REAL ESTATE AGENT, TIONESTA, PA. LANDS BOUGHT AND SOLD ON COMMISSION

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station. NORTH. SOUTH. Train 28..... 7:37 am Train 33..... 9:14 am

Church and Sabbath School. Presbyterian Sabbath School at 9:45 a. m. M. E. Sabbath School at 10:30 a. m.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS. Oil market closed yesterday 85c. Opening this morning at 85 1/2c.

Juneberries are in blossom. The small boy is happy. The borough schools closed for the term on Monday.

Hon. C. A. Randall of this place, is this week announced as a candidate for Assembly, subject to Republican usages.

Decorations Day is fast approaching. Stow Post will put forth extra exertions toward a proper observance of the day here this year.

Rudolph Strucken has disposed of his property at Tylersburg, and moved to Tionesta, occupying part of Mrs. Partridge's house.

Commander Irwin has procured some extra decorations for Decoration Day music, entirely new pieces, which in the hands of our local singers will furnish quite an attraction to the programme.

The attention to Grant Erb, mention of which was made in our last, was not so serious as at first reported. Only one of his limbs was fractured, instead of both, his friends will be pleased to learn.

The third general quarterly meeting for the Oil City district of the F. M. Church, will commence at Franklin, to-morrow evening, and continue over the Sabbath. R. W. Hawkins, Chairman, presiding.

Mrs. T. C. Jackson has sold her lot on Front street, to Mr. Simon Grove, of Oil City, brother of our townsman Joseph Grove. It is Mr. G.'s intention to build—perhaps this summer—and move his family here.

The Venango, Warren, McKean and Cameron county Congressional conference met at Warren last Friday, and after twelve or fourteen ballots, adjourned without making a nomination. They will meet and try it again to-day at Kane.

Mr. and Mrs. George Holeman are called to mourn the loss of their infant daughter, a child of six months, which died on Thursday morning last of brain fever, and was buried on Friday last. The bereaved parents have the tender sympathy of all.

Samuel Bush, who has for many years resided a mile or two below New Braska, on Tionesta creek, loaded his family and household effects on a raft and floated down the Allegheny. He expects to go as far as Mahoning, where he will make his future home.

We had quite an exciting time at our house last night. "Ah, what was the matter?" "Why our fourth floor lodger called out in the middle of the night: 'Won't somebody get me a bottle, quick please?' 'Whiskey, I asked? 'No, no—Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.'"

Chris Rafferty met with an accident at Marienville, this county, on Tuesday of last week, which deprives him of part of his left foot. While scoring timber for a building his ax slipped in such a manner as to strike the inside of his foot severing it entirely from the joint of the great toe back to the instep.

The Titusville Gas Co. has a rig up on the east side of the river, directly opposite Trunkeyville, this county, on what is known as the Mercantile Oil Co. lands, and expect to commence drilling the first of the week. They are drilling for gas, but should they strike a hundred barrel well, or such a matter, will not plug it.

Thursday morning shortly after 11 o'clock the remains of the late Mrs. A. H. Steele were brought by special train to the city for interment in Woodlawn. The Rev. L. D. Lamkin and M. D. Kneeland officiated at the grave. A number of friends and members of the Woman's Relief Corps met the remains at the depot.—Titusville Citizen.

Meeting of the Republican County Committee.

The late Chairman of the Republican County Committee, C. M. Shawkey Esq., having removed from the County, and the undersigned having acted as Chairman pro tem. at the last meeting, he issues a call for a meeting of the Republican County Committee, at the Court House, in Tionesta, on Monday evening, May 21, 1888, to make arrangements for the primary elections in the County, the election of a Chairman for the year, and other business of importance. A full attendance is desired.

SAMUEL D. IRWIN, Chairman pro tem.

Mrs. G. S. Lacy, mother of Geo. J. and Fred C. Lacy, of Golens Mills, this county, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Strahan, Erie, Pa., on Thursday last week, and was buried on Sabbath following.

Mrs. Lacy had been in failing health for some time. She was a most excellent lady, loved and honored by all who knew her, and the news of her death will prove a sad blow to her large circle of friends in this section. Mrs. Lacy was aged 69 years.

Another business block is building in Tionesta. Geo. Raab, the barber, is erecting on his lot, opposite Herman & Siggins' store, a substantial building to be used as a barber shop and billiard hall combined. The building will be 19x70 feet in dimensions, with flat roof, and besides being well adapted to the business for which it is intended, will add to the business appearance of the town. Mr. Raab will put in four or five billiard tables, and will arrange the front into a tasty and neat barber shop, expecting to put in another chair if the trade demands it.

