He was unarmed, plainly dressed, and simply attended, avowing to the red men that his one object was to do them good. The people were suspicious at first, but allowed a chapel to be built and corn planted. The Indians called the place Goschgosking, or as some have it, Goshgoshunk, But trouble soon came. The Indian Prophet Wangomen opposed the new religion, Like Demetrius of old, he saw his craft was in danger. He declared that the Great Spirit was angry and was blighting the corn and driving away the game as a judgment on the people. The place soon became too warm for the missionary and he removed his camp farther up the river a few miles, near Hickory, at a town called Lawnnakhannak.

inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events. The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhea or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a tri-fle and thousands attest its efficacy.

The Times is the most widely read news-A SCRAP OF HISTORY. kinds, Books, Books at 10c., 25c. and readers are among the more intelligent, progressive people of every faith. It is emphatically an independent newspaper—"Independent in everything; neutral in nothing." Its discussion of public men and public measures is always fearless and in the interest of public integrity, honest government and prosperous industry, and it knows no party or personal allegiance in treating public issues. In the broadest and best sense a family and general newspaper.

world in its scope, making it the perfection of a newspaper, with everything carefully edited to occupy the smallest space. The Coming Year will be one of universal public interest in the United States. Party organs will perform their duties as party interests shall demand, but the rapidly growing intelligence and independence of the age calls for the independent newspaper when great political conflicts are to be fact. Grave problems of revenue, of finance, of commerce, of industry, of science, of art and of every phase of enlightened progress are in constant course of solution by the people of the Union, and the progressive newspaper is ever in the lead in every struggle for advancement.
