Mrs. F. M. Small of Petrolia, is paying Tionesta friends a visit.

Mr. Fred. Shultz, one of Tionesta township's industrious farmers was one of our callers yesterday.

Robins, bluebirds, crows and other spring birds were tuning up for the summer yesterday morning.

Col. Amster of Marienville, and R. W. Gupton of Guptonville, were Tionesta's guests yesterday.

Mr. J. W. Halliday, East Hickory's accommodating butcher, gave the REPUBLICAN a friendly call yesterday.

Stonewall correspondence to Derrick: Miss Artie Robinson, of Tionesta, Pa., is the guest of J. C. Cornwell and family.

The cellar for Mrs. Dr. Hunter's new residence is about excavated and Mason Joyce will commence the stone work forthwith.

Mr. Isaac Jones of Trunksville, one of the REPUBLICAN's old and valued friends, gave us a short but pleasant call Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Agnew have invited a large number of the young friends of their son Mac, to assist in celebrating his 21st birthday next Friday evening.

Tramps are getting suspiciously numerous hereabouts of late. Can it be that Tionesta is putting up too good "chuck"? That kind of treatment will draw like a mustard plaster.

Attention is directed to the new ad of Nelson Greenland, Warren's flourishing furniture dealer. Mr. G. is always ready to back up just what he advertises to do. "And don't you forget it."

Mr. N. R. Groves, who is now stationed at Tarentum, was called home to Balltown last week by the sickness of one of his children. He thinks he may move his family to Tarentum this Summer.

Mr. W. S. Baldwin, formerly General Passenger Agent of the W. N. Y. & P. R., and at one time a citizen of Tionesta, has received the appointment of Pacific coast agent of the Vanderbilt system, with headquarters in San Francisco.

Alexander Hilands, one of the early settlers of this section, and well and favorably known to our older class of citizens, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. A. G. Smith, at Mountain Home, Idaho Territory, on the 8th inst., aged 78 years.

Mrs. Elizabeth, wife of Josiah Mealy, died at her home in Hickory township, this county, on Friday, March 16, 1888, at the age of 61 years and 10 months. The deceased was a highly esteemed lady, and is missed and mourned by all her neighbors.

A set of eight-hundred dollar fractional sets passed through town yesterday intended for Messrs. Collins & Watson's new mill on Little Conn creek. These gentlemen will have a very sleek lumbering establishment when once in proper running order.

By a copy of the Bathgate Democrat we observe that R. D. Hoskins has donated the legal harness, and will hereafter thump the daylight out of Blackstone, and read the air with eloquence in behalf of his clients in the courts of Pembina county, Dakota. Success, Rob.

Mr. W. R. Hasselbeck, of the extensive lumber firm of Jackson, Matson & Co., Penokee, Forest county, was in town Monday and reports his firm doing a large business this winter. They will take out 2,500,000 feet of hemlock and 700,000 feet of hard lumber this season.—Clarion Democrat.

Billy's many friends hereabouts are always pleased to hear of his success.

"The Union Scout," which was to have held the boards at Skating Rink

Hall this and to-morrow evening, is "off," owing to some of the performers refusing to perform. This is to be regretted as the play promised to be well patronized and a success all round. The play will likely be given at some future date.

Ed. Hamilton, who has been hauling oak lumber for Dingman & Derickson during the past winter had one of his horses killed on the hill across the creek, last Saturday. Both horses were crowded over the embankment by the loaded wagon, which was somewhat damaged, but one horse escaped serious injury.

J. M. Corbett Esq., a former Tionesta citizen, comes in for a seat at Grover's civil service table, having lately been appointed Register of the Government Land office at Grand Forks, Dakota, a rather fat posish. Jim's life long democracy has not been entirely in vain, and his friends will be glad to learn that lightning has struck in his direction.

