St.

—This is the last opportunity we will have of reminding our Republican friends of the necessity to get registered in order to vote this fall. See to it at once.

—Judge Proper and daughter, Retta, are in Litchfield, Ill., at present on a visit with S. A. Varner's family. Mrs. V. has been very ill, but is now recovering rapidly.

—Rob. J. Huddleson is again laid up with a cut in the knee received while taking out ties on Monday. A few more whacks and Bob. will be entitled to a pension.

—Lost—Somewhere between Mr. Dingman's residence and the M. E. Church, a gold bracelet. The finder will confer a favor by leaving it with the above named gentleman.

—The oyster season, the squirrel season and the New York marriage license law all go into effect to-morrow. The latter will prove a sad crack to the York State border preachers.

—Frank Hunter, who has been with the Grove boys, drilling at Cynthiana, Ky., came home last week to accept the position at the station made vacant by Will Saul's resignation.

—Mrs. W. J. Bleakley returned to her home in Franklin last Saturday after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Col. Thomas. Miss Florence Klinestiver accompanied her for a few day's visit.

—Hon. Lucius Rogers, the talented editor of that staunch exponent of Republicanism, the McKean Miner, stopped in town a few hours on Wednesday last while on his way to the Oil City reunion, in which he took a prominent part.

—Mr. N. G. Cole and Miss Emma Allison, of Nebraska, were married on the 24th, at Jamestown, N. Y. Our congratulations to you and yours, Nelson. May you live long and prosper.

—Mr. H. O. Davis and family wish to return sincerest thanks to all those friends who lent such kind assistance in their late sore affliction. They shall always be held in kindest remembrance.

—S. J. Wolcott expects soon to resume work on the well on the Proper farm one mile south of Tionesta, near the Peters run well. The rig was put up several months ago, but drilling was never commenced.

—The Executive Committee of the Forest County Sunday School Association will meet at T. F. Ritchey's office on Saturday evening, for the purpose of arranging for a County Convention to be held soon. By action of last convention the meeting this year will be here at Tionesta.

—A coolish wave has been hovering about these parts for the past week, and in some sections slight frosts are reported. The nights and mornings are quite fresh, and those who have paid sixty cents a month for heating stoves all through the hot spell are just now getting their money's worth.

—The Gas Co. is making some repairs on its main and preparing for the winter frosts. As a consequence the consumers are obliged to "shut off" for a few hours in the forenoon, but the inconvenience is very slight, except, perhaps, to the housewife who is in the midst of a red hot fruit-canning campaign.

—The last quarterly meeting of this conference year, Tionesta circuit, will be held in the F. M. Church, this place, commencing next Friday evening, and continuing over the Sabbath. Rev. J. T. Michael will preach on Friday evening, and those who wish to hear him should avail themselves of this opportunity; it will be his last sermon here, he expecting to be transferred to another conference.

—The REPUBLICAN extends hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Perry, in their new relations as man and wife, notice of which happy event appears to-day in its proper place. Bride and groom are quite well and favorably known to many of our readers, (the former being the handsome daughter of Commissioner Byerly) all will join in good wishes for their future happiness and prosperity.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scowden of Meadville, paid their son, J. C., a visit during the week, remaining over Sunday. Mr. Scowden served Crawford county two terms as Commissioner, and still takes a lively interest in politics. He reports the Republican party of his county in splendid condition, and predicts the election of the entire ticket by large majorities this fall.

—T. N. Ryan, of Kane, one of the original "Bucktails," enjoyed the veteran's reunion at Oil City last Thursday. Many of our citizens have a vivid recollection of one company of this famous regiment coming down the Allegheny in skiffs and remaining one night in Tionesta, during the exciting days of '61. Each man wore a buck tail on his cap, hence the name which followed them all through the war.

—The large store of C. W. Hawks, at Balltown, this county, was totally destroyed by fire, together with all its contents, on Thursday night last, 25th inst. The fire seems to have originated from escaping gas, and before anything of value could be removed the flames had gained too great headway. Mr. Hawks' loss is given at upward of $5000, upon which it is said there was an insurance of $3000. We have not learned whether or not the store will be rebuilt.

—Chief of Police Good has in his possession two open-faced silver watches which were taken from the pickpockets arrested on Grand Army day. The owners can recover the same by calling on him and identifying them. One of them is known to have been taken from an old soldier, who wore a gray coat, but whose names is unknown. The rings were twisted out of the watches when they were nipped. One of the rings was subsequently found on the floor in one of the bar rooms.—Oil City Blizzard.

—The oil business in Harmony township is quite brisk these pleasant days. Carnahan Bros., on the Beaver, Hale & Co. tract have commenced a new well not far from their producer Bovee & Co., on the McNutt farm, have their well down already over 500 feet. It is located about 30 rods west of the Carnahan, Wood & Co., on the Joslin farm, have their well down about 700 feet. Stewart & Son, on the Agnew, Proper & Jamieson lands, three quarters of a mile east of the Carnahan well, have a rig up and will commence drilling this week. So that in a month from now that country ought to receive a pretty good test.

—A western exchange says that a new game has been organized called "Editor's Delight," the plan upon which it is played being this wise: "Take a sheet of ordinary writing paper, fold it up carefully, and enclose a bank note sufficiently large to pay all arrears and a year in advance. What adds immensely to the game is to send along the name of a new subscriber or two, accompanied by the cash. Keep your eye on the editor, and if a smile adorns his face, the "trick works like a charm."

—In its report of the reunion the Derrick says that the Cooperstown Post "occupied a prominent position in the procession, which was on the right of the third division, and their fine marching was remarked by many." This is the position occupied by Stow Post of this place, placed there by Aid-de Camp Agnew at the suggestion of Major Greenland, Commander of said division. While the compliment was doubtless intended for the Cooperstown Post, it was none the less deserved by our boys.

—Of the Free Methodist campmeeting recently held in Titusville, the Citizen of that place says: The Free Methodist camp meeting, after a week of out door life, was brought to a close on Wednesday evening, when the largest audience since the meeting began was in attendance. At the conclusion of the exercises those present formed a ring and marched around the grounds bidding each other farewell. This year's meeting passed very pleasantly and smoothly and much good work has been done, several becoming communicants of the church.

—A sudden death occurred in Tionesta on Thursday morning of last week. Mr. E. C. Tyrrell, who has for several years been extensively engaged in the stave business near Tylersburg, Clarion county, and whose large mill was recently consumed by fire, came to town that morning with the intention of taking the early morning train for Warren. Arriving here about seven o'clock, he alighted from the wagon, in which he had ridden with several others, and started for the station. When near Jas. G. Carson's house he was noticed by some of our citizens to stagger and fall. They quickly ran to his assistance, but two or three gasps were all the signs of life visible. He was removed to the Lawrence House and Dr. Morrow was summoned, who applied the different restoratives, but to no effect, and the Doctor pronounced life extinct. He had been a sufferer from heart disease for some time, and was on his way to receive treatment at the time. His family was notified by telegram, and the members arrived in a short time, and on Friday his remains were removed to Youngsville, Warren county, his former home, for burial. He was aged about 55 years, and leaves a wife and several grown children.

—The veteran's reunion at Oil City on Thursday last, was a most decided success in each and every particular. The enterprising citizens of the wide awake city left nothing undone, seemingly, that would in any manner contribute to the general enjoyment of the royal occasion. The weather was all that could be wished. The town was literally decked in flags and bunting, while hundreds of arches spanned the streets at various places, bearing appropriate mottoes and inscriptions. Every train that entered the city in the early part of the day was crowded to its utmost capacity, and a moderate estimate put the number of vets and visitors that thronged the streets at over 15,000. The parade was the largest ever held in this section of the State, and so well was the program arranged and carried out that not a jar occurred. Nearly every man in line was uniformed, while many of the Posts had bands of music with them. The ladies of the city set out a spread to the boys in blue, which was complimented on all sides for its elegance and abundance. The order throughout the day was the best we ever saw for the size of the crowd; in fact, the policemen had rather a lazy time of it. Tionesta turned out over 250, and among the many Posts in line, we saw none that outstripped Stowe Post (72 strong) in point of handsome dress and perfect marching, while our cornet band was among the finest in line, and the Post martial band numbered more pieces than any in the procession, and did well. Oil City may well be proud of her record on this occasion, and we doubt whether the Northwestern Association will ever have a better reunion. At the business meeting of the Association it was decided to hold the reunion in Bradford next year.

Is about 700, and we would say at least one half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all not to neglect the opportunity to call on us and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial size free. Respectfully, G. W. Bovard.

Excitement in Texas.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of Consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds. Trial bottles of this Great Discovery for Consumption free at G. W. Bovard's.

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, Oh, it will wear away, but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which we sell on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial size free. G. W. Bovard.

MARRIED.

COLE—ALLISON — At Jamestown, N. Y., on Wednesday, August 24th, 1887, by Rev. John Peate, Mr. Nelson G. Cole and Miss Emma J. Allison, both of Nebraska, Forest county, Pa.

PERRY—BYERLY—At the residence of the bride's parents, Beaver Valley, Aug. 27, 1887, by Rev. F. M. Small, Mr. Lewis J. Perry and Miss Josina Byerly, both of Hickory township, Forest county, Pa.

DIED.

DAVIS—At her home in Tionesta, Pa., Thursday, August 25, 1887, of consumption, Elizabeth, wife of Henry O. Davis, aged 54 years, 1 month and 5 days.

It is a trifle over sixteen years since Mr. and Mrs. Davis came to Tionesta with their family to locate here permanently. Since that time they have laid seven children to rest in the quiet of Riverside Cemetery; six of these were girls—four of them in the hope and promise of young womanhood — the other was their son Bert who died last winter. Three of the children died one close after the other, five years ago.

Her health had not been real good for about two years; but not serious until within a year ago. She leaves a husband and three children who mourn the loss of a faithful wife and devoted mother. It is seldom that a mother is called on to see so many of her children pass away before her own going over, and it is comforting to those who remain to know that, while wishing to stay for their sakes, yet the prospect of going was not an unpleasant one but full of hope; for it was "going to be with Christ which is far better."

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Small. The funeral sermon was preached in the M. E. Church, and then the form of the loved and loving mother was laid beside her children, earlier gone to rest than she.

Her husband and children have the sympathy of the many friends who with them miss but always remember the dear one gone.

McCANN—At her home, near Newmanville, Clarion county, Pa., August 27th, 1887, of spinal meningitis, Clara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCann, in the 20th year of her age.
