—The Hunter residence, across the river, has been re-shingled and otherwise repaired.

—Treasurer Fitzgerald is paying a visit to his old home in Barreton township this week.

—A. M. Douth is slinging the brush on T. J. Payne's house at Arthurs, Clarion county, at present.

—C. Heydrick Esq., of Franklin, a member of the State Revenue Commission, was in town Monday.

—Fred Morgan, one of Oil City's flourishing and popular grocers paid the town a short visit Saturday.

—Mr. W. J. Gorman, one of Harmony township's solid citizens, gave us a pleasant call on Saturday last.

—Mrs. J. E. Muse and two sons, Freddie and Jesse, of Centralia, Va., are visiting with Mrs. G. S. Hunter.

—James and Elmer Carson, of Potter county, are paying a visit to their brothers, Gus and John T. Carson of this place.

—John H. White of Barnett, and H. M. Zahniser of Harmony, were pleasant callers at the REPUBLICAN office this week.

—J. G. Bromley & Co., of Stewart's Run, have been doing some excellent work hereabouts during the week, with their steam thrasher.

—Rev. Small gave a taffy-pull to upward of 100 of the Sabbath School scholars under a large tent on the parsonage lawn last Wednesday evening.

—County Auditor Scott of Jenks township, was in town Monday. He reported Col. Hunt of Marienville still alive, but sinking rapidly at last accounts.

—Judge Hill boarded the early train for Meadville here on Monday last accompanied by his daughter Nettie, who will attend Allegheny College this winter.

—Buckwheat cakes will soon compose the principal article of diet at the average breakfast table. The harvest is going on now, and the crop is just "fair to middling."

—The autumn is on us in full force and virtue; it is getting quite chilly around the edges of the day, and the leaves are beginning to turn and show up in their most gorgeous array.

—John N. Zahniser of Washington, Pa., who has been visiting with his cousin, H. M. Zahniser, at Stewart's Run, this county, for several days past, left Monday to visit with other relatives.

—Lost—A black cashmere shawl, somewhere on the road leading from the creek bridge to the borough. The finder will receive the thanks of the owner and be suitably rewarded by leaving same at this office.

—The program for the Sabbath School Convention to be held here next month, promised for this week, failed to make its appearance, owing to some of the committee being necessarily absent. It will be published next week.

—Mr. L. J. Hopkins has returned from his eastern trip, where he made a general raid on the goods, and it would seem from the appearance of things around the store since his return that he had robbed the markets of their finest and best.

—T. J. Mahoney had his trial in Warren for firing his hotel at Clarendon on the night of July 4th, the occasion of the great fire there, and was acquitted, the prosecution withdrawing the suit before any evidence for the defense was heard.

—The Fair at Stoneboro, Pa., will begin on Wednesday of next week and continue over Friday. The Stoneboro Fairs have become noted for their complete success, and extra pains and expense have been put forth to make this one the best of all.

—The Wesleyan Methodists will hold a quarterly meeting at the Balltown school house, near Pitohole, commencing next Saturday evening and continuing over Sabbath. The Rev. E. J. Stinchcombe will be present, and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

—H. J. Hopkins & Co. have handled some fine overcoats in their day, but if you are on the lookout for something that never was equaled in this section before, go and examine the stock that has just arrived at their establishment from the eastern market.

—Yesterday was the day predicted by Wiggins, the "weather prophet," that this part of mother earth would be about ruined by a most terrific storm. Did ever a lovelier day lay out of doors? When Wiggins predicts a storm then commence your harvest.

—Court amounted to literally nothing this week, sitting only about 40 minutes. An adjourned court will be held to-morrow, Thursday, by the Associates. We believe this is the first time in the history of the county that a quarter session court was dispensed with entirely.

—The ladies of Tionesta will be delighted to see the endless variety of new things in dress goods that are now being opened at H. J. Hopkins & Co.'s. Such an elegant stock has never before been displayed in this section. Call early and make your selections.

—Miles W. Tate Esq., of Meadville, attended court in town this week, and had the pleasure of shaking hands with nearly all his old friends hereabouts. Mr. Tate has already dropped into a good practice in his new field, all of which his friends here will be pleased to note.

—Word was received by the relatives here on Saturday last, of the serious illness of Mrs. Rosa Howland of Elkhart, Indiana, better remembered here as Miss Rosa McBride. Mrs. S. H. Haelet, her sister, and James, are now at her bedside. Her disease is said to be consumption.

—The piles of new goods that are now being opened at H. J. Hopkins & Co.'s is astonishing to see, and a sight to behold. Nothing like it ever here before. It must be seen to be appreciated, so go early and feast your eyes. Everything marked way down in the fractions.

—If "Pilgrim," who writes us quite an entertaining news letter from Brookston, will kindly send us his name, simply as a guarantee—not for publication—we will take pleasure in publishing his letter, as well as any other similar one he may send. This is as fair a proposition as we can make.