The auditors of Tionesta township publish their report of the financial standing in this issue, which is a very sensible move, and will save those interested the trouble and inconvenience of hunting on the trees of the township for the information they are entitled to. Every township should publish its reports in this way, and then the taxpayers could scan them at their leisure, and not be compelled to stand out in the cold for two or three hours trying to decipher a report that has been almost obliterated by the elements.

Mrs. Josephine Kerr, wife of Mr. C. B. Kerr, died at her home in Barnett township, this county on the 15th inst., after an illness of about two months. She was a daughter of Mr. W. C. Hottel and was aged 30 years, 1 month and 15 days, and besides the husband leaves two small children and a host of friends to mourn her loss. Mrs. Kerr was an exemplary Christian wife and mother, beloved by all who knew her, and her death has cast a gloom over the entire community. Rev. Delo of Clarion, conducted the funeral on Saturday last, which was one of the most largely attended of any ever held in the village of Clarion.

Mr. A. B. Root called on the REPUBLICAN yesterday morning and had some posters printed announcing the disposal of his farming implements and machinery at public sale on next Wednesday, 28th inst. He expects to start for Washington Territory on or about April 17th, and as quite a number have signified their intention of joining him, he thinks it would be a good idea to arrange matters so as to leave on that date. If enough can be gotten together to make a car load it would be much better for all concerned; while the actual fare will be no less, the comfort and convenience of having a car all to themselves to the end of the journey would be considerable. The new colony has our best wishes for their future prosperity.

For some time past Mr. Daniel Andrews of Hickory township, a former Tionesta resident, has been troubled with a sort of tumor on his left leg below the knee, caused by a gunshot wound received in the war. At first it was not considered a serious matter, but it became so bad that Dr. Siggins removed the tumor in the hope of curing it. Still Mr. Andrews got no relief, and yesterday Dr. Siggins performed the critical operation of amputating the leg above the knee as the only hope of saving the patient's life. He was assisted by Dr. Webber of East Hickory, and Mr. Andrews is said to have come out of the painful operation very nicely, and at last accounts was doing well. We grieve with Daniel's many friends hereabouts in his great misfortune, and hope he may experience no further trouble.

Two prisoners by the name of Cook and Mason, broke out of the Clarion jail, on Tuesday, and after a terrible struggle with Turkey Anderson, Mason was recaptured, but Cook made his escape. In the afternoon they were both locked up in the same cell, and managed to file the lock and get into the corridor. At 7:30 the Turkeys opened the door and went inside the jail, supposing the prisoners were locked in the cells. One of them struck the Turkeys on the head with a bottle, knocking him down, but in the melee that followed he managed to hold on to Mason, and succeeded in locking him up. Cook is an ex-convict, and has been in the penitentiary four terms, aggregating about eight years. He is a small man, weighs about 140 pounds, black hair, large black eyes, and heavy dark moustache. Sheriff Wheelock has offered a reward of $50 for his apprehension.

A Peddler Robbed.

Thursday night last Morris Mintz, well known to most of the people of this section, was robbed of about $500 worth of goods, consisting of clothing, dry goods, blankets, boots, shoes, etc. On the evening in question he stopped with Squire C. H. Church, at East Hickory, and put his wagon in Mr. C.'s barn. Next morning at 5 o'clock he discovered that it had been rifled and goods to the above amount taken, while many articles which the thieves seemed to have no use for were scattered about the barn floor. Enough goods were said to have been taken to have made a small wagon load. Search was made, but no clue discovered until Saturday evening following, when a Mr. Fitch found the goods in a peculiar manner. He was out hunting, and when in a ravine called Punky Hollow scared up a pheasant which lit a short distance away. Following the bird to a brush heap he stooped to look under the brush when his eye caught sight of the blankets. Upon further search all of the missing goods, save about $50 worth, were recovered. As to the robbers no clue has as yet been found.

HERE AND THERE.

Horace Greeley used to say that an editor was a good editor, not because of what he put into his paper, but because of what he kept out of it.

