REPUBLICANS WIN!

Pennsylvania Gives 30,000 Majority for the Ticket.

Dhio, Massachusetts, Iowa, Nebraska and New Jersey Roll up Republican Majorities.

LET THE EAGLE SCREAM.

The elections of 1887 are over, and the result is about what was generally expected. In pearly all the cleven States which held elections it was considered to be an "off year," and the vote in each did not get a great way above the average.

In Pennsylvania the Republicans have once more placed a grand victory to their credit, electing Hart treasurer, and Williams supreme judge, by at least 20,000 majority, which, considering the large corruption fund with which the Democrats were equipped, which was wrung from the federal offi cers, the backing of the national administration, and the combined efforts of the Personal Liberty Leagues and Brewers, is a most wonderful victory, and leaves the Republicans in elegant fighting trim for 1888.

NEW YORK.

York State has likely gone Democratic by from 12,000 to 15,000, which is no surprise to the Republicans. New York is one of the bardest of States in which to get out the rural

MASSACHUSETTS.

Which the Democrats were in high hopes of carrying has been swept by the Republicans from one end to the other, electing their Governor and entire ticket by from 17,000 to 20,000 majority.

TOWA

Has again been swept by the Republicans, electing their Governor and other State officers by increased majorities.

VIRGINIA AND MARYLAND May have both been carried by the Democrats but their majorities have been so badly whittled down as to amount almost to defeat. Both will go Republican in '88, if the good fight is kept up.

FOREST COUNTY ! Forest County's Vote, 1887.

SHE'S A DANDY AND NO MISTAKE.

She Elects the Whole Republican Ticket by Majorities Ranging all the way up to 300.

THAT SAME OLD COON.

The election in Forest county passed quietly in all sections, and resulted in a splendid victory for the entire Republican ticket as usual, only a good deal more so. Never in the history of the county has the party rolled up such splendid majorities for its candidates from the top of the State ticket to the bottom of the County ticket. evening. True, there was considerable cutting on all sides and in all parties, but in the general scramble everything aver. In the name and by the authority of aged up so as to change the natural result but little. And since the thing is over and the result as it is, every body seems disposed to be happy and content that the "country is saved again" and no harm done. One thing that ent-red into the canvass at the last moment, made a most decided change in the attitude of things. It was Kepler's insane attack upon day aforesaid, to render hearty and IT SELLS UPON ITS MERIT.
