-In giving the list of officers last week elected in Kingsley township an error occurred in the assistant assessors elect. Wm. B. Heath and G. S. Hindman were elected.

-Rev. Hickling has been holding services in the Presbyterian church every evening since Monday, and will ments so as not to encroach too much continue the same until Sabbath eve- on the reading matter. Meantime we ning. Communion services will be hope our friends will not complain held on Sabbath morning next at the when they get so much good reading usual hour.

-Mr. John S. Muse of Franklio, father of Jas. B. Muse of the Vindicator, is paying his son a visit. Mr. Muse one of the old timers of this place, and has many friends still living among the older inhabitants of this vicinity.

-A. Holeman and family are expecting to leave for their temporary home in southern Nebraska, within a few days. Mr. Holeman informs us that according to present calculations, they will return in about eight or nine months.—Pleasantville Record.

-Speaking of young grandmothers, says the Punxsutawney Spirit, Punxsutawney is not disposed to take a back seat for any of them. Mrs. James Foster, of this place, is only thirty two years of age, and has a daughter who is a wife and mother.

-Mr. E. W. Smiley, the handsome and talented editor of the Citizen Press, Franklin, is announced for Congress. If a life devotate to the cause of Republicanism is considered any claim in Mr. Smiley's district, we think his chances for the nomination ought to friends who attended court.

-Mr. J. W. Morrow is paying friends at her old home in Indiana county a two week's visit. Miss Nannie Morrow has taken charge of a school in Howe township, and the ing bachelor's hall.

-Beaver Valley Items: Mr. J. A. Byerly is home from Edinboro, where be was attending school .- Mr. Hobert Pettigrew, of Fox Creek, is visiting relatives and friends at Braceville. -Miss Milly King, of Kane, is visiting friends and relatives in the valley at present .--- We notice that the teamsters use their wagons now and we suppose it is because of the want of snow.

-It was two years Monday that the community was horrified by the news of the Everhart murder; that is, the murder occurred on Monday, although the 8th was the date. And yet the public is as much in the dark as ever as to the perpetrator of the frightful butchery. The horror of the crime is nearly equaled by the success with which the guilty one or ones have covered up their tracks.

-Mr. Lewis Keister, of East Hickory, was in town yesterday and gave us a pleasant call. Mr. Keister has aken the contract of rafting and running the lumber manufactured by Collins, McCain & Co., at Nebraska, besides the boats and other stuff which the firm will put out in the next year. It is a big job, but we venture to say Chicago last Friday, in company with Mr. K. will get through with it to the satisfaction of his employers.

-The REPUBLICAN acknowledges pleasant visit from Messrs. W. M. Wilson and W. F. Russell of Philadelphia, who are largely interested in Forest county lands, and were here looking after the same last week. They were accompanied by Mr. J. W. Searles, well and favorably known in the eastern gentlemen that their lands are underlaid with rivers of oil with considerable other reading matter, owing to the Treasurer's tax sale which appears. Next week we will endeavor to arrange our advertise-(ahem!) during the year, if we give the office a chance once in awhile.

-Ex Proth'y C. M. Shawkey expects to leave with his family for Phillipsburg, Kansas, next Friday, where he will stick his stake for a fortune. Mr. S. will return, after seeing his family comfortably domiciled in their new home, to attend the State Convention and shape his business here. Well, we join the many friends of Curt and his family in wishing them abund ance of prosperity in the west, and expect some day to address him as Governor or as Senator.

-The case on trial as we went to press last week, that of John R. Halliday vs. Daniel Black, was decided in favor of plaintiff who got a verdict of $24. Court then adjourned. Prothonotary Arner performed his new and rather arduous duties in excellent style, and received many compliments for the ease with which he got along that you get the genuine Dr. Bull with the business. -By the act of June 13, 1887, the what there is laying around loose for governor is authorized to appoint one an energetic young man, chock full of pupil in each county who may enjoy a bard day's work. He will locate in free scholarship for two years at the Pennsylvania Museum and School of Industrial Art at Philadelphia. The legislature appropriated $20,000 to this school, which is the only well established institute of the kind in the follow who manslaughtered - that's United States. Instruction is given in designing and weaving the various textile fabrics and other industrial arts, and the school new has about 200 pupils. Appointments have been made in a number of counties but none, so far as we are informed, in Venango, and there is therefore an apparent opportunity for some young man or woman to secure the benefits of a valuable industrial education.-Blizzard. The same will apply to Forest county.

-A terrible tragedy took place in Bradford yesterday forencon. George A. Kimball rushed into the National Bank, flourished a revolver in the face of the cashier, Mr. T. H. Tomlinson and demanded money. Being refused be jumped over the counter, grabbed a package of money containing over $600, and when the cashier tried to intercept him, he fired a 38 cal. revolver at him, the ball entering just above the left hip and came out on the opposite side. The thief then rushed out and down the street when several parties pursued. Finding that he was about to be taken he turned and fired upon the nearest man, a butcher named L. Blich, the ball entering the abdomen on the left side and going diagonally through the bowels, came out at the right of the spine. Being still further pursued and finding escape impossible, he placed the revolver to his forehead and fired, killing himself almost instantly. The two wounded men were in a critical condition at last accounts, with only slight chances of recovery. Some think that Kimball was insane.

"The Social Glass."

was produced by home talent the pop- bottle. ular temperance drama, "The Social Glass." The play portrays the old story of fortune, domestic happiness and a prospective happy future, blighted and ruined as a result of the "innocent social glass." The chain of crimes, plottings, intrigue, debauchery, murder and suicide, each very properly follow in the train of character illustrations, while tragic, in contrast with attractive tableauxs and select music by the cornet band presented the large and interested audience from going out to get fresh air and "take a smile" between the acts. the reader; it is worse than useless, because it is misleading. The Lumberman has information to sell at the rate of $4.00 per year for 18 or 50 naces per week. It has information to sell at the rate of $2.00 per year for 18 or 20 pages per week. It gives more pages of reading matter, outside of its advertising—the full number running from 40 to 48 pages each week—than any other journal published at the same price in the world. They contain substantially all the lumber news, and the substantially all the lumber news, and the weekly reviews of the markets south and west, north and south, are indispensable to any lumberman who cares to keep posted on current events. Its advertising pages contain more valuable information than is given in all the pages of many lumber journals, so-called. As a matter of fact, its advertising pages are of the utmost value to all users of wood-working machinery, as they form a complete catalogue of the latest and best of all the modern devices used in lumber manufacturing.