Peterson's Magazine for April comes, as usual, among the very earliest of the month's periodicals, and is one of the most interesting and welcome. The steel-plate, wood-engravings, and dress-patterns are all of superior merit, and the literary portion of the magazine deserves the highest praise. This friend of countless households for so many years is still as thoroughly to be depended on as when it began its popular career. It never fails, each twelvemonth, to bring forward new attractions in its literary, fashion, and household departments. It is a first-class magazine, up to the needs of the time in every respect, and this is the secret of its ever-growing popularity. Terms, two dollars a year. Address Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.

Washington county is trying to break the oil market with a new well that flows 2,000 barrels a day. Washington county spouters have a poor reputation for staying qualities, however, and the market does not stagger much. The truth about the matter seems to be that until the Ohio oil becomes a factor in the petroleum market by allowing itself to be refined to an extent that a cultivated nose can stay in the same township with it a good many wells like the Washington spouter will be required to send the price down much. The shut-down movement is a success, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding, and the surplus stocks are being reduced at the rate of a million barrels a month. While this continues the price of oil will advance rather than recede.—Philadelphia Times.

"These little girls across the street, never go out mamma. They look from the window all day long. I wonder why they don't play out as we do?" "Oh! they're very much to be pitied—their poor mother never has heard of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup."

let that cold of yours run on. You think it is a light thing. But it may run into catarrh, or into pneumonia, or into consumption. Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself. The breathing apparatus must be kept healthy and clear of all obstructions and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead.

All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Boschee's German Syrup. If you don't know this already, thousands and thousands of people can tell you. They have been cured by it, and "know how it is, themselves." Bottle only 75 cents. Ask any druggist.

That old established cough remedy, Down's Elixir, still more than holds its own in the public estimation, despite sharp and active competition. It is a "home remedy," and in this locality needs no words of praise from us, so well and favorably known is it. It is the standard remedy for coughs, colds and all throat troubles, with great numbers of our people, and their continued use and unsolicited recommendation of it speaks volumes in its favor.—Burlington, Vt. Free Press, January 26, 1882. For sale by G. W. Bovard.

WHO PAYS THE BILLS.

Who pays the bills? Who feeds the drunkard's hungry children? Who provides for the drunkard's broken-hearted wife? Who supports the beggarly tramps, who, having wasted their money in drink, wander about the country? Who repairs the losses caused by the failure of intemperate merchants and reckless and half-intoxicated business men? Who makes good the damages caused by the blunders of drunken workmen, and the hindrances of business caused by spies of intemperate employes? Who pays for the railroad wrecks caused by drunken conductors and engineers? Who builds the asylums where crazy drunkards are kept? Who supports the idiotic children of drunken men? Who pays the attorneys and juries and judges who try drunken criminals? Who pays the expenses of trials and commitments and executions occasioned by the crimes of drunken men? Who builds and supports almshouses, which but for drink might remain unoccupied? Who endures the sufferings and losses and brutality, which are due to the recklessness and insanity of drunkard husbands and fathers? Who pays for the requests held out by drunkards found dead by the wayside? Who pays for a pauper's coffin and for digging a drunkard's grave in the putter's field, when the last glass had been drunk?

Who pays the bills? The drunkard cannot, for he has wasted his substance in his cup. Will the rumeller pay them? The fact is, you and I, and the sober and industrious toiling portion of the community, must meet all these bills. The drunken rowdy, wounded in the street fight, is cared for in the city hospital at our expense; the drunken beggar is fed from our table; his hungry children come to our doors for bread; and we cannot refuse assistance to his suffering wife; and when at last, having "wasted his substance in riotous living," he comes to the almshouse, the asylum, the hospital, or the prison, honest, sober, temperate men pay the bills for supporting him there. There is no escaping it. We may protest, we may grumble at taxes, and find fault with beggars, but ultimately and inevitably we must foot the bills.—New England Evangelist.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Tex., says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life." Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters. This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c. and $1.00 at G. W. Bovard's Drug Store.

DON'T EXPERIMENT.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at G. W. Bovard's Drug Store.
