EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—
Please announce my name as a candidate for Delegate to the Chicago Convention, subject to the District Conference.

A. B. KELLY.

LAMAR's nomination to the Supreme Bench was confirmed by the Senate on Monday, the vote standing 32 in favor and 28 against confirmation.

THE great question among the Pennsylvania Democrats just now is as to who shall be chairman of the State committee. By and by it will be: How shall the Republican majority be cut down ?-Phila. Times.

You never bear of a Free Trade philosopher publishing a work on Free Trade and neglecting to copyright it. inflated patriotism peters out and his enlightened self interest begins.

Ir is wonderful how interested Speaker Carlisle has suddenly become in the contest which Mr. Thoebe is making against his seat. When the contest was begun Mr. Carlisle merely laughed at it, but now he is disposed to regard it as a really serious matter.

THE Bradford County Republican says that the nearly unanimous and enthusiastic choice of the Republicans of that congressional district is for Blaine, and "no delegates should be sent to the National Convention from publican. here who maintain any equivocal position of this question." The Huntingdon Journal speaks in the same way for its congressional district. And that's about the size of it hereabouts.

CLEVELAND and his free trade message are as unpopular in parts of the South as they are in any part of Pennsylvania. Smith Clayton, a Democrat, writing to the Atlanta Constitution, says: "Free trade people are as scarce in Western Alabama as hairs on a they are for protection. I have heard President Cleverand damned all over but to him that so weth righteousness shall be a sure reward.—Rev. 11, 18, North Alabama, and believe that if he should read his message to the peoriot."

In the midst of his suffering from what may be an incurable and speedily fatal disease, the Crown Prince of Germany seems to have become the object of the designs of the assassin. A Paris dispatch says a plot against the Prince's life has been discovered at San Remo, and that one of the plotters, a socialist, has turned informer. It would seem as if no one in high place, however excellent his character or exemplary his conduct, can escape the malice which prompts the assassin to his murderous schemes. If any one ever so behaved, in health and illness, as to win the respect of these who admire mapliness and fortitude, Prince Frederick William is that man, and that the assassin should seek to mu:der him but adds fresh proof of the utter depravity of the socialistic elements of society.
