

The recent demonstrations of Senator Sherman's strength among the Ohio Republicans calls for another storm of bloody shirt bowls from the Bourbon organs.

Mr. George William Curtis announces in the current issue of Harper's Weekly that he has arrived at his opinion of Cleveland's achievements in behalf of Civil Service Reform.

The unity and activity which prevail among the Republicans of the Erie District are full of danger for the Free-trade monopolist who now misrepresents that constituency in Congress.

The rumor that the President hesitates to appoint Minister Phelps to the chief justiceship lest it cost him the Irish vote in his struggle for re-election is, true or untrue, an interesting bit of political gossip.

It is interesting to note that the monuments to be erected on the Gettysburg battle-field are in good taste and high art. The time will come when not only every regiment that took part in the battle will be represented, but every State will have its individual monument to honor the part its sons took in the deciding fight of the rebellion.

The Canadian statesmen who were "actually dumfounded" by the news that the fisheries treaty had been adversely reported by the committee of the American Senate have only themselves to blame for it.

The New York Assembly has passed a bill to substitute electricity for the noose as a means of capital punishment. Judging from the results of the various fatal accidents which have followed the introduction of electricity of late years, and the suddenness with which death has ensued on exposure to the current, the change proposed promises to rob capital punishment of much that has been objectionable.

That able Administration organ the Washington Post is probably very close to the truth when it says that "the Dependent Pensions bill is dead so far as the present session is concerned." And it might have added with equal truthfulness that the measure has been buried by Democratic trickery to save Mr. Cleveland from the unpleasant alternative of stultifying himself by signing it or defeating himself by vetoing it.

A movement in Jefferson county to make Solicitor General Jenks the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Twenty-first District has been ended by Mr. Jenks, who says that he would not only not accept a nomination, but wouldn't serve if elected. The Democrats could have no hope of carrying the district, and whether Mr. Jenks cares to be in Congress or not—and he is much better off where he is—he has shown that he does not propose to waste himself that way.

The conferees of this 28th Congressional district, met at Ridgway on Friday last for the purpose of selecting Delegates and Alternates to the Republican National Convention, and nominating an Elector for the district.

He took for his purpose thirty-eight, aged from nine to fifteen, and carefully examined them. In twenty-seven he discovered injurious traces of the habit. In twenty-two there were various disorders of the circulation and digestion, palpitation of the heart, and a more or less taste for strong drink. In twelve there were frequent bleedings of the nose, ten had disturbed sleep, and twelve had slight ulceration of the mucous membrane of the mouth, which disappeared on ceasing the use of tobacco for some days.

The doctor treated them all for weakness, but with little effect until the smoking was discontinued, when health and strength were soon restored.

In his suit brought against the Adams Express Co, for illegal detention and bad treatment, Messenger Fotheringham, got a verdict for $20,000. His case has been a somewhat famous one, and his innocence was fully and completely established, even by those who confessed the crime of robbing the express company of $63,000, for which they are now serving sentences. The public will applaud his brave defense of his character and rejoice that the shadow which threatened to rest upon his name through life has been dissipated. In vindicating his name he has won a far greater victory and one of much more value to him than the money damages he will receive.

A CORRESPONDENT writing from Washington under recent date gives this pointer: "I had an interesting conversation to-day with one of the shrewdest Republican politicians in the country on the political situation. In conclusion he said: 'The masses of the Republican party in whatever State you may go, have but one candidate for the Presidency, the politicians have many, one for nearly every State in the Union, but no one of them is strong enough to spread out into more than one or two States at one and the same time. Only a little more than two months remain before the nominating convention meets, so that the chances are that when the convention meets the Republican sentiment will remain practically as it is to-day. What will be the result? It does not take a very long headed man to tell. There will be a ballot or two, in which all the 'favorite sons' will receive complimentary votes, then the convention will proceed to carry out the wishes of nine tenths of the party by nominating the most popular man in America, James G. Blaine.'"

When the queen of Madagascar shut up the saloons in her kingdom and the ex-saloon-keepers asked for compensation she replied: "Compensate those whom you have wronged, and I will pay the balance."

A lady writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "Our city is drowned in whisky, and the papers suppress the facts systematically." This in consequence of the defeat of the temperance people at the last election.

There is a great boom in the type-writing business since Major Pond married his private secretary, Miss Glass. It is hoped and believed that the major will never be convinced that he has taken one Glass too much.

and, fifteen cents a day for tobacco, beer, and cigars, who, should he put the same amount of money into an endowment policy of life insurance payable to his wife at the expiration of fifteen or twenty years, would find that this endowment policy would be worth more to his family at the end of that time than he, himself, would be, should he continue these habits."

The National Temperance Hospital (Chicago) Quarterly says: We are preparing a Hospital Roller for home use somewhat similar in form to the Sileent Comforter. Instead of texts, however, it will contain a list of simple non-alcoholic remedies for ordinary emergencies, thus answering the question continually coming, "What shall we do in such and such cases?" It should have a place in every W. C. T. U. home.

NORTHWESTERN LUMBERMAN

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT 388-319 DEARBORN ST., CHICAGO, BY W. B. JUDDSON. TERMS, ONE YEAR, $4; SIX MONTHS, $2, IN ADVANCE.

THE LUMBERMAN is published in the interest of its subscribers; consequently it is a CURIOSITY in modern trade journalism. No advertiser can buy a line in its editorial or news pages. That is what makes it the best advertising medium in the world. A journal in which every other paragraph is a paid "write up," or illustrated puff, is absolutely worthless to the reader; it is worse than useless, because it is uninteresting. The Lumberman has information to sell at the rate of $4.50 per year for 18 or 20 pages per week. It gives more pages of reading matter, outside of its advertising, than the full number running from 40 to 48 pages each week, than any other journal published at the same price in the world. They contain substantially all the lumber news, and the weekly review of the markets south and west, north and south, are indispensable to any lumberman who cares to keep posted on current events. Its advertising pages contain more valuable information than is given in all the pages of many lumber journals, so-called. As a matter of fact, its advertising pages are of the utmost value to all users of wood-working machinery, as they form a complete catalogue of the latest and best of all the modern devices used in lumber manufacturing. Send for it.
