Republican National Convention.

The Republican National Commit tee met in Washington on Wednesday of last week and decided on Chicago as the place for holding the next convention. An official call was made by following is a synopsis:

To the Republican Electors of the United States :- In accordance with usage and obedient to the instructions of the Republican National Convenof delegated representatives of the what jugglery may be attempted by Republican party will be held at the the Convention. The Republican partion of such other business as may be try. In that sign we conquer. there presented.

Republican electors in the several states and voters without regard to ate the appointment of L. Q. C. Lapast political affiliation, differences or mar, Secretary of the Interior, to the action, who believe in the American U.S. Supreme Bench, and of Postprinciple of a Protective tariff for the master General Vilas, to the Interior, defense and development of home industries and the elevation of home labor; who would reduce the national taxes and prevent the accumulation of the surplus in the treasury in harmony with this principle; who are opposed to the attempt now more openly avowed than ever before to establish a policy which woold strike down American labor to the level of the underpaid and oppressed workers of foreign lands; who favor a system of naval and coust defenses which will enable the United States to conduct its international negotiations with self respect : who gratefully cherish the defenders of the country; who coudemn and resout the continued and unjust exclu sion of rapidly growing torritories, which have an undisputed title to admission into the sisterhood of states; who are in favor of free schools and popular education, a free and h nest but to him that so weth righteousness shall be a sure reward.-Rev. 11, 18, ballot, and a fair count, the protection of every citizen of the United States in his legal rights at home and abroad, a foreign policy that shall extend our days to Californis. THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Upon this wonderful Free Trade document the Philadelphia Press which has been and is still one of the Wes a gs the following comments : blessings of the western slope of the thousand thacks to President Cleveland for the bold, manly and unequivocal avowal of his extreme Free Trade purposes! And a thousand rebukes and defeats for the false, dan gerous and destructive policy which he thus frankly and unreservedly proclaims! * * * It plants the President and his party squarely on Free Trade; it clarifies the next Presidential battle as by a lightning stroke; it makes Free Trade vs. Protection the overshadowing issue ; it dwarfs and diamines all other questions ; it clears away all cowardly evasions and juggling subterfuges; it ends all pitiful personal bespattering ; and it summons the American people to decide the su preme question whether the grand Protective system which has built up our splendid industries shall be overthrown or not! For the distinct and emphatic man per in which the President has faced and forced this paramount issue he says : deserves all credit; for the wrongs, the perils and the inevitable disasters of his policy he must be crushed unless the people would have their own vital interests crushed. The danger of the gin-shop in Manchester, when he saw next national canvass was that by some juggiery of double meaning phrase the issue would be blurred and evaded. This danger Mr. Cleveland ey was gone. In a moment my friend has dispelled by one decisive stroke. There is no ambiguity in his phrase,no evasion in his policy. He aufuris the Free Trade flag sud plants it on the most extreme Free Trade ground that it is possible to take in this country. He out-Herods Herod; out-Carlisles Carlisle; out Morrisons Mor rison. Mr. Carlisle was ready to abolish the tobacco tax if he could couple it with a reduction of the tariff; but Mr. Cleveland will not touch the internal taxes at all. He will let the entire system of internal revenue stand and will reduce the surplue by a broad, wholesale slaughter of Protective duties. He declares that the internal taxes affect nothing but luxuries, and aims his whole blow at the tariff laws. He would place wool, iron ore, coal and lumber on the free list and would greatly reduce if he did not altogether abolish the duties on manufactured short distance. In a few moments articles that are imported and come into competition with our own Ameri- aloud, "Specimen of the work done can manufactures. * * * This extraordinary message-extraordinary in every sense-has put a sembled; and the publican hearing new face upon the business and politi | the noise and laughter outside, came cal situation. It marks a new de- out to see what it was all about. He parture in the method of Executive eagerly bent down and read the inmanifestoes, and a stupendous and fa- ecription on the paper; and then detal blunder in personal leadership and manded in an angry voice, 'Who did party pathway. Mr. Cleveland has that?"

fixed the position of his party, and ""Which?" asked my friend, who there is no escape from it. Few even now joined the crowd. 'If you mean, of these who fully agree with him what is on the paper, I did that; but would have ventured as far as he has if you mean the man, you did that! gone, but now that he has plunged into This morning, when he arose, he was Chairman B. F. Jones, of which the the abyes they must follow him. The sober; he walked down this small band of Democratic Protection- street, a way to work, he was soists are left stranded and homelss, but ber; when he went into your gin-shop, the Democratic party must go with he was sober; and now he is what you the President. As the candidate he made him. Is he not a true specimen has made his own platform, and it will of the work done inside?"-The tion of 1884, a National Convention be the over riding issue, no matter Word and the Way.

Rocky Mountains. Even so does every Christian young man carry with him some thistle plucked from the old man, or honey from the new man, with which to bless or curse men, according as he makes choice for God. Stop a moment and think : does our influence bless or curse? How precious our influence?

How we should watch and guard it? SPECIMEN OF THE WORK DONE INSIDE. The following story by Rev. Charles Garrett, though familiar, is well worth repeating. We reprint it, in the hope that if any of our readers should see in it their own picture, it may lead them to renounce the folly of indulg ing in the intoxicating cup. And we trust that those who are total abstainers may use their utmost endeavors in promoting the cause of temperance wherever they may be. Mr. Garrett

"One of my friends is a very curnest, shrewd man, who seems to always know how to do the best thing at the right time. One day he was passing a a drouken man lying on the ground. The poor tellow had evidently been turned out of doors when all his monhastened across the street ; and, enter ing a grocer's shop, addressing the master, said :

"Will you oblige me with the largest sheet of paper you have?'

"What for, my friend ? What's the matter?

"'Oh, you shall see in a minute or two. Please let it be the very largest. sheet you have."

"The sheet of paper was soon pro cured.