On Friday and Saturday of this week the centennial of the settlement of Crawford county will be appropriately celebrated at Meadville, where the first settlement was made in 1788. The ceremonies will embrace a military and civic parade, historical addresses, and on the second day the statue of a pioneer erected on the square in Meadville will be unveiled. Every preparation has been made to give the celebration a character and consequence which it deserves to have. Crawford has become one of the great counties of the State, and Meadville is the center of a wealthy, intelligent and thrifty a population as can be found anywhere.

A Derrick special from Pleasantville, dated yesterday, says: Grandfather Dryer, aged 81, was burned to a crisp at Skunk Hollow this morning about 8 o'clock. His son, John Dryer, went to work into the fields at daylight; at about 7 1/2 his wife took him his breakfast, leaving him alone up stairs in an old frame house. It is supposed that the fire originated either in the chimney or from the old man's pipe. The fire was discovered by Charles Foss and Peter Sawrey, but when they arrived at the house the flames had made such headway that they could not rescue him. John Dryer, who is a poor hard working farmer, loses everything, not a thing was saved from the fire and he had no insurance.

The borough council passed a resolution at its meeting on Monday evening last providing for the building of a walk on Walnut St., from the Central House corner to Vine St. Privilege was granted Geo. Raab to stripe the gas pole at corner of his lot with the national colors, which the same is to do service as a barber pole. At the suggestion of Councilman Irwin the board will take a view of the old frog pond next Saturday at 4 o'clock. We don't know exactly what it is proposed to do about the matter, but it would seem a great pity to destroy this old landmark entirely. The Burgess was directed to call the attention of the health officers to the duties devolving upon them by virtue of their appointment. This is a very wise suggestion and we hope will result in the abolishment of the practice of running sewer filth upon the streets, there to be evaporated by the sun.

Daniel Everhart Arrested. Daniel Everhart and James Horner of Lickingville, were arrested, the former on Sunday, and the latter on Saturday last, charged with the Everhart murder. Both parties were taken to Clarion and lodged in jail to await a hearing, which is fixed for May 24, before Squire McGregor, at East Brady, by whom the warrant was issued. Nothing new on the case has been given to the public, and whether or not the detective has any additional facts remains to be seen. Dan. is a step-son of the murdered woman.

Some of our most prominent citizens have been cured of rheumatism by means of standing by that wonderful pain-banisher, Salvation Oil. Sold by all druggists for twenty-five cents a bottle.

Another Clarion County Robbery.

Sunday forenoon last, while all the household were at Church, about two miles distant, the dwelling of Mr. Philip Wolf, a well-to-do farmer, living about two miles west of Newmarville, Clarion county, was entered by thieves through a window in the rear of the house. When the family returned they found the carpets torn up, a bureau and a trunk broken open, and the house generally ransacked. Two hundred and twenty dollars in money, which had been secreted in the trunk, were found missing. The thieves were evidently fond of the good things of this life, for they also visited the cellar where they confiscated a cake which it had doubtless been intended should do service at the dinner hour when the family returned. Whether or not more than one person was engaged in the theft is not known, neither were any clues left as to the perpetrator or perpetrators.

Hickory Township.

The Free Methodist brethren held a quarterly meeting at Whig Hill last Friday, Saturday and Sunday, which was presided over by Chairman Hawkins, and was quite well attended.

The M. E. quarterly meeting will be held at the same place next Friday and continue over the Sabbath.

Dr. Webber has about recovered from his recent injuries received in a runaway accident, and is again attending professional calls with his usual promptness.

A child of Judson Clark's, which was very low with scarlet fever, is recovering slowly.

We are not informed as to whether Mr. Clark intends to re-build his hotel or not.

Another well is being drilled about three quarters of a mile southwest of the big gasser, on the Davidson lot, by the same company which owns the Tidouite gas well. They are drilling for gas.

Memorial Day.

At the meeting of Stow Post, held at the Hall, May 2, 1888, the following proceedings were had with reference to the proper observance of Memorial Day. On motion of Comrade Morrow, Resolved, that the members of the post meet at Riverside Cemetery, Tionesta, previous to Memorial Day, to arrange and put in order the grounds, time to be announced by the Commander.

The Post then resolved itself into a committee of the whole to make necessary arrangements for the day. By a resolution the Presbyterian and Methodist choirs were cordially invited to sing verses and songs on the day. The Post Martial Band and the Tionesta Cornet Band, also invited to participate. The Sons of Veterans, Nick Thompson Camp, will also report for duty. The Sabbath schools, and the different Orders of the county were cordially invited to join us on the occasion.

The following committees were then appointed: To mark graves—Comrades S. S. Canfield, G. Carr, J. B. Eden. On program—Comrades G. W. Boward, S. S. Canfield, J. B. Agnew, D. W. Clark, S. D. Irwin.

It was then resolved that Comrades be selected to decorate graves in the different cemeteries of the county, on the morning of May 30. The following details were made: East Hickory—O. Byerly, J. G. Root, S. C. Whittemore. Church Hill—Wm. Albaugh, Parcus Copeland.