—News was received by the relatives here on Saturday last that Wills. Jamieson, who was down with typhoid fever at his home in Lima, Ohio, had taken a sudden turn and that they might look for the worst. His mother was at his bedside at the time and Mr. Jamieson left on the late train Saturday. Later news reports him a trifle better.

—The finest stock of clothing by far that ever graced a Tionesta establishment, can now be seen at H. J. Hopkins & Co.'s, selected from the freshest and newest the eastern markets afford. Something nobby and stylish for every customer, and all at knock-down prices. Don't fail to see these goods before purchasing.

—Mr. Thos. Brownlee, a former resident of Tionesta, but for the past 18 or 19 years a resident of Kansas, paid his former friends here a visit during the past week. Tom was looking quite natural and met with a hearty welcome by his old time acquaintances in Tionesta. He has sold out his interests in Kansas and Missouri, his last residence, and will inspect Washington territory with a view to settling there.

—The well of Stewart & Son, now going down on the Agnew, Jamieson & Co. lands, about one mile southeast of the Caraban well, Harmony township, struck a heavy gas vein at a depth of about 600 feet in the second sand, but the owners are putting it down to the third sand, which they will doubtless reach this week. The Bovee well, on the McNutt lands, about 60 rods from the Caraban well was shot with an 80-quart shot, but didn't respond very heavily. It will be about a ton-barrel. A new rig is going up on J. G. Bromley's farm, a short distance east of the well recently completed on the Joslyn place, which latter was practically dry.

—New Stock Flower Pots, and Red Jersey Sweet Potatoes, at Smearbaugh & Co.

—"The web of life wouldn't be such a mingled yarn" if the whole civilized world would learn—as thousands know, that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures colds and makes sufferers happy.

—Spudding commenced on the Wolcott well, Proper farm, on Monday of this week. Regular drilling will likely commence to-day, and in the course of two or three weeks we shall see what we shall see, and we hope it will be a stream of crude petroleum spurting up several feet above the top of the derrick.

—Rev. Small is attending the annual conference which meets in Jamestown, N. Y., to-day. On last Sabbath he preached his farewell sermon which was largely attended. Having been here his allotted time—three years—he cannot be sent back, for which his congregation, and a large circle of friends will be sorry. Rev. Small and family have the best wishes of many friends here for their future success.

—The M. E. Parsonage was the scene of a happy event on Monday evening of this week, when the friendly relations between our young townsmen Will Wolcott and Miss Tillie Bruce of Whig Hill, culminated in their marriage. Only the near relatives of the happy couple were present to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Small. We join their friends in extending the usual congratulations and best wishes to this well-mated and happy pair.

—Hon. Henry Brace of Warren, one of the leaders of the House of Representatives, was in Harrisburg to-day. He says the rumors of Republican disunion in the oil regions are entirely groundless, and that in that section the Republican ticket will poll more than the Republican vote. Mr. Brace was a candidate for nomination for State Treasurer, and knows the people of the oil regions thoroughly.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

—Mr. Brace is correct. The West will show up her usual Republican majority on the State ticket, just as easy.

—The Buffalo, New York & Phila. R. R. will run another excursion, the last of the season, to the big bridge at Kinzua, next Sunday, Sept. 25, leaving this place at 8:31 a. m., and returning arrive here about 9 p. m., giving several hours at the bridge. There will be no change of cars, as the train will go by way of Salamanca. Fare for the round trip only $2.00. The train will be in charge of Excursion Agent Newton, which is a guarantee that it will be a success in every particular. Don't forget the date.

—Accompanying the notice of the death of Willie Hays, which will be found in its proper place to-day, came the following touching lines from his father, Mr. David Hays, whose many old friends still living here will sympathize deeply with him and his estimable wife: "I would like to write all the dear ones in our old home, but my heart is too heavy, and my eyes too blinded by tears. There is another new made grave on a lonely Southern hill. There are breaking hearts looking for sympathy from friends, oh, so far away. When Willie died there ceased to beat one of the truest hearts on earth. We had hoped when Ellen and I came to die he would close our eyes and fold our idle hands, but God had other thoughts and called him home while his long shadow pointed to the West. We fondly hoped our children would carry on our work when our life was over. God knows best."

—Acute rheumatism is an inflammation of the joints marked by pain, heat, redness, and a tendency to suddenly shift from one joint to another. With these symptoms apply Salvation Oil, the great pain cure, to the affected parts without delay. Price 25 cents a bottle.

—The "Housekeeper" for October will contain a full account of the wedding of the managers of that paper, in the Minneapolis, Minn., Exposition, on the evening of September 28, together with accurate descriptions and illustrations of the participants' wedding dresses and presents. A copy of this issue will be mailed free to any of our lady readers sending their address to The Buckeye Pub. Co., Minneapolis, Minn.

