LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 72 1/2. Opening this morning at 72 1/2. Vote the straight Republican ticket. Lute Hoyt expects soon to remove his family to Kellettsville. Mr. J. R. Landis of Barnett was a visitor to Tionesta yesterday. Mr. W. C. Bromley of Stewart's Run, gave the town a short call Monday. Vote for Henry W. Williams for Supreme Judge, one of the purest men in the State. Mr. J. H. Foreman is up from Washington county on a visit to Tionesta friends. Remember next Tuesday is election day, and don't neglect to vote the Republican ticket. Will Morrow has returned from his summer's sojourn in Armstrong and Indiana counties. Every Republican in the county should lay off his coat next Tuesday and help elect the straight ticket. Vote for Capt. Wm. B. Hart for State Treasurer, and secure a competent, honest and faithful public servant. Will W. Hulings of St. George, W. Va., is paying Tionesta friends a visit. He is a light and well-looking fat and healthy as usual. One of the boilers in the Nebraska mill having been slightly disabled, some of the boys are having a short lay-off. Mr. H. G. McKnight and children, of Oil City, paid a visit to the family of her father, Mr. S. J. Campbell, during the week. Vote the Republican ticket straight as a gun barrel; it's a good one, and none will regret its election. The "boys" were out "holloereven" Monday night, but were quite respectable in their pranks, doing very little damage to property. Mr. T. C. Jackson of Warren, paid her daughters here, Mrs. L. J. Hopkins and Mrs. J. F. Propper, a visit during the week, returning on Monday. Our old friend Darwin E. Smith is again among us as hearty and chipper as young robin, after a sojourn of several months with friends in York Stoto. Mr. H. S. Brockway expects soon to remove his family to Spartausburg, Crawford county, where he has leased the Central, one of the principal hotels of that thriving town. Vote for Calvin M. Arner, Tionesta's efficient ex-Postmaster, and one-legged gentleman. He is capable and will administer the Prothonotary's office with satisfaction to all. The Y. W. C. T. U. will have a box festival at Universalist Church on Saturday evening next. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend and bring their boxes with them. Vote for George W. Sawyer for Sheriff. He will make an officer of whom all will be proud. Of his competency to fill the position with entire satisfaction there isn't a particle of question. Mr. J. W. Stroup, a former Tionesta citizen, has rented part of the Forest house and will shortly occupy it with his family. Mr. S.'s friends will be pleased to welcome him back as a citizen of our town. Elmer Fleming, who has spent the past two years in the west, returned some time ago, and last evening paid the burg a visit. He expects to go back in the spring to Nebraska, where he has taken up some lands. Go to C. Russell's for a first class shave or hair cut. Particular attention paid to ladies and children's hair cutting. Parlor Barber Shop, Kepler block, Tionesta, Pa. Vote for Parsons and Ledebur, and elect for County Commissioners two as level-headed and square men as can be found in the county.

Flavens J. Benedict, one of the prominent citizens of Allegheny twp., Venango county, died at his home near Pleasantville, on the 24th ult., aged 64 years. Mr. Benedict was a brother-in-law of Hon. E. L. Davis, of this place. Vote for Gillespie and Jones for County Auditors. They are both well fitted for the office to which they aspire. A man who wants to start a glass factory at Tionesta only asks the little borough to give him switching facilities, three acres of land and $12,000. It is conjectured that for all of Forest county he might be willing to put in two factories.—Blissard. The newly erected Evangelical Church, on Whig Hill, which is beautifully located on a two acre lot donated by Mr. Jacob Beck, will be dedicated on Sunday, Nov. 13, 1887. Rev. F. P. Saylor, Presiding Elder of the district, will officiate. The ministry and laity friends from near and far are cordially invited to attend. Monday Mrs. Wm. Blum of this place, received a letter from her brother, Rev. C. J. Oehlslaeger, of Richmond, Va., giving the particulars of a very sad accident by which one of their little boys, aged about 7 years, lost his life. A gun in the hands of some boys was recklessly discharged, the ball taking effect in the abdomen of the little fellow, from the effects of which he died in 24 hours, after much suffering. Vote for Church for Jury Commissioner. He is a gentleman well adapted for the place and will give good satisfaction to the people. Geo. Cummings was lodged in jail last week charged with stealing a horse and buggy from Mr. I. N. Clover of Marienville, this county, a month or so ago. He had hired the rig from Mr. Clover and then sold or traded it in Indiana county. He was arrested in Pittsburgh, and with him a woman named McCullough, who was held as a witness. A hearing was had before "Squire Brennan, and the man bound over to December sessions. We were shown a letter received by one of our citizens from Samuel Elliott, a son of Rev. Wm. Elliott, which is interesting to the many friends of the family. Sammy writes a good letter, and says the family are all well, and that Rev. E. is preaching at Canal Fulton, O., a place of about 2000 inhabitants; that the place is a fine one, and that the Ohio coal region and the "Old Put" stamps in vain till an hour as usual. The President in his message of the 27th ult. cannot stand for the bill were outpourers of a remarkable escape for an honest, truthful death. The President in that message says that said bill would only help the underserving and not the honest Soldier who is deserving of help at the hands of the Government, etc. Now, Mr. Editor and Comrades, let us consider this matter honestly and with sincerity, and see if possible the real facts, and who Mr. Cleveland and the whiffing press of the country call "dead beats," etc. According to Mr. Cleveland there are two classes of ex-soldiers, i. e., the underserving and the deserving; to this we say, true. Of course the National Democrat thinks the latter, or honest class, is very small, and he (Cleveland) says in the message as above stated, that said bill would only help the underserving, etc. Let us purge this matter a little and see who compose this "underserving class," whom Mr. Cleveland and his henchmen despise with so much holy horror. Every old Soldier knows, and every sound thinking individual ought to know, that under the present laws by which pensions are granted a surgical or Hospital record is invaluable; and in fact without such a record you might count the pensioners upon your fingers; those records have been kept with jealous care in the Surgeon General's office in Washington. Now, there are two classes who have made medical or hospital records, viz: First, The class which enlisted with pure, patriotic motives and impulses. They committed their families to the care of a kind and merciful God, and hospitality of loyal, generous humanity, and rushed to the camp and scene of action; they proved themselves worthy of the name of Soldier along the march and upon the field of action; they pass into action one, two, or perhaps a dozen times; at last they are carried from the field by their comrades bleeding; they have fought a good fight and their names are now transferred to the hospital records. While others of this same patriotic class sooner or later fall victims to some dreaded diseases which proved as fatal to the Northern man as did the enemy's guns; they grasp their more fortunate comrades by the hand, breathe a "God bless you" upon them and are hurried away from their mess-mates to the hospital, and they, too, make a record in spite of themselves; and we here say that no man or set of men having in their heart one ounce of patriotism or one drop of the milk of human kindness, would rank these noble men among the bummers or underserving at the hands of our redeemed country. Second, Another class, "and thank God it is comparatively small," are those who had not the moral regard for themselves even after enlisting to do anything save bunning from first to last around the officers' and surgeons' tents; they could eat more salt-bread and hard-bread in three days than a Government mule could carry, and at the same time attend "quinine call" every morning; they were never able to perform camp duty, much less the more necessary duty upon the battle-field; by their regularity in attending quinine call they become well known to the surgeons; the records they here made are as lasting in the memory of all as the man himself. At last the officers and surgeon look upon the case as a hopeless one, and in order to save rations and quinine at the front, for more hopeful