Whig Hill—G. S. Hindman, John H. Berlin, Jonas Shunk. Kelleetville—J. Humphrey Downing, Henry Groce, John Matha. Evangelical Church—C. Zuendel, S. J. Setley, Jas. Johnson.

Same detail as above for Bartholomew Church, German Hill. Mt. Zion—G. Huddleson, P. C. Blocher, Joseph Mong, and Fenstermaker. Clarington—John H. White, Jos. Landis, J. J. Greenawalt. Marienville—W. S. Davis, Peter Mercillotti, J. J. Parsons.

The committee on flowers, to consist of the young ladies and Sabbath school scholars of Forest county.

The Commander was instructed to invite the Rev. B. F. Feitt to preach the Memorial Sermon at Tionesta on the Sabbath preceding Memorial Day, and the several pastors of Tionesta and vicinity are invited to be present and assist in the services, as well as Church choirs. Particulars will be further announced in program.

The Post earnestly desires that every veteran who can possibly do so, will be in attendance, at all the ceremonies as well as the Sons of Veterans. Published by order of the Post, SAMUEL D. IRWIN, Commander.

Summer Straw Hats for Men, Boys and Misses at DEPARTMENT STORE. 2t.

A Pleasant Surprise.

At the close of the literary exercises Friday afternoon, April 27th, the scholars of Balltown school, after singing "The Old Arm Chair," presented their teacher, Mrs. A. DeLacy, with a beautiful rocker. Coming as it did, evidencing the esteem of both parents and scholars for the teacher, the present, valuable in itself, becomes doubly so as a souvenir of friendship. This is the second time the scholars of the school have honored their teacher in the way of making her the recipient of marks of their esteem. Last year they gave her a costly and elegant mirror. Whilst the gifts are valuable in themselves, far beyond their intrinsic worth the teacher values the motive of love inspiring the hearts of the donors, and when in the years coming on she is debared by age from the school room, she will sit in this beautiful chair and recall memories of pleasant days spent in the Balltown school.

HERE AND THERE.

While plowing, a few days ago, John Story, who resides near Dunbar, Pa., unearthed a revolutionary relic in the shape of a button. It is about an inch and a half in diameter, made of copper, and has the initials of George Washington, "G. W." within a circle in the center. He values it at $10.00.

An exchange says: "If we were to put a two line local in the most obscure corner of the paper, which stated that a certain business man charged more for his goods and kept a poorer grade than his competitors, that man would employ a bull-headed slugger to come around and kill us the next morning. But were we to ask the same man for an advertisement of his wares he would say 'no, I don't believe in advertising; no one reads the papers.'"

This is the way a contemporary defines it: An editor works 365 days per year to get out fifty-two issues of his paper; that's labor. Once in a while some one pays him for a year's subscription; that's capital. And once in a while some son of a gun of a dead beat takes the paper for a year or two and then vanishes without paying for it; that's anarchy. But later on justice will overtake the last named creature, for there is a place where he will get his deserts; that's hell.

Some newspaper scribe, with plenty of time on his hands, has figured the following: Put down in figures the year in which you were born; to this add 4; then add your age at your next birthday, provided it comes before January 1st, otherwise your age at last birthday; multiply result by 1,000; from this deduct 67,423; substitute for the figures corresponding letters of the alphabet, as A for 1, B for 2, C for 3, D for 4, etc. The result will give the name by which you are popularly known.

At Gresham, near Titusville, Monday night, three burglars entered the house of Mrs. Mary E. Reynolds. The lady was alone, but picked up a hatchet, and for a while pluckily kept the robbers at bay. One of the more adventurous, however, attempted to seize her, and was stricken senseless to the floor by a blow from the hatchet. He was hurriedly dragged from the house by his confederates, who made their escape. The wounded robber is lying at the point of death, at Hydettown. His skull is cracked and he cannot live.

Music filled the air and a crowd of men, boys and children our streets on last Tuesday evening, the sensation being the grand triumphal march of S. E. Elliott's prize band, headed by the Strattonville Cornet Band. The handsome and perfectly matched animals were recently purchased by Mr. Schott, for the City Meat Market, from Judge Proper of Tionesta, and have been admired by great throngs of spectators since they were brought to town, as they are said to be the finest pair of beef cattle ever seen in this part of the State. They are both red in color, have graceful forms and horns, are six years old and together tip the scales at 4205 pounds. They are in prime condition, were never worked and will produce some of the juiciest steaks, tenderloins and roasts ever eaten by our people. As the jumbo steers were paraded through the different streets Tuesday evening, headed by the Strattonville band playing lively airs, and each blanketed with a covering of white muslin on which the weight of each was plainly marked and followed by a small army of boys, the sensation created was such as is only equated by a first class circus parade.—[Clarion Democrat.]
