LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

The Rural House is being handsomely re-painted.
Squire Solley of Balltown was on our streets yesterday.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

The dwelling house of Conrad Paul, half a mile below Newtown Mills, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

If reports are true Grant Erb, known to many of our readers, met with a very bad accident on Monday of this week.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

The body of James M. Laughlin, an account of whose strange disappearance while fishing on Hemlock creek near President, appeared in the REPUBLICAN of last week.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

The sale of the well known Daniel Huddleson farm on Warrant 2826, in the southern portion of Tionesta township, did not take place as advertised on the 12th ult.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Friday and Saturday of last week were the hottest of the season. On the latter day the thermometer is reported to have registered 89° in the shade.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Mr. D. W. Clark of this place is announced as a candidate for Congress in the Vindicator of last week.

From a private letter from Dr. M. B. Cook, we learn that he is connected with Dr. Harrington, one of the leading physicians of Buffalo, N. Y., and his former friends here will be pleased to hear that he has gotten well established in his profession, and enjoys a lucrative practice.

Forest fires were raging on the surrounding hills during the week past. It should be remembered that a recent law fixes quite a severe penalty for the wilful or careless setting of fire to forest lands, and those who have clearings to burn off should carefully guard against any spread of the fire to adjacent woods.

Rev. Hickling preached his farewell sermon to his congregations at Tylersburg and Scotch Hill on Sabbath last. He has ministered to the people of those places for several years, but the charges being so scattered, he was obliged on account of delicate health to relinquish his connection therewith.

This evening being the first monthly meeting in May of Stow Post, the veterans will likely appoint their committees and make preparations for the proper celebration of Memorial Day, which occurs on the 30th inst.

The dwelling house of Conrad Paul, half a mile below Newtown Mills, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last. Mr. Paul succeeded in saving about all of his household goods, and will rebuild at once.

If reports are true Grant Erb, known to many of our readers, met with a very bad accident on Monday of this week. He and his father are lumbering on West Hickory creek, near the Maoross farm and the reports say he had both legs broken above the knees by a log rolling over him.

The body of James M. Laughlin, an account of whose strange disappearance while fishing on Hemlock creek near President, appeared in the REPUBLICAN of last week, was found by Mr. Henry Mealy last Saturday, lying face downward on an unopened road about two miles from Speechley.

The sale of the well known Daniel Huddleson farm on Warrant 2826, in the southern portion of Tionesta township, did not take place as advertised on the 12th ult., but will be offered for sale on the 21st of this month, court week.

Friday and Saturday of last week were the hottest of the season. On the latter day the thermometer is reported to have registered 89° in the shade. A right smart beginning for so early in the season.

Mr. D. W. Clark of this place is announced as a candidate for Congress in the Vindicator of last week. The Democrats of this district might go farther and fare much worse for a candidate, and if we must have a Democrat to represent us, why give us a Forest county man.

The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kelly on Thursday evening of last week, was attended by upward of a hundred happy guests, and the elegant parlors of Mr. Kelly's fine mansion teemed with the beauty and grace of our populace, while many from a distance assisted in the charming festivities.

The REPUBLICAN was twenty years old last week, and to-day enters upon its second score. We are not ashamed of its past record, and trust its readers may have no reason to be in the future. It has stood the storm very well for two decades, and long since established itself as one of the fixtures of Forest county.

Among the pleasant events of the past week was the culmination in marriage, of the happy relations which have for some time existed between District Attorney P. M. Clark and Miss Emma Baker of Tionesta.

Neuralgia, rheumatism, erysipelas, tumors, swellings, sore throat, toothache and all other pains and aches are promptly cured by Salvation Oil.

The Free Methodist brethren are having a revival meeting at Whig Hill. Last Sabbath evening Rev. Tobey preached a good gospel sermon, taking for his subject, "Man's responsibility to God."

Coony Paul's house at Newtown, Kingsley twp., burned down Thursday last. About all its contents were saved.

We understand the schools at Braceville and Beaver Valley, both in this township, will open on the first Monday of May, with the former teachers, Miss Turner and Mrs. Catlin at the helm.

As an evidence that "spring's come" we hear the frogs "asingin' in the trees." J. M. and Doc. Zoendel are working E. Sibble's farm this season.

Miss Carrie Ahlers is not improving in health as fast as her friends could wish, but Dr. Smith is sanguine of her ultimate recovery.

What's ailing "Juneberry." "Munich" and "Mossback" will neither trouble him nor his girl. "Sullivan's" continued absence from here is hard to account for.

Misses Minnie and Maud Ikenburg spent last Sabbath with their sister at Foxcreek. Preaching in the school house last Sabbath afternoon.

Capt. H. H. Cumings of Tidioute, will inspect Capt. Geo. Stow Post at the regular meeting on Wednesday evening, May 10. Let there be a good attendance of the comrades, and as far as possible be in uniform for the occasion.

Full blood, S. C. brown Leghorn eggs, 75c per setting of 13 eggs. A few settings of choice meetings, S. C. brown Leghorns at $1.00 per setting. E. S. Hoyt, Tionesta, mech-73m.

During the next 30 days I will pay the railroad fare from Tionesta or Hickory to Tidioute and return to any one ordering one dozen or more cabinet photos. H. W. CLARK, Photographer, Tidioute, Pa. April 16, 1888.

Give us a Rast.

Under the above caption the Bazaar of Saturday winds up its unreliable morning contemporary in this most approved manner:

The Derrick publishes what purports to be a letter from one who witnessed the Everhart tragedy and knows the murderer, but is not yet ready to name them. There will be no hesitation on the part of anyone in concluding that the letter was written in the Derrick office—not necessarily because it creates the suspicion that the real Everhart murderer is connected with the Derrick office, but because the letter is so plainly bogus that it will deceive none but the most credulous.

"I am a stranger," says the writer of the letter, "in the vicinity of the Everhart Murder & am about to make a statement which I have longed for an opportunity to make." How very probable the confessional statement that follows! Also how broad the insinuation that the "correspondent" has been pained because circumstances over which he has had no control have prevented him from reporting sooner, not to the officers of the law, nor to the friends of the murdered woman, but direct to headquarters—that is to say, to the Derrick. The inference here intended to be conveyed that the legal authorities and the balance of humanity are of trifling importance in comparison with the Derrick, is both pleasant and natural.

The "correspondent's" letter was dated at "Bradford, Meane co." we may expect to find in to-day's Era something like this in a last night special from Oil City: "A Bradford correspondent of the Derrick will say to-morrow, etc. etc. And so on ad libitum, ad nauseam, and "rats." After the Derrick's very clear account of the capture and jailing of one Everhart murderer, who was not arrested at all, we should think it would be able to give the Everhart business (and its readers) a rest for a while on bogus information and communications.

HERE AND THERE.

A newspaper in its time publishes many things—good, bad and indifferent, and it would be strange indeed were it not to offend somebody occasionally; indeed, the only wonder is that it does not offend everybody,—and some papers do.—(Blitz-zer.)