—Peterson's Magazine for October is on hand, and is one of the best numbers of this year of even unusual excellence. The steel engraving is a charming reproduction of Leslie's beautiful painting, "A Maiden Fair to See," and the fashion-plates, woodcuts, and designs for the work table are all capital. The attractions for 1888 are numerous—new writers to be added to the staff of favorite old contributors, more costly engravings and woodcuts—in fact, novelty and fresh variety in every department. Terms, two dollars per year. Address Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

—New Stock Flower Pots, and Red Jersey Sweet Potatoes, at Smearbaugh & Co.

Something More About Tionesta's Business Boom.

Last week S. R. Brooks, of Irwin, Westmoreland county, Pa., the "World's Famous Lock-Picker," struck the town. After showing the citizens, all who wanted to see, how easily the finest and most expensive locks could be opened without the aid of a key, he exhibited a new combination lock of his own design, which seems like a very clever article. It was to introduce his lock that Mr. Brooks was traveling, and when he learned of the proposition that our people had made to a Boston shoe manufacturer who talked of locating here, he said if they would extend the same proposition to his firm they would locate their works here, and when once under full headway they would employ two hundred hands and upward. His proposition was at once accepted, and he was invited to meet a number of the citizens at the Gas Company's office on the following evening. At this meeting a proposition of which the following is the substance was made to Mr. Brooks' firm: That the citizens of this borough will furnish a suitable site and building for a lock factory and foundry, and a twenty horse-power boiler and engine free as long as a time as the same is used for the purpose indicated; providing the firm agrees to occupy the same for a term of not less than five years, and to employ not less than fifty men. In addition to this the Gas Company will provide and furnish free gas for fuel and lights for a term of five years from date of occupancy.

This proposition seemed to strike Mr. Brooks favorably, as well it ought any one who means business, and he agreed to submit it to his firm and have the principals here in the course of a week or ten days to look the ground over and complete arrangements.

As to the reliability of Mr. Brooks and his firm we are as much in the dark as any who met him, but he left a good impression, and gave every outward appearance of an honest and shrewd business man, who meant exactly what he said. And if they do mean business there should be no doubt about Tionesta getting the lock factory, for its proposition is several times more than fair and liberal. Nothing could be more so. The firm has virtually nothing to do but come on and go to work, without one dollar of outlay, other than their machinery, which Mr. Brooks says they own.

It is quite probable that the shut-down movement will go into effect the first of October. There is every reason at present to believe that it will prove a success, in which case the market may touch the dollar mark before January 1st.—Blizzard.

A Cumberland county farmer says that he has at last found a remedy for Canada thistles. The gentleman's experiment has proved successful and is very simple. It is to cut the stalk off low to the ground and cover it with sawdust, which in a short time will completely destroy the plant.

Ex-Congressman James Sheakley, who was appointed to a judgeship in Alaska, writes home from Fort Wrangle, that he has commenced holding court; that the place contains 500 Indians and 100 white men. In an old fashioned wrangle a smaller percentage of noble men would be desirable. Divorce suits will not bother the judge, as there are but three women there.—Venango Spectator.

A Southern newspaper relates this incident concerning a dying wife's request to her husband that he would not marry again: "The husband in tears declined, whereupon the devoted wife pulled a hatchet from under the cover and made a lick at his head as he was kneeling at her side. The blow fell below the brain and put out the right eye. In 24 hours the poor man was a widower, but in due time he got a glass eye and married again."

The Grand Jury of Erie county has sustained the charges against Sheriff Gifford, and the case now goes to court. The charges included underfeeding the inmates of the jail, feeding them tainted meat, and keeping them on the verge of starvation. The jail physician made the charges, and the County Commissioners, who made personal investigations, and found the Sheriff's cooks preparing putrid meat testified in support of the charges.

Monday last Mr. James Caldwell, Sr., in charge of a corps of engineers consisting of James Caldwell, Jr., M. A. Rodgers, D. Eason, M. C. Verstine, J. B. Brown, John Wilson and others, the party consisting of ten, started to make a preliminary survey for a railroad from Fairy Creek to Warren, a distance of sixty miles. It is understood that they are in the employ of a syndicate of capitalists interested in the development of the country through which the road will run, and in securing a shorter route from the Jefferson and Clearfield coal districts to Buffalo and the lakes.—(Brookville Republican.)

The eighteenth annual reunion of the Eighty-third Pennsylvania Regimental Association will be held at Sagertown on Tuesday, October 4th. Every member who can is urgently requested to be present, and to come prepared to assist financially in the work of erecting a suitable monument on the Gettysburg battlefield. A design must be decided on at that time, and such other important work will come before the association. The monument committee cannot proceed further until the amount to be invested can be ascertained. A reunion of the Third Brigade, First Division, Fifth Corps, has been proposed by Gen. Butterfield, and this will also come up for action.—(Meadville Gazette.)

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of this Commonwealth: SECTION 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, that the following amendment is proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the Eighteenth Article thereof:
