—Oil market closed yesterday 74 Opening this morning at 74c.

—Mr. J. B. Pearsall of Clarington, was a visitor to Tionesta last week.

—Jas. D. Davis came down from Warren to thanksgiving with his parents, returning next day.

—Christmas three weeks from next Sunday. Now is the time to plant holiday advertisements.

—Mr. Darrach, of the Nebraska lumbering firm, suffered quite severely with an attack of cramps at the Rural House, last Sunday.

—The attention of our readers is called to the Prospectus of the Weekly Press, which appears in another column of this paper.

—"I was most ready to return a blow and would not brook at this sort of thing," for I knew I could cure all damages with Salvation Oil.

—All interested should not forget that to night is the time set for a meeting of those who intend to become members of the Sons of Veterans Camp shortly to be organized here.

—Attorney General Kirkpatrick decides that a woman cannot be appointed a notary public in Pennsylvania. This may bring out Belva Lockwood with her vitriol.

—John Raab, brother of George, won a thirty five dollar gun at a raffish evening. His was the first chance on the list, was thrown by Wm. Killmer, and 41 was the throw.

—"The man that blushes is not quite a brute." We suppose not, but they say there is a whole family out in Dakots, who had never even heard of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. How they must blush to have it found out.

—Mr. Wolcott is still fishing for the tools which were lost several weeks ago in the well on the Proper farm. At last accounts they had raised them considerably over half way. Drilling will be resumed as soon as the hole is cleared.

—Mr. B. D. McClure, a former well known and popular Forest county gentleman, has removed from Austin, Potter county. Wherever he is, the best wishes of many old friends in this county are with him.

—The St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church at Fryburg, Clarion county, will be dedicated December 18, 1887. Rev. F. W. Conrad, D. D., Editor of the Lutheran Observer, Philadelphia, will officiate, assisted by visiting clergymen. The Doctor ranks first as a pulpit orator.

—Rev. Milton Smith, Presiding Elder of Franklin District, will preach in the M. E. Church, at this place, Sabbath evening, Dec. 4, at half past seven o'clock. After preaching the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. The Quarterly Conference will be held Monday following, at 9 o'clock a. m.

—In conversation with a resident of Lickingville the other day, we were informed that the belief as to the murderer of Mrs. Everhart and Mrs. Gillfillan which has always existed in the neighborhood of the crime, is constant ly becoming more wide spread and that a confession is certainly among the future probabilities.—Clarion Democrat.

—Monday, while Adam Sibbe and Wm. Blum of German Hill were running a raft of ties out of the creek, Adam, who is no waterman, and don't claim to be, got a ducking that might have proved his eternal bath had it not been for the prompt assistance of Mr. Blum. He was on the front end of the raft, and making a misstep fell through a hole between the ties. Catching and holding to the raft most of his body was drawn under, in which plight he floated for several yards; had he gone twenty feet farther in that condition the raft would have struck shallow water and his body been crushed. Lucky escape.

—At the Sheriff sale of H. G. Tinker's real estate Monday, Dr. Ritchey bought the brick block at the corner of Seneca street and the railroad and the house in which Mr. Tinker now resides, corner of Ionis and West Third streets. Mr. Robin son, of Rouseville, purchased the new house which is only partially completed.—Derrick.

—The first load of lumber from the new mill of Collins & Watson, on Foxcreek, was shipped on Saturday last, by rail. Frank Walker, general superintendent, manager, conductor and engineer of the little road, took his train up and brought down the load. We venture to say that business will be lively around that lumber camp under Mr. Watson's management.

—Supt. Kerr has set Monday, December 26th, as the day for calling the teachers' annual institute to order. This will be the week between Christmas and New Years, and after court week. Good instructors and institute workers have been engaged, and it is expected to make the coming one of the most successful institutes in our county's history. Let all lend their aid to that end.

—Thanksgiving passed in the usual quiet way in this place, only the rain and disagreeable weather interfering with otherwise pleasant features of the day. The union services in the M. E. Church, conducted by Revs. Rumberger and Hickling, were largely attended, the former delivering a very able discourse. Business was pretty generally suspended for the greater portion of the day.

—Messrs. Scowden & Clark still lead in the manufacture of wagons, sleighs, and all manner of vehicles, turning out the very best to be had in the land. Now is the time to place an order for anything in the sleigh line, as winter is fast coming on and they are better prepared than ever to turn out first class work. Pay them a visit when in town and get prices and styles. You will not go away dissatisfied.

—The announcement made by the Spectator last week of the death of Rev. J. A. Hume, of Clintonville, was at least premature. Mr. Hume, we are glad to say, is alive and in his usual health. We saw the notice of his death in the Pittsburgh Dispatch, transferred to the Evening News, and then to the Spectator. Mr. Hume has had the rare opportunity of reading his own obituary.—Venango Spectator. Since the REPUBLICAN also had Rev. Hume dead, we very gladly make haste to correct the error.

—The cold wave started in Dakota on Saturday morning, reached St. Paul that day, and came walking hitherward in time to change the balmy air last evening and give us a flurry of snow during the night. At St. Paul last night the mercury was 8 below zero, and at different points in Dakota it ranged from 10 to 22 below.

—Franklin News A great fortune awaits the chap who will invent some method of side tracking the Dakota zephyrs somewhere west of Chicago. It would stop a great deal of snuffing and sniffing in the east.

—November 22d, being the 27th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Zahniser, a large party of their neighbors and friends, about 50 in all, gathered at their residence, Stewart's Run, in the evening, and gave them a complete surprise. Taking with them an abundance of oysters they had a royal feast, not allowing the surprised host and hostess to even offer their services in the culinary work. A merry time was spent until the hour was quite late, when all departed wishing the genial couple many happy returns of the day.

—The following note is going the rounds: "Persons who have been assessed for watches, pleasure carriages or furniture in excess of $300 will be pleased to learn that the state revenue commissioners have abandoned their effort to collect the tax upon watches and furniture for the present year. Thinking the repeal to be absolute. This, however, does not carry with it any taxes paid prior to the date of the repeal of the act. Taxes which already have been collected for the current year will be refunded through the collectors of the various districts."

—The following officers of Forest Lodge, No. 184, A. O. U. W., were last Friday evening elected for the ensuing term: P. M. W.—L. Agnew. M. W.—J. B. Eden. Foreman—George Dunkle. Overseer—W. L. Klinefister. Guide—J. H. Butler. Recorder—J. E. Wenk. Financier—G. W. Sawyer. Receiver—L. J. Hopkins. I. W.—Daniel Walters. O. W.—George Raab. Trustee—J. R. Clark. Med. Examiner—Dr. J. W. Morrow.

—Representative to Grand Lodge—Jas. H. Butler.

—Thirteen flats and twelve barges, belonging to Collins, McCain & Co., were unhit by the river bridge here last Sunday, bound for the lower markets. The river was only in fair boating stage when they started, and the frosty weather has brought it down rapidly since, so that it will make the running quite hazardous, yet it is hoped they may all get safely to Pittsburgh. When it is understood that the market price of the flats is about $300 and of the barges about $1,200, it will be seen there is considerable money tied up in them, to say nothing about the value of the material with which nearly all are loaded.

—Black's well on the Connelly farm Harmony township, was drilled into the sand on Friday last, but failed to respond. The operators found plenty of sand, but pronounced it too hard and close to yield much oil. Drilling was commenced on the Tait, Proper & Proper well, Azro Copeland's farm, on Saturday. The well will be rushed through as lively as possible. Messrs. DeFrance & Zahniser have a rig under way on the Lee lease, about 15 rods northwest of the Carrahan well, and will commence drilling as soon as the Copeland well is completed. These wells will give the territory in that immediate neighborhood a very thorough test.

—The monthly oil report, which will be published in the Derrick tomorrow, will make the following showing: Ninety one finished wells, 1,698 bbls. new production and 36 dry holes, against 100 wells, 3,598 bbls. new production and 25 dry holes this month. This showing is subject to possible eleventh hour changes from new wells at Saxonsburg. As it now stands the report shows a decline in production and finished wells and an increase in dry holes. In new work the report will show 114 drilling wells and 40 rigs against 104 wells and 82 rigs last month, an increase of 10 drilling wells offset by a decrease of 42 rigs. All the districts show a decline in drilling except Butler, where there is an increase of 22 wells over and above last month's showing. Considering the small number of wells completed, the dry hole list is very gratifying.

A correspondent of the Pittsburgh Times writes from Franklin as follows: From private advices received in this city the illness of Hon. John Trunkey, of the supreme bench, is critical. Early last spring Mr. Trunkey went to London, England, where he has since been undergoing treatment for catarrh, from which disease he has long been a sufferer. From a letter received here from Mrs. Trunkey, who joined her husband in England a short time ago, the information is obtained that at a consultation of physicians it was decided to remove a portion of the bone from the nose of the patient; an operation considered very dangerous, with the chances about even as to the patient's recovery. The true condition of Judge Trunkey has been withheld from his friends, who were greatly shocked and grieved on learning of his dangerous illness.

Highway Robbery.

