A MISSING COIN.

A bag of potatoes, but could you picture a bag of potatoes being referred to as a "missing coin"? It seems quite unusual.

“The owner of a bag of potatoes is reported to have lost it in the street. The bag is presumed to be lost, as the owner has not been able to locate it since that time.”

Butler.

WINE WORDS.

A wine lover's delight!

“Wine is the only beverage that can be both white and red. It is the only beverage that can be both sweet and sour. It is the only beverage that can be both hot and cold. It is the only beverage that can be both good and bad. It is the only beverage that can be both expensive and cheap. It is the only beverage that can be both simple and complex. It is the only beverage that can be both enjoyed and despised.”

Duty.

THE GREAT MINES OF NORTH AMERICA.

During the gold rush in the 19th century, the Great Mines of North America became a symbol of wealth and prosperity. The mines were rich in gold, silver, and other precious metals, attracting miners from around the world.

“The Great Mines of North America are a testament to the power of human ingenuity and determination. They are a reminder of the enduring allure of wealth and the pursuit of gold.”