The Derrick of Monday gives the following account of the robbery and shooting of a traveling salesman well known to the business men of this section:

Saturday night while driving home from Cooperstown, Charles C. Reardon of Franklin, had an adventure that he will not soon forget. About 10 o'clock he arrived at the foot of the hill just beyond the Catholic cemetery, when he met two men, one on each side of the road. One man grabbed the lines and stopped the horse and at the same instant the other man presented a revolver at Charley and told him to "divy." Mr. Reardon, exclaiming "don't shoot" and reached for his own revolver which was in his hip pocket. The robber seeing this fired, but fortunately the horse started and threw Mr. Reardon on the dashboard just then and the bullet, instead of going through him, entered his back about three inches below the right shoulder blade, and passed upwards. A then fell or was dragged out of the buggy, a struggle ensued, Charley being severely pounded about the head with the butt of a revolver. The larger of the two men grabbed his throat and held him and the other man went through his pockets and took between $300 and $400 cash, which he had collected that day, and both ran away. They left some silver and a lot of checks and drafts lying on the ground. Mr. Reardon summoned help as soon as he could. He got himself together and succeeded in reaching home about 1 o'clock Sunday morning. The doctors probed for the ball to the depth of six inches but did not find it. Mr. Reardon is resting comfortably to day, but will be confined to his bed for several days. He has no idea who his assailants were, and thinks they mistook him for Wesley W. Baker as the large man said during the struggle "no use strugglin', Baker."

The Blizzard says that Mr. Reardon describes one of the scoundrels as a "tall young man with a long upper lip and a light overcoat," and the other as a short heavy set man with a full beard.

Allender Run News.

Winter has made its appearance, and soon the merry jingling of the sleigh bells will be heard.

Home, invalid son of Mr. A. A. Copeland, has been quite sick for a few days, but is better at the present writing.

An able sermon was delivered by Rev. Brennan last Sunday, which was appreciated by all who were present.

H. T. Connelly was over from McGraw Center one day last week, smiling like a basket of chips. By asking a few questions we understood he had a nine and a half pound girl at his domicile.

The well on the Connelly farm was finished last Thursday, and was pronounced a duster. Another will be drilled soon.

Miss M. Copeland of Hickory finished the Allender school of two weeks, for Miss Miles, last Friday.

The wedding bells will soon be ringing, and will be sweet, I do declare. Nov. 28. SUNFLOWER.

The New Road Law.

The following act to enable road commissioners and other officers having in charge the opening, construction and repairing of public roads, highways and bridges, to purchase necessary and improved implements, materials, etc., and to provide means therefor, was passed at the last session of the legislature:

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, etc., That from and after the passage of this act the road commissioners and other officials having in charge the opening, constructing and repairing of public roads, highways and bridges in any township in this commonwealth, are hereby authorized at their option, to purchase for the use of their respective districts, plows, scrapers, road machines and such other implements and materials as may, from time to time, be found necessary in opening, constructing and repairing of said roads, highways and bridges.

SEC. 2. If necessary for the payment of the machinery, implements and materials mentioned and referred to in the first section of this act, the supervisors, road commissioners or other proper officers having in charge the opening, constructing or repairing of public roads, highways and bridges in the several townships of this commonwealth may, and are hereby authorized to collect annually in cash not exceeding 25 per cent. of the rates of assessments by them respectively laid in each year for road tax to be collected in the same manner that the road taxes not worked out are collected.

Rules of Court on Liquor Licenses.

At the recent term of Court in Warren county, Judge Brown fixed the following rules for regulating the application for licenses to sell liquors in that county:

1st. Applications for license under the act of May 13, 1887, shall be heard on the second Tuesday of June in each year. Licenses granted shall be for one year from the first Monday of July in each year and shall expire in one year from that time without regard to the time when the same were granted.

2d. The certificate annexed to the petition of the applicant shall not be signed by more than twenty electors of the ward, borough or township in which such liquors are to be sold.

3d. Petitions additional to that of the applicant for and remonstrances against the application, shall be signed only by residents of the ward, borough or township in which such liquors are to be sold, who are of the full age of twenty-one years.

The fact of such residence and age shall be stated therein and the signatures thereto shall be such only as are procured after the day of filing the original petition and within the two weeks immediately preceding the time fixed by rule No. 5 for filing the same in the office of the Clerk of the Court.

4th. The additional petitions shall set forth that the signers thereto verily believe that a license to sell the liquors authorized by the license asked for, and at the place named in the application, is necessary for the accommodation of the public and the entertainment of strangers and travellers, and, if such are the grounds of objection, the remonstrances shall set forth that the signers thereto verily believe that a license to sell the liquors authorized by the license asked for and at the place named in the application is not necessary for the accommodation of the public and the entertainment of strangers and travellers.

The additional petitions and remonstrances may set forth any other reasons for granting or refusing the particular license asked for.

5th. The additional petitions and remonstrances shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court, at least one week before the time fixed by rule No. 1, for the hearing of the applications, and shall at all reasonable times be subject to inspection and examination by all persons interested.

6th. Should any question arise as to the residence or age of persons signing any petition or remonstrance, or as to any other question of fact essential to the proper disposition of an application under the law and these rules, the Court may appoint an examiner to take testimony, and report the facts.

7th. The foregoing rules shall apply
